Conveyancing (Amendment).

(xxx) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

5 (4) A covenant by a person is not implied by the operation of this section in a conveyance executed after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, where—

10 (a) that person is not therein expressed to be conveying as beneficial owner, or as settlor, or as trustee, or as mortgagee, or as executor or administrator, or in a specified capacity for the time being apt to describe a person having the management and care of the property of a person under mental disability, or under an order of the court; or 15 (b) the conveyance is expressed to be at the direction of that person, but he—20 (i) did not execute the conveyance; or

(ii) is not therein expressed to have given the direction as beneficial owner.

25 (xxxi) by omitting subsection six of the same section ;

(b) by omitting from subsection two of section eighty-three the word "instruments" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "dealings";

Sec. 83.
(Implied covenants,— with mortgagees.)

30 (c) by omitting subsection three of section eighty-eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

Sec. 88.
(Limitation of enforceability of easements and restrictions of user of land.)

(3) This section applies to land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and in respect thereof—

35 (a) the Registrar-General shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, power to record

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 record a restriction referred to in subsection one of this section upon the folio of the Register kept under that Act that relates to the land subject to the burden of the restriction, to record in like manner any dealing purporting to affect the operation of a restriction so recorded and to record in like manner any release, variation or modification of the restriction;

10 (b) a recording in the Register kept under that Act of any such restriction shall not give the restriction any greater operation than it has under the dealing creating it; and

15 (c) a restriction so recorded is an interest within the meaning of section forty-two of that Act.

(d) by omitting from subsection three of section 88B the word "notify" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "record";

Sec. 88B.
(Creation of easements and restrictions as to user by plans of subdivision.)

20 (e) by inserting next after section 88B the following new sections:—

New secs. 88C and 88D.

25 88C. (1) In this section "restriction" means a restriction as to the user of land that arose, under covenant or otherwise, before the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, or so arises after that commencement, the benefit of which is intended to be annexed to other land.

Restrictions relating to brick construction.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

30 (a) a wall of a building or structure is of brick veneer construction in so far as the outer part of that wall consists of brick having a thickness of at least three inches and the inner part of that wall consists of a material other than brick; and

(b)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) a building or structure is of brick veneer construction if its external walls are of brick veneer construction, or partly of brick construction and partly of brick veneer construction, whether or not its other walls are so constructed.

(3) To the extent to which a restriction—
10 (a) does not operate to prohibit the erection on land to which the restriction relates of a building or structure having walls of brick; and

15 (b) does not exclude the operation of this section by specific reference thereto or does not, by the express use in the instrument under which it arises of terms appropriate to describe brick veneer construction, operate to prohibit the use of that form of construction in a building or structure to be erected on that land,

20 it is not a breach of the restriction to erect on that land a building or structure of brick veneer construction.

25 (4) This section applies to and in respect of a building or structure erected before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, and so applies as if a building or structure erected before that commencement had been erected after that commencement.

30 88D. (1) In this section—
“prescribed authority” means—

(a) the Crown; or

(b) a public or local authority constituted by an Act;

35 “prescribed land” means land vested in a prescribed authority.

Restriction on user of certain land.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

(2) Where he considers it to be in the public interest so to do, the Governor may restrict the user of prescribed land by an order published in the Gazette that—

- 5 (a) describes the land in a manner enabling it to be identified and specifies, in the case of land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the reference to the folio of the Register kept under that Act,
10 or the registered dealing under that Act, that evidences the title to that land;
- (b) specifies the terms of the restriction; and
- (c) specifies the prescribed authority in which the land is vested.

15 (3) Subject to subsection seven of this section, upon lodgment in a form approved by the Registrar-General of a copy of an order published under subsection two of this section, the Registrar-General shall—

- 20 (a) where the land to which the order relates is land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900—record the restriction on the folio of the Register kept under that Act, or the registered dealing under that Act, that evidences the title to that land;
- 25 (b) in any other case—cause the copy of the order to be registered in the General Registry of Deeds kept under the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897.

30 (4) For the purposes of the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, a copy of an order registered pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection three of this section shall be deemed to be a registration copy of an instrument duly registered under that 35 Act.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

(5) A restriction referred to in an order published under subsection two of this section—

(a) has no force or effect—

5 (i) unless it is recorded, or the copy of the order is registered, pursuant to subsection three of this section; and

10 (ii) unless, at the time when that recording or registration is effected, the land to which the restriction relates is vested in the prescribed authority specified in the order,

and subject thereto takes effect upon being so recorded or registered; and

15 (b) when recorded as provided by paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, has no greater operation than it has under the order that relates to it and under this section.

20 (6) Where a restriction is recorded pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, the title of the registered proprietor of land to which the restriction relates is, for the purposes of section forty-two of the Real Property Act, 1900, subject to the restriction.

25 (7) Where the Registrar-General is satisfied that, by the operation of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five of this section, a restriction referred to in an order published under subsection two of this section would have no force or effect if recorded under subsection three of this section or if a copy of the order in which the restriction is referred to is registered under that subsection, he shall, where the land described in

5 the order is land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and may, in any other case, refuse to record the restriction or, as the case may require, to register a copy of the order in which the restriction is referred to.

