credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union; or

5 (b) provisions to the effect that the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union shall be determined—

10 (i) by reference to the maximum amount for the time being prescribed by or under the paragraph of subsection (7) applicable in the circumstances; or

15 (ii) in the circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies, by reference to a percentage of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

20 (6A) In this section, "specified amount" means the amount fixed by or in accordance with the rules made pursuant to subsection (6).

25 (6B) The rules of a credit union made for the purposes of subsection (6)—

30 (a) may fix different specified amounts and may contain different provisions for the determination of specified amounts where where different conditions, specified by the rules in each case, apply in respect thereof; and

- 5 (b) may contain provisions of both the kinds referred to in subsection (6) (a) and (b), provided the two kinds of provisions are applicable in different circumstances.

10 (6c) Where the rules made by a credit union pursuant to subsection (6) (b) provide that a specified amount shall, at any time, be determined by reference to a percentage of the assets of the credit union, a reference in this section to—

- 15 (a) the specified amount applicable in the circumstances; or

(b) the applicable specified amount,
in relation to that specified amount, is a reference to the amount arrived at by multiplying by that percentage the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

- 25 (iii) by omitting from section 6 (7) the words "Subject to subsection eight of this section" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsections (8) and (8A)";

(iv)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (iv) by omitting from section 6 (7) (d) the words
“be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars or, where the regulations prescribe some other amount for the purposes of this paragraph, the amount so prescribed.” and by inserting instead the following words and subparagraphs :—

be an amount not exceeding—

(iii) $4,000;

10 (iv) the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or

15 (v) an amount equivalent to one per centum of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act,

20 whichever is the greatest.

(v) by inserting after section 6 (7) the following subsection :—

25 (7AA) The registrar, with the approval of the Minister, may, by order in writing served on a credit union, direct that there shall, for the specified amount that would, but for this subsection, be the specified amount applicable
in the circumstances referred to in subsection
30 (7) (a), (b), (c) or (d), be substituted
such lesser amount as is specified in the order,
and, notwithstanding the rules of that credit union, that lesser amount shall be deemed to be the amount fixed by the rules of that credit union as the specified amount applicable in 35 those circumstances while that direction remains in force.

(vi)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(vi) by inserting after section 6 (7A) the following subsections :—

5 (7B) The terms or conditions specified in the special rules of a credit union providing for the repayment of the indebtedness of a member shall include—

10 (a) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness within a period not exceeding—

15 (i) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (b) applies—five years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed; and

20 (ii) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies—fifteen years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed;

25 (b) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness by instalments payable at regular intervals not exceeding one year or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations; and

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (7C) A member of a credit union may, notwithstanding any terms and conditions specified in the special rules of the credit union or any agreement entered into or instrument executed by him, repay the whole or any part of the principal and interest in respect of his indebtedness before it is due to be repaid.

(vii) by inserting after section 6 (8) the following subsections :—

10 (8A) Where a rule in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection would, but for this subsection, contravene subsection (7) (d), as in force after that commencement—

15 (a) the rule shall be deemed to continue in force until—

(i) it is rescinded;

20 (ii) it is altered in accordance with this Act so as not to contravene subsection (7) (d), as so in force; or

(iii) 31st March, 1976,
whichever first occurs; and

25 (b) during the period during which a rule continues in force by virtue of paragraph (a), subsection (7) (d), as so in force, shall be read and construed, in relation to that rule, as if the amendment made by the Credit Union
30 (Amendment) Act, 1975, to subsection (7) (d) had not been made.

(8B)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(8B) A credit union shall not make a loan to a member if the indebtedness of the member to the credit union would thereby exceed the sum of—

5 (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and

(b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union,

10 unless the board, or its delegate, as the case may be, believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of that indebtedness, but nothing in this subsection authorises a credit union to make a 15 loan in contravention of subsection (9) or (9A).

(viii) by inserting after section 6 (9) the following subsection :—

20 (9A) A credit union shall not make a loan jointly to two or more members of the credit union if the amount of that loan would exceed an amount that would, if each of those
25 members had applied individually for a loan, be the larger or largest of the amounts of the loans which could have been made to those members.

30 "Where the indebtedness" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsection (10c), where the indebtedness";

(x)

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (x) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words
“This subsection shall not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member,
from applying paid-up share capital or deposits
in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness
of the member to the credit union.”;

(xi) by inserting after section 6 (10) the following
subsections :—

10 (10A) Where the indebtedness or part of the indebtedness of a member to a credit union at any time consists of the amount,
or part of the amount, of a loan made after the commencement of this subsection, the 15 credit union shall not make a refund of share capital to the member, or permit the withdrawal of any deposit of the member with the credit union, if the sum of—

(a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and 20 (b) the amount of the member's deposits

with the credit union,

25 would thereby be reduced below the amount of that indebtedness at that time unless the board believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment
of his indebtedness to the credit union.

30 (10B) Subsections (10) and (10A) do not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member, from applying paid-up share capital or deposits in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness of the member to the credit union.

(10C)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(10c) Where—

(a) any provision of this Act; or

(b) anything done under the provisions of this Act,

5 would, but for this subsection, have the effect of reducing the applicable specified amount referred to in subsection (10) in relation to the indebtedness of a member to a credit union incurred before that reduction, the reference to the applicable specified amount in that subsection in relation to that indebtedness shall be deemed to be a reference to the applicable specified amount as at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

15 (c) (i) by omitting section 7 (1) and by inserting <sup>Sec. 7.</sup> instead the following subsection :— (Liquidity.)

(1) In this section—

“liquid funds” means—

20 (a) cash at the bank (after allowing for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment) or in hand;

25 (b) investments in securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds (not being securities by way of mortgage over real or leasehold property) that are redeemable within ten years of their acquisition;

30 (c) funds on deposit with any prescribed bank;

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (d) funds on deposit with an association of credit unions of which the depositor is a member;
- 5 (e) shares in, or deposits with, a permanent building society registered under the Permanent Building Societies Act, 1967; and
- 10 (f) investments in prescribed securities or securities approved by the registrar under section 19 (2),
- 15 but does not include any such funds or investments to the extent—
- 20 (g) of the amount necessary to satisfy any lien or charge on those funds or investments, other than a lien or charge given by a credit union to an association of which it is a member or a floating charge;
- 25 (h) in the case of the funds or investments referred to in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), that they may only be withdrawn on more than three months' notice or, where some other period of notice is prescribed by the regulations in respect of any or all of them, that
- 30 period of notice; or

(i)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (i) where the regulations so provide, that the amount of any of those funds or investments specified in the regulations exceeds an amount prescribed by, or calculated as prescribed by, the regulations;

10 “prescribed proportion” means seven per centum or, where some other percentage is prescribed by the regulations, that percentage.

(ii) by omitting section 7 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

15 (3) A credit union shall not, in any month, make a loan of an amount that, if deducted from the amount of its liquid funds as at the last day of the next preceding month, would produce an amount that bears to the sum of—

20 (a) the amount of the paid-up share capital of the credit union; and

(b) the amount held by the credit union on deposit,

as at that day, a proportion less than the prescribed proportion.

25 (d) (i) by omitting from section 12 (2) the word “where” and by inserting instead the words “to the extent to which, in respect of those deposits or any of them,”; Sec. 12. (Raising loans and receipt of money on deposit.)

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (ii) by inserting after section 12 (2) the following subsection :—
- 5                   (2A) An order under subsection (2) may fix rates of interest differing according to specified circumstances.
- (iii) by omitting from section 12 (5) (c) the word “or” where secondly occurring;
- (iv) by omitting from section 12 (5) (d) the words “the credit union.” and by inserting instead the words “the credit union; or”;
- 10
- (v) by inserting after section 12 (5) (d) the following paragraph :—
- 15                   (e) any credit union that requires to raise a loan of an amount in excess of the amount prescribed by subsection (4) for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits.
- (vi) by omitting section 12 (6);
- (vii) by omitting from section 12 (7) the words “Nothing in this subsection or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of subsection ten of section six of this Act.”;
- 20
- (viii) by inserting after section 12 (7) the following subsection :—
- 25                   (7A) Nothing in subsection (7) or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 6 (10) or (10A).

(ix)

Credit Union (Amendment).

(ix) by omitting section 12 (8) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

5 (8) Where the Minister so directs by order published in the Gazette on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month.

10 (e) by omitting section 17 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

Sec. 17.
(Credit union or association as agent.)

(2) A credit union, or an association, may, as agent for any credit union or association (referred to in this subsection as the "principal")—

- 15 (a) receive money payable to the principal by the principal's members; or
- (b) pay money payable by the principal to the principal's members, in respect of share capital, deposits or loans.

20 (f) (i) by inserting in section 18 (1) after the word "join" the words "an association of building societies registered under the Co-operation Acts or";

meaning, in its name or title, if that association or union has been approved by the registrar for the purposes of this subsection and that approval has not been revoked.

- 5 (b) by omitting section 29 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :— Sec. 29.
of name.)

10 (2) Subject to section 27 (11), no credit union or association shall use any name or title other than its registered name or any abbreviation or elaboration of that name approved in writing by the registrar to be used for any specified purpose or purposes.

- 15 (c) (i) by omitting from section 30 (1) the words “shall be situated” and by inserting instead the words “shall, subject to subsection (2), be situated”; Sec. 30.
(Office and service of
documents.)

20 (ii) by inserting in section 30 (2) after the words “change of address” the words “and the new address shall, as from the date on which the registrar is so notified, be the registered office of that credit union or association”;

- (iii) by omitting section 30 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

25 (3) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a credit union or an association, or on an officer of a credit union or an association other than a director, by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association, or 30 by sending it by post to the credit union or association at its registered office.

Credit Union (Amendment).

5 (4) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a director of a credit union or an association, by sending it by post to the last address of the director as disclosed in returns transmitted to the registrar pursuant to this Act.

10 (5) Where a liquidator of a credit union or an association has been appointed, a document, other than a summons, may be served on that credit union or association by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the last address of the office of the liquidator notice of which has been lodged with the registrar.

15 (6) Service by post under this section shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

20 (7) A summons for an offence by a credit union or an association punishable under this or any other Act may be served by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association and apparently of or above the age of sixteen years.

25 (8) Where reasonable efforts have been made without success to effect service in the manner prescribed by subsection (7) and a stipendiary magistrate is so satisfied by affidavit he may give leave to effect service of the 30 summons on an officer of the credit union or association or by advertisement or in such other manner as in the circumstances appears to him to be sufficient.

(b) an association may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another association which undertakes to fulfil those engagements,

5 and, for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b), a credit union or an association may—

(c) by special resolution; or

10 (d) with the consent of the registrar, by resolution of a general meeting or of the board, undertake to fulfil the engagements of another credit union or association.

15 (2) A transfer of engagements between credit unions or associations under this section shall not have effect—

(a) unless the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association has been registered; and

25 (i) a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that that direction has been complied with and that the transfer has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the transfer; or

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(ii) an application has been made under section 34 (3) by that credit union, and the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer.

5 (3) The registrar, before registering the special resolution referred to in subsection (2) (a), may require such evidence as he deems necessary to ensure—

10 (a) that the transferee credit union or association has, by means authorised in this section, undertaken to fulfil the engagements of the transferor credit union or association;

15 (b) that the statements referred to in section 34 have (unless exemption has been granted by the registrar pursuant to section 34 (1)) been issued; and

20 (c) that, if so required, the necessary approval to the transfer has been obtained under subsection (2) (b) (i) (unless the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer).

