1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1966".

(2) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961-1966.

(3) The Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1965, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Reconsti-
tution of the Mine
Subsidence
Board.

2. (1) Upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette (which day is in this Act referred to as the "appointed day") the Mine Subsidence Board shall be reconstituted and shall consist of six members who shall be the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, and the persons appointed in accordance with paragraph (c) of that subsection.

(2) (a) Nothing contained in this section shall prejudice or affect in any way the continuity of the body corporate constituted under section five of the Principal Act but the same shall continue notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(b) The said body corporate shall continue and shall be deemed always to have continued notwithstanding that there are or have been at any time or times vacancies in the offices of all of the members of the body corporate or of any one or more of them.

(3) (a) For the purposes only of the appointment pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, of persons to be members of the Mine Subsidence Board as reconstituted under this section, and of any matters necessary for or incidental incidental to such appointment or reconstitution, the provisions of subsection four of this section shall commence on the day upon which the assent of Her Majesty to this Act is signified.

(b) The persons so appointed shall assume their offices as members of the Mine Subsidence Board upon the appointed day; and on that day the provisions of subsection four of this section shall come into force for all purposes.

(4) The Principal Act is amended—

(a) by omitting paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

of Act No.

amendment
of Act No.
22, 1961.
Sec. 2.
(Repeals.)

3. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

- (a) by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsection :—

(2) There is hereby vested in the Board all property, real and personal, vested at the commencement of this Act in the Mine Subsidence Board constituted by the Mine Subsidence Act, 1928, as amended by subsequent Acts, subject however to any trusts and liabilities attaching to that property.

Sec. 4.
(Interpretation.)

- (b) by inserting in section four next after the definition of "Shale" the following new definition :—

"Subdivide" and "subdivision" mean and refer to the dividing of land into parts, whether the dividing is—

- (a) by sale, conveyance, transfer or partition;
- (b) by any agreement, dealing or instrument inter vivos (other than a lease for a period not exceeding five years without option of renewal) rendering different parts thereof immediately available for separate occupation or disposition; or

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (c) by procuring the issue of a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of a part of the land;

but those expressions do not include any severance of land by the opening of a public road.

- (d) by inserting after section seven the following new section : — New sec.
7A.

7A. The Board may reconsider any matter which has been dealt with by it and may adhere to, rescind, alter or amend any decision previously made by it, but shall not rescind, alter or amend any such decision except with the consent in writing of the person in respect of whose claim or application the decision was given. Board may reconsider
matters.

- (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section eleven the words "The contributions payable by the proprietors of colliery holdings under this section shall be paid in such manner and at such times as may be prescribed."; Sec. 11.
(Contributions to be paid by colliery proprietors to Fund.)
- (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections : —

(2) The Board shall, in respect of each year, cause to be served, in accordance with subsection three of this section, on each proprietor of a colliery holding a notice in the prescribed form specifying the amount of his contribution for that year.

(3) Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding—

- (a) where the proprietor is an individual, if it is delivered to him personally or is sent by prepaid certified mail to his address last known to the Board; or
- (b)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (b) where the proprietor is a body corporate, if it is served in a manner authorised under the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts, for the service of documents on that body corporate.
- (4) If within a period of twenty-eight days after any such notice has, in accordance with subsection three of this section, been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding, the amount of his contribution specified in the notice has not been paid, he shall be deemed to be in arrears with his contributions and interest, at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Board from time to time for the purposes of this subsection, shall be paid by that proprietor in respect of the period from the expiration of the said period of twenty-eight days until the date of payment of that amount.
- (5) The Board may waive any interest payable under subsection four of this section.
- (6) Where a colliery holding is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for part only of a year, the person who was proprietor of that colliery holding during that part of the year shall contribute to the Fund in respect of that part such amount as bears to the amount that his contribution would have been had that holding been so registered for the whole of that year the same proportion as that part of that year bears to the whole of that year.
- (7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, where any contribution is required to be paid by a person pursuant to subsection six of this section in respect

respect of part only of a year and there is no unimproved capital value of that holding in force as at the thirtieth day of June in that year, the contribution shall be based—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection—on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding ascertained as at the day upon which the colliery holding was first registered in that year in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts; or

(b) where—

- (i) that part of the year includes the first day of January in that year; and

- (ii) the colliery holding was registered in accordance with those provisions continuously during the preceding year or continuously during part of the preceding year for a period ending on the thirty-first day of December in that preceding year—

on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding as last used for the purposes of this section,

or where some other basis is prescribed upon that other basis.

