MEAT INDUSTRY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1968

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE object of this Bill is to validate past actions of The Metropolitan Meat Industry Board in retaining parts of animals slaughtered at the public abattoir and to vest the property in certain parts of animals hereafter slaughtered at the public abattoir in the Board.

The Bill is necessary to meet the situation arising out of a recent High Court decision in the case of C. J. Burland Pty. Limited and Bawn Pty. Limited v. The Metropolitan Meat Industry Board wherein the validity of By-law 11 was challenged.

The Bill also provides that the Board shall have and be deemed always to have had power to process, treat, dispose of or otherwise deal with parts of animals retained by them.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Bill is to amend the Meat Inspection Act, 1954, in relation to the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter. The Bill also provides for the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter.

The Bill is intended to amend the Meat Inspection Act, 1954, in relation to the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter. The Bill also provides for the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter.

The Bill also provides for the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter. The Bill also provides for the handling of meat and the conditions of slaughter.