25 (4) Within one month of the passing of a resolution under subsection (1) (d), the credit union or association shall notify the registrar that the resolution has been passed and if the credit union or association fails so to notify the registrar, the credit union or association, and every officer of the credit union or association who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

5 (5) Subject to subsection (6), the registrar may, not earlier than one year after the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1), remove from the register the name of that credit union or association.

10 (6) The power conferred on the registrar by subsection (5) shall not be exercised until after the registrar has given to the transferee credit union or association notice of his intention so to do and, where the registrar, on the application of that credit union or association made within a time specified in the notice for the purpose, or a subsequent notice to the like effect, so approves, until after the
15 expiration of any further period approved by the registrar.

20 (7) The provisions of subsections (6) to (13), inclusive, of section 33 apply to and in respect of a transfer of engagements where a credit union or an association transfers the whole of its engagements to another credit union or association in the same way as they apply to and in respect of an amalgamation of credit unions or associations, as 25 the case may be, and for the purpose of that application—

- (a) a reference to an amalgamated credit union or association shall be construed as a reference to the transferee credit union or association;
- 30 (b) a reference to a credit union or an association that is a party to the amalgamation shall be construed as a reference to the transferor credit union or association; and

(c)

Credit Union (Amendment).

- 5 (c) a reference to the issue of the certificate of incorporation shall be construed as a reference to the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1).

credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union; or

5 (b) provisions to the effect that the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union shall be determined—

10 (i) by reference to the maximum amount for the time being prescribed by or under the paragraph of subsection (7) applicable in the circumstances; or

15 (ii) in the circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies, by reference to a percentage of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

20 (6A) In this section, "specified amount" means the amount fixed by or in accordance with the rules made pursuant to subsection (6).

25 (6B) The rules of a credit union made for the purposes of subsection (6)—

30 (a) may fix different specified amounts and may contain different provisions for the determination of specified amounts where

where different conditions, specified by the rules in each case, apply in respect thereof; and

5 (b) may contain provisions of both the kinds referred to in subsection (6) (a) and (b), provided the two kinds of provisions are applicable in different circumstances.

10 (6c) Where the rules made by a credit union pursuant to subsection (6) (b) provide that a specified amount shall, at any time, be determined by reference to a percentage of the assets of the credit union, a reference in this section to—

15 (a) the specified amount applicable in the circumstances; or

(b) the applicable specified amount,
in relation to that specified amount, is a reference to the amount arrived at by multiplying by that percentage the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

25 (iii) by omitting from section 6 (7) the words “Subject to subsection eight of this section” and by inserting instead the words “Subject to subsections (8) and (8A)”;

(iv)

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (iv) by omitting from section 6 (7) (d) the words
“be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars or, where the regulations prescribe
some other amount for the purposes of this paragraph, the amount so prescribed.” and by inserting instead the following words and subparagraphs :—

be an amount not exceeding—

- 10 (iii) $4,000;
- (iv) the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- 15 (v) an amount equivalent to one per centum of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with
this Act,

20 whichever is the greatest.

(v) by inserting after section 6 (7) the following
subsection :—

25 (7AA) The registrar, with the approval of the Minister, may, by order in writing served on a credit union, direct that there shall, for the specified amount that would, but for this subsection, be the specified amount applicable
in the circumstances referred to in subsection
(7) (a), (b), (c) or (d), be substituted
such lesser amount as is specified in the order, 30 and, notwithstanding the rules of that credit
union, that lesser amount shall be deemed to be the amount fixed by the rules of that credit
union as the specified amount applicable in those circumstances while that direction
35 remains in force.

(vi)

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(vi) by inserting after section 6 (7A) the following subsections :—

5 (7B) The terms or conditions specified in the special rules of a credit union providing for the repayment of the indebtedness of a member shall include—

10 (a) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness within a period not exceeding—

15 (i) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (b) applies—five years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed; and

20 (ii) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies—fifteen years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed;

25 (b) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness by instalments payable at regular intervals not exceeding one year or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations; and

(7C)

Credit Union (Amendment).

5 (7C) A member of a credit union may, notwithstanding any terms and conditions specified in the special rules of the credit union or any agreement entered into or instrument executed by him, repay the whole or any part of the principal and interest in respect of his indebtedness before it is due to be repaid.

(vii) by inserting after section 6 (8) the following subsections :—

10 (8A) Where a rule in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection would, but for this subsection, contravene subsection (7) (d), as in force after that commencement—

15 (a) the rule shall be deemed to continue in force until—

(i) it is rescinded;

20 (ii) it is altered in accordance with this Act so as not to contravene subsection (7) (d), as so in force; or

(iii) 31st March, 1976,

whichever first occurs; and

25 (b) during the period during which a rule continues in force by virtue of paragraph (a), subsection (7) (d), as so in force, shall be read and construed, in relation to that rule, as if the amendment made by the Credit Union (Amendment) Act, 1975, to subsection (7) (d) had not been made.

(8B)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(8B) A credit union shall not make a loan to a member if the indebtedness of the member to the credit union would thereby exceed the sum of—

5 (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and

(b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union,

10 unless the board, or its delegate, as the case may be, believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of that indebtedness, but nothing in this subsection authorises a credit union to make a 15 loan in contravention of subsection (9) or (9A).

(viii) by inserting after section 6 (9) the following subsection :—

20 (9A) A credit union shall not make a loan jointly to two or more members of the credit union if the amount of that loan would exceed an amount that would, if each of those
25 members had applied individually for a loan, be the larger or largest of the amounts of the loans which could have been made to those members.

(ix) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "Where the indebtedness" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsection 30 (10c), where the indebtedness";

(x)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (x) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words
“This subsection shall not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member,
from applying paid-up share capital or deposits
in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness
of the member to the credit union.”;

(xi) by inserting after section 6 (10) the following
subsections :—

10 (10A) Where the indebtedness or part of the indebtedness of a member to a credit union at any time consists of the amount,
or part of the amount, of a loan made after
the commencement of this subsection, the 15 credit union shall not make a refund of share
capital to the member, or permit the withdrawal of any deposit of the member with
the credit union, if the sum of—

(a) the amount of the member's paid-up
share capital in the credit union; and

20 (b) the amount of the member's deposits
with the credit union,

would thereby be reduced below the amount
of that indebtedness at that time unless the board believes, on reasonable grounds, that 25 the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment
of his indebtedness to the credit union.

(10B) Subsections (10) and (10A) do not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member, from applying paid-up
share capital or deposits in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness of the member to the 30 credit union.

(10c)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(10c) Where—

- (a) any provision of this Act; or
- (b) anything done under the provisions of this Act,

5 would, but for this subsection, have the effect of reducing the applicable specified amount referred to in subsection (10) in relation to the indebtedness of a member to a credit union incurred before that reduction, the reference

10 to the applicable specified amount in that subsection in relation to that indebtedness shall be deemed to be a reference to the applicable specified amount as at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

15 (c) (i) by omitting section 7 (1) and by inserting Sec. 7.
instead the following subsection :— (Liquidity.)

(1) In this section—

“liquid funds” means—

- 20 (a) cash at the bank (after allowing for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment) or in hand;
- 25 (b) investments in securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds (not being securities by way of mortgage over real or leasehold property) that are
- 30 redeemable within ten years of their acquisition;
- (c) funds on deposit with any prescribed bank;

(d)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- 5 (d) funds on deposit with an association of credit unions of which the depositor is a member;
- (e) shares in, or deposits with, a permanent building society registered under the Permanent Building Societies Act, 1967; and
- 10 (f) investments in prescribed securities or securities approved by the registrar under section 19 (2),
- 15 but does not include any such funds or investments to the extent—
- 20 (g) of the amount necessary to satisfy any lien or charge on those funds or investments, other than a lien or charge given by a credit union to an association of which it is a member or a floating charge;
- 25 (h) in the case of the funds or investments referred to in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), that they may only be withdrawn on more than three months' notice or, where some other period of notice is prescribed by the regulations in respect of any or all of them, that

(i)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (i) where the regulations so provide, that the amount of any of those funds or investments specified in the regulations exceeds an amount prescribed by, or calculated as prescribed by, the regulations;

10 “prescribed proportion” means seven per centum or, where some other percentage is prescribed by the regulations, that percentage.

(ii) by omitting section 7 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

15 (3) A credit union shall not, in any month, make a loan of an amount that, if deducted from the amount of its liquid funds as at the last day of the next preceding month, would produce an amount that bears to the sum of—

20 (a) the amount of the paid-up share capital of the credit union; and

(b) the amount held by the credit union on deposit,

as at that day, a proportion less than the prescribed proportion.

25 (d) (i) by omitting from section 12 (2) the word “where” and by inserting instead the words “to the extent to which, in respect of those deposits or any of them,”; Sec. 12. (Raising loans and receipt of money on deposit.)

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- 5 (ii) by inserting after section 12 (2) the following subsection :—
(2A) An order under subsection (2) may fix rates of interest differing according to specified circumstances.
- 10 (iii) by omitting from section 12 (5) (c) the word “or” where secondly occurring;
- (iv) by omitting from section 12 (5) (d) the words “the credit union.” and by inserting instead the words “the credit union; or”;
- 15 (v) by inserting after section 12 (5) (d) the following paragraph :—
(e) any credit union that requires to raise a loan of an amount in excess of the amount prescribed by subsection (4) for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits.
- (vi) by omitting section 12 (6);
- 20 (vii) by omitting from section 12 (7) the words “Nothing in this subsection or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of subsection ten of section six of this Act.”;
- 25 (viii) by inserting after section 12 (7) the following subsection :—
(7A) Nothing in subsection (7) or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 6 (10) or (10A).

Credit Union (Amendment).

5 (8) Where the Minister so directs by order published in the Gazette on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month.

10 (e) by omitting section 17 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(2) A credit union, or an association, may, as agent for any credit union or association (referred to in this subsection as the “principal”)—

Sec. 17.
(Credit union or association as agent.)

15 (a) receive money payable to the principal by the principal’s members; or

(b) pay money payable by the principal to the principal’s members,

in respect of share capital, deposits or loans.

20 (f) (i) by inserting in section 18 (1) after the word “join” the words “an association of building societies registered under the Co-operation Acts or”;

Sec. 18.
(Power to join association.)

25 (ii) by omitting from section 18 (2) the word “it” and by inserting instead the words “a credit union”.

Credit Union (Amendment).

6. Part III of the Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Part III
of Act No.
8, 1969.

(a) (i) by omitting section 28 (1) (a) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

Sec. 28.
(Use of words
"credit
union".)

5 (a) trade or carry on business, which expression shall, without limiting the generality thereof, include—

(i) establishing or using an office for the receipt of share capital, deposits or loan funds ;

10 (ii) advertising for share capital, deposits or loan funds ; or

(iii) the making of loans to members residing in New South Wales,

15 whether by servants or agents or otherwise, under any name or title of which the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar meaning, form part ; or

(iii) by inserting after section 28 (1) the following subsection :—

25 (1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent an unincorporated association of credit unions, credit union officers or credit union employees, or an unincorporated union of associations of credit unions, formed in New South Wales (not being an association or a union registered under this Act) from using the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar

meaning,

Credit Union (Amendment).

meaning, in its name or title, if that association or union has been approved by the registrar for the purposes of this subsection and that approval has not been revoked.

- 5 (b) by omitting section 29 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :— Sec. 29.
of name.)

