Constitution of Council.

10. (1) The Council shall consist of—

- (a) parliamentary members;
- (b) official members;
- (c) elected members; and
- (d) appointed members.

(2) The parliamentary members of the Council shall be—

- (a) a member of the Legislative Council elected by that Council as soon as practicable after the commencement of the term of service of the members of that Council elected at each election held as required by subsection five of section 17F of the Constitution Act, 1902; and
- (b) a member of the Legislative Assembly elected by that Assembly as soon as practicable after each general election of members of that Assembly.

(3) The official members of the Council shall be—

- (a) the person for the time being holding the office of Chancellor, where he is not otherwise a member of the Council;
- (b) the person for the time being holding the office of Vice-Chancellor;
- (c) the person for the time being holding the office of Chairman of the Professorial Board of the University; and

(d)

University of New England (Amendment).

- (d) the person for the time being holding the office of Principal of the Armidale Teachers' College.

(4) The elected members of the Council shall be elected in such manner as for each class may be prescribed by the By-laws and shall comprise—

- (a) two persons so elected by the students of the University;
- (b) six persons so elected by the members of Convocation;
- (c) four persons so elected by such members of the academic staff of the University as may be prescribed by the By-laws; and
- (d) four persons so elected by the other members of the Council for the time being holding office:

Provided that—

- (i) a person who is not a student of the University shall be ineligible to be elected as a member of the Council in pursuance of paragraph (a) of this subsection;
- (ii) a person who is a full time member of the staff of the University shall be ineligible to be elected as a member of the Council in pursuance of paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(iv)

University of New England (Amendment).

- (iv) a person who is not a member of the academic staff of the University referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be ineligible to be elected as a member of the Council in pursuance of that paragraph.

The By-laws may make provision for or with respect to determining whether or not a person is a full time member of the staff of the University for the purposes of this subsection.

(5) The appointed members of the Council shall comprise seven persons appointed by the Governor.

(6) Subject to this Act, a member of the Council shall hold office—

- (a) in the case of a parliamentary member, until a member of the House of Parliament that elected him is elected by that House to replace him;
- (b) in the case of an official member, while he holds the office by virtue of which he is such a member; and
- (c) in the case of an elected or appointed member, for such period not exceeding three years as may be prescribed by the By-laws.

The By-laws may prescribe—

- (i) a period of office by reference to determined, or determinable, days of commencement and termination; and
- (ii) different periods of office in respect of different classes of members.

University of New England (Amendment).

(7) A casual vacancy in the office of an elected or appointed member shall—

(a) be filled—

(i) in the case of an elected member (not being a member referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph) or an appointed member—by a person (being a person who could have filled the vacancy had it not been a casual vacancy) elected or appointed in the same manner as the member whose office is vacant; or

(ii) in the case of a member elected in pursuance of paragraph (b) of subsection four of this section—by a person appointed by the Council in such manner as is prescribed for the purposes of this subparagraph by the By-laws; or

(b) where the By-laws make other provision for the filling of the casual vacancy, be filled in accordance therewith, and any member filling a casual vacancy under this subsection shall hold office for the residue of the term of office of his predecessor.

(8) The provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, shall not apply to or in respect of the appointment by the Governor of any member of the Council, and any member so appointed shall not, in his capacity as such member, be subject to the provisions of that Act during his term of office.

(9)

University of New England (Amendment).
