5 (b2) The sum for which an employer shall be liable in respect of the hospital treatment of a worker at a public hospital as an out-patient shall, for each attendance for treatment, be the average
10 cost to that hospital, for each attendance for treatment, of the hospital treatment of out-patients, as estimated by the Minister for Health and last notified.

15 (b3) The estimated costs referred to in paragraphs (b1) and (b2) of this subsection shall, in respect of any public hospital, be based, wherever practicable, on the costs incurred by that hospital for the year which ended on the thirtieth day of June next preceding any date on which it is proposed to notify the costs, pursuant to either of those 20 paragraphs, in respect of that hospital.

(b4) For the purposes of paragraphs (b1) and (b2) of this subsection "notified" means notified in the Gazette by the Minister for Health.

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this
25 section shall apply to and in respect of hospital treatment afforded on or after the day appointed for the commencement of this section for an injury whether received before, on or after that day.

(3) This section shall commence upon a day to be 30 appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Further amendment of Act No. 15, 1926.

Sec. 60.
(Review.)

4. The Principal Act is further amended—

- (a) by omitting subsection two of section sixty and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

(2) The amount of weekly payments payable in respect of an injury, whether received before or after the commencement of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1971, may be increased to such an amount as would have been awarded if the worker had, at the time of the injury, been earning the wage or salary which he would probably have been earning, at the date of the review, if he had remained uninjured and continued to be employed in the same or some comparable employment.

- (b) by omitting subsection three of the same section.

Subsisting policies.

5. (1) A policy of insurance against liability under the Principal Act being maintained in force on the appointed day shall be deemed to insure the employer and always to have insured the employer against any additional liability to which he may become liable during the currency of the policy under any amendment made by this Act.

(2) Where a person is in receipt of compensation on the appointed day and such compensation is payable by an insurer, such insurer shall be liable to pay any additional compensation to which such person becomes entitled by virtue of any amendment made by this Act.

Amendment of Act No. 14, 1942.

Sec. 8.
(Certificate of medical authority.)

6. (1) The Workers' Compensation (Dust Diseases) Act, 1942, is amended—

- (a) by omitting from subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subsection (2B) of section eight the words "five thousand dollars" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "five thousand five hundred dollars";

(b)

- (d) by omitting from the same subparagraph the figures "10.00" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figures "15.00";
- (e) by inserting next after the same paragraph the following new paragraph :—

cf. Act
No. 14,
1942, s. 8A.

6B. Where a person and his spouse (if any) or a person or his spouse (if any) would, but for the weekly payments of compensation payable to such person, or for which he is eligible under this Scheme, be qualified to receive an age, invalid or widow's pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, as amended by subsequent Acts of that Parliament, or any other pension, allowance or benefit under any Act or an Act of that Parliament, the joint committee may, in order that such person and his spouse (if any) or such person or his spouse (if any) may become so qualified, make an order that the weekly payments of compensation payable to such person, or to which he is eligible, under any provisions of this Scheme that are specified in the order shall be such amount, less than that prescribed by those provisions, as the joint committee may so specify, or that no compensation shall be paid to him under any provisions

Workers' Compensation (Amendment).

provisions so specified. While such order remains in force the provisions of this Scheme shall be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the order.

(2) The amendments made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to extend to, and, on and from the commencement of this section, apply in respect of all persons who were immediately before that commencement in receipt of or entitled to compensation under the Workmen's Compensation (Broken Hill) Act, 1920, as well as to all persons becoming entitled to compensation thereunder after that commencement.

(3) This section shall commence on a day to be appointed by the Governor for the purposes of this section and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.