10 (8) Subject to subsection nine of this section, where a restriction takes effect under this section the prescribed authority specified in the order by which the restriction was imposed may enforce the restriction against a person claiming an interest in the land described in the order as if, upon the acquisition by that person of that interest, he had entered into a binding covenant with that prescribed authority to observe the restriction.

15 (9) Subsection eight of this section does not authorise enforcement against a person claiming an interest in land of a restriction on the user of the land imposed by this section where that person—

20 (a) is a person who, at the time the restriction took effect, had acquired that interest or had acquired or become entitled to an option to purchase that interest; or

25 (b) is a person claiming that interest through or under a person referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

30 (10) The powers of the Governor to alter or vary an order made by him do not extend to an order published under subsection two of this section.

35 (11) The powers of the Governor to rescind or revoke an order published under subsection two of this section may be exercised in relation to the whole of the land described in the order or any part thereof.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (12) Where an order rescinding or revoking an order published under subsection two of this section is published in the Gazette, the prescribed authority specified in the order rescinded or
 10 revoked shall lodge with the Registrar-General in a form approved by him a copy of the order of rescission or revocation and subsections three and four of this section shall apply to and in respect
 15 of such a copy so lodged as if it were a copy of an order published under subsection two of this section.

- (f) (i) by inserting in subsection seven of section Sec. 89.
 15 eighty-nine after the word "section" the words (Power for court to modify or extinguish easements and restrictive covenants.)
 "affecting land not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900,";
- (ii) by omitting subsection eight of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

20 (8) This section applies to land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the Registrar-General shall, on application made in the form approved under that Act, make all necessary recordings in the Register kept under that Act for giving effect
 25 to the order.

30 For the purposes of this subsection, a grant, certificate of title or duplicate registered dealing that is not in the possession of the Registrar-General shall be deemed to be wrongfully retained within the meaning of section one hundred and thirty-six of the Real Property Act, 1900.

- 35 (iii) by omitting from subsection nine of the same section the words "other land" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "land which is not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900,".

Conveyancing (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section do not apply to or in respect of conveyance dated the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, from Bankstown Finance and Investment Co. Pty. Limited to Coronet Homes Pty. Limited, registered under the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, as book 2548 number 523.

8. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 6, 1919. Part VII. (Mortgages.)

10 (a) by omitting subsection six of section ninety-one and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

Sec. 91. (Indorsements on mortgages.)

15 (6) Subject to the memorandum referred to in subsection one of this section being in or to the effect of an approved form within the meaning of the Real Property Act, 1900, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of that subsection apply to mortgages under that Act and, upon lodgment of such a memorandum for registration, the Registrar-General shall make such recordings in the Register kept under that Act as may be necessary to give effect to the memorandum.

20 (b) (i) by omitting subsection one of section ninety-eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections :—

Sec. 98. (Facilitation of redemption in case of absent or unknown mortgagees.)

25 (1) Where land is subject to a mortgage and the person empowered to reconvey the land or, where the land is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, to execute in respect thereof a discharge referred to in section sixty-five of that Act, is out of the jurisdiction, cannot be found or is unknown, or if it is uncertain who that person is, the court may, upon the application of the person for 30

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 for the time being entitled to redeem the mortgaged land, determine in such manner as the court thinks fit whether or not all amounts due under the mortgage have been paid and, if not, the amount thereof outstanding.

10 (1A) Where the court has made a determination under subsection one of this section in relation to a mortgage, the mortgagee is, to the extent provided by this section, liable to pay the costs of the applicant incurred in obtaining the determination, any rule of law or stipulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

15 (1B) The amount of costs that a mortgagee is liable under subsection (1A) of this section to pay in respect of a determination under subsection one of this section is the amount by which—

exceeds—

25 (b) the amount of remuneration that would have been payable by the mortgagee pursuant to the general order for the time being in force under section two hundred and six of this Act if—

30 (i) a discharge of the mortgage had been executed at the time the determination was made; and

35 (ii) that general order had been applicable in respect of that discharge of mortgage.

(1C)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (1C) The amount of costs that a mortgagee is liable, under subsection (1A) of this section, to pay to an applicant shall, except to the extent that it is extinguished or reduced by the operation of this section, be deemed to be a specialty debt recoverable by the applicant and incurred at the time of the making of the determination to which the costs relate.

