and may do all things necessary for the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties or functions as executor, administrator or trustee, as the case may be.

(2) On behalf of the Trust, a member of the Trust or a person employed by the Trust may, if authorised by the Trust for the purpose, swear an affidavit, make a declaration or statement, give security and do any other act or thing that is, by any charter, Act or rule of court, required to be done by a person applying for or granted probate or letters of administration, or administering a trust, as the case may be.

(3) The Trust may—

- (a) renounce executorship;
- (b) decline to act as administrator of an estate;
- (c) retire, or decline to act, as trustee of property (not being property vested in it by or pursuant to this Act).

(4) Any commission or other remuneration earned by the Trust as an executor, administrator or trustee appointed under the authority of this section shall belong to the Trust and shall be used and applied by it for or towards any object or purpose specified or approved by the Conference in respect thereof.

26. The Trust may hold or acquire any real or personal property either alone or jointly with another or others as joint tenant or tenant-in-common. Trust may hold property jointly

27. The Trust shall make arrangements for the preservation and custody of The Methodist Church Register of Trustees for New South Wales maintained before the appointed day under the Wesleyan Methodist Church Property Trust Act, 1889, and any extract purporting to be an extract from that register in or to the effect of the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act certified under the common seal of the Trust shall without the production of that register be received and taken in all legal proceedings and Register of former trustees.

5 28. (1) The Conference may make regulations for the ^{Regulations.} purposes of section fourteen of this Act and for the purposes of regulating and controlling any matter or thing that by this Act it is authorised to regulate or control, but no such regulation shall take effect unless it is approved by the 10 General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia or any person or body authorised by it for the purpose.

(2) The "Regulations for Trust Committees" approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia in the year one thousand nine hundred and 15 sixty-six shall be deemed to be regulations made under subsection one of this section.

(3) A certificate signed by the President for the time being of the Conference that specifies in the certificate or an annexure thereto the form of a regulation made under 20 subsection one of this section and in force on a day specified in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the regulation was duly made and was in force in that form on that day.

(4) A regulation made under subsection one of this section may from time to time be rescinded, revoked, altered
25 or varied by the Conference but no such rescission, revocation, alteration or variation shall take effect unless it is approved in the same manner as a regulation.

PART V.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

30 29. (1) Where it has been decided in accordance with ^{Co-operative use of property.} the laws of the Methodist Church of Australasia to enter into a scheme of co-operation with or involving a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, being a scheme that involves the use of property vested vested in the Trust, the Trust may, while the scheme of co-operation continues in force, permit that property to be used, managed and administered in connection with that scheme in such manner and upon such conditions as the Conference, 5 or any committee appointed by it for the purpose, determines or prescribes, and the proceeds of sale or mortgage or any other dealing with such property and all moneys collected or held in respect of such scheme of co-operation may be paid and applied in such manner as may be determined or 10 prescribed by the Conference or such committee.

(2) The conditions that the Conference may determine or prescribe under subsection one of this section include conditions with respect to the making of contributions of money for the acquisition, construction, alteration, mainten- 15 ance or repair of assets vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation and the giving or taking of such security or charge as may be prescribed by any such scheme of co-operation over any property in respect of any contributions of money or in money's worth made or received 20 pursuant to that scheme and any property of the Trust involved in any such scheme is, to the extent prescribed therein, hereby charged.

(3) Neither the Registrar-General nor any person dealing bona fide and for value with any property vested in 25 the Trust shall be bound to enquire whether any security or charge referred to in subsection two of this section exists or be deemed to have notice thereof or be bound thereby by virtue only of this Act or the existence of any scheme of co-operation under this section and—

- 30 (a) a conveyance, transfer or other assurance to such a person shall operate as a discharge of any security or charge so referred to, in so far as the property conveyed, transferred or assured would, but for this subsection, be subject thereto; and
- 35 (b) a mortgage or charge in favour of such a person shall have priority over any security or charge so referred to that affects the property mortgaged or charged in favour of that person.

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

30. (1) The provisions of section twenty-nine of this Act shall apply to and in relation to all property at any time held by the Trust except to the extent that any such property is held subject to any express trust expressly forbidding its use in any manner referred to in that section.