(8) In default of payment of any contribution or interest payable under this section, the Board may recover the amount of the contribution and interest or any outstanding portion thereof as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

Sec. 12.
(Claims for damage arising out of

- (e) by inserting at the end of subsection one of section twelve the following new paragraph :—

Where damage, caused by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale, to an improvement is greater, by reason of the negligent or improper manner in which the improvement was constructed or maintained, than it would have been had the improvement not been so constructed or maintained, the Board may reduce the amount of compensation in respect of the damage by such amount as it considers is attributable to the fact that the improvement was so constructed or maintained.

Sec. 13.
(Purchase of damaged improvements
and effecting of remedial works by Board.)

- (f) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

(a) agree with the owner of the improvements damaged by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale for the purchase of the improvements and the land on which the improvements are erected at a price not greater than the valuation determined, as at a date not more than one month before the date of the agreement, under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, without regard to any damage caused by such subsidence;

- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words “The Board may renovate, repair, reconstruct or carry out such other works as may be necessary to restore any property purchased by it under paragraph (a) of this subsection and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such property.”;

(iii)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsections :—

(1A) If within such time after a claim is made under section twelve of this Act as the Board considers reasonable, no agreement referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section has been entered into with the claimant in respect of damage to the improvements referred to in the claim, the Board may apply to the Minister for approval that he recommend to the Governor that the land on which the improvements are erected (together with the improvements) be acquired, and upon the Minister so recommending the Governor may appropriate or resume such land and improvements by notification in the Gazette pursuant to Division 1 of Part V of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and for the purposes of that Act, as so amended, such appropriation or resumption shall be deemed to be for the purpose of carrying out an authorised work and the Board shall be deemed to be the Constructing Authority within the meaning of that Act, as so amended :

Provided that sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall not apply in respect of the expenditure incurred on any acquisition under this subsection, but section thirty-eight of that Act, as so amended, shall apply to any contract in respect of any such acquisition.

(1B) The Board may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by it under subsection one or (1A) of this section.

- (g) (i) by inserting in subsection two of section fifteen after the word "erect" the words "or alter"; (ii) (g) (ii) by inserting in subsection two of section fifteen after the word "erect" the words "or alter"; (Mine Subsidence Districts.)

(Mine Subsidence Districts.)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "erection" the word ", alteration";
- (iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection : —

(2A) An application for approval to alter or erect improvements within a mine subsidence district or to subdivide land therein shall be made in the prescribed manner.

- (iv) by inserting in subsection three of the same section after the word "unconditionally" the words "or may refuse its approval";
- (v) by inserting in subsection five of the same section after the word "erected" the words "or altered";
- (vi) by inserting after the same subsection the following new subsections : —

(6) Where the approval of a responsible authority under a town or country planning scheme within the meaning of Part XIIA of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, is required for the erection or alteration of an improvement within a mine subsidence district or for the subdivision of any land therein, the Board may refuse an application for its approval to such erection, alteration or subdivision if the applicant for the approval has not produced to the Board the approval of that responsible authority to the erection, alteration or subdivision.

(7) Any person who does or causes to be done any work in connection with the erection or alteration of an improvement in a mine subsidence district without the approval of the Board or not in conformity with such an approval, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars and to a further penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each day

- (a) by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsection :—

(2) There is hereby vested in the Board all property, real and personal, vested at the commencement of this Act in the Mine Subsidence Board constituted by the Mine Subsidence Act, 1928, as amended by subsequent Acts, subject however to any trusts and liabilities attaching to that property.

Sec. 4.
(Interpretation.)

- (b) by inserting in section four next after the definition of "Shale" the following new definition :—

"Subdivide" and "subdivision" mean and refer to the dividing of land into parts, whether the dividing is—

- (a) by sale, conveyance, transfer or partition ;
- (b) by any agreement, dealing or instrument inter vivos (other than a lease for a period not exceeding five years without option of renewal) rendering different parts thereof immediately available for separate occupation or disposition ; or
- (c)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (c) by procuring the issue of a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of a part of the land;

but those expressions do not include any severance of land by the opening of a public road.