10 (1D) Where the court determines under subsection one of this section that the amount due under a mortgage has not been repaid and the amount thereof determined by the court to be outstanding exceeds the amount of costs calculated under subsection (1B) of this section in respect of the determination, the applicant for the determination may pay into court the difference between the amount so determined and the amount so calculated and, upon the amount of that difference being so paid—

20 (a) the amount due under the mortgage at the time of the payment into court shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so calculated and by the amount paid into court; and

25 (b) the debt owing under subsection (1C) of this section by the mortgagee to the applicant shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

30 (1E) Where the court determines under subsection one of this section that the amount due under a mortgage has not been repaid and the amount thereof determined by the court to be outstanding is equal to or less than

35 the amount of costs calculated under subsection (1B) of this section in respect of the determination—

- (a) the amount due under the mortgage at the time of the determination shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so determined;
- 5 (b) the debt owing under subsection (1C) of this section by the mortgagee to the applicant for the determination shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so determined; and
- 10 (c) for the purposes of subsection (1F) of this section, the court shall be deemed to have determined that the amount due under the mortgage has been repaid.
- 15 (1F) Where—
- (a) the court determines under this section that the amount due under a mortgage has been repaid, whether by the operation of paragraph (c) of subsection (1E) of this section or otherwise; or
- 20 (b) payment into court is made under subsection (1D) of this section,
- 25 an officer of the court prescribed by rules of court may give a certificate to the effect that this section has been complied with in relation to the mortgage in respect of which the determination was made or the money paid into court.
- 30 (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—
- 35 (2) In favour of a purchaser of land comprised in a mortgage referred to in a certificate given under subsection (1F) of this section, the certificate operates as a discharge of the land from the amount due under the mortgage, and

- 5 (iii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "the amount so paid into court" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an amount paid into court under subsection (1D) of this section";
- 10 (iv) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection :—

15 (3A) A determination by the court under this section with respect to a mortgage is not, as between persons referred to in subsection one of this section, conclusive as to—

- (a) whether or not an amount is due under the mortgage at the time of the determination; or
- 20 (b) whether the amount determined by the court to be due under the mortgage is the amount so due at the time of the determination,

25 and, except to the extent of the operation of paragraph (a) of subsections (1D) and (1E), and of subsection two, of this section, that determination does not prejudice any right conferred by the mortgage for the recovery of an amount due thereunder.

- 30 (v) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

35 (4) This section, subsection two excepted, applies to and in respect of mortgages under the Real Property Act, 1900, and, upon production to the Registrar-General of a certificate under subsection (1F) of this section that relates to such a mortgage, the Registrar-General—

- DIVISION 4.—Options in leases.
- 20 133c. In this Division—
- Interpretation.
- (a) a reference to an option contained in a lease is a reference to a right on the part of the lessee to require the lessor—
- 25 (i) to sell, or offer to sell, to the lessee the reversion expectant on the lease; or
- (ii) to grant, or offer to grant, to the lessee a renewal or extension of the lease, or a further lease, of the demised premises or a part thereof,
- 30 whether the right is conferred by the lease or by an agreement collateral to the lease; and

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) a reference to a breach by a lessee of his obligations under a lease containing an option is a reference to a breach of those obligations by an act done or omitted to be done before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, in so far as the act or omission would constitute a breach of those obligations if there were no option contained in the lease.

10 133D. (1) This Division applies to and in respect of leases granted before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, and options contained therein.

15 (2) This Division has effect notwithstanding—

- (a) any stipulation to the contrary; and
- (b) the provisions of subsection three of section fifty-three of the Real Property Act, 1900.

20 133E. (1) In this Division “prescribed notice” means a notice in writing that—

- (a) specifies an act or omission; and
- (b) states that, subject to any order of the court under section 133F of this Act, a lessor giving the notice proposes to treat that act or omission as having precluded a lessee on whom the notice is served from exercising an option contained in the lease.

30 (2) Where an act or omission that constituted a breach by a lessee of his obligations under a lease containing an option would, but for this section, have had the effect of precluding the lessee

lessee from exercising the option, the act or omission shall be deemed not to have had that effect where the lessee purports to exercise the option unless, during the period of fourteen days next succeeding the purported exercise of the option, the lessor serves on the lessee prescribed notice of the act or omission and—

- (a) an order for relief against the effect of the breach in relation to the purported exercise of the option is not sought from the court before the expiration of the period of one month next succeeding service of the notice; or

15

- (b) where such relief is so sought—

20

- (i) the proceedings in which the relief is sought are disposed of, in so far as they relate to that relief, otherwise than by granting relief; or

- (ii) where relief is granted upon terms to be complied with by the lessee before compliance by the lessor with the order granting relief, the lessee fails to comply with those terms within the time stipulated by the court for the purpose.

133F. (1) Relief referred to in section 133E of this Act may be sought—

Court may grant relief from breach of certain obligations.

30

- (a) in proceedings instituted in the court for the purpose; or

- (b) in proceedings in the court in which—

- (i) the existence of an alleged breach by the lessee of his obligations under the lease; or

(ii)

(ii) the effect of the breach from which relief is sought, is in issue.

5 (2) The court may, in proceedings in which relief referred to in section 133E of this Act is sought—

(a) make such orders (including orders affecting an assignee of the reversion) as it thinks fit for the purpose of granting the relief sought; or

10 (b) refuse to grant the relief sought.

