FARMERS' RELIEF (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1968

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE object of this Bill is to provide for the appointment of an additional member to the Rural Reconstruction Board of a person having special knowledge of grazing operations in the Western Division who would be the representative of farmers engaged in grazing operations in that Division.

Consequently, the existing provisions which provide for the appointment as member of a person having special knowledge of grazing operations in the whole of the State has been restricted to those parts of the State outside the Western Division.

A provision has also been included which provides that the existing member of the Board representing farmers engaged in grazing operations within the whole of the State shall, on the coming into force of this Bill, be deemed to be the representative of farmers engaged in grazing operations in those parts of the State outside the Western Division.