- (c) by inserting after section seven the following new section : — New sec.
7A.

7A. The Board may reconsider any matter which has been dealt with by it and may adhere to, rescind, alter or amend any decision previously made by it, but shall not rescind, alter or amend any such decision except with the consent in writing of the person in respect of whose claim or application the decision was given. Board may
matters.

- (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section eleven the words "The contributions payable by the proprietors of colliery holdings under this section shall be paid in such manner and at such times as may be prescribed."; Sec. 11.
(Contributions to be paid by colliery proprietors to Fund.)

- (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections : —

(2) The Board shall, in respect of each year, cause to be served, in accordance with subsection three of this section, on each proprietor of a colliery holding a notice in the prescribed form specifying the amount of his contribution for that year.

(3) Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding—

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

(b) where the proprietor is a body corporate, if it is served in a manner authorised under the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts, for the service of documents on that body corporate.

(4) If within a period of twenty-eight days after any such notice has, in accordance with subsection three of this section, been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding, the amount of his contribution specified in the notice has not been paid, he shall be deemed to be in arrears with his contributions and interest, at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Board from time to time for the purposes of this subsection, shall be paid by that proprietor in respect of the period from the expiration of the said period of twenty-eight days until the date of payment of that amount.

(5) The Board may waive any interest payable under subsection four of this section.

(6) Where a colliery holding is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for part only of a year, the person who was proprietor of that colliery holding during that part of the year shall contribute to the Fund in respect of that part such amount as bears to the amount that his contribution would have been had that holding been so registered for the whole of that year the same proportion as that part of that year bears to the whole of that year.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, where any contribution is required to be paid by a person pursuant to subsection six of this section in respect

respect of part only of a year and there is no unimproved capital value of that holding in force as at the thirtieth day of June in that year, the contribution shall be based—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection—on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding ascertained as at the day upon which the colliery holding was first registered in that year in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts; or

(b) where—

- (i) that part of the year includes the first day of January in that year; and
- (ii) the colliery holding was registered in accordance with those provisions continuously during the preceding year or continuously during part of the preceding year for a period ending on the thirty-first day of December in that preceding year—

on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding as last used for the purposes of this section,

or where some other basis is prescribed upon that other basis.

(8) In default of payment of any contribution or interest payable under this section, the Board may recover the amount of the contribution and interest or any outstanding portion thereof as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

Sec. 12.
(Claims for damage arising out of

- (e) by inserting at the end of subsection one of section twelve the following new paragraph :—

Where damage, caused by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale, to an improvement is greater, by reason of the negligent or improper manner in which the improvement was constructed or maintained, than it would have been had the improvement not been so constructed or maintained, the Board may reduce the amount of compensation in respect of the damage by such amount as it considers is attributable to the fact that the improvement was so constructed or maintained.

Sec. 13.
(Purchase of damaged improvements
and effecting of remedial works by Board.)

- (f) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

- (a) agree with the owner of the improvements damaged by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale for the purchase of the improvements and the land on which the improvements are erected at a price not greater than the valuation determined, as at a date not more than one month before the date of the agreement, under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, without regard to any damage caused by such subsidence;

- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "The Board may renovate, repair, reconstruct or carry out such other works as may be necessary to restore any property purchased by it under paragraph (a) of this subsection and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such property.";

(iii)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsections : —

(1A) If within such time after a claim is made under section twelve of this Act as the Board considers reasonable, no agreement referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section has been entered into with the claimant in respect of damage to the improvements referred to in the claim, the Board may apply to the Minister for approval that he recommend to the Governor that the land on which the improvements are erected (together with the improvements) be acquired, and upon the Minister so recommending the Governor may appropriate or resume such land and improvements by notification in the Gazette pursuant to Division 1 of Part V of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and for the purposes of that Act, as so amended, such appropriation or resumption shall be deemed to be for the purpose of carrying out an authorised work and the Board shall be deemed to be the Constructing Authority within the meaning of that Act, as so amended :

Provided that sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall not apply in respect of the expenditure incurred on any acquisition under this subsection, but section thirty-eight of that Act, as so amended, shall apply to any contract in respect of any such acquisition.

