Gaming-houses.

10 21. An owner or occupier of a place shall not knowingly allow that place to be used—

Use of place as, or as access to, etc., a gaming-house.

(a) as a gaming-house; or

(b) as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, a gaming-house.

15 Penalty : $500 or imprisonment for six months.

20 22. (1) A justice, upon a complaint made on oath that the complainant has reason to suspect, and believes, that a place is kept or used as a gaming-house, may, by special warrant under his hand, authorise and require any member of the police force to enter and search that place and arrest, search and bring before a stipendiary magistrate or any two justices all persons found therein, and seize all means, contrivances or instruments of gaming, money and securities for money found therein.

Entry and search under special warrant.

25 (2) Any member of the police force authorised under subsection (1) may, if necessary, obtain assistance and use force, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise, for making entry to the place suspected of being used as a gaming-house, and may search all parts of the place where he suspects that means, contrivances or instruments of gaming, money or securities for money are concealed.

(3)

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

(3) A special warrant under subsection (1) shall be in or to the effect of the form in the Second Schedule.

5 23. A person shall not organise or conduct or assist in organising or conducting a gaming-house. Organising, etc., a gaming-house.

Forfeiture of money, etc.

20 (2) The stipendiary magistrate or justices before whom a person is brought by virtue of a special warrant under section 22 may direct that all means, contrivances or instruments of gaming seized under that warrant be forthwith destroyed.

25 26. (1) If— Eviction of occupier of gaming-house.
(a) an owner of a place has reasonable grounds to suspect that that place is used as a gaming-house; or
(b) an owner of a place has reasonable grounds to suspect that that place is used as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, a gaming-house,
30 he may serve a notice to quit on the occupier.

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

(2) Service of a notice to quit under subsection (1) shall determine, as from the tenth day after the date of service, the tenancy of the occupier as if that tenancy had expired by effluxion of time.

5 (3) On the determination of the tenancy under subsection (2), the owner may, without any authority other than this Act, take legal proceedings to evict, and may evict, the occupier.

10 (4) A notice to quit under subsection (1) shall be served—

- (a) on the occupier personally; or
 - (b) if the occupier cannot be found, by posting a copy of the notice on some conspicuous part of the place referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b), as the case may be.
- 15

20 27. (1) A notice to quit under section 26 (1) may, on application made by the occupier, be cancelled by the Supreme Court, or the District Court, subject to such terms as the Court thinks fit, on proof that the occupier has not at any time—

- (a) knowingly allowed the place to be used as a gaming-house; or
 - (b) knowingly allowed the place to be used as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, a gaming-house.
- 25

30 (2) A copy of the application made under subsection (1) shall be served on the owner at least two days before the hearing of the application, and on being so served shall operate, until the determination of the application, as a stay of any proceedings commenced under section 26 (3).

Declared

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

Declared gaming-houses.

5 28. (1) On the affidavit of a superintendent or inspector of police showing reasonable grounds for suspecting that a place is used as a gaming-house, the Supreme Court may declare that place to be a declared gaming-house.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) shall remain in force until rescinded under section 29.

10 29. (1) A declaration under section 28 may be rescinded by the Supreme Court, subject to such terms as the Court thinks fit, on application being made to it—

15 (a) by the owner or occupier of the declared gaming-house, on proof that he has not at any time allowed the declared gaming-house to be used as a gaming-house; or 20 (b) by a superintendent or inspector of police, on proof that the declared gaming-house is not used as a gaming-house.

(2) Where an application under subsection (1) is made by the owner or occupier, notice in writing of intention to make the application shall be served on a superintendent or inspector of police at least two days before the hearing of the application.

25 30. (1) Notice of a declaration under section 28 or of a rescission, under section 29, of such a declaration shall be published in the Gazette.

30 (2) In any proceedings under this Act, the production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be evidence that the declaration or rescission therein notified, as the case may be, was duly made.

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

31. (1) On the making of a declaration under section 28, the Commissioner of Police, a superintendent or an inspector of police shall cause a notice of the making of that declaration to be—

Notice to be given of declaration.

5 (a) published on two days in a newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood of the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration; and

(b) served—

10 (i) personally on the owner and occupier of that declared gaming-house; or

15 (ii) where personal service cannot be promptly effected, on the owner and occupier of that declared gaming-house by causing a copy of the notice to be affixed at or near to the entrance to that declared gaming-house.

20 (2) In any proceedings under this Act, the production of a copy of a newspaper containing a notice of the making of a declaration under section 28 shall be evidence that the notice was duly published in that newspaper on the date appearing therein.

25

32. (1) If, after publication, in accordance with section 31 (1) (a), of a notice of the making of a declaration under section 28, and during the time that the declaration is in force, a person is found—

Person found in declared gaming-house.