10 (2) Subject to section 27 (11), no credit union or association shall use any name or title other than its registered name or any abbreviation or elaboration of that name approved in writing by the registrar to be used for any specified purpose or purposes.

- 15 (c) (i) by omitting from section 30 (1) the words "shall be situated" and by inserting instead the words "shall, subject to subsection (2), be situated"; Sec. 30.
(Office and service of
documents.)

20 (ii) by inserting in section 30 (2) after the words "change of address" the words "and the new address shall, as from the date on which the registrar is so notified, be the registered office of that credit union or association";

- (iii) by omitting section 30 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

25 (3) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a credit union or an association, or on an officer of a credit union or an association other than a director, by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the 30 service of the credit union or association, or by sending it by post to the credit union or association at its registered office.

---

---

5 (4) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a director of a credit union or an association, by sending it by post to the last address of the director as disclosed in returns transmitted to the registrar pursuant to this Act.

10 (5) Where a liquidator of a credit union or an association has been appointed, a document, other than a summons, may be served on that credit union or association by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the last address of the office of the liquidator notice of which has been lodged with the registrar.

15 (6) Service by post under this section shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

20 (7) A summons for an offence by a credit union or an association punishable under this or any other Act may be served by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association and apparently of or above the age of sixteen years.

25 (8) Where reasonable efforts have been made without success to effect service in the manner prescribed by subsection (7) and a stipendiary magistrate is so satisfied by affidavit he may give leave to effect service of the 30 summons on an officer of the credit union or association or by advertisement or in such other manner as in the circumstances appears to him to be sufficient.

(d)

Credit Union (Amendment).

(d) by omitting section 31 ;

Sec. 31.
(Exemption from fees.)

(e) by inserting in the heading to Division 4 after the word "Amalgamation" the words "and Transfer of Engagements";

Heading to
Div. 4.

5 (f) (i) by omitting section 33 (1) (b) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

Sec. 33.
(Amalgamation.)

(b) where the registrar has given a direction to one of those credit unions pursuant to section 34 (2A), a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that—

10

(i) that direction has been complied with; and

15

(ii) the amalgamation has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation.

20

(ii) by omitting from section 33 (5) the word "applies" and by inserting instead the word "approves";

25

(g) by inserting after section 33 the following section :—

Sec. 33A.

33A. (1) Subject to this section—

Transfer of engagements.

(a) a credit union may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another credit union which undertakes to fulfil those engagements; and

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(b) an association may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another association which undertakes to fulfil those engagements,

5 and, for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b), a credit union or an association may—

(c) by special resolution; or

10 (d) with the consent of the registrar, by resolution of a general meeting or of the board,

undertake to fulfil the engagements of another credit union or association.

15 (2) A transfer of engagements between credit unions or associations under this section shall not have effect—

(a) unless the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association has been registered; and

25 (i) a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that that direction has been complied with and that the transfer has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the transfer; or

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(ii) an application has been made under section 34 (3) by that credit union, and the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer.

5 (3) The registrar, before registering the special resolution referred to in subsection (2) (a), may require such evidence as he deems necessary to ensure—

10 (a) that the transferee credit union or association has, by means authorised in this section, undertaken to fulfil the engagements of the transferor credit union or association;

15 (b) that the statements referred to in section 34 have (unless exemption has been granted by the registrar pursuant to section 34 (1)) been issued; and

20 (c) that, if so required, the necessary approval to the transfer has been obtained under subsection (2) (b) (i) (unless the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer).

25 (4) Within one month of the passing of a resolution under subsection (1) (d), the credit union or association shall notify the registrar that the resolution has been passed and if the credit union or association fails so to notify the registrar, the credit union or association, and every officer of the credit union or association who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (5) Subject to subsection (6), the registrar may, not earlier than one year after the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1), remove from the register the name of that credit union or association.

10 (6) The power conferred on the registrar by subsection (5) shall not be exercised until after the registrar has given to the transferee credit union or association notice of his intention so to do and, where the registrar, on the application of that credit union or association made within a time specified in the notice for the purpose, or a subsequent notice to the like effect, so approves, until after the
15 expiration of any further period approved by the registrar.

20 (7) The provisions of subsections (6) to (13), inclusive, of section 33 apply to and in respect of a transfer of engagements where a credit union or an association transfers the whole of its engagements to another credit union or association in the same way as they apply to and in respect of an amalgamation of credit unions or associations, as the case may be, and for the purpose of that
25 application—

(a) a reference to an amalgamated credit union or association shall be construed as a reference to the transferee credit union or association;

30 (b) a reference to a credit union or an association that is a party to the amalgamation shall be construed as a reference to the transferor credit union or association; and

(c)

Credit Union (Amendment).

- 5 (c) a reference to the issue of the certificate of incorporation shall be construed as a reference to the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1).
- 10 (h) (i) by omitting from section 34 (1) the words "A credit union desiring to amalgamate with one or more other credit unions, or an association desiring to amalgamate with one or more other associations" and by inserting instead the words "A credit union or an association referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided"; Sec. 34. (Supplementary provisions as to amalgamation or transfer of engagements.)
- 15 (ii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (b) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- 20 (iii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (d) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- 25 (iv) by omitting from section 34 (2) the words "subsection one of section thirty-three of this Act" and by inserting instead the words "section 33 (1) or 33A (1) (a), (b) or (c), as the case may require";
- (v) by inserting after section 34 (2) the following subsection :—
- 30 (2A) A credit union referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided, shall, if so directed by the registrar, seek from all of its members, in a manner approved by the registrar,

Credit Union (Amendment).

registrar, their approval or disapproval in writing of that amalgamation or transfer of engagements.

- 5 (vi) by omitting section 34 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

10 (3) Where the registrar has given a direction to a credit union pursuant to subsection (2A), the credit union may apply to the registrar to confirm an amalgamation or transfer of engagements notwithstanding that the approval in writing of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the credit union who conveyed to the secretary of the credit union in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation or transfer of engagements, as the case may be, has not been obtained.

20 (3A) Where an application is made under subsection (3) the credit union shall give notice of the application in such manner, at such times and in such newspapers as the registrar may direct.

- 25 (vii) by inserting in section 34 (4) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";

- (i) by inserting after section 34 the following sections :—

30 34A. (1) Subject to this section, the registrar may, with the approval of the Minister—

(a) direct—

- (i) a credit union to transfer its engagements to another credit union approved by the registrar; or

(ii) an association to transfer its engagements to another association approved by the registrar; and

5 (b) at the same time, require the credit union or association, within a period specified by the registrar, or within such further period as the registrar may allow, to enter into an agreement, approved by the registrar, to give effect to the transfer of engagements directed.

(2) The registrar shall not give a direction under subsection (1) unless he gives such a certificate as would be provided for by section 72 (3) and (4) if section 72 were amended—

15 (a) by omitting from subsection (3) the words “In the case of a winding up upon a certificate of the registrar, a credit union, or an association, may be wound up in accordance with this Part of this Act if” and by inserting

20 instead the words “The registrar may not direct a transfer of engagements under section 34A (1) unless”; and

(b) by omitting from subsection (3) (f) the words “the credit union or association should be wound up” and by inserting

25 instead the words “the credit union or association should transfer its engagements”.

(3) Where a credit union or an association fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (1), the registrar may notify the credit

CREDIT UNION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1975

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide that the maximum amount by which a member's indebtedness to a credit union may exceed his paid-up share capital and deposits shall be—
  - (i) $4,000;
  - (ii) an amount prescribed by regulation; or
  - (iii) 1% of the assets of the credit union,whichever is the greatest, subject to the registrar having power to direct that the maximum be a lesser amount;
- (b) to provide that the rules of a credit union shall require repayment of certain loans to be made in the manner set out in the Act, including a requirement that certain unsecured loans be repaid over a period not exceeding 5 years and certain secured loans be repaid over a period not exceeding 15 years, or, in either case, some other prescribed period;
- (c) to prohibit a credit union from making a loan, exceeding the amount of a member's paid-up share capital and deposits, to that member if he does not have an income sufficient to repay his indebtedness;
- (d) to provide that, in respect of future loans, a credit union shall not permit a refund or withdrawal of share capital or deposits while the indebtedness of a member exceeds the amount of his deposits and share capital, unless the member has an income sufficient to repay his indebtedness;
- (e) to limit the amount of a loan that may be made to two or more members of a credit union jointly;
- (f) to require a credit union, when calculating the amount of liquid funds required to be kept by it in accordance with the Credit Union Act, 1969, to allow for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment and to exclude certain funds and investments that are withdrawable only on more than 3 months' notice;
- (g) to prohibit credit unions from making loans if their liquid funds are less than 7%, or some other proportion prescribed by the regulations, of their paid-up share capital and deposits;
- (h) to enable different rates of interest to be fixed in respect of money deposited with a credit union;

- (i) to enable the registrar to approve of a credit union raising a loan in excess of the prescribed amount for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits;
- (j) to remove the need for a credit union to specify in its rules the maximum amount it may raise on loan;
- (k) to enable the Minister to direct, by order, that a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month;
- (l) to extend the circumstances in which a credit union or an association of credit unions (hereafter referred to as an "association") may act as agent for another credit union or association;
- (m) to enable a credit union or an association to join an association of building societies;
- (n) to enable certain unincorporated associations to use the words "credit union";
- (o) to make further provisions with respect to the service of documents and summonses on a credit union or an association;
- (p) to repeal the exemption from fees for the registration of a credit union or an association or of any rules or alterations thereof;
- (q) to provide that, where the approval of the members of a credit union is necessary to the amalgamation of that credit union with another credit union, the approval of two-thirds of the number who vote on the matter, instead of the holders of two-thirds of the shares, shall be sufficient;
- (r) to provide for the transfer of engagements from a credit union or an association to another credit union or association;
- (s) to enable the registrar, in certain circumstances and with the approval of the Minister, to direct a credit union or an association to transfer its engagements to another credit union or association;
- (t) to authorise the board of a credit union to delegate its powers to admit persons to membership;
- (u) to increase from 3 to 5 the maximum representation of a credit union on an association and of an association on a union of associations;
- (v) to authorise a credit union or an association to utilise its reserves on terms and conditions approved by the Credit Union Advisory Committee;
- (w) to require that the allowance for contingent liability for loss on loans in arrear to be made by a credit union or association shall be at specified rates;
- (x) to provide that not more than one employee of a credit union or an association may be elected as a director of that credit union or association;

- (y) to provide that a director who is an employee of a credit union or an association shall not be eligible to be elected as chairman of the board of that credit union or association;
  - (z) to allow the Advisory Committee to approve of persons who are not members of a credit union being directors of the credit union and of persons who are not otherwise qualified to be directors of a credit union or an association being directors of the credit union or association;
  - (aa) to require a credit union or an association to submit certain returns to the registrar;
  - (ab) to make further provisions with respect to voting by representatives at a meeting of an association;
  - (ac) to permit a credit union or an association to indicate in its registers or accounts that shares in or money deposited with the credit union or association are held on trust;
  - (ad) to enable the registrar, when determining a dispute between a credit union or an association and a member thereof, to order payment of costs;
  - (ae) to enable the registrar, in certain circumstances and with the approval of the Minister, to appoint an administrator to conduct the affairs of a credit union or an association instead of its directors;
  - (af) to create certain offences relating to the winding up of a credit union or an association being offences of the same nature as those relating to the winding up of a company under the Companies Act, 1961;
  - (ag) to enable summary proceedings for an offence under the Credit Union Act, 1969, to be brought within three years after the commission of the offence;
  - (ah) to require a credit union or an association upon which a penalty has been imposed to inform its members thereof;
  - (ai) to provide that where a document is submitted to the registrar without payment of a prescribed fee, the document shall be deemed not to have been received until payment is made;
  - (aj) to authorise the registrar to enlarge or abridge the time within which a credit union or an association is required to do any act under the Credit Union Act, 1969, the regulations or the rules of that credit union or association;
  - (ak) to enable the registrar, with the approval of the Minister, to control advertising by a credit union or an association;
  - (al) to exempt from the provisions of the Moneylending Act, 1941, foreign credit unions which have been exempted under the Credit Union Act, 1969; and
  - (am) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

