Sec. 31. (Appointment of Commission.)

(2) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on the twenty-fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

25 5. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 15, 1926.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17B the following new section :—
 - 30 17BA. For the purposes of this Part of this Act—
 - (a) a person when engaged at or about the scene of a bush fire in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting the fire shall be deemed to be fighting the fire; and
 - (b)

New sec. 17BA.

Persons supplying food or refreshments.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 (b) any journeying or conveyance of a person, if made for the purpose of his engaging in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting a bush fire, shall be deemed to be made for the purpose of his engaging in fighting the fire.

(b) by inserting at the end of section 17D the following new subsections :—

(Indemnity for destruction of or damage to personal effects, vehicles, etc.)

10 (2) (a) Subject to this subsection, where the Commission is satisfied that—

(i) a vehicle or other thing has been destroyed or damaged;

15 (ii) in respect of that destruction or damage, a certain amount would, but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to subsection one of this section, have been payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund pursuant to that subsection;

20 (iii) that destruction or damage resulted from the act or omission of a fire fighter but was not wilfully or maliciously caused by him;

25 (iv) at the time of the destruction or damage the fire fighter was engaged in fighting a bush fire or in preventive operations or preparatory work or was journeying as referred to in paragraph (b) or (ii) of the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section 17B of this Act;

30 (v) the fire fighter is liable for, or was liable for and has paid, damages for that destruction or damage; and

35 (vi) the fire fighter is not entitled to indemnity or adequate indemnity in respect of such liability under any policy of insurance or from any other source whatsoever,

there

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 there shall be payable from the said Fund in respect of such liability or, where the fire fighter has paid damages, to reimburse him, such amount not exceeding that referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph as the Commission may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable.

10 (b) Any amount payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be payable to the fire fighter referred to in that paragraph or, if the Commission in its discretion so orders, to the person to whom the damages mentioned in that paragraph are payable, and in the latter case the payment shall to the extent thereof be a discharge of the liability to pay such damages.

15 (c) For the purposes of this subsection a fire fighter shall be deemed to have become liable for any damages if he has received a demand for such damages and the Commission considers it to be reasonable and prudent for him to have paid, or that there be paid, an amount in full or part satisfaction of that demand.

20 (3) (a) In this subsection—

25 “Bush fire damage” means, in relation to a vehicle, damage that was caused to the vehicle in such circumstances and while the vehicle was in such ownership, possession or custody that in respect of that damage an amount was payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under subsection one of this section, or would have been so payable but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to that subsection.

30 “Insurance policy” means policy of insurance, or of indemnity, in respect of damage to or destruction or loss of a vehicle.

35 “Insurer”

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

"Insurer" means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, whose business is or includes the issue of insurance policies.

5 (b) No insurer shall demand or receive by way of premium for the issue or renewal of an insurance policy in respect of a vehicle that has at any time been the subject of a claim, under any insurance policy, for bush fire damage, any greater or other amount than, in accordance with any contract, or in accordance with any practice or course of dealing customarily followed by him, he would have charged in that case as the premium for such issue or renewal, as the case may be, if the vehicle had not at any time been the subject of a claim for bush fire damage.

10 (c) Any insurer who demands or receives any amount contrary to this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

15 (d) Any amount received by an insurer contrary to this subsection may be recovered from him as a debt by the person who paid it.

20 (e) No insurance policy shall be illegal, void or unenforceable by reason only of any provisions of this subsection.

25 6. Any policy of insurance against liability under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or any amendment of that Act, being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

7. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
36, 1920.

- 5 (a) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "6.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "7.00";
- 10 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (iv) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- 15 (v) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "4.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5.00";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- 20 (vii) by omitting from subparagraph (c) of the same paragraph the figures "7.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "10.00";
- 25 (b) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of paragraph 6A of Part II of the Schedule the figures "13.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "14.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.30" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "2.00";
- 30 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "8.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "6.00".

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

8. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 36, 1920.

(a) by omitting from paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the words "The rates" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "(1) Subject to clause (2) of this paragraph, the rates";

Schedule, par. 6.