(3) The court may, in proceedings referred to in subsection two of this section, take into consideration—

15 (a) the nature of the breach complained of;

(b) the extent to which, at the date of the institution of the proceedings, the lessor was prejudiced by the breach;

20 (c) the conduct of the lessor and the lessee, including conduct after the giving of the prescribed notice;

(d) the rights of persons other than the lessor and the lessee;

25 (e) the operation of section 133G of this Act; and

(f) any other circumstances considered by the court to be relevant.

(4) The court—

30 (a) may make an order under subsection two of this section on such terms as to costs, damages, compensation or penalty, or on such other terms, as the court thinks fit; and

(b)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

(b) may make any consequential or ancillary order it considers necessary to give effect to an order made under that subsection.

5 133G. (1) Subject to any order of the court and to this section— Lease to continue in force until issue decided.

(a) where—

- (i) an option is contained in a lease;
- (ii) the lessee exercises, or purports to exercise, the option; and
- 10 (iii) the lease would, but for this paragraph, expire within the period of fourteen days after the exercise, or purported exercise, of the option,

15 the lease shall be deemed to continue in force until the expiration of that period;

(b) where—

- (i) a prescribed notice is duly served on a lessee; and
- 20 (ii) the lease in respect of which the notice is served would, but for this paragraph, expire within the period of one month referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection two of section 133E of this Act,

25 the lease shall be deemed to continue in force until the expiration of that period; and

30 (c) where, in relation to a lease continued in force under paragraph (b) of this subsection, relief referred to in section 133E of this Act is sought by a lessee, the lease shall,

subject to subsections two and three of this section, be deemed to continue in force until—

- 5 (i) the proceedings in which the relief is sought are disposed of, in so far as they relate to that relief, otherwise than by granting the relief; or
- 10 (ii) effect is given to orders made by the court in granting that relief in so far as they affect the lessor or relate to an assurance to the lessee.

(2) Paragraph (c) of subsection one of this section—

- 15 (a) does not apply to or in respect of a lease that, but for that paragraph, would continue in force for a period longer than the period for which it is, by the operation of that paragraph, continued in force; and
- 20 (b) does not, where a lessee fails to comply with terms imposed upon him pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection four of section 133F of this Act, operate to continue the lease in force beyond the time of that failure by the lessee.

25 (3) Where, under subsection one of this section, a lease continues in force after the day on which, but for that subsection, it would expire—

- 30 (a) the lease so continues in force subject to the provisions, stipulations, covenants, conditions and agreements in the lease (other than those relating to the term and the option contained in the lease) but without prejudice to any rights or remedies of the lessor or lessee in relation to the lease; and

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) the lessee, if the lease is of land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the lessee is in possession of the demised premises, has the protection of paragraph (d) of section forty-two of that Act as if the lease were a tenancy referred to in that paragraph.

10 (4) Subject to subsection five of this section, where, pursuant to an option contained in a lease continued in force under subsection one of this section, the lease is renewed or a new lease is granted, the period during which the lease was so continued in force shall be deemed to be part of the term for which the lease was renewed or the new lease granted, and any lease granted pursuant to an exercise of the option shall be expressed to have commenced when the lease containing the option would, but for subsection one of this section, have expired.

20 (5) Subsection four of this section does not apply to or in respect of a lease that stipulates for the commencement of any lease granted pursuant to an exercise of the option contained therein on a day that is later than the day on which the lease so granted would, but for this subsection, commence under subsection four of this section.

CONVEYANCING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1971

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to bring the phraseology of the Principal Act into conformity with that of the Real Property Act, 1900;
- (b) to amend those provisions of the Principal Act that have become redundant or have been otherwise affected by Commonwealth bankruptcy legislation;
- (c) to authorise the Registrar-General, in certain circumstances and subject to certain safeguards, to destroy common law deeds relating to land that has been brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900;
- (d) to amend the provisions of the Principal Act relating to implied covenants for title, etc.;
- (e) to provide that the erection of a brick veneer building does not contravene a covenant requiring the erection of a brick building unless brick veneer construction is expressly prohibited by the covenant;
- (f) to provide for the creation in the public interest of a restriction on the user of land vested in the Crown or a public authority, and to provide for the enforcement of such a restriction against successive holders of the land notwithstanding that no other land is benefited by the restriction;
- (g) to provide that, in certain cases where no person is immediately available to execute a discharge of a mortgage or a reconveyance of mortgaged land, a proportion of the cost of certain proceedings in the court is to be recoverable;
- (h) to enable the court to give effect to the purported exercise by a lessee of an option to purchase, or to renew the lease of, demised premises notwithstanding an antecedent breach by the lessee of certain of his obligations under the lease;
- (i) to make further provisions with respect to the lodging in the office of the Registrar-General of plans defining land boundaries and with respect to the registration thereof;
- (j) to make provisions with respect to the rescission of notifications of resumption;
- (k) to clarify the regulation-making power under the Real Property Act, 1900;
- (l) to make provisions consequential upon or ancillary to the foregoing.

(Limitation of enforceability of easements and restrictions of user of land.)