(v) to provide that a director who is an employee of a credit union or an association shall not be eligible to be elected as chairman of the board of that credit union or association;

(vi) to allow the A.L.U. to determine the manner of payment of any amount due to a credit union which has been liquidated or otherwise disposed of, and to provide that any amount due to a credit union or an association shall be paid to the liquidator or other person in charge of the liquidation or other disposal;

(vii) to require a credit union or an association to report to the Registrar any further provisions which may be required to give effect to the provisions of an Act;

(viii) to require a credit union or an association to maintain in its register or accounts that relate to or money deposited with the credit union or association any debt or liability;

(ix) to enable the Registrar, when determining a credit union or an association and a member thereof to meet payment of a debt;

(x) to enable the Registrar in certain circumstances and with the approval of the Minister of Finance and the Minister of the Attorney General to conduct the affairs of a credit union or an association instead of its directors;

(xi) to create certain offences relating to the winding up of a credit union or an association and to provide that any offence of this kind shall be treated as an offence under the Companies Act, 1947;

(xii) to enable summary proceedings for an offence under the Credit Union Act, 1963, to be commenced by any person who is a member of the committee of the offence;

(xiii) to require a credit union or an association upon which a debt has been registered to pay the debt to the Registrar;

(xiv) to provide that where a document is submitted to the Registrar for registration of a provision for the payment of a debt and the Registrar is not satisfied that the document is a true and correct copy of the original, the Registrar may refuse to register the document and may require the person submitting it to produce a true and correct copy of the original;

(xv) to enable the Registrar to require or prohibit the issue of any document by a credit union or an association if required to do so under the Credit Union Act, 1963, the provisions of the Act relating to the issue of documents by a credit union or an association;

(xvi) to enable the Registrar, with the approval of the Minister of Finance, to control advertising by a credit union or an association;

(xvii) to exempt from the provisions of the Credit Union Act, 1963, any credit union which has been exempted under the Credit Union Act, 1963, and (xviii) to make such provisions as to other matters as may be necessary.

credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union; or

5 (b) provisions to the effect that the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union shall be determined—

10 (i) by reference to the maximum amount for the time being prescribed by or under the paragraph of subsection (7) applicable in the circumstances; or

15 (ii) in the circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies, by reference to a percentage of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

20 (6A) In this section, "specified amount" means the amount fixed by or in accordance with the rules made pursuant to subsection (6).

25 (6B) The rules of a credit union made for the purposes of subsection (6)—

30 (a) may fix different specified amounts and may contain different provisions for the determination of specified amounts where

Credit Union (Amendment).

where different conditions, specified by the rules in each case, apply in respect thereof; and

5 (b) may contain provisions of both the kinds referred to in subsection (6) (a) and (b), provided the two kinds of provisions are applicable in different circumstances.

10 (6C) Where the rules made by a credit union pursuant to subsection (6) (b) provide that a specified amount shall, at any time, be determined by reference to a percentage of the assets of the credit union, a reference in this section to—

15 (a) the specified amount applicable in the circumstances; or

(b) the applicable specified amount,

20 in relation to that specified amount, is a reference to the amount arrived at by multiplying by that percentage the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

25 (iii) by omitting from section 6 (7) the words "Subject to subsection eight of this section" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsections (8) and (8A)";

(iv)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (iv) by omitting from section 6 (7) (d) the words
“be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars or, where the regulations prescribe
some other amount for the purposes of this paragraph, the amount so prescribed.” and by inserting instead the following words and subparagraphs :—

be an amount not exceeding—

- 10 (iii) $4,000;
- (iv) the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- 15 (v) an amount equivalent to one per centum of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with
this Act,

20 whichever is the greatest.

(v) by inserting after section 6 (7) the following
subsection :—

25 (7AA) The registrar, with the approval of the Minister, may, by order in writing served on a credit union, direct that there shall, for the specified amount that would, but for this subsection, be the specified amount applicable
in the circumstances referred to in subsection
30 (7) (a), (b), (c) or (d), be substituted
such lesser amount as is specified in the order,
and, notwithstanding the rules of that credit
union, that lesser amount shall be deemed to be the amount fixed by the rules of that credit union as the specified amount applicable in those circumstances while that direction
35 remains in force.

(vi)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(vi) by inserting after section 6 (7A) the following subsections :—

5 (7B) The terms or conditions specified in the special rules of a credit union providing for the repayment of the indebtedness of a member shall include—

10 (a) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness within a period not exceeding—

15 (i) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (b) applies—five years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed; and

20 (ii) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies—fifteen years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed;

25 (b) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness by instalments payable at regular intervals not exceeding one year or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations; and

---

---

5 (7C) A member of a credit union may, notwithstanding any terms and conditions specified in the special rules of the credit union or any agreement entered into or instrument executed by him, repay the whole or any part of the principal and interest in respect of his indebtedness before it is due to be repaid.

(vii) by inserting after section 6 (8) the following subsections :—

10 (8A) Where a rule in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection would, but for this subsection, contravene subsection (7) (d), as in force after that commencement—

15 (a) the rule shall be deemed to continue in force until—

(i) it is rescinded;

20 (ii) it is altered in accordance with this Act so as not to contravene subsection (7) (d), as so in force; or

(iii) 31st March, 1976,

whichever first occurs; and

25 (b) during the period during which a rule continues in force by virtue of paragraph (a), subsection (7) (d), as so in force, shall be read and construed, in relation to that rule, as if the amendment made by the Credit Union (Amendment) Act, 1975, to subsection (7) (d) had not been made.

(8B)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(8B) A credit union shall not make a loan to a member if the indebtedness of the member to the credit union would thereby exceed the sum of—

5 (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and

(b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union,

10 unless the board, or its delegate, as the case may be, believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of that indebtedness, but nothing in this subsection authorises a credit union to make a 15 loan in contravention of subsection (9) or (9A).

(viii) by inserting after section 6 (9) the following subsection :—

20 (9A) A credit union shall not make a loan jointly to two or more members of the credit union if the amount of that loan would exceed an amount that would, if each of those
25 members had applied individually for a loan, be the larger or largest of the amounts of the loans which could have been made to those members.

(ix) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "Where the indebtedness" and by inserting 30 instead the words "Subject to subsection (10c), where the indebtedness";

(x)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (x) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words
“This subsection shall not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member,
from applying paid-up share capital or deposits
in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness
of the member to the credit union.”;

(xi) by inserting after section 6 (10) the following
subsections :—

10 (10A) Where the indebtedness or part of the indebtedness of a member to a credit union at any time consists of the amount,
or part of the amount, of a loan made after
the commencement of this subsection, the 15 credit union shall not make a refund of share
capital to the member, or permit the withdrawal of any deposit of the member with
the credit union, if the sum of—

(a) the amount of the member's paid-up
share capital in the credit union; and

20 (b) the amount of the member's deposits
with the credit union,

would thereby be reduced below the amount
of that indebtedness at that time unless the board believes, on reasonable grounds, that 25 the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment
of his indebtedness to the credit union.

30 (10B) Subsections (10) and (10A) do not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member, from applying paid-up
share capital or deposits in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness of the member to the credit union.

(10C)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(10c) Where—

(a) any provision of this Act; or

(b) anything done under the provisions of this Act,

5 would, but for this subsection, have the effect of reducing the applicable specified amount referred to in subsection (10) in relation to the indebtedness of a member to a credit union incurred before that reduction, the reference
10 to the applicable specified amount in that subsection in relation to that indebtedness shall be deemed to be a reference to the applicable specified amount as at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

15 (c) (i) by omitting section 7 (1) and by inserting <sup>Sec. 7.</sup> instead the following subsection :— (Liquidity.)

(1) In this section—

“liquid funds” means—

20 (a) cash at the bank (after allowing for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment) or in hand;

25 (b) investments in securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds (not being securities by way of mortgage over real or leasehold property) that are
30 redeemable within ten years of their acquisition;

(c) funds on deposit with any prescribed bank;

(d)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (d) funds on deposit with an association of credit unions of which the depositor is a member;
- 5 (e) shares in, or deposits with, a permanent building society registered under the Permanent Building Societies Act, 1967; and
- 10 (f) investments in prescribed securities or securities approved by the registrar under section 19 (2),
- 15 but does not include any such funds or investments to the extent—
- 20 (g) of the amount necessary to satisfy any lien or charge on those funds or investments, other than a lien or charge given by a credit union to an association of which it is a member or a floating charge;
- 25 (h) in the case of the funds or investments referred to in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), that they may only be withdrawn on more than three months' notice or, where some other period of notice is prescribed by the regulations in respect of any or all of them, that
- 30 period of notice; or

(i)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

5 (i) where the regulations so provide, that the amount of any of those funds or investments specified in the regulations exceeds an amount prescribed by, or calculated as prescribed by, the regulations;

10 “prescribed proportion” means seven per centum or, where some other percentage is prescribed by the regulations, that percentage.

(ii) by omitting section 7 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

15 (3) A credit union shall not, in any month, make a loan of an amount that, if deducted from the amount of its liquid funds as at the last day of the next preceding month, would produce an amount that bears to the sum of—

20 (a) the amount of the paid-up share capital of the credit union; and

(b) the amount held by the credit union on deposit,

as at that day, a proportion less than the prescribed proportion.

25 (d) (i) by omitting from section 12 (2) the word “where” and by inserting instead the words “to the extent to which, in respect of those deposits or any of them,”; Sec. 12. (Raising loans and receipt of money on deposit.)

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- 5 (ii) by inserting after section 12 (2) the following subsection :—
(2A) An order under subsection (2) may fix rates of interest differing according to specified circumstances.
- (iii) by omitting from section 12 (5) (c) the word “or” where secondly occurring;
- 10 (iv) by omitting from section 12 (5) (d) the words “the credit union.” and by inserting instead the words “the credit union; or”;
- (v) by inserting after section 12 (5) (d) the following paragraph :—
15 (e) any credit union that requires to raise a loan of an amount in excess of the amount prescribed by subsection (4) for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits.
- (vi) by omitting section 12 (6);
- 20 (vii) by omitting from section 12 (7) the words “Nothing in this subsection or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of subsection ten of section six of this Act.”;
- 25 (viii) by inserting after section 12 (7) the following subsection :—
(7A) Nothing in subsection (7) or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 6 (10) or (10A).

(ix)

(ix) by omitting section 12 (8) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

5 (8) Where the Minister so directs by order published in the Gazette on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month.

10 (e) by omitting section 17 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(2) A credit union, or an association, may, as agent for any credit union or association (referred to in this subsection as the "principal")—

Sec. 17.
(Credit union or association as agent.)

15 (a) receive money payable to the principal by the principal's members; or

(b) pay money payable by the principal to the principal's members,

in respect of share capital, deposits or loans.