(1B) The Board may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by it under subsection one or (1A) of this section.

- (g) (i) by inserting in subsection two of section fifteen Sec. 15.
after the word "erect" the words "or alter"; (Mine
(ii) Subsidence Districts.)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

(ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "erection" the word ", alteration";

(iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection : —

(2A) An application for approval to alter or erect improvements within a mine subsidence district or to subdivide land therein shall be made in the prescribed manner.

(iv) by inserting in subsection three of the same section after the word "unconditionally" the words "or may refuse its approval";

(v) by inserting in subsection five of the same section after the word "erected" the words "or altered";

(vi) by inserting after the same subsection the following new subsections : —

(6) Where the approval of a responsible authority under a town or country planning scheme within the meaning of Part XIIA of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, is required for the erection or alteration of an improvement within a mine subsidence district or for the subdivision of any land therein, the Board may refuse an application for its approval to such erection, alteration or subdivision if the applicant for the approval has not produced to the Board the approval of that responsible authority to the erection, alteration or subdivision.

(7) Any person who does or causes to be done any work in connection with the erection or alteration of an improvement in a mine subsidence district without the approval of the Board or not in conformity with such an approval, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars and to a further penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each day

Sydney, 9 March, 1966.*

New South Wales

ANNO QUINTO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1966.

An Act to make further provision for and in respect of a scheme for the payment of compensation where improvements on the surface are damaged by subsidence following the extraction of coal or shale; to amend the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1965; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1966".

Short title
and citation.

(2) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961-1966.

(3) The Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1965, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. (1) Upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette (which day is in this Act referred to as the "appointed day") the Mine Subsidence Board shall be reconstituted and shall consist of six members who shall be the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, and the persons appointed in accordance with paragraph (c) of that subsection.

Reconsti-
tution of the Mine
Subsidence
Board.

(2) (a) Nothing contained in this section shall prejudice or affect in any way the continuity of the body corporate constituted under section five of the Principal Act but the same shall continue notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(b) The said body corporate shall continue and shall be deemed always to have continued notwithstanding that there are or have been at any time or times vacancies in the offices of all of the members of the body corporate or of any one or more of them.

(3) (a) For the purposes only of the appointment pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, of persons to be members of the Mine Subsidence Board as reconstituted under this section, and of any matters necessary for or incidental incidental to such appointment or reconstitution, the provisions of subsection four of this section shall commence on the day upon which the assent of Her Majesty to this Act is signified.

- 5 (b) The persons so appointed shall assume their offices as members of the Mine Subsidence Board upon the appointed day; and on that day the provisions of subsection four of this section shall come into force for all purposes.

(4) The Principal Act is amended—

- 10 (a) by omitting paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

Amendment
of Act No.
22, 1961.
Sec. 5.
(Appointment and constitution of the Board.)

(c) four persons appointed by the Governor being—

- 15 (i) a person nominated by the proprietors of colliery holdings;
- (ii) a person who shall be representative of local government or of the State Planning Authority of New South Wales and shall be nominated by the Minister for Local Govern-
- 20 ment;
- (iii) a person nominated by the Minister to represent the owners of improvements situated within mine sub-
- 25 sidence districts, not being improvements used in connection with the winning of coal or shale; and
- (iv) an officer of the Department of Public Works eligible to be a corporate member of The Institution of Engineers, Australia, nominated by the Minister for
- 30 Public Works.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (b) by omitting from the same subsection the words “as the representative of any class referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the member of the Board representative of such class may be appointed on the nomination of the Minister” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “under subparagraph (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (c) of this subsection, the Minister may nominate a person to be a member of the Board in the place of such first-mentioned person”.

3. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 22, 1961.

- (a) by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsection :—

Sec. 2.
(Repeals.)

- (2) There is hereby vested in the Board all property, real and personal, vested at the commencement of this Act in the Mine Subsidence Board constituted by the Mine Subsidence Act, 1928, as amended by subsequent Acts, subject however to any trusts and liabilities attaching to that property.

- (b) by inserting in section four next after the definition of “Shale” the following new definition :—

Sec. 4.
(Interpretation.)