(3) This section applies to land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and in respect thereof—

35 (a) the Registrar-General shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, power to
 (xxx) record

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 record a restriction referred to in subsection one of this section upon the folio of the Register kept under that Act that relates to the land subject to the burden of the restriction, to record in like manner any dealing purporting to affect the operation of a restriction so recorded and to record in like manner any release, variation or modification of the restriction;

10 (b) a recording in the Register kept under that Act of any such restriction shall not give the restriction any greater operation than it has under the dealing creating it; and 15 (c) a restriction so recorded is an interest within the meaning of section forty-two of that Act.

(d) by omitting from subsection three of section 88B the word "notify" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "record";

Sec. 88B.
(Creation of easements and restrictions as to user by plans of subdivision.)

20 (e) by inserting next after section 88B the following new sections :—

New secs. 88c and 88d.

25 88c. (1) In this section "restriction" means a restriction as to the user of land that arose, under covenant or otherwise, before the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, or so arises after that commencement, the benefit of which is intended to be annexed to other land.

Restrictions relating to brick construction.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

30 (a) a wall of a building or structure is of brick veneer construction in so far as the outer part of that wall consists of brick having a thickness of at least three inches and the inner part of that wall consists of a material other than brick; and

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) a building or structure is of brick veneer construction if its external walls are of brick veneer construction, or partly of brick construction and partly of brick veneer construction, whether or not its other walls are so constructed.

(3) To the extent to which a restriction—
10 (a) does not operate to prohibit the erection on land to which the restriction relates of a building or structure having walls of brick; and

15 (b) does not exclude the operation of this section by specific reference thereto or does not, by the express use in the instrument under which it arises of terms appropriate to describe brick veneer construction, operate to prohibit the use of that form of construction in a building or structure to be erected on that land,

20 it is not a breach of the restriction to erect on that land a building or structure of brick veneer construction.

25 (4) This section applies to and in respect of a building or structure erected before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, and so applies as if a building or structure erected before that commencement had been erected after that commencement.

30 88D. (1) In this section—

“prescribed authority” means—

(a) the Crown; or

(b) a public or local authority constituted by an Act;

35 “prescribed land” means land vested in a prescribed authority.

Restriction on user of certain land.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

(2) Where he considers it to be in the public interest so to do, the Governor may restrict the user of prescribed land by an order published in the Gazette that—

- 5 (a) describes the land in a manner enabling it to be identified and specifies, in the case of land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the reference to the folio of the Register kept under that Act,
10 or the registered dealing under that Act, that evidences the title to that land;
- (b) specifies the terms of the restriction; and
- (c) specifies the prescribed authority in which the land is vested.

15 (3) Subject to subsection seven of this section, upon lodgment in a form approved by the Registrar-General of a copy of an order published under subsection two of this section, the Registrar-General shall—

- 20 (a) where the land to which the order relates is land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900—record the restriction on the folio of the Register kept under that Act, or the registered dealing under that 25 Act, that evidences the title to that land;
- (b) in any other case—cause the copy of the order to be registered in the General Registry of Deeds kept under the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897.

30 (4) For the purposes of the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, a copy of an order registered pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection three of this section shall be deemed to be a registration
35 copy of an instrument duly registered under that Act.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

(5) A restriction referred to in an order published under subsection two of this section—

(a) has no force or effect—

(i) unless it is recorded, or the copy of the order is registered, pursuant to subsection three of this section; and

10

(ii) unless, at the time when that recording or registration is effected, the land to which the restriction relates is vested in the prescribed authority specified in the order,

and subject thereto takes effect upon being so recorded or registered; and

15

(b) when recorded as provided by paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, has no greater operation than it has under the order that relates to it and under this section.

20

(6) Where a restriction is recorded pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, the title of the registered proprietor of land to which the restriction relates is, for the purposes of section forty-two of the Real Property Act, 1900, subject to the restriction.

(7) Where the Registrar-General is satisfied that, by the operation of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five of this section, a restriction referred to in an order published under subsection two of this section would have no force or effect if recorded under subsection three of this section or if a copy of the order in which the restriction is referred to is registered under that subsection, he shall, where the land described in

5 the order is land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and may, in any other case, refuse to record the restriction or, as the case may require, to register a copy of the order in which the restriction is referred to.

10 (8) Subject to subsection nine of this section, where a restriction takes effect under this section the prescribed authority specified in the order by which the restriction was imposed may enforce the restriction against a person claiming an interest in the land described in the order as if, upon the acquisition by that person of that interest, he had entered into a binding covenant with that prescribed authority to observe the restriction.

15 (9) Subsection eight of this section does not authorise enforcement against a person claiming an interest in land of a restriction on the user of the land imposed by this section where that person—

20 (a) is a person who, at the time the restriction took effect, had acquired that interest or had acquired or become entitled to an option to purchase that interest; or

25 (b) is a person claiming that interest through or under a person referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

30 (10) The powers of the Governor to alter or vary an order made by him do not extend to an order published under subsection two of this section.