20 (f) (i) by inserting in section 18 (1) after the word "join" the words "an association of building societies registered under the Co-operation Acts or";

Sec. 18.
(Power to join association.)

25 (ii) by omitting from section 18 (2) the word "it" and by inserting instead the words "a credit union".

Credit Union (Amendment).

6. Part III of the Principal Act is amended—

of Part III
of Act No.
8, 1969.

(a) (i) by omitting section 28 (1) (a) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

Sec. 28.
(Use of words “credit
union”.)

5 (a) trade or carry on business, which expression shall, without limiting the generality thereof, include—

(i) establishing or using an office for the receipt of share capital, deposits or loan funds ;

10 (ii) advertising for share capital, deposits or loan funds ; or

(iii) the making of loans to members residing in New South Wales,

15 whether by servants or agents or otherwise, under any name or title of which the words “credit union”, or any other words importing a similar meaning, form part ; or

(iii) by inserting after section 28 (1) the following subsection :—

25 (1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent an unincorporated association of credit unions, credit union officers or credit union employees, or an unincorporated union of associations of credit unions, formed in New South Wales (not being an association or a union registered under this Act) from using the words “credit union”, or any other words importing a similar

meaning,

Credit Union (Amendment).

meaning, in its name or title, if that association or union has been approved by the registrar for the purposes of this subsection and that approval has not been revoked.

- 5 (b) by omitting section 29 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :— Sec. 29.
of name.)

10 (2) Subject to section 27 (11), no credit union or association shall use any name or title other than its registered name or any abbreviation or elaboration of that name approved in writing by the registrar to be used for any specified purpose or purposes.

- 15 (c) (i) by omitting from section 30 (1) the words "shall be situated" and by inserting instead the words "shall, subject to subsection (2), be situated"; Sec. 30.
(Office and service of
documents.)

20 (ii) by inserting in section 30 (2) after the words "change of address" the words "and the new address shall, as from the date on which the registrar is so notified, be the registered office of that credit union or association";

- (iii) by omitting section 30 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

25 (3) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a credit union or an association, or on an officer of a credit union or an association other than a director, by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association, or by sending it by post to the credit union or association at its registered office.

30

Credit Union (Amendment).

5

(4) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a director of a credit union or an association, by sending it by post to the last address of the director as disclosed in returns transmitted to the registrar pursuant to this Act.

10

(5) Where a liquidator of a credit union or an association has been appointed, a document, other than a summons, may be served on that credit union or association by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the last address of the office of the liquidator notice of which has been lodged with the registrar.

15

20

(7) A summons for an offence by a credit union or an association punishable under this or any other Act may be served by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association and apparently of or above the age of sixteen years.

(8) Where reasonable efforts have been made without success to effect service in the manner prescribed by subsection (7) and a stipendiary magistrate is so satisfied by affidavit he may give leave to effect service of the summons on an officer of the credit union or association or by advertisement or in such other manner as in the circumstances appears to him to be sufficient.

An Act to make further provisions with respect to the lending of money by credit unions and the powers and administration of credit unions and associations of credit unions; to provide for the transfer of engagements of a credit union or an association to another credit union or association; to authorise, in certain circumstances, the appointment of an administrator to conduct the affairs of a credit union or an association; to extend the time for bringing proceedings in respect of certain offences; to provide for the control of advertising by credit unions and associations; for these and other purposes to amend the Credit Union Act, 1969, the Co-operation and Other

Acts

Credit Union (Amendment).

Acts (Amendment) Act, 1973, and the Moneylending Act, 1941; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 23rd October, 1975.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Credit Union (Amendment) Act, 1975".

Commencement.

2. (1) This section and sections 1 and 3 shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.

(2) Section 5 (b) (i) shall be deemed to have commenced on 9th June, 1972.

(3) Section 6 (c) (ii) shall be deemed to have commenced on 1st July, 1969.

(4) Section 13 shall be deemed to have commenced on 17th April, 1973.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) the several provisions of this Act shall commence on such day or days as may be appointed by the Governor in respect thereof and as may be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Credit Union (Amendment).

3. The Credit Union Act, 1969, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act. Principal Act.

4. Part I of the Principal Act is amended— Amendment of Part I of Act No. 8, 1969.

(a) (i) by inserting in section 2 after the word “Amalgamation” the words “and Transfer of Engagements”; Sec. 2. (Division of Act.)

(ii) by omitting from section 2 the matter “ss. 71-75” and by inserting instead the matter “ss. 71-75A”;

(b) by omitting from the definition of “Co-operation Acts” in section 3 (1) the words “, Community Settlement, and Credit”. Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

5. Part II of the Principal Act is amended— Amendment of Part II of Act No. 8, 1969.

(a) by omitting section 5 (d) (i); Sec. 5. (Powers.)

(b) (i) by inserting after section 6 (4A) (d) the following paragraph :— Sec. 6. (Loans.)

(e) The Board may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation made under this subsection.

(ii) by omitting section 6 (6) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(6) The rules of a credit union shall contain—

(a) subject to subsection (7), provisions fixing the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit

credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union; or

(b) provisions to the effect that the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union shall be determined—

(i) by reference to the maximum amount for the time being prescribed by or under the paragraph of subsection (7) applicable in the circumstances; or

(ii) in the circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies, by reference to a percentage of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

(6A) In this section, "specified amount" means the amount fixed by or in accordance with the rules made pursuant to subsection (6).

(6B) The rules of a credit union made for the purposes of subsection (6)—

(a) may fix different specified amounts and may contain different provisions for the determination of specified amounts where

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

where different conditions, specified by the rules in each case, apply in respect thereof; and

- (b) may contain provisions of both the kinds referred to in subsection (6) (a) and (b), provided the two kinds of provisions are applicable in different circumstances.

(6c) Where the rules made by a credit union pursuant to subsection (6) (b) provide that a specified amount shall, at any time, be determined by reference to a percentage of the assets of the credit union, a reference in this section to—

- (a) the specified amount applicable in the circumstances; or

- (b) the applicable specified amount,

in relation to that specified amount, is a reference to the amount arrived at by multiplying by that percentage the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

- (iii) by omitting from section 6 (7) the words "Subject to subsection eight of this section" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsections (8) and (8A)";

(iv)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(iv) by omitting from section 6 (7) (d) the words "be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars or, where the regulations prescribe some other amount for the purposes of this paragraph, the amount so prescribed." and by inserting instead the following words and subparagraphs :—

be an amount not exceeding—

(iii) $4,000;

(iv) the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or

(v) an amount equivalent to one per centum of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act,

whichever is the greatest.

(v) by inserting after section 6 (7) the following subsection :—

(7AA) The registrar, with the approval of the Minister, may, by order in writing served on a credit union, direct that there shall, for the specified amount that would, but for this subsection, be the specified amount applicable in the circumstances referred to in subsection (7) (a), (b), (c) or (d), be substituted such lesser amount as is specified in the order, and, notwithstanding the rules of that credit union, that lesser amount shall be deemed to be the amount fixed by the rules of that credit union as the specified amount applicable in those circumstances while that direction remains in force.

(vi)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(vi) by inserting after section 6 (7A) the following subsections :—

(7B) The terms or conditions specified in the special rules of a credit union providing for the repayment of the indebtedness of a member shall include—

(a) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness within a period not exceeding—

(i) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (b) applies—five years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed; and

(ii) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies—fifteen years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed;

(b) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness by instalments payable at regular intervals not exceeding one year or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations; and

---

---

(7C) A member of a credit union may, notwithstanding any terms and conditions specified in the special rules of the credit union or any agreement entered into or instrument executed by him, repay the whole or any part of the principal and interest in respect of his indebtedness before it is due to be repaid.

(vii) by inserting after section 6 (8) the following subsections :—

(8A) Where a rule in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection would, but for this subsection, contravene subsection (7) (d), as in force after that commencement—

(a) the rule shall be deemed to continue in force until—

(i) it is rescinded;

(ii) it is altered in accordance with this Act so as not to contravene subsection (7) (d), as so in force; or

(iii) 31st March, 1976,

whichever first occurs; and

(b) during the period during which a rule continues in force by virtue of paragraph (a), subsection (7) (d), as so in force, shall be read and construed, in relation to that rule, as if the amendment made by the Credit Union (Amendment) Act, 1975, to subsection (7) (d) had not been made.

(8B)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(8B) A credit union shall not make a loan to a member if the indebtedness of the member to the credit union would thereby exceed the sum of—

- (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and
- (b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union,

unless the board, or its delegate, as the case may be, believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of that indebtedness, but nothing in this subsection authorises a credit union to make a loan in contravention of subsection (9) or (9A).

- (viii) by inserting after section 6 (9) the following subsection :—

(9A) A credit union shall not make a loan jointly to two or more members of the credit union if the amount of that loan would exceed an amount that would, if each of those members had applied individually for a loan, be the larger or largest of the amounts of the loans which could have been made to those members.

- (ix) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "Where the indebtedness" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsection (10c), where the indebtedness";

(x)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(x) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "This subsection shall not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member, from applying paid-up share capital or deposits in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness of the member to the credit union.";

(xi) by inserting after section 6 (10) the following subsections :—

(10A) Where the indebtedness or part of the indebtedness of a member to a credit union at any time consists of the amount, or part of the amount, of a loan made after the commencement of this subsection, the credit union shall not make a refund of share capital to the member, or permit the withdrawal of any deposit of the member with the credit union, if the sum of—

(a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and

(b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union, would thereby be reduced below the amount of that indebtedness at that time unless the board believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of his indebtedness to the credit union.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(10c) Where—

- (a) any provision of this Act; or
- (b) anything done under the provisions of this Act,

would, but for this subsection, have the effect of reducing the applicable specified amount referred to in subsection (10) in relation to the indebtedness of a member to a credit union incurred before that reduction, the reference to the applicable specified amount in that subsection in relation to that indebtedness shall be deemed to be a reference to the applicable specified amount as at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

- (c) (i) by omitting section 7 (1) and by inserting Sec. 7.
instead the following subsection :— (Liquidity.)

(1) In this section—

“liquid funds” means—

- (a) cash at the bank (after allowing for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment) or in hand;
- (b) investments in securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds (not being securities by way of mortgage over real or leasehold property) that are redeemable within ten years of their acquisition;
- (c) funds on deposit with any prescribed bank;

(d)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (d) funds on deposit with an association of credit unions of which the depositor is a member;
- (e) shares in, or deposits with, a permanent building society registered under the Permanent Building Societies Act, 1967; and
- (f) investments in prescribed securities or securities approved by the registrar under section 19 (2),

but does not include any such funds or investments to the extent—

- (g) of the amount necessary to satisfy any lien or charge on those funds or investments, other than a lien or charge given by a credit union to an association of which it is a member or a floating charge;
- (h) in the case of the funds or investments referred to in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), that they may only be withdrawn on more than three months' notice or, where some other period of notice is prescribed by the regulations in respect of any or all of them, that period of notice; or

(i)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (i) where the regulations so provide, that the amount of any of those funds or investments specified in the regulations exceeds an amount prescribed by, or calculated as prescribed by, the regulations;

“prescribed proportion” means seven per centum or, where some other percentage is prescribed by the regulations, that percentage.

- (ii) by omitting section 7 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(3) A credit union shall not, in any month, make a loan of an amount that, if deducted from the amount of its liquid funds as at the last day of the next preceding month, would produce an amount that bears to the sum of—

- (a) the amount of the paid-up share capital of the credit union; and
(b) the amount held by the credit union on deposit,

as at that day, a proportion less than the prescribed proportion.

