- (d) by inserting at the end of section 112D the following new paragraph :—

Sec. 112D.
(Non-aggregated property—exemption from duty in certain cases.)

This section shall, in the case of every person who dies after the commencement of section three of the Stamp Duties (Amendment) Act, 1970, be read and construed as if—

- (a) the words “seven thousand five hundred pounds” were omitted therefrom and the words “forty thousand dollars” were inserted in lieu thereof;
- (b) the words “or grandchildren” were omitted therefrom and the words “grandchildren, wholly dependent widower father or wholly dependent widowed mother” were inserted in lieu thereof.

4. The Stamp Duties Act, 1920, is further amended by inserting next after section 112E the following new section :—

Further amendment of Act No. 47, 1920.
New sec. 112F.

112F. (1) Where any property is included or is deemed to be included in the dutiable estate of a person (in this section referred to as a successor) dying after the

Quick successions.

Stamp Duties (Amendment).

the commencement of section four of the Stamp Duties (Amendment) Act, 1970, and the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that the property is identifiable with, or has been substituted for, property which was included or was deemed to be included in the dutiable estate of any person (in this section referred to as a predecessor) who died within three years before the death of that successor and death duty was paid in respect of that property;
- (b) that as at the death of the predecessor that property was vested in, or on the death of the predecessor that property passed to or devolved upon, the widow, widower, child, parent, brother or sister of the predecessor;
- (c) that the person entitled to that property immediately before the death of the successor did not acquire that property by or under a purchase for a consideration in money or money's worth made after the death of the predecessor (whether by him or another); and
- (d) that as at the death of the successor that property was vested in, or on the death of the successor, that property passed to or devolved upon, the widow, widower, child, parent, brother or sister of the successor, then subject to the provisions of subsections two and three of this section the amount of death duty payable on the death of the successor in respect of the property shall be reduced as follows :—

Where the death of the successor occurs within six months after the death of the predecessor—by one hundred per centum.

Where

Stamp Duties (Amendment).

Where the death of the successor occurs after the expiration of six months but before the expiration of one year after the death of the predecessor—by fifty per centum.

Where the death of the successor occurs after the expiration of one year but before the expiration of two years after the death of the predecessor—by twenty-five per centum.

Where the death of the successor occurs after the expiration of two years but before the expiration of three years after the death of the predecessor—by ten per centum.

(2) Where there is more than one predecessor's death by reference to which a reduction of death duty in respect of property could be made in accordance with this section, the reduction shall be made by reference to such one of those deaths as will result in the greater or greatest reduction.

(3) Where the amount of death duty that but for the operation of subsection one of this section would have been payable on the death of a successor in respect of any property exceeds the amount of death duty paid, in respect of that property or the property for which that property was substituted, on the predecessor's death by reference to which a reduction of death duty is to be made in accordance with this section, the reduction shall be the appropriate percentage referred to in that subsection of the lastmentioned amount.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

A. R. CUTLER,
Governor.