(b) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of the same paragraph the following words and figures :—

"Provided that the total additional sum in respect of dependents shall not exceed 11 50";

(c) by omitting from the same paragraph the following words :—

"Provided that except to the extent provided for in paragraph 6A of this scheme in no case shall the total weekly payment to be made under this scheme exceed the sum of twenty-one dollars per week :";

(d) by inserting at the end of the same paragraph the following new clause :—

(2) (a) Where, but for this clause, the rate of compensation payable under clause (1) of this paragraph to a beneficiary (not being a person who

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 immediately before the commencement of section
eight of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967, was in receipt of compensation under this scheme) in respect of his disablement, together with any additional amount per week he is eligible to be paid under paragraph 6A of this scheme, would exceed his average weekly earnings, such excess shall be deducted from the rate of compensa-10 tion that would otherwise be payable to him under clause (1) of this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of this clause "average weekly earnings" means the weekly sum to which the total weekly payment of compensation would have been for the time being limited by subsection
15 two of section nine of the Workers' Compensation
Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts (whether enacted before or after the day appointed pursuant to section one of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967)—

20 (i) if the disablement in respect of which the beneficiary is entitled to compensation
under this scheme were an injury as defined by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,
as so amended; and

25 (ii) if the beneficiary were entitled under that Act, as so amended, to a weekly payment of compensation for incapacity for work
resulting from such injury.

(2) The amendments made by paragraphs (b) and 30 (c) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to 35 all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have commenced
on the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

9. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended— Amendment of Act No. 2, 1940.

- 5 (a) by inserting in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection two of section five after the figures and symbol "1944," the word "and"; Sec. 5. (Interpretation.)
- (b) by omitting from the same subparagraph the words "and the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,";
- 10 (c) by omitting from the same subparagraph the word "any" where secondly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "either".

(b) by inserting at the end of section 17D the following new subsections :—

Sec. 17D.
(Indemnity for destruction of or damage to personal effects, vehicles, etc.)

10 (2) (a) Subject to this subsection, where the Commission is satisfied that—

(i) a vehicle or other thing has been destroyed or damaged;

15 (ii) in respect of that destruction or damage, a certain amount would, but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to subsection one of this section, have been payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund pursuant to that subsection;

20 (iii) that destruction or damage resulted from the act or omission of a fire fighter but was not wilfully or maliciously caused by him;

25 (iv) at the time of the destruction or damage the fire fighter was engaged in fighting a bush fire or in preventive operations or preparatory work or was journeying as referred to in paragraph (b) or (ii) of the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section 17B of this Act;

30 (v) the fire fighter is liable for, or was liable for and has paid, damages for that destruction or damage; and

there

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 there shall be payable from the said Fund in respect of such liability or, where the fire fighter has paid damages, to reimburse him, such amount not exceeding that referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph as the Commission may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable.

10 (b) Any amount payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be payable to the fire fighter referred to in that paragraph or, if the Commission in its discretion so orders, to the person to whom the damages mentioned in that paragraph are payable, and in the latter case the payment shall to the extent thereof be a discharge of the liability to pay such damages.

15 (c) For the purposes of this subsection a fire fighter shall be deemed to have become liable for any damages if he has received a demand for such damages and the Commission considers it to be reasonable and prudent for him to have paid, or that there be paid, an amount in full or part satisfaction of that demand.

20 (3) (a) In this subsection—

25 “Bush fire damage” means, in relation to a vehicle, damage that was caused to the vehicle in such circumstances and while the vehicle was in such ownership, possession or custody that in respect of that damage an amount was payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under subsection one of this section, or would have been so payable but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to that subsection.

30 “Insurance policy” means policy of insurance, or of indemnity, in respect of damage to or destruction or loss of a vehicle.

35 “Insurer”

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

“Insurer” means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, whose business is or includes the issue of insurance policies.

5 (b) No insurer shall demand or receive by way of premium for the issue or renewal of an insurance policy in respect of a vehicle that has at any time been the subject of a claim, under any insurance policy, for bush fire damage, any greater or other amount than, in accordance with any contract, or in accordance with any practice or course of dealing customarily followed by him, he would have charged in that case as the premium for such issue or renewal, as the case may be, if the vehicle had not at any time been the subject of a claim for bush fire damage.

10 (c) Any insurer who demands or receives any amount contrary to this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

15 (d) Any amount received by an insurer contrary to this subsection may be recovered from him as a debt by the person who paid it.