- (d) (i) by omitting from section 12 (2) the word “where” and by inserting instead the words “to the extent to which, in respect of those deposits or any of them,”; Sec. 12.
(Raising loans and receipt of money on deposit.)

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (ii) by inserting after section 12 (2) the following subsection :—
- (2A) An order under subsection (2) may fix rates of interest differing according to specified circumstances.
- (iii) by omitting from section 12 (5) (c) the word “or” where secondly occurring;
- (iv) by omitting from section 12 (5) (d) the words “the credit union.” and by inserting instead the words “the credit union; or”;
- (v) by inserting after section 12 (5) (d) the following paragraph :—
- (e) any credit union that requires to raise a loan of an amount in excess of the amount prescribed by subsection (4) for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits.
- (vi) by omitting section 12 (6);
- (vii) by omitting from section 12 (7) the words “Nothing in this subsection or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of subsection ten of section six of this Act.”;
- (viii) by inserting after section 12 (7) the following subsection :—
- (7A) Nothing in subsection (7) or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 6 (10) or (10A).

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

(ix) by omitting section 12 (8) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(8) Where the Minister so directs by order published in the Gazette on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month.

(e) by omitting section 17 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

Sec. 17.
(Credit union or association as agent.)

(2) A credit union, or an association, may, as agent for any credit union or association (referred to in this subsection as the “principal”)—

(a) receive money payable to the principal by the principal’s members; or

(b) pay money payable by the principal to the principal’s members,

in respect of share capital, deposits or loans.

(f) (i) by inserting in section 18 (1) after the word “join” the words “an association of building societies registered under the Co-operation Acts or”;

Sec. 18.
(Power to join association.)

(ii) by omitting from section 18 (2) the word “it” and by inserting instead the words “a credit union”.

Amendment
of Part III
of Act No.
8, 1969.

6. Part III of the Principal Act is amended—

Sec. 28.
(Use of words
"credit
union".)

(a) (i) by omitting section 28 (1) (a) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

(a) trade or carry on business, which expression shall, without limiting the generality thereof, include—

(i) establishing or using an office for the receipt of share capital, deposits or loan funds ;

(ii) advertising for share capital, deposits or loan funds ; or

(iii) the making of loans to members residing in New South Wales,

whether by servants or agents or otherwise, under any name or title of which the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar meaning, form part ; or

(ii) by omitting from section 28 (1) (b) the word "other" ;

(iii) by inserting after section 28 (1) the following subsection :—

(1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent an unincorporated association of credit unions, credit union officers or credit union employees, or an unincorporated union of associations of credit unions, formed in New South Wales (not being an association or a union registered under this Act) from using the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar meaning,

meaning, in its name or title, if that association or union has been approved by the registrar for the purposes of this subsection and that approval has not been revoked.

- (b) by omitting section 29 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

Sec. 29.
(Publication
of name.)

(2) Subject to section 27 (11), no credit union or association shall use any name or title other than its registered name or any abbreviation or elaboration of that name approved in writing by the registrar to be used for any specified purpose or purposes.

- (c) (i) by omitting from section 30 (1) the words “shall be situated” and by inserting instead the words “shall, subject to subsection (2), be situated”;

Sec. 30.
(Office and service of
documents.)

- (ii) by inserting in section 30 (2) after the words “change of address” the words “and the new address shall, as from the date on which the registrar is so notified, be the registered office of that credit union or association”;

- (iii) by omitting section 30 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(3) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a credit union or an association, or on an officer of a credit union or an association other than a director, by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association, or by sending it by post to the credit union or association at its registered office.

Credit Union (Amendment).

(4) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a director of a credit union or an association, by sending it by post to the last address of the director as disclosed in returns transmitted to the registrar pursuant to this Act.

(5) Where a liquidator of a credit union or an association has been appointed, a document, other than a summons, may be served on that credit union or association by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the last address of the office of the liquidator notice of which has been lodged with the registrar.

(6) Service by post under this section shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

(7) A summons for an offence by a credit union or an association punishable under this or any other Act may be served by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association and apparently of or above the age of sixteen years.

(8) Where reasonable efforts have been made without success to effect service in the manner prescribed by subsection (7) and a stipendiary magistrate is so satisfied by affidavit he may give leave to effect service of the summons on an officer of the credit union or association or by advertisement or in such other manner as in the circumstances appears to him to be sufficient.

(d)

Credit Union (Amendment).

- (d) by omitting section 31 ; Sec. 31.
(Exemption from fees.)
- (e) by inserting in the heading to Division 4 after the word "Amalgamation" the words "and Transfer of Engagements"; Heading to Div. 4.
- (f) (i) by omitting section 33 (1) (b) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :— Sec. 33.
(Amalgamation.)
- (b) where the registrar has given a direction to one of those credit unions pursuant to section 34 (2A), a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that—
- (i) that direction has been complied with; and
- (ii) the amalgamation has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation.
- (ii) by omitting from section 33 (5) the word "applies" and by inserting instead the word "approves";
- (g) by inserting after section 33 the following Sec. 33A.
section :—
- 33A. (1) Subject to this section— Transfer of engagements.
- (a) a credit union may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another credit union which undertakes to fulfil those engagements; and

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (b) an association may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another association which undertakes to fulfil those engagements, and, for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b), a credit union or an association may—

- (c) by special resolution; or
- (d) with the consent of the registrar, by resolution of a general meeting or of the board,

undertake to fulfil the engagements of another credit union or association.

(2) A transfer of engagements between credit unions or associations under this section shall not have effect—

- (a) unless the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association has been registered; and
- (b) where the registrar has given a direction to the transferor credit union or the transferee credit union pursuant to section 34 (2A), unless—
- (i) a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that that direction has been complied with and that the transfer has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the transfer; or

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (ii) an application has been made under section 34 (3) by that credit union, and the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer.

(3) The registrar, before registering the special resolution referred to in subsection (2) (a), may require such evidence as he deems necessary to ensure—

- (a) that the transferee credit union or association has, by means authorised in this section, undertaken to fulfil the engagements of the transferor credit union or association;
- (b) that the statements referred to in section 34 have (unless exemption has been granted by the registrar pursuant to section 34 (1)) been issued; and
- (c) that, if so required, the necessary approval to the transfer has been obtained under subsection (2) (b) (i) (unless the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer).

(4) Within one month of the passing of a resolution under subsection (1) (d), the credit union or association shall notify the registrar that the resolution has been passed and if the credit union or association fails so to notify the registrar, the credit union or association, and every officer of the credit union or association who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the registrar may, not earlier than one year after the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1), remove from the register the name of that credit union or association.

(6) The power conferred on the registrar by subsection (5) shall not be exercised until after the registrar has given to the transferee credit union or association notice of his intention so to do and, where the registrar, on the application of that credit union or association made within a time specified in the notice for the purpose, or a subsequent notice to the like effect, so approves, until after the expiration of any further period approved by the registrar.

(7) The provisions of subsections (6) to (13), inclusive, of section 33 apply to and in respect of a transfer of engagements where a credit union or an association transfers the whole of its engagements to another credit union or association in the same way as they apply to and in respect of an amalgamation of credit unions or associations, as the case may be, and for the purpose of that application—

- (a) a reference to an amalgamated credit union or association shall be construed as a reference to the transferee credit union or association;
- (b) a reference to a credit union or an association that is a party to the amalgamation shall be construed as a reference to the transferor credit union or association; and

(c)

Credit Union (Amendment).

- (c) a reference to the issue of the certificate of incorporation shall be construed as a reference to the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1).
- (h) (i) by omitting from section 34 (1) the words "A credit union desiring to amalgamate with one or more other credit unions, or an association desiring to amalgamate with one or more other associations" and by inserting instead the words "A credit union or an association referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided";
- (ii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (b) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- (iii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (d) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- (iv) by omitting from section 34 (2) the words "subsection one of section thirty-three of this Act" and by inserting instead the words "section 33 (1) or 33A (1) (a), (b) or (c), as the case may require";
- (v) by inserting after section 34 (2) the following subsection :—

(2A) A credit union referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided, shall, if so directed by the registrar, seek from all of its members, in a manner approved by the registrar,

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

registrar, their approval or disapproval in writing of that amalgamation or transfer of engagements.

- (vi) by omitting section 34 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(3) Where the registrar has given a direction to a credit union pursuant to subsection (2A), the credit union may apply to the registrar to confirm an amalgamation or transfer of engagements notwithstanding that the approval in writing of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the credit union who conveyed to the secretary of the credit union in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation or transfer of engagements, as the case may be, has not been obtained.

(3A) Where an application is made under subsection (3) the credit union shall give notice of the application in such manner, at such times and in such newspapers as the registrar may direct.

- (vii) by inserting in section 34 (4) after the word “amalgamation” the words “or transfer of engagements”;

- (i) by inserting after section 34 the following sections :—

34A. (1) Subject to this section, the registrar may, with the approval of the Minister—

- (a) direct—

- (i) a credit union to transfer its engagements to another credit union approved by the registrar; or

- (ii)

Secs. 34A
and 34B.

(a) by inserting after section 71 the following sections :—

Appointment of administrator of credit union
or association.

71A. (1) Subject to this section, the registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint an administrator to conduct the affairs of a credit union or an association.

(2) The registrar shall not appoint an administrator unless he gives such a certificate as would be provided for by section 72 (3) and (4) if section 72 were amended—

(a) by omitting from subsection (3) the words “In the case of a winding up upon a certificate of the registrar, a credit union, or an association, may be wound up in accordance with this Part of this Act if” and by inserting instead the words “An administrator may not be appointed under section 71A (1) unless”; and

(b) by omitting from subsection (3) (f) the words “the credit union or association should be wound up” and by inserting instead the words “an administrator should be appointed to conduct the affairs of the credit union or association”.

(3) Upon the appointment of an administrator of a credit union or an association, other than an appointment referred to in subsection (6) (a)—

(a) the directors of that credit union or association cease to hold office;

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (b) all contracts of employment with that credit union or association are terminated;
- (c) all contracts for the provision of secretarial or administrative services for that credit union or association are terminated; and
- (d) any delegation made by the board of that credit union or association is revoked.

(4) An administrator of a credit union or an association has the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the board of that credit union or association.

(5) Except as provided by subsection (6), a director of a credit union or an association shall not be appointed or elected while an administrator of that credit union or association is in office.

(6) Before revoking the appointment of an administrator of a credit union or an association, the registrar shall, except in the case of a revocation under section 71B (2)—

- (a) appoint another person as administrator;
- (b) ensure that directors of that credit union or association have been elected in accordance with the rules of that credit union or association at a meeting convened by the administrator in accordance with those rules; or
- (c) appoint directors of that credit union or association.

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(7) Directors elected under subsection (6) (b) or appointed under subsection (6) (c)—

(a) take office upon revocation of the appointment of the administrator; and

(b) in the case of appointed directors, hold office until—

(i) they cease to hold office in accordance with this Act or the rules of the credit union or association; or

(ii) the annual general meeting of the credit union or association that next succeeds revocation of that appointment,

whichever is the earlier.

(8) The expenses of and incidental to the conduct of the affairs of a credit union or an association by an administrator are payable from the funds of that credit union or association.

(9) The remuneration of an administrator who is not a servant of the Crown is an expense referred to in subsection (8) and shall be fixed by the registrar.