35 (11) The powers of the Governor to rescind or revoke an order published under subsection two of this section may be exercised in relation to the whole of the land described in the order or any part thereof.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (12) Where an order rescinding or revoking an order published under subsection two of this section is published in the Gazette, the prescribed authority specified in the order rescinded or
 10 revoked shall lodge with the Registrar-General in a form approved by him a copy of the order of rescission or revocation and subsections three and four of this section shall apply to and in respect of such a copy so lodged as if it were a copy of an order published under subsection two of this section.

- (f) (i) by inserting in subsection seven of section Sec. 89.
 eighty-nine after the word "section" the words (Power for court to modify or extinguish easements and restrictive covenants.)
 "affecting land not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900,";
 15 (ii) by omitting subsection eight of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

20 (8) This section applies to land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the Registrar-General shall, on application made in the form approved under that Act, make all necessary recordings in the Register kept under that Act for giving effect
 25 to the order.

For the purposes of this subsection, a grant, certificate of title or duplicate registered dealing that is not in the possession of the Registrar-General shall be deemed to be 30 wrongfully retained within the meaning of section one hundred and thirty-six of the Real Property Act, 1900.

- (iii) by omitting from subsection nine of the same section the words "other land" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "land which is 35 not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900,".

Conveyancing (Amendment).

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section do not apply to or in respect of conveyance dated the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, from Bankstown Finance and Investment Co. Pty. Limited to Coronet Homes Pty. Limited, registered under the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, as book 2548 number 523.

8. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 6, 1919. Part VII. (Mortgages.)

10 (a) by omitting subsection six of section ninety-one and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

Sec. 91. (Indorsements on mortgages.)

15 (6) Subject to the memorandum referred to in subsection one of this section being in or to the effect of an approved form within the meaning of the Real Property Act, 1900, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of that subsection apply to mortgages under that Act and, upon lodgment of such a memorandum for registration, the Registrar-General shall make such recordings in the Register kept under that Act as may be necessary to give effect to the memorandum.

20

(b) (i) by omitting subsection one of section ninety-eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections :—

Sec. 98. (Facilitation of redemption in case of absent or unknown mortgagees.)

25 (1) Where land is subject to a mortgage and the person empowered to reconvey the land or, where the land is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, to execute in respect thereof a discharge referred to in section sixty-five of that Act, is out of the jurisdiction, cannot be found or is unknown, or if it is uncertain who that person is, the court may, upon the application of the person for

5 for the time being entitled to redeem the mortgaged land, determine in such manner as the court thinks fit whether or not all amounts due under the mortgage have been paid and, if not, the amount thereof outstanding.

10 (1A) Where the court has made a determination under subsection one of this section in relation to a mortgage, the mortgagee is, to the extent provided by this section, liable to pay the costs of the applicant incurred in obtaining the determination, any rule of law or stipulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

15 (1B) The amount of costs that a mortgagee is liable under subsection (1A) of this section to pay in respect of a determination under subsection one of this section is the amount by which—

20 (a) the amount certified by the court when making the determination as reasonable costs of the applicant incurred in obtaining the determination, exceeds—

25 (b) the amount of remuneration that would have been payable by the mortgagee pursuant to the general order for the time being in force under section two hundred and six of this Act if—

30 (i) a discharge of the mortgage had been executed at the time the determination was made; and

35 (ii) that general order had been applicable in respect of that discharge of mortgage.

(1c)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

5 (1C) The amount of costs that a mortgagee is liable, under subsection (1A) of this section, to pay to an applicant shall, except to the extent that it is extinguished or reduced by the operation of this section, be deemed to be a specialty debt recoverable by the applicant and incurred at the time of the making of the determination to which the costs relate.

10 (1D) Where the court determines under subsection one of this section that the amount due under a mortgage has not been repaid and the amount thereof determined by the court to be outstanding exceeds the amount of costs calculated under subsection (1B) of this section in respect of the determination, the applicant for the determination may pay into court the difference between the amount so determined and the amount so calculated and, upon the amount of that difference being so paid—

15 (a) the amount due under the mortgage at the time of the payment into court shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so calculated and by the amount paid into court; and

20 (b) the debt owing under subsection (1C) of this section by the mortgagee to the applicant shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

30 (1E) Where the court determines under subsection one of this section that the amount due under a mortgage has not been repaid and the amount thereof determined by the court to be outstanding is equal to or less than the amount of costs calculated under subsection (1B) of this section in respect of the determination—

35 (a)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

- (a) the amount due under the mortgage at the time of the determination shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so determined;
- 5 (b) the debt owing under subsection (1C) of this section by the mortgagee to the applicant for the determination shall be deemed to have been reduced by the amount so determined; and
- 10 (c) for the purposes of subsection (1F) of this section, the court shall be deemed to have determined that the amount due under the mortgage has been repaid.
- 15 (1F) Where—
- (a) the court determines under this section that the amount due under a mortgage has been repaid, whether by the operation of paragraph (c) of subsection (1E) of this section or
- 20 otherwise; or
- (b) payment into court is made under subsection (1D) of this section,
- 25 an officer of the court prescribed by rules of court may give a certificate to the effect that this section has been complied with in relation to the mortgage in respect of which the determination was made or the money paid into court.
- 30 (ii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—
- (2) In favour of a purchaser of land comprised in a mortgage referred to in a certificate given under subsection (1F) of this section,
- 35 the certificate operates as a discharge of the land from the amount due under the mortgage, and

and as a deed of conveyance, in the same manner as a memorandum of discharge operates under subsection three of section ninety-one of this Act.