20 (e) No insurance policy shall be illegal, void or unenforceable by reason only of any provisions of this subsection.

25 6. Any policy of insurance against liability under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or any amendment of that Act, being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have 30 insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

7. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
36, 1920.

- 5 (a) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "6.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "7.00";
- 10 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (iv) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- 15 (v) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "4.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5.00";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- 20 (vii) by omitting from subparagraph (c) of the same paragraph the figures "7.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "10.00";
- 25 (b) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of paragraph 6A of Part II of the Schedule the figures "13.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "14.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.30" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "2.00";
- 30 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "8.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "6.00".

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(b) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of the same paragraph the following words and figures :—

"Provided that the total additional sum in respect of dependents shall not exceed 11 50";

(c) by omitting from the same paragraph the following words :—

"Provided that except to the extent provided for in paragraph 6A of this scheme in no case shall the total weekly payment to be made under this scheme exceed the sum of twenty-one dollars per week :";

(d) by inserting at the end of the same paragraph the following new clause :—

(2) (a) Where, but for this clause, the rate of compensation payable under clause (1) of this paragraph to a beneficiary (not being a person who

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 immediately before the commencement of section
eight of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967, was in receipt of compensation under
this scheme) in respect of his disablement, together
with any additional amount per week he is eligible
to be paid under paragraph 6A of this scheme,
would exceed his average weekly earnings, such
excess shall be deducted from the rate of compensation that would otherwise be payable to him under 10 clause (1) of this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of this clause "average
weekly earnings" means the weekly sum to which
the total weekly payment of compensation would have been for the time being limited by subsection
two of section nine of the Workers' Compensation
15 Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts
(whether enacted before or after the day appointed pursuant to section one of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967)—

20 (i) if the disablement in respect of which the beneficiary is entitled to compensation
under this scheme were an injury as defined
by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,
as so amended; and

25 (ii) if the beneficiary were entitled under that Act, as so amended, to a weekly payment of compensation for incapacity for work
resulting from such injury.

(2) The amendments made by paragraphs (b) and 30 (c) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to 35 all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have commenced
on the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

9. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended— Amendment of Act No.
2, 1940.

- 5 (a) by inserting in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection two of section five after the figures and symbol "1944," the word "and"; Sec. 5.
(Interpretation.)
- (b) by omitting from the same subparagraph the words "and the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,";
- 10 (c) by omitting from the same subparagraph the word "any" where secondly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "either".

WORKERS' COMPENSATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1967

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (1) to increase rates and amounts of compensation prescribed by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926–1966, the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942–1965, and the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920–1965;
- (2) to amend the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926–1966—
 - (a) to entitle outworkers to workers' compensation;
 - (b) to provide—
 - (i) lump sum compensation for the total or partial loss of the sense of smell or the sense of taste;
 - (ii) compensation payments in respect of certain medical charges incurred in connection with claims for lump sum compensation;
 - (c) to prescribe weekly payments of compensation, in respect of the death of a worker, for dependent children of the worker who are over sixteen but under twenty-one years of age and are full-time students;
 - (d) to include in the "journeying" provisions of the Act journeys between the worker's place of abode and place of employment and made for the purpose of receiving payment of certain wages or other moneys;
 - (e) to provide that compensable damage to spectacles and other artificial aids shall be deemed to include the cost of examinations and prescriptions by qualified persons in connection with the repair or replacement of such articles;
 - (f) in relation to bush fire fighters' compensation—
 - (i) to provide for payments from the compensation fund in respect of certain claims for damages arising from bush fire fighting or bush fire brigade activities;
 - (ii) to prevent "non-claim" rebates in connection with the insurance of a vehicle from being forfeited by reason only of claims having arisen from the use of the vehicle in bush fire fighting or certain bush fire brigade activities;
 - (iii) to provide for compensation to persons supplying food and refreshments to persons fighting a bush fire;
 - (g) to omit section 64A, which prohibits certain references to workers' compensation benefits in jury actions for the recovery of damages for injury to a worker;