(2) Subsection one of this section shall not apply to prevent the use of property in a manner referred to in section twenty-nine of this Act if the property is merely directed to be held on trust for Methodist worship or purposes.

and may do all things necessary for the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties or functions as executor, administrator or trustee, as the case may be.

(2) On behalf of the Trust, a member of the Trust or a person employed by the Trust may, if authorised by the Trust for the purpose, swear an affidavit, make a declaration or statement, give security and do any other act or thing that is, by any charter, Act or rule of court, required to be done by a person applying for or granted probate or letters of administration, or administering a trust, as the case may be.

(3) The Trust may—

- (a) renounce executorship;
- (b) decline to act as administrator of an estate;
- (c) retire, or decline to act, as trustee of property (not being property vested in it by or pursuant to this Act).

(4) Any commission or other remuneration earned by the Trust as an executor, administrator or trustee appointed under the authority of this section shall belong to the Trust and shall be used and applied by it for or towards any object or purpose specified or approved by the Conference in respect thereof.

26. The Trust may hold or acquire any real or personal property either alone or jointly with another or others as joint tenant or tenant-in-common. Trust may hold property jointly

27. The Trust shall make arrangements for the preservation and custody of The Methodist Church Register of Trustees for New South Wales maintained before the appointed day under the Wesleyan Methodist Church Property Trust Act, 1889, and any extract purporting to be an extract from that register in or to the effect of the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act certified under the common seal of the Trust shall without the production of that register be received and taken in all legal proceedings and Register of former trustees.

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

and in all dealings with land and on all occasions whatsoever as sufficient evidence of the several matters comprised in the extract in so far as they may relate to the land specified in the certificate.

5 28. (1) The Conference may make regulations for the Regulations.
purposes of section fourteen of this Act and for the purposes of regulating and controlling any matter or thing that by this Act it is authorised to regulate or control, but no such regulation shall take effect unless it is approved by the 10 General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia or any person or body authorised by it for the purpose.

(2) The "Regulations for Trust Committees" approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia in the year one thousand nine hundred and 15 sixty-six shall be deemed to be regulations made under subsection one of this section.

(3) A certificate signed by the President for the time being of the Conference that specifies in the certificate or an annexure thereto the form of a regulation made under 20 subsection one of this section and in force on a day specified in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the regulation was duly made and was in force in that form on that day.

(4) A regulation made under subsection one of this section may from time to time be rescinded, revoked, altered 25 or varied by the Conference but no such rescission, revocation, alteration or variation shall take effect unless it is approved in the same manner as a regulation.

PART V.

or direction of the Conference, his executors and administrators, shall be entitled to be indemnified out of trust property against all expenses or liabilities incurred by him in connection with the exercise by him of the power and the performance by him of the duty.

Service of documents.

23. The service of any writ, statement of claim, summons or other legal process on the Trust may be effected by serving it on the President, Secretary, Property Secretary or Connexional Secretary of the Conference or on any person appearing to be authorised by the Trust to accept service thereof.

Legal proceedings.

24. (1) Legal proceedings relating to any trust property or to any contract or other matter arising out of the management, administration or development of any trust property may be brought in the name of the Trust or in his own name on behalf of the Trust by any person authorised so to do by the Trust.

(2) The Trust may sue and be sued in all actions and proceedings whether at law or in equity for the purpose of ascertaining whether any property is property that is vested in the Trust by or pursuant to this Act and of ascertaining the trusts upon which any such property is held.

Trust may act as executor, etc.

25. (1) The Trust may, if it is otherwise competent so to do—

- (a) apply for and obtain, or join in applying for and obtaining, probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of a deceased person where the Church has a beneficial interest, vested or contingent, in the estate of that person; or
- (b) accept appointment, and act, as trustee or co-trustee under and in pursuance of any trust where the trust property is not vested in the Trust by, or pursuant to, this Act, and the trust was created wholly or partly for the benefit of the Church,

and

and may do all things necessary for the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties or functions as executor, administrator or trustee, as the case may be.

(2) On behalf of the Trust, a member of the Trust or a person employed by the Trust may, if authorised by the Trust for the purpose, swear an affidavit, make a declaration or statement, give security and do any other act or thing that is, by any charter, Act or rule of court, required to be done by a person applying for or granted probate or letters of administration, or administering a trust, as the case may be.