30 (a) in, or on, or entering, or leaving the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration; or

35 (b) in, or on, or entering, or leaving a place used as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration, a member of the police force may, without warrant, arrest that person and take him before a stipendiary magistrate or any two justices.

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

5 (2) A person arrested under subsection (1), unless he proves that he was in, or on, or entering the declared gaming-house, or a place used as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, the declared gaming-house, as the case may be, for a lawful purpose, contravenes this subsection.

10 Penalty : $500 or imprisonment for six months.

(3) The form of information for an offence against subsection (2) may be in or to the effect of Form A or B in the Third Schedule.

15 33. If, after service on an owner, in accordance with section 31 (1) (b), of a notice of the making of a declaration under section 28, and during the time that the declaration is in force, the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration is used as a gaming-house, the owner, unless he proves that he has taken all reasonable steps to evict the occupier from that declared gaming-house, contravenes this section. Declared gaming-house—offence by owner.

20 Penalty : $1,000 or imprisonment for twelve months.

25 34. If, after service on an occupier, in accordance with section 31 (1) (b), of a notice of the making of a declaration under section 28, and during the time that the declaration is in force, the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration is used as a gaming-house, the occupier contravenes this section. Declared gaming-house—offence by occupier.

30 Penalty : $1,000 or imprisonment for twelve months.

35.

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

35. (1) While a declaration under section 28 is in force, a member of the police force may, without warrant— Declared gaming-house—entry by police.

- 5 (a) enter the declared gaming-house the subject of that declaration;
- (b) enter a place which he has reasonable grounds to suspect of being used as a means of access to, or of exit or escape from, that declared gaming-house;
- 10 (c) pass through, from, over, or along any other land or building for the purpose of entering in pursuance of paragraph (a) or (b);
- (d) for any of the purposes of this subsection, break open doors, windows, or partitions, and do such other acts as may be necessary; and
- 15 (e) seize any means, contrivances or instruments of gaming, money and securities for money in that declared gaming-house.

20 (2) All money and securities for money seized under subsection (1) (e) shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

25 (3) The Commissioner of Police may direct that all means, contrivances or instruments of gaming seized under subsection (1) (e) be destroyed.

Evidence and witnesses.

30 36. It shall not be necessary, in proceedings under this Part against a person found playing an unlawful game, to prove that that person was playing that game for any money, wager or stake. Unnecessary to prove that a person was playing for money, etc.

Gaming and Betting (Amendment).

37. (1) This section applies to and in respect of a place that a member of the police force is authorised to enter under this Part, where— Evidence of place used as a gaming-house.

- 5 (a) a member of the police force so authorised is wilfully prevented from, or is obstructed or delayed in, entering that place;
- 10 (b) an external or internal door of, or means of access to, that place is found to be fitted with a bolt, bar, chain, or any means or contrivance for the purpose of preventing, delaying or obstructing the entry into that place of a member of the police force so authorised, or for giving an alarm in case of such entry;
- 15 (c) that place is found to be fitted or provided with any means of or contrivance for playing at or betting on an unlawful game or with any means of or contrivance for concealing, removing or destroying any 20 instruments of gaming; or
- (d) there is found in that place or in the possession of a person in that place any instruments of gaming used in playing at or betting on an unlawful game.

25 (2) Evidence that, at or about a specified time or times on a specified day, this section applied to or in respect of a specified place shall, until the contrary is made to appear, be evidence—

- 30 (a) for the purposes of this Part, that the specified place was, at or about the specified time or times of the specified day, used as a gaming-house;

GAMING AND BETTING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1974

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to clarify the law relating to gaming by—
 - (i) defining “gaming-house”; and
 - (ii) stating which games shall be unlawful;
- (b) to enable the Supreme Court to declare a gaming-house to be a declared gaming-house;
- (c) to repeal certain provisions of the Summary Offences Act, 1970, relating to unlawful games and to enact similar provisions in the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912;
- (d) to increase penalties for offences relating to gaming-houses; and
- (e) to make other provisions of a consequential or ancillary character.

PROOF

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The object of the Bill is to amend the Gaming Act, 1968, and to provide for the regulation of gaming and betting in the United Kingdom. The Bill contains provisions relating to the licensing of gaming machines, the regulation of betting shops, and the prohibition of certain forms of gambling. It also provides for the establishment of a Gaming Board for Great Britain and a Betting Board for Great Britain, and for the appointment of members to these boards. The Bill is intended to bring the law relating to gaming and betting into line with the provisions of the Gaming Act, 1968, and to provide for the effective enforcement of the law.

PROOF

No. , 1974.

A BILL