- (h) to confer on the Workers' Compensation Commission powers and duties in relation to the investment or application of compensation payable in respect of the death of a worker ;
 - (i) to empower the Commission to award costs against a worker if satisfied that his application to the Commission was frivolous or vexatious or made without proper justification ;
 - (j) to remove the reference to the number of persons who may be appointed as members of the Commission ;
 - (k) to impose on the employer of an injured worker an obligation to provide suitable employment during the worker's "partial incapacity for work". This would replace the present requirement that he provide such employment during the worker's "partial incapacity for his pre-injury employment" ;
 - (l) to increase from $220 to $700 the annual remuneration which an officer of a friendly society or of a religious or other voluntary organisation may receive without his becoming a "worker" as defined in the Act ;
 - (m) to provide that every policy of insurance under the Act shall, notwithstanding any purported exclusion therefrom, apply to all workers employed by the employer in the business or occupation to which the policy relates ;
 - (n) to extend the time within which notice of the report of a medical examination of a worker must be served on the worker or, as the case may require, on his employer ; and
 - (o) to provide that certain offences under the Act shall be deemed to be continuing offences ;
- (3) to amend the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, to enable compensation to be claimed in respect of all dependent children of a worker ; and
- (4) to make provisions consequential upon or ancillary to the foregoing.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17B the following new section :—
 - 17BA. For the purposes of this Part of this Act—
 - 30 (a) a person when engaged at or about the scene of a bush fire in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting the fire shall be deemed to be fighting the fire; and
 - (b)

New sec. 17BA.

Persons supplying food or refreshments.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 (b) any journeying or conveyance of a person, if made for the purpose of his engaging in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting a bush fire, shall be deemed to be made for the purpose of his engaging in fighting the fire.

(b) by inserting at the end of section 17D the following new subsections :—

Sec. 17D.
(Indemnity for destruction of or damage to personal effects, vehicles, etc.)

10 (2) (a) Subject to this subsection, where the Commission is satisfied that—

(i) a vehicle or other thing has been destroyed or damaged;

15 (ii) in respect of that destruction or damage, a certain amount would, but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to subsection one of this section, have been payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund pursuant to that subsection;

20 (iii) that destruction or damage resulted from the act or omission of a fire fighter but was not wilfully or maliciously caused by him;

25 (iv) at the time of the destruction or damage the fire fighter was engaged in fighting a bush fire or in preventive operations or preparatory work or was journeying as referred to in paragraph (b) or (ii) of the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section 17B of this Act;

30 (v) the fire fighter is liable for, or was liable for and has paid, damages for that destruction or damage; and

there

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 there shall be payable from the said Fund in respect of such liability or, where the fire fighter has paid damages, to reimburse him, such amount not exceeding that referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph as the Commission may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable.

10 (b) Any amount payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be payable to the fire fighter referred to in that paragraph or, if the Commission in its discretion so orders, to the person to whom the damages mentioned in that paragraph are payable, and in the latter case the payment shall to the extent thereof be a discharge of the liability to pay such damages.

20 (c) For the purposes of this subsection a fire fighter shall be deemed to have become liable for any damages if he has received a demand for such damages and the Commission considers it to be reasonable and prudent for him to have paid, or that there be paid, an amount in full or part satisfaction of that demand.

25 (3) (a) In this subsection—
“Bush fire damage” means, in relation to a vehicle, damage that was caused to the vehicle in such circumstances and while the vehicle was in such ownership, possession or custody that in respect of that damage an amount was payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under subsection one of this section, or would have been so payable but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to that subsection.

35 “Insurance policy” means policy of insurance, or of indemnity, in respect of damage to or destruction or loss of a vehicle.

“Insurer”

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

"Insurer" means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, whose business is or includes the issue of insurance policies.

5 (b) No insurer shall demand or receive by way of premium for the issue or renewal of an insurance policy in respect of a vehicle that has at any time been the subject of a claim, under any insurance policy, for bush fire damage, any greater or other amount than, in accordance with any contract, or in accordance with any practice or course of dealing customarily followed by him, he would have charged in that case as the premium for such issue or renewal, as the case may be, if the vehicle had not at any time been the subject of a claim for bush fire damage.

10 (c) Any insurer who demands or receives any amount contrary to this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

15 (d) Any amount received by an insurer contrary to this subsection may be recovered from him as a debt by the person who paid it.

20 (e) No insurance policy shall be illegal, void or unenforceable by reason only of any provisions of this subsection.