(10) Where an administrator appointed under this section is a servant of the Crown, the reimbursement of the Crown in an amount certified by the registrar in respect of the remuneration of its servant is an expense referred to in subsection (8) and is recoverable as a debt due to the Crown.

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(11) An administrator of a credit union or an association is not liable for any loss sustained by that credit union or association during his term of office unless the loss was due to his wilful misconduct or gross negligence or to his wilful failure to comply with the provisions of this Act or the regulations or the rules of the credit union or association.

(12) The registrar is not liable for any loss sustained by a credit union or an association during the term of office of an administrator, whether or not the administrator is so liable.

(13) The registrar may revoke any appointment of an administrator made under this section.

71B. (1) Where an administrator of a credit union or an association is appointed, a majority of the directors who ceased to hold office upon the appointment of the administrator may, not later than fourteen days after the appointment, make representations to the Advisory Committee with respect to the appointment and, where any such representations are so made, the Advisory Committee shall report thereon to the Minister.

(2) The registrar shall, if the Minister so directs after considering a report under subsection (1) with respect to a credit union or an association, revoke the appointment of an administrator of that credit union or association, and a director who held office immediately before the appointment of the administrator resumes that office upon revocation of the appointment.

credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union; or

(b) provisions to the effect that the maximum amount by which the indebtedness of a member of the credit union may exceed the sum of the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in, and of his deposits with, the credit union shall be determined—

(i) by reference to the maximum amount for the time being prescribed by or under the paragraph of subsection (7) applicable in the circumstances; or

(ii) in the circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies, by reference to a percentage of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

(6A) In this section, "specified amount" means the amount fixed by or in accordance with the rules made pursuant to subsection (6).

(6B) The rules of a credit union made for the purposes of subsection (6)—

(a) may fix different specified amounts and may contain different provisions for the determination of specified amounts
where

where different conditions, specified by the rules in each case, apply in respect thereof; and

(b) may contain provisions of both the kinds referred to in subsection (6) (a) and (b), provided the two kinds of provisions are applicable in different circumstances.

(6c) Where the rules made by a credit union pursuant to subsection (6) (b) provide that a specified amount shall, at any time, be determined by reference to a percentage of the assets of the credit union, a reference in this section to—

(a) the specified amount applicable in the circumstances; or

(b) the applicable specified amount,

in relation to that specified amount, is a reference to the amount arrived at by multiplying by that percentage the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act.

(iii) by omitting from section 6 (7) the words "Subject to subsection eight of this section" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsections (8) and (8A)";

(iv)

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (iv) by omitting from section 6 (7) (d) the words "be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars or, where the regulations prescribe some other amount for the purposes of this paragraph, the amount so prescribed." and by inserting instead the following words and subparagraphs :—

be an amount not exceeding—

- (iii) $4,000;
- (iv) the amount (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- (v) an amount equivalent to one per centum of the amount shown as the value of the assets of the credit union in the latest balance sheet of the credit union lodged with the registrar in accordance with this Act, whichever is the greatest.

- (v) by inserting after section 6 (7) the following subsection :—

(7AA) The registrar, with the approval of the Minister, may, by order in writing served on a credit union, direct that there shall, for the specified amount that would, but for this subsection, be the specified amount applicable in the circumstances referred to in subsection (7) (a), (b), (c) or (d), be substituted such lesser amount as is specified in the order, and, notwithstanding the rules of that credit union, that lesser amount shall be deemed to be the amount fixed by the rules of that credit union as the specified amount applicable in those circumstances while that direction remains in force.

(vi)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(vi) by inserting after section 6 (7A) the following subsections :—

(7B) The terms or conditions specified in the special rules of a credit union providing for the repayment of the indebtedness of a member shall include—

- (a) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness within a period not exceeding—
  - (i) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (b) applies—five years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed; and
  - (ii) in circumstances to which subsection (7) (d) applies—fifteen years or, where some other period is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subparagraph, the period so prescribed;
- (b) a term or condition requiring the repayment of the principal and interest in respect of that indebtedness by instalments payable at regular intervals not exceeding one year or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations; and
- (c) such other terms or conditions relating to the payment and amount of instalments as may be prescribed by the regulations.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(7C) A member of a credit union may, notwithstanding any terms and conditions specified in the special rules of the credit union or any agreement entered into or instrument executed by him, repay the whole or any part of the principal and interest in respect of his indebtedness before it is due to be repaid.

(vii) by inserting after section 6 (8) the following subsections :—

(8A) Where a rule in force immediately before the commencement of this subsection would, but for this subsection, contravene subsection (7) (d), as in force after that commencement—

(a) the rule shall be deemed to continue in force until—

(i) it is rescinded;

(ii) it is altered in accordance with this Act so as not to contravene subsection (7) (d), as so in force; or

(iii) 31st March, 1976,

whichever first occurs; and

(b) during the period during which a rule continues in force by virtue of paragraph (a), subsection (7) (d), as so in force, shall be read and construed, in relation to that rule, as if the amendment made by the Credit Union (Amendment) Act, 1975, to subsection (7) (d) had not been made.

(8B)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(8B) A credit union shall not make a loan to a member if the indebtedness of the member to the credit union would thereby exceed the sum of—

- (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and
- (b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union,

unless the board, or its delegate, as the case may be, believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of that indebtedness, but nothing in this subsection authorises a credit union to make a loan in contravention of subsection (9) or (9A).

- (viii) by inserting after section 6 (9) the following subsection :—

(9A) A credit union shall not make a loan jointly to two or more members of the credit union if the amount of that loan would exceed an amount that would, if each of those members had applied individually for a loan, be the larger or largest of the amounts of the loans which could have been made to those members.

- (ix) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "Where the indebtedness" and by inserting instead the words "Subject to subsection (10c), where the indebtedness";

(x)

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(x) by omitting from section 6 (10) the words "This subsection shall not operate to prevent a credit union, with the consent of a member, from applying paid-up share capital or deposits in reduction or repayment of the indebtedness of the member to the credit union.";

(xi) by inserting after section 6 (10) the following subsections :—

(10A) Where the indebtedness or part of the indebtedness of a member to a credit union at any time consists of the amount, or part of the amount, of a loan made after the commencement of this subsection, the credit union shall not make a refund of share capital to the member, or permit the withdrawal of any deposit of the member with the credit union, if the sum of—

- (a) the amount of the member's paid-up share capital in the credit union; and
- (b) the amount of the member's deposits with the credit union, would thereby be reduced below the amount of that indebtedness at that time unless the board believes, on reasonable grounds, that the member has, and will continue to have, an income sufficient to provide for the repayment of his indebtedness to the credit union.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(10c) Where—

- (a) any provision of this Act; or
- (b) anything done under the provisions of this Act,

would, but for this subsection, have the effect of reducing the applicable specified amount referred to in subsection (10) in relation to the indebtedness of a member to a credit union incurred before that reduction, the reference to the applicable specified amount in that subsection in relation to that indebtedness shall be deemed to be a reference to the applicable specified amount as at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

(c) (i) by omitting section 7 (1) and by inserting Sec. 7.
instead the following subsection :— (Liquidity.)

(1) In this section—

“liquid funds” means—

- (a) cash at the bank (after allowing for cheques or other bills of exchange drawn but not presented for payment) or in hand;
- (b) investments in securities authorised by law for the investment of trust funds (not being securities by way of mortgage over real or leasehold property) that are redeemable within ten years of their acquisition;
- (c) funds on deposit with any prescribed bank;

(d)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

- (d) funds on deposit with an association of credit unions of which the depositor is a member;
- (e) shares in, or deposits with, a permanent building society registered under the Permanent Building Societies Act, 1967; and
- (f) investments in prescribed securities or securities approved by the registrar under section 19 (2),

but does not include any such funds or investments to the extent—

- (g) of the amount necessary to satisfy any lien or charge on those funds or investments, other than a lien or charge given by a credit union to an association of which it is a member or a floating charge;
- (h) in the case of the funds or investments referred to in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), that they may only be withdrawn on more than three months' notice or, where some other period of notice is prescribed by the regulations in respect of any or all of them, that period of notice; or

(i)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (i) where the regulations so provide, that the amount of any of those funds or investments specified in the regulations exceeds an amount prescribed by, or calculated as prescribed by, the regulations;

“prescribed proportion” means seven per centum or, where some other percentage is prescribed by the regulations, that percentage.

- (ii) by omitting section 7 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(3) A credit union shall not, in any month, make a loan of an amount that, if deducted from the amount of its liquid funds as at the last day of the next preceding month, would produce an amount that bears to the sum of—

(a) the amount of the paid-up share capital of the credit union; and

(b) the amount held by the credit union on deposit,

as at that day, a proportion less than the prescribed proportion.

- (d) (i) by omitting from section 12 (2) the word Sec. 12. “where” and by inserting instead the words “to (Raising loans and receipt of money on deposit.) the extent to which, in respect of those deposits or any of them,”;

(ii) by inserting after section 12 (2) the following subsection :—

(2A) An order under subsection (2) may fix rates of interest differing according to specified circumstances.

(iii) by omitting from section 12 (5) (c) the word “or” where secondly occurring;

(iv) by omitting from section 12 (5) (d) the words “the credit union.” and by inserting instead the words “the credit union; or”;

(v) by inserting after section 12 (5) (d) the following paragraph :—

(e) any credit union that requires to raise a loan of an amount in excess of the amount prescribed by subsection (4) for the purpose of repaying share capital or deposits.

(vi) by omitting section 12 (6);

(vii) by omitting from section 12 (7) the words “Nothing in this subsection or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of subsection ten of section six of this Act.”;

(viii) by inserting after section 12 (7) the following subsection :—

(7A) Nothing in subsection (7) or the rules of a credit union shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 6 (10) or (10A).

- (ix) by omitting section 12 (8) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(8) Where the Minister so directs by order published in the Gazette on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, a credit union shall not, except as provided by the order, receive money on deposit upon the terms that it is not repayable before the expiration of a specified period that exceeds one month.

- (e) by omitting section 17 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

Sec. 17.
(Credit union or association as agent.)

(2) A credit union, or an association, may, as agent for any credit union or association (referred to in this subsection as the "principal")—

- (a) receive money payable to the principal by the principal's members; or
(b) pay money payable by the principal to the principal's members,

in respect of share capital, deposits or loans.

- (f) (i) by inserting in section 18 (1) after the word "join" the words "an association of building societies registered under the Co-operation Acts or";

Sec. 18.
(Power to join association.)

Amendment
of Part III
of Act No.
8, 1969.

6. Part III of the Principal Act is amended—

Sec. 28.
(Use of words
"credit
union".)

(a) (i) by omitting section 28 (1) (a) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

(a) trade or carry on business, which expression shall, without limiting the generality thereof, include—

(i) establishing or using an office for the receipt of share capital, deposits or loan funds ;

(ii) advertising for share capital, deposits or loan funds ; or

(iii) the making of loans to members residing in New South Wales,

whether by servants or agents or otherwise, under any name or title of which the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar meaning, form part ; or

(ii) by omitting from section 28 (1) (b) the word "other" ;

(iii) by inserting after section 28 (1) the following subsection :—

(1A) Subsection (1) does not prevent an unincorporated association of credit unions, credit union officers or credit union employees, or an unincorporated union of associations of credit unions, formed in New South Wales (not being an association or a union registered under this Act) from using the words "credit union", or any other words importing a similar meaning,

- (b) by omitting section 29 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

Sec. 29.
(Publication
of name.)