(3) The Trust may—

- (a) renounce executorship;
- (b) decline to act as administrator of an estate;
- (c) retire, or decline to act, as trustee of property (not being property vested in it by or pursuant to this Act).

(4) Any commission or other remuneration earned by the Trust as an executor, administrator or trustee appointed under the authority of this section shall belong to the Trust and shall be used and applied by it for or towards any object or purpose specified or approved by the Conference in respect thereof.

26. The Trust may hold or acquire any real or personal property either alone or jointly with another or others as joint tenant or tenant-in-common. Trust may hold property jointly

27. The Trust shall make arrangements for the preservation and custody of The Methodist Church Register of Trustees for New South Wales maintained before the appointed day under the Wesleyan Methodist Church Property Trust Act, 1889, and any extract purporting to be an extract from that register in or to the effect of the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act certified under the common seal of the Trust shall without the production of that register be received and taken in all legal proceedings Register of former trustees.

and in all dealings with land and on all occasions whatsoever as sufficient evidence of the several matters comprised in the extract in so far as they may relate to the land specified in the certificate.

Resolutions. 28. (1) The Conference may, by resolution, regulate and control the management and administration of, and dealings with, trust property, but no such resolution shall take effect unless it is approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia or any person or body authorised by it for the purpose.

(2) The "Regulations for Trust Committees" approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six shall have the force and effect of resolutions made and approved under subsection one of this section.

(3) A certificate signed by the President for the time being of the Conference that specifies in the certificate or an annexure thereto the form of a resolution under subsection one of this section and in force on a day specified in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the resolution was in force in that form on that day.

(4) A resolution under subsection one of this section may from time to time be rescinded, revoked, altered or varied by the Conference but no such rescission, revocation, alteration or variation shall take effect unless it is approved in the same manner as a resolution.

PART V.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

Co-operative use of property. 29. (1) Where it has been decided in accordance with the laws of the Methodist Church of Australasia to enter into a scheme of co-operation with or involving a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, being a scheme that involves the use of property vested

vested in the Trust, the Trust may, while the scheme of co-operation continues in force, permit that property to be used, managed and administered in connection with that scheme in such manner and upon such conditions as the Conference, or any committee appointed by it for the purpose, determines or prescribes, and the proceeds of sale or mortgage or any other dealing with such property and all moneys collected or held in respect of such scheme of co-operation may be paid and applied in such manner as may be determined or prescribed by the Conference or such committee.

(2) The conditions that the Conference may determine or prescribe under subsection one of this section include conditions with respect to the making of contributions of money for the acquisition, construction, alteration, maintenance or repair of assets vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation and the giving or taking of such security or charge as may be prescribed by any such scheme of co-operation over any property in respect of any contributions of money or in money's worth made or received pursuant to that scheme and any property of the Trust involved in any such scheme is, to the extent prescribed therein, hereby charged.

(3) Neither the Registrar-General nor any person dealing bona fide and for value with any property vested in the Trust shall be bound to enquire whether any security or charge referred to in subsection two of this section exists or be deemed to have notice thereof or be bound thereby by virtue only of this Act or the existence of any scheme of co-operation under this section and—

- (a) a conveyance, transfer or other assurance to such a person shall operate as a discharge of any security or charge so referred to, in so far as the property conveyed, transferred or assured would, but for this subsection, be subject thereto; and
- (b) a mortgage or charge in favour of such a person shall have priority over any security or charge so referred to that affects the property mortgaged or charged in favour of that person.

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

30. (1) The provisions of section twenty-nine of this Act shall apply to and in relation to all property at any time held by the Trust except to the extent that any such property is held subject to any express trust expressly forbidding its use in any manner referred to in that section.

(2) Subsection one of this section shall not apply to prevent the use of property in a manner referred to in section twenty-nine of this Act if the property is merely directed to be held on trust for Methodist worship or purposes.

13. (1) To the extent to which, by a deed, will or other instrument that takes effect on or after the appointed day, any property—

- (a) is devised, bequeathed, given, granted, released, conveyed or appointed to the Church or to a person (not being the Trust) for, or for the benefit of, or in trust for, the Church or the religious, social, educational or charitable work of the Church, or is declared or directed to be held by any person (not being the Trust) for, or for the benefit of, or in trust for, the Church or the religious, social, educational or charitable work of the Church;
- (b) is recoverable by the Church or by any person (not being the Trust) for the Church; or

(c)

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

- (c) is payable to, or receivable by, the Church or any person (not being the Trust) on behalf of the Church or for the religious, social, educational or charitable work of the Church, the deed, will or other instrument shall be construed and take effect as if the reference therein to the Church or, as the case may be, to that person, were a reference to the Trust.