25 6. Any policy of insurance against liability under the ^{Subsisting} Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or any amendment of ^{policies.} that Act, being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have 30 insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

7. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Amendment Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

of Act No. 36, 1920.

- 5 (a) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "6.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "7.00";
- 10 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (iv) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- 15 (v) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "4.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5.00";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- 20 (vii) by omitting from subparagraph (c) of the same paragraph the figures "7.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "10.00";
- 25 (b) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of paragraph 6A of Part II of the Schedule the figures "13.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "14.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.30" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "2.00";
- 30 (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "8.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "6.00".

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

8. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended—

(b) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of the same paragraph the following words and figures :—

"Provided that the total additional sum in respect of dependents shall not exceed 11 50";

(c) by omitting from the same paragraph the following words :—

"Provided that except to the extent provided for in paragraph 6A of this scheme in no case shall the total weekly payment to be made under this scheme exceed the sum of twenty-one dollars per week :";

(d) by inserting at the end of the same paragraph the following new clause :—

(2) (a) Where, but for this clause, the rate of compensation payable under clause (1) of this paragraph to a beneficiary (not being a person who

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

5 immediately before the commencement of section
eight of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967, was in receipt of compensation under
this scheme) in respect of his disablement, together
with any additional amount per week he is eligible
to be paid under paragraph 6A of this scheme,
would exceed his average weekly earnings, such
excess shall be deducted from the rate of compensa-10 tion that would otherwise be payable to him under clause (1) of this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of this clause "average
weekly earnings" means the weekly sum to which
the total weekly payment of compensation would have been for the time being limited by subsection
15 two of section nine of the Workers' Compensation
Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts
(whether enacted before or after the day appointed pursuant to section one of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967)—

20 (i) if the disablement in respect of which the beneficiary is entitled to compensation
under this scheme were an injury as defined
by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,
as so amended; and

25 (ii) if the beneficiary were entitled under that Act, as so amended, to a weekly payment of compensation for incapacity for work
resulting from such injury.

(2) The amendments made by paragraphs (b) and 30 (c) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to 35 all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have commenced
on the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

9. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, as amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
2, 1940.

- 5 (a) by inserting in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection two of section five after the figures and symbol "1944," the word "and";
- (b) by omitting from the same subparagraph the words "and the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926,";
- 10 (c) by omitting from the same subparagraph the word "any" where secondly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "either".

5. The Principal Act is further amended—

New sec. 17BA.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17B the following new section :—

Persons supplying food or refreshments.

17BA. For the purposes of this Part of this Act—

- (a) a person when engaged at or about the scene of a bush fire in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting the fire shall be deemed to be fighting the fire; and

(b)

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(b) any journeying or conveyance of a person, if made for the purpose of his engaging in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting a bush fire, shall be deemed to be made for the purpose of his engaging in fighting the fire.

(b) by inserting at the end of section 17D the following new subsections :—

(2) (a) Subject to this subsection, where the Commission is satisfied that—

(i) a vehicle or other thing has been destroyed or damaged;

(ii) in respect of that destruction or damage, a certain amount would, but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to subsection one of this section, have been payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund pursuant to that subsection;

(iii) that destruction or damage resulted from the act or omission of a fire fighter but was not wilfully or maliciously caused by him;

(iv) at the time of the destruction or damage the fire fighter was engaged in fighting a bush fire or in preventive operations or preparatory work or was journeying as referred to in paragraph (b) or (ii) of the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section 17B of this Act;

(v) the fire fighter is liable for, or was liable for and has paid, damages for that destruction or damage; and

there

Sec. 17D.
(Indemnity for destruction of or damage to personal effects, vehicles, etc.)

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

there shall be payable from the said Fund in respect of such liability or, where the fire fighter has paid damages, to reimburse him, such amount not exceeding that referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph as the Commission may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable.

(b) Any amount payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be payable to the fire fighter referred to in that paragraph or, if the Commission in its discretion so orders, to the person to whom the damages mentioned in that paragraph are payable, and in the latter case the payment shall to the extent thereof be a discharge of the liability to pay such damages.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection a fire fighter shall be deemed to have become liable for any damages if he has received a demand for such damages and the Commission considers it to be reasonable and prudent for him to have paid, or that there be paid, an amount in full or part satisfaction of that demand.

