Sec. 6 (2).

COMPOSITION AND PROCEDURE OF THE TRUST.

1. (1) Of the trustees appointed by the Governor— Composition.
(a) 3 shall be members of institutions or organisations that, in the opinion of the Minister, have objects compatible with the objects of the Trust and shall be nominated by the Minister for their knowledge of, and experience relating to, the natural sciences or education; and
(b) 5 shall be persons nominated by the Minister after he has consulted such persons, authorities, organisations or associations as he thinks fit.
(2) A person—
(a) who is of or above the age of 70 years;
(b) who is a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient, a protected person or an incapable person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, 1958, or a person under detention under Part VII of that Act; or
(c) who is a bankrupt, is applying to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, whose debts are subject to a composition with his creditors, or whose allowances would, upon his appointment or election, be subject to an assignment for their benefit, is not eligible to be appointed or elected a trustee.

2. (1) In the case of the illness or absence of any trustee the Minister may appoint a person as a deputy to act in the place of the trustee during his illness or absence. Appointment of deputy.

(2) A deputy appointed under this clause shall, while he is acting as a deputy, have all the powers and authorities of a trustee.

(3) A deputy appointed under this clause may, if the Minister thinks fit, be paid such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of him.

Australian Museum Trust.

(4) No person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not any occasion has arisen requiring or authorising a person to act in the place of a trustee, or as to the necessity or propriety of any appointment of a deputy, and all acts and things done or omitted by a deputy when so acting shall be as valid and shall have the same consequences as if they had been done or omitted by the trustee for whom the deputy is acting.

Term of office.

3. (1) Subject to subclause (2), the term of office of a trustee appointed by the Governor under section 6 (1) shall be, and, unless he vacates his office during his term, a trustee so appointed shall hold office for, 4 years.

(2) Five of the first 8 trustees to be appointed by the Governor under section 6 (1) shall be appointed to hold office and, except in the case (if any) of any of those trustees who vacates his office during his term, shall hold office until the expiration of 2 years commencing on and including the day on which this Schedule commences.

(3) The term of office of a trustee elected under clause 9 (3) (b) shall extend, and, unless he vacates his office during his term, a trustee so elected shall hold office, from the time of his election until the expiration of 4 years commencing on and including the day on which this Schedule commences.

(4) The term of office of a trustee elected under clause 9 (4) shall extend, and, unless he vacates his office during his term, a trustee so elected shall hold office, from the time of his election until the expiration of the terms of office of the last 3 trustees appointed by the Governor under section 6 (1) before his election.

(5) Where a trustee appointed by the Governor vacates his office before the expiration of his term of office, the Governor may under this subclause appoint a person to fill the vacant office for the residue of the term of office of his predecessor, so that the Trust is constituted as provided by clause 1 (1).

(6) Where a trustee elected by the trustees appointed by the Governor vacates his office before the expiration of his term of office, the trustees so appointed shall, at the next meeting of the Trust held after the vacancy occurs, elect a person to fill the vacant office for the residue of the term of office of his predecessor.

(7) A trustee whose term of office expires may, if he is otherwise eligible, be appointed, elected, re-appointed or re-elected as a trustee.

Certain enactments not to apply in respect of trustee.

4. The Public Service Act, 1902, does not apply to or in respect of the appointment of a trustee and a trustee is not, in his capacity as a trustee, subject to that Act during his term of office.

THE HISTORY OF THE

REPUBLIC OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and development. It begins with the first settlers who came to the continent in search of a new home. These settlers found a land of vast resources and opportunities, but they also found a land that was already inhabited by a diverse and rich culture of Native Americans. The story of the United States is a story of the struggle for independence, the fight for equality, and the pursuit of the American dream. It is a story of the challenges and triumphs of a young nation that has grown from a small colony to a global superpower.

The United States has a long and proud history of freedom and democracy. It is a country where every citizen has the right to speak their mind and to participate in the government. It is a country where the values of liberty, justice, and equality are held dear. The history of the United States is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the ability of a people to overcome adversity and build a better future.

The United States is a country of many faces and many voices. It is a country where people from all over the world have come to seek a better life. It is a country where diversity is not just a fact of life, but a source of strength and pride. The history of the United States is a story of the many ways in which people have come together to build a nation that is truly great.

The United States is a country of innovation and progress. It is a country where new ideas are born and where the frontiers of knowledge are constantly being expanded. It is a country where the spirit of invention and discovery has led to some of the most significant advances in human history. The history of the United States is a story of the power of the human mind and the ability of a people to push the boundaries of what is possible.

The United States is a country of hope and possibility. It is a country where the future is always within reach and where the dream of a better life is never far from the heart of every citizen. The history of the United States is a story of the power of hope and the ability of a people to build a brighter future for themselves and for the world.