“Subdivide” and “subdivision” mean and refer to the dividing of land into parts, whether the dividing is—

- (a) by sale, conveyance, transfer or partition;
- (b) by any agreement, dealing or instrument inter vivos (other than a lease for a period not exceeding five years without option of renewal) rendering different parts thereof immediately available for separate occupation or disposition; or

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

5 (c) by procuring the issue of a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of a part of the land;

but those expressions do not include any severance of land by the opening of a public road.

10 (c) by inserting after section seven the following new section : — New sec. 7A.

15 7A. The Board may reconsider any matter which has been dealt with by it and may adhere to, rescind, alter or amend any decision previously made by it, but shall not rescind, alter or amend any such decision except with the consent in writing of the person in respect of whose claim or application the decision was given. Board may reconsider matters.

20 (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section eleven the words "The contributions payable by the proprietors of colliery holdings under this section shall be paid in such manner and at such times as may be prescribed."; Sec. 11. (Contributions to be paid by colliery proprietors to Fund.)

25 (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections : —

30 (2) The Board shall, in respect of each year, cause to be served, in accordance with subsection three of this section, on each proprietor of a colliery holding a notice in the prescribed form specifying the amount of his contribution for that year.

(3) Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding—

(b)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

5 (b) where the proprietor is a body corporate, if it is served in a manner authorised under the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts, for the service of documents on that body corporate.

10 (4) If within a period of twenty-eight days after any such notice has, in accordance with subsection three of this section, been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding, the amount of his contribution specified in the notice has not been paid, he shall be deemed to be in arrears with his contributions and interest, at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Board from time to time for the purposes of this subsection, shall be paid by that proprietor in respect of the period from the expiration of the said period of twenty-eight days until the date of payment of that amount.

(5) The Board may waive any interest payable under subsection four of this section.

25 (6) Where a colliery holding is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for part only of a year, the person who was proprietor of that colliery holding during that part of the year shall contribute to the Fund in respect of that part such amount as bears to the amount that his contribution would have been had that holding been so registered for the whole of that year the same proportion as that part of that year bears to the whole of that year.

35 (7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, where any contribution is required to be paid by a person pursuant to subsection six of this section in respect

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

5 (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection—on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding ascertained as at the day upon which the 10 colliery holding was first registered in that year in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts; or

(b) where—

15 (i) that part of the year includes the first day of January in that year; and
(ii) the colliery holding was registered in accordance with those 20 provisions continuously during the preceding year or continuously during part of the preceding year for a period
25 ending on the thirty-first day of December in that preceding year—

on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding as last used for the purposes of this section,

30 or where some other basis is prescribed upon
that other basis.

(8) In default of payment of any contribution or interest payable under this section, the Board may recover the amount of the contri-35 bution and interest or any outstanding portion thereof as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (e) by inserting at the end of subsection one of section twelve the following new paragraph :—

Sec. 12.
(Claims for damage arising out of subsidence.)

5 Where damage, caused by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale, to an improvement is greater, by reason of the negligent or improper manner in which the improvement was constructed or maintained, than it would have been had the improvement not been so constructed or main-10 tained, the Board may reduce the amount of compensation in respect of the damage by such amount as it considers is attributable to the fact that the improvement was so constructed or maintained.

- (f) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

Sec. 13.
(Purchase of damaged improvements
and effecting of remedial works by
Board.)

15 (a) agree with the owner of the improvements damaged by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale for the purchase of the improvements and the 20 land on which the improvements are erected at a price not greater than the valuation determined, as at a date not more than one month before the date
of the agreement, under the Valuation 25 of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, without regard to any damage caused by such
30 subsidence;

(ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words
"The Board may renovate, repair, reconstruct or carry out such other works as may be necessary to restore any property purchased 35 by it under paragraph (a) of this subsection and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such property.";

(iii)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

(iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsections :—

5 (1A) If within such time after a claim is made under section twelve of this Act as the Board considers reasonable, no agreement referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section has been entered into with the claimant in respect of damage to the improvements referred to in the claim, the Board may 10 apply to the Minister for approval that he recommend to the Governor that the land on which the improvements are erected (together with the improvements) be acquired, and upon the Minister so recommending the Governor
15 may appropriate or resume such land and improvements by notification in the Gazette pursuant to Division 1 of Part V of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and for the purposes of that Act, as so 20 amended, such appropriation or resumption shall be deemed to be for the purpose of carrying out an authorised work and the Board shall be deemed to be the Constructing Authority within the meaning of that Act, as 25 so amended :

Provided that sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall not apply in respect of the expenditure incurred on any acquisition under this sub-30 section, but section thirty-eight of that Act, as so amended, shall apply to any contract in respect of any such acquisition.