(3) (a) In this subsection—

“Bush fire damage” means, in relation to a vehicle, damage that was caused to the vehicle in such circumstances and while the vehicle was in such ownership, possession or custody that in respect of that damage an amount was payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under subsection one of this section, or would have been so payable but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to that subsection.

“Insurance policy” means policy of insurance, or of indemnity, in respect of damage to or destruction or loss of a vehicle.

“Insurer”

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

“Insurer” means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, whose business is or includes the issue of insurance policies.

(b) No insurer shall demand or receive by way of premium for the issue or renewal of an insurance policy in respect of a vehicle that has at any time been the subject of a claim, under any insurance policy, for bush fire damage, any greater or other amount than, in accordance with any contract, or in accordance with any practice or course of dealing customarily followed by him, he would have charged in that case as the premium for such issue or renewal, as the case may be, if the vehicle had not at any time been the subject of a claim for bush fire damage.

(c) Any insurer who demands or receives any amount contrary to this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(d) Any amount received by an insurer contrary to this subsection may be recovered from him as a debt by the person who paid it.

(e) No insurance policy shall be illegal, void or unenforceable by reason only of any provisions of this subsection.

6. Any policy of insurance against liability under the ^{Subsisting} Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or any amendment of ^{policies.} that Act, being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

Amendment
of Act No.
36, 1920.

Schedule,
par. 6.

7. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "6.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "7.00";
- (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (iv) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (v) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "4.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5.00";

"Provided that the total additional sum in respect of dependents shall not exceed 11 50";

(c) by omitting from the same paragraph the following words :—

"Provided that except to the extent provided for in paragraph 6A of this scheme in no case shall the total weekly payment to be made under this scheme exceed the sum of twenty-one dollars per week :";

(d) by inserting at the end of the same paragraph the following new clause :—

(2) (a) Where, but for this clause, the rate of compensation payable under clause (1) of this paragraph to a beneficiary (not being a person who immediately before the commencement of section eight of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967, was in receipt of compensation under this scheme) in respect of his disablement, together with any additional amount per week he is eligible to be paid under paragraph 6A of this scheme, would exceed his average weekly earnings, such excess shall be deducted from the rate of compensation that would otherwise be payable to him under clause (1) of this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of this clause "average weekly earnings" means the weekly sum to which the total weekly payment of compensation would have been for the time being limited by subsection two of section nine of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts (whether enacted before or after the day appointed pursuant to section one of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967)—

- (i) if the disablement in respect of which the beneficiary is entitled to compensation under this scheme were an injury as defined by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as so amended; and
- (ii) if the beneficiary were entitled under that Act, as so amended, to a weekly payment of compensation for incapacity for work resulting from such injury.

(2) The amendments made by paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

5. The Principal Act is further amended—

New sec. 17BA.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17B the following new section :—

Persons supplying food or refreshments.

17BA. For the purposes of this Part of this Act—

- (a) a person when engaged at or about the scene of a bush fire in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting the fire shall be deemed to be fighting the fire; and

(b)

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(b) any journeying or conveyance of a person, if made for the purpose of his engaging in supplying food or refreshments to persons fighting a bush fire, shall be deemed to be made for the purpose of his engaging in fighting the fire.

(b) by inserting at the end of section 17D the following new subsections :—

(2) (a) Subject to this subsection, where the Commission is satisfied that—

- (i) a vehicle or other thing has been destroyed or damaged;
- (ii) in respect of that destruction or damage, a certain amount would, but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to subsection one of this section, have been payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund pursuant to that subsection;
- (iii) that destruction or damage resulted from the act or omission of a fire fighter but was not wilfully or maliciously caused by him;
- (iv) at the time of the destruction or damage the fire fighter was engaged in fighting a bush fire or in preventive operations or preparatory work or was journeying as referred to in paragraph (b) or (ii) of the definition of "Injury" in subsection one of section 17B of this Act;
- (v) the fire fighter is liable for, or was liable for and has paid, damages for that destruction or damage; and
- (vi) the fire fighter is not entitled to indemnity or adequate indemnity in respect of such liability under any policy of insurance or from any other source whatsoever,

Sec. 17D.
(Indemnity for destruction of or damage to personal effects, vehicles, etc.)

there

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

there shall be payable from the said Fund in respect of such liability or, where the fire fighter has paid damages, to reimburse him, such amount not exceeding that referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph as the Commission may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable.