(2) A receipt or acknowledgment for any property that vests in the Trust pursuant to this section shall exonerate the person or persons liable to pay, deliver or transfer the property to the Trust from any liability to see to the application thereof and from any liability for the loss, misapplication or non-application thereof, if the receipt or acknowledgment—

- (a) is executed in accordance with this Act under the common seal of the Trust;
- (b) is in writing signed by two persons purporting to be members of the Trust; or
- (c) is in writing signed by a person or persons purporting to be duly authorised for the purpose by the Trust or two members thereof.

14. (1) Subject to this Act, the Trust shall hold trust property in trust for the Methodist Church of Australasia and upon any other trust affecting the property while vested in it. Duties of Trust.

(2) Subject to subsection one of this section the Trust shall hold, manage, administer and otherwise deal with trust property under the control of, and in accordance with the directions and resolutions of the Conference.

15. No title to any land vested in the Trust by this Act shall be held bad either at law or in equity by reason of any breach or non-performance before or after the appointed day of any condition, trust or proviso contained in the grant by the Crown Waiver of certain conditions, etc., in certain Crown grants.

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

Crown of the land and every provision for forfeiture or reverter in respect of any such breach or non-performance shall be deemed to have been released by the Crown as from the date of the Crown grant.

Evidence. 16. (1) A certificate under the common seal of the Trust to the effect that property therein specified is held by it upon trust for the Methodist Church of Australasia shall, in any action, suit or other proceeding, civil or criminal, be prima facie evidence that the property so specified is so held.

(2) A certificate under the common seal of the Trust to the effect that the estate or interest of persons therein specified in land so specified is an estate or interest vested in the Trust by this Act shall, for the purposes of any application by the Trust to be registered under the Real Property Act, 1900, as the proprietor of that estate or interest pursuant to that vesting, be conclusive evidence of the matters so certified.

Certain rights enforceable by the Trust. 17. Where, immediately before the appointed day, there was vested in any person divested of property by this Act a right (including a chose in action) arising out of contract or tort and relating to that property, the right is hereby vested in, and may be enforced by, the Trust.

PART IV.

GENERAL.

Claims for compensation upon compulsory acquisition, etc. 18. Subject to any resolution or direction of the Conference or of any Committee appointed by it for the purpose, the Trust may act in relation to the exchange, dedication or compulsory acquisition of any property vested in it, may make claims for compensation in respect thereof and may or direction of the Conference, his executors and administrators, shall be entitled to be indemnified out of trust property against all expenses or liabilities incurred by him in connection with the exercise by him of the power and the performance by him of the duty.

23. The service of any writ, statement of claim, summons or other legal process on the Trust may be effected by serving it on the President, Secretary, Property Secretary or Connexional Secretary of the Conference or on any person appearing to be authorised by the Trust to accept service thereof.

Service of documents.

24. (1) Legal proceedings relating to any trust property or to any contract or other matter arising out of the management, administration or development of any trust property may be brought in the name of the Trust or in his own name on behalf of the Trust by any person authorised so to do by the Trust.

Legal proceedings.

(2) The Trust may sue and be sued in all actions and proceedings whether at law or in equity for the purpose of ascertaining whether any property is property that is vested in the Trust by or pursuant to this Act and of ascertaining the trusts upon which any such property is held.

25. (1) The Trust may, if it is otherwise competent so to do—

Trust may act as executor, etc.

- (a) apply for and obtain, or join in applying for and obtaining, probate of the will, or letters of administration of the estate, of a deceased person where the Church has a beneficial interest, vested or contingent, in the estate of that person; or
- (b) accept appointment, and act, as trustee or co-trustee under and in pursuance of any trust where the trust property is not vested in the Trust by, or pursuant to, this Act, and the trust was created wholly or partly for the benefit of the Church,

and

and may do all things necessary for the exercise or performance of its powers, authorities, duties or functions as executor, administrator or trustee, as the case may be.