35 (1B) The Board may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by it under subsection one or (1A) of this section.

body corporate.

10 (4) If within a period of twenty-eight days after any such notice has, in accordance with subsection three of this section, been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding, the amount of his contribution specified in the notice has not been paid, he shall be deemed 15 to be in arrears with his contributions and interest, at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Board from time to time for the purposes of this subsection, shall be paid by that proprietor in respect of the period from the expiration of the said period of twenty-20 eight days until the date of payment of that amount.

(5) The Board may waive any interest payable under subsection four of this section.

25 (6) Where a colliery holding is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for part only of a year, the person who was proprietor of that colliery holding during that part of the year shall con-30 tribute to the Fund in respect of that part such amount as bears to the amount that his contribution would have been had that holding been so registered for the whole of that year the same proportion as that part of that year 35 bears to the whole of that year.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, where any contribution is required to be paid by a person pursuant to subsection six of this section in respect

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

respect of part only of a year and there is no unimproved capital value of that holding in force as at the thirtieth day of June in that year, the contribution shall be based—

- 5 (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection—on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding ascertained as at the day upon which the colliery holding was first registered in 10 that year in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts; or

(b) where—

- 15 (i) that part of the year includes the first day of January in that year; and
20 (ii) the colliery holding was registered in accordance with those provisions continuously during the preceding year or continuously during part of the preceding year for a period ending on the thirty-first day
25 of December in that preceding year—

on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding as last used for the purposes of this section,

- 30 or where some other basis is prescribed upon that other basis.

- 35 (8) In default of payment of any contribution or interest payable under this section, the Board may recover the amount of the contribution and interest or any outstanding portion thereof as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 12.
(Claims for damage arising out of subsidence.)

5 Where damage, caused by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale, to an improvement is greater, by reason of the negligent or improper manner in which the improvement was constructed or maintained, than it would have been had the improvement not been so constructed or main-10 tained, the Board may reduce the amount of compensation in respect of the damage by such amount
as it considers is attributable to the fact that the improvement was so constructed or maintained.

- (f) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

MINE SUBSIDENCE COMPENSATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1966.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to reconstitute the Mine Subsidence Board so that it shall consist of six persons, namely, the Under Secretary, Department of Mines, the Chief Inspector of Coal Mines, and four persons appointed by the Governor;
- (b) to empower the Board to reconsider any matter previously dealt with by it and to rescind or to amend its previous decision with the consent of the person affected by it;
- (c) to require the proprietors of colliery holdings to pay their contributions under the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended, within twenty-eight days after notice of the amount of contribution has been served on them by the Board and to require the payment of interest on arrears of contributions;
- (d) to require the proprietors of colliery holdings whose holdings are registered under the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended, for only part of the year to pay a proportionate contribution;
- (e) to empower the Board to reduce the amount of compensation payable in respect of damage to an improvement by subsidence where the improvement was negligently constructed or maintained;
- (f) to empower the Board to agree with the owner of improvements damaged by subsidence to purchase the improvements and the land on which they are erected at a price not greater than the valuation determined, as at the date of the agreement, under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended, or the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended;
- (g) to empower the Governor, on the recommendation of the Minister made pursuant to an application by the Board, to resume any improvements and the land on which they are erected in default of an agreement referred to in paragraph (f) above being reached between the owner and the Board;
- (h) to prohibit the alteration of any improvements within a mine subsidence district, except with the approval of the Board;
- (i) to empower the Board to refuse an application for its approval of the erection or alteration of an improvement or for the subdivision of any land if any necessary planning approval has not been obtained;
- (j) to impose certain penalties for erecting or altering an improvement within a mine subsidence district, or for subdividing land within such a district, without the approval of the Board;

(k) to empower the Board to issue certificates stating—

(a) whether or not land is in a mine subsidence district and whether the Board approves of the erection or alteration of any improvement or the subdivision of any land; or

(b) whether any improvement within a mine subsidence district was erected in accordance with the Board's approval or the subdivision in which is situated any land referred to in the application for the certificate was made in accordance with the Board's approval;

(l) to validate an agreement under which the Board purchased a property at Adamstown Heights on 1st July, 1963;

(m) to make other amendments of a minor or ancillary character.