(2) Subject to section 27 (11), no credit union or association shall use any name or title other than its registered name or any abbreviation or elaboration of that name approved in writing by the registrar to be used for any specified purpose or purposes.

- (c) (i) by omitting from section 30 (1) the words “shall be situated” and by inserting instead the words “shall, subject to subsection (2), be situated”;

Sec. 30.
(Office and service of
documents.)

(ii) by inserting in section 30 (2) after the words “change of address” the words “and the new address shall, as from the date on which the registrar is so notified, be the registered office of that credit union or association”;

- (iii) by omitting section 30 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(3) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a credit union or an association, or on an officer of a credit union or an association other than a director, by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association, or by sending it by post to the credit union or association at its registered office.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

(4) A document, other than a summons, may be served on a director of a credit union or an association, by sending it by post to the last address of the director as disclosed in returns transmitted to the registrar pursuant to this Act.

(5) Where a liquidator of a credit union or an association has been appointed, a document, other than a summons, may be served on that credit union or association by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the last address of the office of the liquidator notice of which has been lodged with the registrar.

(6) Service by post under this section shall be deemed to be effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

(7) A summons for an offence by a credit union or an association punishable under this or any other Act may be served by leaving it at the registered office of that credit union or association with some person apparently in the service of the credit union or association and apparently of or above the age of sixteen years.

(8) Where reasonable efforts have been made without success to effect service in the manner prescribed by subsection (7) and a stipendiary magistrate is so satisfied by affidavit he may give leave to effect service of the summons on an officer of the credit union or association or by advertisement or in such other manner as in the circumstances appears to him to be sufficient.

- (d) by omitting section 31 ; Sec. 31.
(Exemption
from fees.)
- (e) by inserting in the heading to Division 4 after the word "Amalgamation" the words "and Transfer of Engagements"; Heading to
Div. 4.
- (f) (i) by omitting section 33 (1) (b) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :— Sec. 33.
(Amalgamation.)
- (b) where the registrar has given a direction to one of those credit unions pursuant to section 34 (2A), a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that—
- (i) that direction has been complied with; and
- (ii) the amalgamation has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation.
- (ii) by omitting from section 33 (5) the word "applies" and by inserting instead the word "approves";
- (g) by inserting after section 33 the following section :— Sec. 33A.
- 33A. (1) Subject to this section— Transfer of engagements.
- (a) a credit union may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another credit union which undertakes to fulfil those engagements; and

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (b) an association may by special resolution transfer its engagements to another association which undertakes to fulfil those engagements, and, for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b), a credit union or an association may—

- (c) by special resolution; or
- (d) with the consent of the registrar, by resolution of a general meeting or of the board,

undertake to fulfil the engagements of another credit union or association.

(2) A transfer of engagements between credit unions or associations under this section shall not have effect—

- (a) unless the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association has been registered; and
- (b) where the registrar has given a direction to the transferor credit union or the transferee credit union pursuant to section 34 (2A), unless—
- (i) a certificate has been furnished by the secretary of that credit union that that direction has been complied with and that the transfer has been approved in writing by not less than two-thirds of the number of members of that credit union who conveyed to him in writing their approval or disapproval of the transfer; or

(ii)

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(ii) an application has been made under section 34 (3) by that credit union, and the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer.

(3) The registrar, before registering the special resolution referred to in subsection (2) (a), may require such evidence as he deems necessary to ensure—

- (a) that the transferee credit union or association has, by means authorised in this section, undertaken to fulfil the engagements of the transferor credit union or association;
- (b) that the statements referred to in section 34 have (unless exemption has been granted by the registrar pursuant to section 34 (1)) been issued; and
- (c) that, if so required, the necessary approval to the transfer has been obtained under subsection (2) (b) (i) (unless the registrar has, under section 34 (4), confirmed the transfer).

(4) Within one month of the passing of a resolution under subsection (1) (d), the credit union or association shall notify the registrar that the resolution has been passed and if the credit union or association fails so to notify the registrar, the credit union or association, and every officer of the credit union or association who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a penalty not exceeding $500.

Credit Union (Amendment).

(5) Subject to subsection (6), the registrar may, not earlier than one year after the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1), remove from the register the name of that credit union or association.

(6) The power conferred on the registrar by subsection (5) shall not be exercised until after the registrar has given to the transferee credit union or association notice of his intention so to do and, where the registrar, on the application of that credit union or association made within a time specified in the notice for the purpose, or a subsequent notice to the like effect, so approves, until after the expiration of any further period approved by the registrar.

(7) The provisions of subsections (6) to (13), inclusive, of section 33 apply to and in respect of a transfer of engagements where a credit union or an association transfers the whole of its engagements to another credit union or association in the same way as they apply to and in respect of an amalgamation of credit unions or associations, as the case may be, and for the purpose of that application—

(a) a reference to an amalgamated credit union or association shall be construed as a reference to the transferee credit union or association;

(b) a reference to a credit union or an association that is a party to the amalgamation shall be construed as a reference to the transferor credit union or association; and

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

- (c) a reference to the issue of the certificate of incorporation shall be construed as a reference to the registration of the special resolution of the transferor credit union or association referred to in subsection (1).
- (h) (i) by omitting from section 34 (1) the words "A credit union desiring to amalgamate with one or more other credit unions, or an association desiring to amalgamate with one or more other associations" and by inserting instead the words "A credit union or an association referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided"; Sec. 34. (Supplementary provisions as to amalgamation or transfer of engagements.)
- (ii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (b) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- (iii) by inserting in section 34 (1) (d) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";
- (iv) by omitting from section 34 (2) the words "subsection one of section thirty-three of this Act" and by inserting instead the words "section 33 (1) or 33A (1) (a), (b) or (c), as the case may require";
- (v) by inserting after section 34 (2) the following subsection :—
- (2A) A credit union referred to in section 33 or 33A, prior to the amalgamation or transfer of engagements therein provided, shall, if so directed by the registrar, seek from all of its members, in a manner approved by the
- registrar,

registrar, their approval or disapproval in writing of that amalgamation or transfer of engagements.

- (vi) by omitting section 34 (3) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(3) Where the registrar has given a direction to a credit union pursuant to subsection (2A), the credit union may apply to the registrar to confirm an amalgamation or transfer of engagements notwithstanding that the approval in writing of not less than two-thirds of the number of members of the credit union who conveyed to the secretary of the credit union in writing their approval or disapproval of the amalgamation or transfer of engagements, as the case may be, has not been obtained.

(3A) Where an application is made under subsection (3) the credit union shall give notice of the application in such manner, at such times and in such newspapers as the registrar may direct.

- (vii) by inserting in section 34 (4) after the word "amalgamation" the words "or transfer of engagements";

Secs. 34A
and 34B.

- (i) by inserting after section 34 the following sections :—

34A. (1) Subject to this section, the registrar may, with the approval of the Minister—

(a) direct—

- (i) a credit union to transfer its engagements to another credit union approved by the registrar; or

(ii)

Transfer of engagements by direction of registrar.

union or association that he has elected to treat the certificate given under subsection (2) in relation to the credit union or association as—

(a) a certificate given under section 71A (2); or

(b) a certificate given under section 72 (3).

(4) Where the registrar notifies a credit union or an association as provided by subsection (3), this Act applies to and in respect of the credit union or association as if the certificate that, pursuant to subsection (3) (a) or (b), was specified in the notice had been given by the registrar.

(5) The registrar may, before a credit union or an association has, pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) (a), agreed pursuant to a requirement under subsection (1) (b) to transfer its engagements, revoke the direction.

(6) Section 33A (subsection (7) excepted) does not apply to a transfer of engagements under this section.

(7) A transfer of engagements under this section takes effect upon a day notified by the registrar in the Gazette.

(8) On the transfer of engagements under this section, the registrar may remove from the register the name of the transferor credit union or association.

(9)

Amendment of Part VII
of Act No.
8, 1969.

10. Part VII of the Principal Act is amended—

Secs. 71A
and 71B.

- (a) by inserting after section 71 the following sections :—

Appointment of administrator of credit union
or association.

71A. (1) Subject to this section, the registrar may, with the approval of the Minister, appoint an administrator to conduct the affairs of a credit union or an association.

(2) The registrar shall not appoint an administrator unless he gives such a certificate as would be provided for by section 72 (3) and (4) if section 72 were amended—

- (a) by omitting from subsection (3) the words “In the case of a winding up upon a certificate of the registrar, a credit union, or an association, may be wound up in accordance with this Part of this Act if” and by inserting instead the words “An administrator may not be appointed under section 71A (1) unless”; and
- (b) by omitting from subsection (3) (f) the words “the credit union or association should be wound up” and by inserting instead the words “an administrator should be appointed to conduct the affairs of the credit union or association”.

(3) Upon the appointment of an administrator of a credit union or an association, other than an appointment referred to in subsection (6) (a)—

- (a) the directors of that credit union or association cease to hold office;

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

- (b) all contracts of employment with that credit union or association are terminated;
- (c) all contracts for the provision of secretarial or administrative services for that credit union or association are terminated; and
- (d) any delegation made by the board of that credit union or association is revoked.

(4) An administrator of a credit union or an association has the powers, authorities, duties and functions of the board of that credit union or association.

(5) Except as provided by subsection (6), a director of a credit union or an association shall not be appointed or elected while an administrator of that credit union or association is in office.

(6) Before revoking the appointment of an administrator of a credit union or an association, the registrar shall, except in the case of a revocation under section 71B (2)—

- (a) appoint another person as administrator;
- (b) ensure that directors of that credit union or association have been elected in accordance with the rules of that credit union or association at a meeting convened by the administrator in accordance with those rules; or
- (c) appoint directors of that credit union or association.

---

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(7) Directors elected under subsection (6) (b) or appointed under subsection (6) (c)—

(a) take office upon revocation of the appointment of the administrator; and

(b) in the case of appointed directors, hold office until—

(i) they cease to hold office in accordance with this Act or the rules of the credit union or association; or

(ii) the annual general meeting of the credit union or association that next succeeds revocation of that appointment,

whichever is the earlier.

(8) The expenses of and incidental to the conduct of the affairs of a credit union or an association by an administrator are payable from the funds of that credit union or association.

(9) The remuneration of an administrator who is not a servant of the Crown is an expense referred to in subsection (8) and shall be fixed by the registrar.

(10) Where an administrator appointed under this section is a servant of the Crown, the reimbursement of the Crown in an amount certified by the registrar in respect of the remuneration of its servant is an expense referred to in subsection (8) and is recoverable as a debt due to the Crown.

Credit Union (Amendment).

---

(11) An administrator of a credit union or an association is not liable for any loss sustained by that credit union or association during his term of office unless the loss was due to his wilful misconduct or gross negligence or to his wilful failure to comply with the provisions of this Act or the regulations or the rules of the credit union or association.

(12) The registrar is not liable for any loss sustained by a credit union or an association during the term of office of an administrator, whether or not the administrator is so liable.

(13) The registrar may revoke any appointment of an administrator made under this section.

71B. (1) Where an administrator of a credit union or an association is appointed, a majority of the directors who ceased to hold office upon the appointment of the administrator may, not later than fourteen days after the appointment, make representations to the Advisory Committee with respect to the appointment and, where any such representations are so made, the Advisory Committee shall report thereon to the Minister. Representations to Advisory Committee.

(2) The registrar shall, if the Minister so directs after considering a report under subsection (1) with respect to a credit union or an association, revoke the appointment of an administrator of that credit union or association, and a director who held office immediately before the appointment of the administrator resumes that office upon revocation of the appointment.