(2) On behalf of the Trust, a member of the Trust or a person employed by the Trust may, if authorised by the Trust for the purpose, swear an affidavit, make a declaration or statement, give security and do any other act or thing that is, by any charter, Act or rule of court, required to be done by a person applying for or granted probate or letters of administration, or administering a trust, as the case may be.

(3) The Trust may—

- (a) renounce executorship;
- (b) decline to act as administrator of an estate;
- (c) retire, or decline to act, as trustee of property (not being property vested in it by or pursuant to this Act).

(4) Any commission or other remuneration earned by the Trust as an executor, administrator or trustee appointed under the authority of this section shall belong to the Trust and shall be used and applied by it for or towards any object or purpose specified or approved by the Conference in respect thereof.

26. The Trust may hold or acquire any real or personal property either alone or jointly with another or others as joint tenant or tenant-in-common. Trust may hold property jointly.

27. The Trust shall make arrangements for the preservation and custody of The Methodist Church Register of Trustees for New South Wales maintained before the appointed day under the Wesleyan Methodist Church Property Trust Act, 1889, and any extract purporting to be an extract from that register in or to the effect of the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act certified under the common seal of the Trust shall without the production of that register be received and taken in all legal proceedings and Register of former trustees.

and in all dealings with land and on all occasions whatsoever as sufficient evidence of the several matters comprised in the extract in so far as they may relate to the land specified in the certificate.

Resolutions. 28. (1) The Conference may, by resolution, regulate and control the management and administration of, and dealings with, trust property, but no such resolution shall take effect unless it is approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia or any person or body authorised by it for the purpose.

(2) The "Regulations for Trust Committees" approved by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Australasia in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six shall have the force and effect of resolutions made and approved under subsection one of this section.

(3) A certificate signed by the President for the time being of the Conference that specifies in the certificate or an annexure thereto the form of a resolution under subsection one of this section and in force on a day specified in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the resolution was in force in that form on that day.

(4) A resolution under subsection one of this section may from time to time be rescinded, revoked, altered or varied by the Conference but no such rescission, revocation, alteration or variation shall take effect unless it is approved in the same manner as a resolution.

PART V.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER DENOMINATIONS.

Co-operative use of property. 29. (1) Where it has been decided in accordance with the laws of the Methodist Church of Australasia to enter into a scheme of co-operation with or involving a church of another denomination or any congregation or activity of such a church, being a scheme that involves the use of property vested

vested in the Trust, the Trust may, while the scheme of co-operation continues in force, permit that property to be used, managed and administered in connection with that scheme in such manner and upon such conditions as the Conference, or any committee appointed by it for the purpose, determines or prescribes, and the proceeds of sale or mortgage or any other dealing with such property and all moneys collected or held in respect of such scheme of co-operation may be paid and applied in such manner as may be determined or prescribed by the Conference or such committee.

(2) The conditions that the Conference may determine or prescribe under subsection one of this section include conditions with respect to the making of contributions of money for the acquisition, construction, alteration, maintenance or repair of assets vested in or held on behalf of a co-operating church or congregation and the giving or taking of such security or charge as may be prescribed by any such scheme of co-operation over any property in respect of any contributions of money or in money's worth made or received pursuant to that scheme and any property of the Trust involved in any such scheme is, to the extent prescribed therein, hereby charged.

(3) Neither the Registrar-General nor any person dealing bona fide and for value with any property vested in the Trust shall be bound to enquire whether any security or charge referred to in subsection two of this section exists or be deemed to have notice thereof or be bound thereby by virtue only of this Act or the existence of any scheme of co-operation under this section and—

- (a) a conveyance, transfer or other assurance to such a person shall operate as a discharge of any security or charge so referred to, in so far as the property conveyed, transferred or assured would, but for this subsection, be subject thereto; and
- (b) a mortgage or charge in favour of such a person shall have priority over any security or charge so referred to that affects the property mortgaged or charged in favour of that person.

Methodist Church (N.S.W.) Property Trust.

30. (1) The provisions of section twenty-nine of this Act shall apply to and in relation to all property at any time held by the Trust except to the extent that any such property is held subject to any express trust expressly forbidding its use in any manner referred to in that section.

(2) Subsection one of this section shall not apply to prevent the use of property in a manner referred to in section twenty-nine of this Act if the property is merely directed to be held on trust for Methodist worship or purposes.