No. , 1966.

A BILL

To make further provision for and in respect of a scheme for the payment of compensation where improvements on the surface are damaged by subsidence following the extraction of coal or shale; to amend the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1965; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. LEWIS;—16 February, 1966.]

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1966".

Short title
citation.

(2) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961-1966.

(3) The Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961, as amended by the Decimal Currency Act, 1965, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. (1) Upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette (which day is in this Act referred to as the "appointed day") the Mine Subsidence Board shall be reconstituted and shall consist of six members who shall be the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, and the persons appointed in accordance with paragraph (c) of that subsection.

Reconsti-
tution of the Mine
Subsidence
Board.

(2) (a) Nothing contained in this section shall prejudice or affect in any way the continuity of the body corporate constituted under section five of the Principal Act but the same shall continue notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(b) The said body corporate shall continue and shall be deemed always to have continued notwithstanding that there are or have been at any time or times vacancies in the offices of all of the members of the body corporate or of any one or more of them.

(3) (a) For the purposes only of the appointment pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, of persons to be members of the Mine Subsidence Board as reconstituted under this section, and of any matters necessary for or incidental incidental to such appointment or reconstitution, the provisions of subsection four of this section shall commence on the day upon which the assent of Her Majesty to this Act is signified.

- 5 (b) The persons so appointed shall assume their offices as members of the Mine Subsidence Board upon the appointed day; and on that day the provisions of subsection four of this section shall come into force for all purposes.

(4) The Principal Act is amended—

- 10 (a) by omitting paragraph (c) of subsection two of section five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

Amendment
of Act No.
22, 1961.
Sec. 5.
(Appointment and constitution of the Board.)

(c) four persons appointed by the Governor being—

- 15 (i) a person nominated by the proprietors of colliery holdings;
- (ii) a person who shall be representative of local government or of the State Planning Authority of New South Wales and shall be nominated by
- 20 the Minister for Local Government;
- (iii) a person nominated by the Minister to represent the owners of improve-
- 25 ments situated within mine subsidence districts, not being improvements used in connection with the winning of coal or shale; and
- (iv) an officer of the Department of
- 30 Public Works eligible to be a corporate member of The Institution of Engineers, Australia, nominated by the Minister for Public Works.

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (b) by omitting from the same subsection the words “as the representative of any class referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the member of the Board representative of such class may be appointed on the nomination of the Minister” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “under subparagraph (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of paragraph (c) of this subsection, the Minister may nominate a person to be a member of the Board in the place of such first-mentioned person”.

3. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 22, 1961.

- (a) by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsection :—

Sec. 2.
(Repeals.)

- (2) There is hereby vested in the Board all property, real and personal, vested at the commencement of this Act in the Mine Subsidence Board constituted by the Mine Subsidence Act, 1928, as amended by subsequent Acts, subject however to any trusts and liabilities attaching to that property.

- (b) by inserting in section four next after the definition of “Shale” the following new definition :—

Sec. 4.
(Interpretation.)

- “Subdivide” and “subdivision” mean and refer to the dividing of land into parts, whether the dividing is—

- (a) by sale, conveyance, transfer or partition;
- (b) by any agreement, dealing or instrument inter vivos (other than a lease for a period not exceeding five years without option of renewal) rendering different parts thereof immediately available for separate occupation or disposition; or

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

5 (c) by procuring the issue of a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of a part of the land;

but those expressions do not include any severance of land by the opening of a public road.

10 (c) by inserting after section seven the following new section : — New sec. 7A.

7A. The Board may reconsider any matter which has been dealt with by it and may adhere to, rescind, alter or amend any decision previously made by it, but shall not rescind, alter or amend any such decision except with the consent in writing of the person in respect of whose claim or application the decision was given. Board may reconsider matters.

20 (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section eleven the words "The contributions payable by the proprietors of colliery holdings under this section shall be paid in such manner and at such times as may be prescribed."; Sec. 11. (Contributions to be paid by colliery proprietors to Fund.)