5 (iii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "the amount so paid into court" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an amount paid into court under subsection (1D) of this section";

10 (iv) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection :—

(3A) A determination by the court under this section with respect to a mortgage is not, as between persons referred to in subsection one of this section, conclusive as to—

15

(a) whether or not an amount is due under the mortgage at the time of the determination; or

20

(b) whether the amount determined by the court to be due under the mortgage is the amount so due at the time of the determination, and, except to the extent of the operation of paragraph (a) of subsections (1D) and (1E), and of subsection two, of this section, that determination does not prejudice any right conferred by the mortgage for the recovery of an amount due thereunder.

25

30

(v) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

35

(4) This section, subsection two excepted, applies to and in respect of mortgages under the Real Property Act, 1900, and, upon production to the Registrar-General of a certificate under subsection (1F) of this section that relates to such a mortgage, the Registrar-General—

Conveyancing (Amendment).

- 5 (a) shall, on payment of the fee prescribed under that Act, record in the Register kept under that Act that the mortgage to which the certificate relates has been discharged; and
- 10 (b) shall, if the relevant grant, certificate of title or duplicate registered dealing upon which the mortgage is recorded, or the duplicate registered mortgage, is produced to him for the purpose, record thereon the discharge of the mortgage.
- 15 (c) by omitting from subsection two of section one hundred the words "entered in the register book" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "recorded in the Register kept under that Act"; Sec. 100. (Foreclosure extinguishes right of action for mortgage debt, and equity of redemption.)
- 20 (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section one hundred and one the words "an instrument" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "a mortgage registered"; Sec. 101. (Foreclosure, &c., in respect of lands mortgaged by dealings under the Real Property Act, 1900, and otherwise.)
- 25 (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such instrument" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the mortgage";
- 25 (iii) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the words "the prescribed application" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "lodgment of an application in the form approved under that Act";
- 30 (e) by omitting from section one hundred and five the words "and subject as in the two next succeeding sections provided" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "provided in sections one hundred and six and one hundred and seven of this Act"; Sec. 105. (Application of Division 2 to mortgagors and mortgagees under Real Property Act mortgages.)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

- (f) (i) by omitting subsection eight of section one hundred and six and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections :—

Sec. 106.
(Leasing powers of mortgagor and of mortgagee in possession.)

5 (8) Where the land comprised in any such lease is under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the lease shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of that Act.

10 (8A) Where the land comprised in any such lease is not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, the lease shall be executed by the lessee and registered under the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897.

- 15 (ii) by omitting subsection ten of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

20 (10) A contract to make or accept a lease under this section may be enforced by or against every person on whom the lease if granted would be binding if—

25 (a) in so far as the lease, if granted, would comprise land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900—a caveat has been lodged pursuant to section seventy-two of that Act in respect of the contract; and 30 (b) in so far as the lease, if granted, would comprise land not under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900—the contract has been registered pursuant to the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897.

New Division 4
of Part VIII.

DIVISION 4.—Options in leases.

- 133c. In this Division—
- (a) a reference to an option contained in a lease is a reference to a right on the part of the lessee to require the lessor—
  - (i) to sell, or offer to sell, to the lessee the reversion expectant on the lease; or
  - (ii) to grant, or offer to grant, to the lessee a renewal or extension of the lease, or a further lease, of the demised premises or a part thereof, whether the right is conferred by the lease or by an agreement collateral to the lease; and

Interpretation.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) a reference to a breach by a lessee of his obligations under a lease containing an option is a reference to a breach of those obligations by an act done or omitted to be done before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, in so far as the act or omission would constitute a breach of those obligations if there were no option contained in the lease.

10 133D. (1) This Division applies to and in respect of leases granted before or after the commencement of the Conveyancing (Amendment) Act, 1971, and options contained therein.

15 (2) This Division has effect notwithstanding—

- (a) any stipulation to the contrary; and
- (b) the provisions of subsection three of section fifty-three of the Real Property Act, 1900.

20 133E. (1) In this Division “prescribed notice” means a notice in writing that—

- (a) specifies an act or omission; and
- (b) states that, subject to any order of the court under section 133F of this Act, a lessor giving the notice proposes to treat that act or omission as having precluded a lessee on whom the notice is served from exercising an option contained in the lease.

30 (2) Where an act or omission that constituted a breach by a lessee of his obligations under a lease containing an option would, but for this section, have had the effect of precluding the lessee

Breach of certain obligations not to preclude lessee from exercising option except in certain circumstances.

