LAND TAX MANAGEMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1975

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide for the total exemption from liability for land tax of a rural society registered under the Co-operation Act, 1923, and a pastures protection board constituted under the Pastures Protection Act, 1934;
- (b) to make an amendment consequential on the introduction pursuant to the Interstate Corporate Affairs Agreement of the concept of "recognised" companies;
- (c) to include as land used for primary production land primarily used as a plant nursery or for the propagation for sale, otherwise than by cultivating the land, of mushrooms, orchids and flowers;
- (d) to limit land tax exemptions and concessions relating to residential land to land used as the principal place of residence of the owner of the land;
- (e) to increase from $21,000 to $30,000 the value below which there is a general exemption from liability for land tax;
- (f) to provide in respect of land valued at $30,000 or more a graduated partial exemption from liability for land tax terminating at a value of $60,000;
- (g) to limit the exemption from land tax for private hospitals and nursing homes and authorised mental hospitals to those not carried on for pecuniary profit;
- (h) where land exceeds 2 100 square metres ($\frac{1}{2}$ acre) in area but does not exceed 2 hectares (5 acres) in area and is occupied by the owner as his principal place of residence, to give an exemption from land tax if subdivision of the land is precluded by a planning scheme and a partial exemption in such a case if the land exceeds 2 hectares (5 acres) in area;
- (i) to provide for a refund of stamp duty in excess of a nominal amount where—
 - (i) the duty is charged on a conveyance of land owned by a corporation incorporated before 31st December, 1975, and used as his principal place of residence by a majority or equal shareholder in the corporation; and
 - (ii) the conveyance is to that shareholder who thereby becomes entitled to an exemption from, or a concession in respect of, land tax;

- (j) to impose liability for land tax in respect of land held by various statutory bodies for investment purposes or for industrial or commercial development;
 - (k) to enable the Land Tax Hardship Board to defer or waive land tax in certain cases not involving hardship;
 - (l) to make amendments consequential on the changes in the system of valuing land in the State;
 - (m) to make amendments consequential upon or ancillary to the foregoing.

(2) Where—

(a) a building is erected on land to which the provisions of subsection (1) (g) (iii) or of section 10B (2), 10C (a) or 10D (2) would apply if the building were solely occupied by the persons or bodies referred to in those provisions; and

(b) the building is partly used or occupied, or is intended to be partly used or occupied, by persons other than those persons or bodies, the unimproved value of that land shall, for the purposes of the assessment of those persons or bodies, be reduced to an amount which bears the same proportion to that unimproved value as the rental value of the part so used or occupied, or intended to be so used or occupied, by those other persons bears to the total rental value of the building.

(o) Section 10 (5)—

After section 10 (4), insert—

(5) Where a parcel of land would, but for the fact that it exceeds 2 hectares in area, be exempted under subsection (1) (u), the unimproved value of that parcel shall, for assessment purposes, be reduced by an amount that on certain conveyances.

10A. (1) In this section—

“convey” includes transfer;

“corporation” has the same meaning as it has in the Companies Act, 1961;

“prescribed shareholder” in relation to a corporation means—

(a) a shareholder (not being a corporation) in the corporation who, disregarding any proxies or other authorities to vote held by him, is entitled at general meetings of the corporation to exercise voting rights that together amount to more than one-half of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote at general meetings of the corporation;

(b) a shareholder (not being a corporation) in the corporation where, if no proxies or other authorities to vote are allowed, no shareholder in the corporation is entitled at general meetings of the corporation to exercise more voting rights than any other shareholder in the corporation.

(2) This section applies to a person in respect of land where—

- (a) at the time the conveyance referred to in paragraph (b) took effect that person was a prescribed shareholder in the corporation so referred to;
- (b) the land was owned by a corporation on 31st December, 1975, and was conveyed after that date by the corporation to that person as equitable owner, or to that person and any other prescribed shareholder or shareholders in the corporation jointly as equitable owners, after that date; and
- (c) the land was, at all times during the period that commenced on 31st December, 1975, and ended when the conveyance took effect, used and occupied by that person as his principal place of residence and for no other purpose; and
- (d) if the conveyance had taken effect on the thirty-first day of December that last preceded the date on which it actually took effect—
 - (i) the land conveyed would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) or (u) be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the conveyance actually took effect; or
 - (ii) land tax that, but for section 10 (4) or (5), would be leviable or payable in respect of the land for

(4) On application made by a person to whom this section applies, the Commissioner shall, out of money provided by Parliament, pay to that person an amount certified by the Commissioner of Stamp Duties to be the difference between—

(a) the amount of duty under the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, paid and not refunded—

(i) on the agreement for the conveyance to that person of the land in respect of which this section applies; or

(ii) where there is no such agreement—on that conveyance; and

(b) the amount of duty that would have been payable under that Act had that agreement or conveyance, as the case may be, been an agreement under seal referred to in paragraph (2) of the matter relating to an Agreement or Memorandum of an Agreement in the Second Schedule to the Stamp Duties Act, 1920.