(b) Any amount payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be payable to the fire fighter referred to in that paragraph or, if the Commission in its discretion so orders, to the person to whom the damages mentioned in that paragraph are payable, and in the latter case the payment shall to the extent thereof be a discharge of the liability to pay such damages.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection a fire fighter shall be deemed to have become liable for any damages if he has received a demand for such damages and the Commission considers it to be reasonable and prudent for him to have paid, or that there be paid, an amount in full or part satisfaction of that demand.

(3) (a) In this subsection—

“Bush fire damage” means, in relation to a vehicle, damage that was caused to the vehicle in such circumstances and while the vehicle was in such ownership, possession or custody that in respect of that damage an amount was payable from the Bush Fire Fighters Compensation Fund under subsection one of this section, or would have been so payable but for the operation of paragraph (iii) of the proviso to that subsection.

“Insurance policy” means policy of insurance, or of indemnity, in respect of damage to or destruction or loss of a vehicle.

“Insurer”

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

"Insurer" means any person or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, whose business is or includes the issue of insurance policies.

(b) No insurer shall demand or receive by way of premium for the issue or renewal of an insurance policy in respect of a vehicle that has at any time been the subject of a claim, under any insurance policy, for bush fire damage, any greater or other amount than, in accordance with any contract, or in accordance with any practice or course of dealing customarily followed by him, he would have charged in that case as the premium for such issue or renewal, as the case may be, if the vehicle had not at any time been the subject of a claim for bush fire damage.

(c) Any insurer who demands or receives any amount contrary to this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(d) Any amount received by an insurer contrary to this subsection may be recovered from him as a debt by the person who paid it.

(e) No insurance policy shall be illegal, void or unenforceable by reason only of any provisions of this subsection.

6. Any policy of insurance against liability under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or any amendment of that Act, being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act. ^{Subsisting policies.}

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

Amendment
of Act No.
36, 1920.

Schedule,
par. 6.

7. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "6.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "7.00";
- (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (iv) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "12.00";
- (v) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "4.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5.00";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.50" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "3.00";
- (vii) by omitting from subparagraph (c) of the same paragraph the figures "7.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "10.00";

Schedule,
par. 6A.

- (b) (i) by omitting from subparagraph (b) of paragraph 6A of Part II of the Schedule the figures "13.50" wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "14.00";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "2.30" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "2.00";
- (iii) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "8.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "6.00".

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

8. (1) The Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended— Further amendment of Act No. 36, 1920.

(a) by omitting from paragraph 6 of Part II of the Schedule the words "The rates" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "(1) Subject to clause (2) of this paragraph, the rates"; Schedule, par. 6.

(b) by omitting from subparagraph (a) of the same paragraph the following words and figures :—

"Provided that the total additional sum in respect of dependents shall not exceed 11 50";

(c) by omitting from the same paragraph the following words :—

"Provided that except to the extent provided for in paragraph 6A of this scheme in no case shall the total weekly payment to be made under this scheme exceed the sum of twenty-one dollars per week :";

(d) by inserting at the end of the same paragraph the following new clause :—

(2) (a) Where, but for this clause, the rate of compensation payable under clause (1) of this paragraph to a beneficiary (not being a person who immediately

immediately before the commencement of section eight of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967, was in receipt of compensation under this scheme) in respect of his disablement, together with any additional amount per week he is eligible to be paid under paragraph 6A of this scheme, would exceed his average weekly earnings, such excess shall be deducted from the rate of compensation that would otherwise be payable to him under clause (1) of this paragraph.

(b) For the purposes of this clause "average weekly earnings" means the weekly sum to which the total weekly payment of compensation would have been for the time being limited by subsection two of section nine of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts (whether enacted before or after the day appointed pursuant to section one of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1967)—

- (i) if the disablement in respect of which the beneficiary is entitled to compensation under this scheme were an injury as defined by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as so amended; and
- (ii) if the beneficiary were entitled under that Act, as so amended, to a weekly payment of compensation for incapacity for work resulting from such injury.

(2) The amendments made by paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before such commencement in receipt of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920-1965, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after such commencement.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have commenced on the eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).