25 (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections : —

30 (2) The Board shall, in respect of each year, cause to be served, in accordance with subsection three of this section, on each proprietor of a colliery holding a notice in the prescribed form specifying the amount of his contribution for that year.

(3) Any such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding—

(b)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

5 (b) where the proprietor is a body corporate, if it is served in a manner authorised under the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts, for the service of documents on that body corporate.

10 (4) If within a period of twenty-eight days after any such notice has, in accordance with subsection three of this section, been served on the proprietor of a colliery holding, the amount of his contribution specified in the notice has not been paid, he shall be deemed to be in arrears with his contributions and interest, at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Board from time to time for the purposes of this subsection, shall be paid by that proprietor in respect of the period from the expiration of the said period of twenty-eight days until the date of payment of that amount.

(5) The Board may waive any interest payable under subsection four of this section.

25 (6) Where a colliery holding is registered in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for part only of a year, the person who was proprietor of that colliery holding during that part of the year shall contribute to the Fund in respect of that part such amount as bears to the amount that his contribution would have been had that holding been so registered for the whole of that year the same proportion as that part of that year bears to the whole of that year.

35 (7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, where any contribution is required to be paid by a person pursuant to subsection six of this section in respect

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

respect of part only of a year and there is no unimproved capital value of that holding in force as at the thirtieth day of June in that year, the contribution shall be based—

- 5 (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this sub-
section—on the unimproved capital
value of the colliery holding ascertained as at the day upon which the 10 colliery holding was first registered in that year in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts; or

(b) where—

- 15 (i) that part of the year includes
the first day of January in that year; and
(ii) the colliery holding was registered in accordance with those 20 provisions continuously during
the preceding year or continuously during part of the preceding year for a period
ending on the thirty-first day
25 of December in that preceding
year—

on the unimproved capital value of the colliery holding as last used for the purposes of this section,

- 30 or where some other basis is prescribed upon
that other basis.

- (8) In default of payment of any contribution or interest payable under this section, the Board may recover the amount of the contri-
35 bution and interest or any outstanding portion thereof as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

- (e) by inserting at the end of subsection one of section twelve the following new paragraph :—

Sec. 12.
(Claims for damage arising out of subsidence.)

5 Where damage, caused by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale, to an improvement is greater, by reason of the negligent or improper manner in which the improvement was constructed or maintained, than it would have been had the improvement not been so constructed or main-10 tained, the Board may reduce the amount of compensation in respect of the damage by such amount
as it considers is attributable to the fact that the improvement was so constructed or maintained.

- (f) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

Sec. 13.
(Purchase of damaged improvements
and effecting of remedial
works by
Board.)

15 (a) agree with the owner of the improvements damaged by subsidence due to the extraction of coal or shale for the purchase of the improvements and the 20 land on which the improvements are erected at a price not greater than the valuation determined, as at a date not more than one month before the date
of the agreement, under the Valuation
25 of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, without regard to
any damage caused by such
30 subsidence ;

- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words
“The Board may renovate, repair, reconstruct
or carry out such other works as may be necessary to restore any property purchased
by it under paragraph (a) of this subsection
and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of
such property.”;

(iii)

Mine Subsidence Compensation (Amendment).

(iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsections :—

5 (1A) If within such time after a claim is made under section twelve of this Act as the Board considers reasonable, no agreement referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section has been entered into with the claimant in respect of damage to the improve-
10 ments referred to in the claim, the Board may apply to the Minister for approval that he recommend to the Governor that the land on which the improvements are erected (together with the improvements) be acquired, and upon 15 the Minister so recommending the Governor may appropriate or resume such land and improvements by notification in the Gazette pursuant to Division 1 of Part V of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent 20 Acts, and for the purposes of that Act, as so amended, such appropriation or resumption shall be deemed to be for the purpose of carrying out an authorised work and the Board shall be deemed to be the Constructing 25 Authority within the meaning of that Act, as so amended :

30 Provided that sections thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven of the Public Works Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall not apply in respect of the expenditure incurred on any acquisition under this subsection, but section thirty-eight of that Act, as so amended, shall apply to any contract in respect of any such acquisition.

35 (1B) The Board may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any property acquired by it under subsection one or (1A) of this section.

- (g) (i) by inserting in subsection two of section fifteen Sec. 15.
