members of the said council : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Wesley College Incorporation (Amendment) Act, 1967". Short title and citation.

(2) The Wesley College Incorporation Act, 1910, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Wesley College Incorporation Act, 1910–1967.

2. The Wesley College Incorporation Act, 1910, is New sec. 12A. amended by inserting next after section twelve the following new section :—

12A. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore provided if a vacancy occurs in the office of a lay councillor the remaining councillors may, at a duly constituted meeting of the said council, elect a person who is not a member of the said church but who is a member of the teaching or administrative staff of the University of Sydney or a former student of the College, to fill the vacancy, and after his election such councillor shall be subject to retirement and be eligible for re-election in accordance with the provisions of section eleven as if he had been a layman within the meaning of this Act : Provided however that at no time shall there be more than four councillors who are not members of the said church. Election—non-members of church.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.