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 lessee from exercising the option, the act or omission shall be deemed not to have had that effect where the lessee purports to exercise the option unless, during the period of fourteen days next succeeding the purported exercise of the option, the lessor serves on the lessee prescribed notice of the act or omission and—

10 (a) an order for relief against the effect of the breach in relation to the purported exercise of the option is not sought from the court before the expiration of the period of one month next succeeding service of the notice ; or

15 (b) where such relief is so sought—

(i) the proceedings in which the relief is sought are disposed of, in so far as they relate to that relief, otherwise than by granting relief ; or

20 (ii) where relief is granted upon terms to be complied with by the lessee before compliance by the lessor with the order granting relief, the lessee fails to comply with those terms within the time stipulated by the court for the purpose.

25 133F. (1) Relief referred to in section 133E of this Act may be sought—

(a) in proceedings instituted in the court for the purpose ; or

Court may grant relief from breach of certain obligations.

30 (b) in proceedings in the court in which—

(i) the existence of an alleged breach by the lessee of his obligations under the lease ; or

(ii)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

(ii) the effect of the breach from which relief is sought, is in issue.

5 (2) The court may, in proceedings in which relief referred to in section 133E of this Act is sought—

- 10 (a) make such orders (including orders affecting an assignee of the reversion) as it thinks fit for the purpose of granting the relief sought; or
- (b) refuse to grant the relief sought.

(3) The court may, in proceedings referred to in subsection two of this section, take into consideration—

- 15 (a) the nature of the breach complained of;
- (b) the extent to which, at the date of the institution of the proceedings, the lessor was prejudiced by the breach;
- 20 (c) the conduct of the lessor and the lessee, including conduct after the giving of the prescribed notice;
- (d) the rights of persons other than the lessor and the lessee;
- (e) the operation of section 133G of this Act; and
- 25 (f) any other circumstances considered by the court to be relevant.

(4) The court—

- 30 (a) may make an order under subsection two of this section on such terms as to costs, damages, compensation or penalty, or on such other terms, as the court thinks fit; and

(b)

Conveyancing (Amendment).

(b) may make any consequential or ancillary order it considers necessary to give effect to an order made under that subsection.

5 133G. (1) Subject to any order of the court and to this section— Lease to continue in force until issue decided.

(a) where—

- (i) an option is contained in a lease;
- (ii) the lessee exercises, or purports to exercise, the option; and
- 10 (iii) the lease would, but for this paragraph, expire within the period of fourteen days after the exercise, or purported exercise, of the option.

15 the lease shall be deemed to continue in force until the expiration of that period;

(b) where—

- (i) a prescribed notice is duly served on a lessee; and
- 20 (ii) the lease in respect of which the notice is served would, but for this paragraph, expire within the period of one month referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection two of section 133E of this Act,

25 the lease shall be deemed to continue in force until the expiration of that period; and

30 (c) where, in relation to a lease continued in force under paragraph (b) of this subsection, relief referred to in section 133E of this Act is sought by a lessee, the lease shall,

Conveyancing (Amendment).

---

subject to subsections two and three of this section, be deemed to continue in force until—

- 5 (i) the proceedings in which the relief is sought are disposed of, in so far as they relate to that relief, otherwise than by granting the relief; or
- 10 (ii) effect is given to orders made by the court in granting that relief in so far as they affect the lessor or relate to an assurance to the lessee.

(2) Paragraph (c) of subsection one of this section—

- 15 (a) does not apply to or in respect of a lease that, but for that paragraph, would continue in force for a period longer than the period for which it is, by the operation of that paragraph, continued in force; and
- 20 (b) does not, where a lessee fails to comply with terms imposed upon him pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection four of section 133F of this Act, operate to continue the lease in force beyond the time of that failure by the lessee.

25 (3) Where, under subsection one of this section, a lease continues in force after the day on which, but for that subsection, it would expire—

- 30 (a) the lease so continues in force subject to the provisions, stipulations, covenants, conditions and agreements in the lease (other than those relating to the term and the option contained in the lease) but without prejudice to any rights or remedies of the lessor or lessee in relation to the lease; and

Conveyancing (Amendment).

5 (b) the lessee, if the lease is of land under the provisions of the Real Property Act, 1900, and the lessee is in possession of the demised premises, has the protection of paragraph (d) of section forty-two of that Act as if the lease were a tenancy referred to in that paragraph.

10 (4) Subject to subsection five of this section, where, pursuant to an option contained in a lease continued in force under subsection one of this section, the lease is renewed or a new lease is granted, the period during which the lease was so continued in force shall be deemed to be part of the term for which the lease was renewed or the new lease granted, and any lease granted pursuant to an exercise of the option shall be expressed to have commenced when the lease containing the option would, but for subsection one of this section, have expired.

20 (5) Subsection four of this section does not apply to or in respect of a lease that stipulates for the commencement of any lease granted pursuant to an exercise of the option contained therein on a day that is later than the day on which the lease so granted would, but for this subsection, commence under subsection four of this section.
