METROPOLITAN WATER, SEWERAGE, AND DRAINAGE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1975

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE object of this Bill is to provide for the levying of differential water, sewerage or stormwater drainage rates on residential land and on that part of mixed development land that is residential land.

The Bill contains the following provisions:-

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Clause 3 provides that a reference in the proposed Act to "Principal Act" means a reference to the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1924.

Clause 4 provides that, in respect of the rating year 1975–1976, certain rates levied by the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board on the unimproved value of certain land used wholly or partly as residential land shall be reduced so that the amount payable shall be the aggregate of—

- (a) the amount of rates that would result from the application of the rate levied by the board to so much of the unimproved value as does not exceed $20,000;
- (b) the amount of rates that would result from the application of one-half of the rate so levied to so much (if any) of the unimproved value as exceeds $20,000 but does not exceed $40,000; and
- (c) the amount of rates that would result from the application of one-quarter of the rate so levied to so much (if any) of the unimproved value as exceeds $40,000.

Clause 5 changes a reference in the definition of "residential land" in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act from "six acres" to "2.5 hectares".

Clause 6 inserts a new section, 96AA, in the Principal Act which will empower the board, for any rating year after 1st July, 1976, to levy differential rates with respect to residential land and with respect to that part of mixed development land that is residential land.

Clause 7 amends section 100B of the Principal Act, which relates to the postponement of payment of part of the rates levied on land on which is erected a single dwelling-house where the land is in an area zoned for industrial, commercial or residential flat purposes. The amendment is necessitated by the amendments being made by clauses 4 and 6 of the Bill.

No. , 1975.

ANNO VICESIMO QUARTO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 62, 1975.

An Act to provide for the levying of differential rates with respect to residential land; to make further provision with respect to the postponement, in certain circumstances, of rates levied by the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board; and for these and other purposes to amend the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1924. [Assented to, 23rd October, 1975.]

BE

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

J. H. BROWN, Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage (Amendment) Act, 1975".

Commencement.

- 2. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), this Act shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.
- (2) Sections 4, 5 and 7 shall be deemed to have commenced on 1st July, 1975.

Principal Act.

3. The Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act, 1924, is, in this Act, referred to as the Principal Act.

Differential rates applicable in respect of residential land for the period of 12 months commencing 1st July, 1975.

4. (1) In this section—

"board" means the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board;

"company" means a company or foreign company within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1961;

"flat" means flat as defined in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act;

"mixed development land" means mixed development land as defined in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act, but does not include—

(a) any such land exceeding one hectare in area that is owned, either solely or jointly or in common with another person or persons, by a company, except land that is owned by a trustee company in the capacity of executor, administrator or trustee; or

- (b) any such land exceeding one hectare in area that is owned, either solely or jointly or in common with another person or persons, by a trustee company in the capacity of trustee for another company;
- "residential land" means residential land as defined in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act, but does not include—
- (a) any such land exceeding one hectare in area that is owned, either solely or jointly or in common with another person or persons, by a company, except land that is so owned by a trustee company in the capacity of executor, administrator or trustee; or
- (b) any such land exceeding one hectare in area that is owned, either solely or jointly or in common with another person or persons, by a trustee company in the capacity of trustee for another company;
  - "trustee company" means a trustee company within the meaning of the Trustee Companies Act, 1964, or the Public Trustee.
- (2) Subject to section 96 (7) of the Principal Act, subsections (3) and (4) shall apply, in respect only of the period of twelve months commencing on 1st July, 1975, or any part of that period, to and in respect of any water, sewerage or stormwater drainage rates charged by the board—
- (a) on residential land on the basis of the unimproved value of that land; or
- (b) on such part of mixed development land as is residential land on the basis of the unimproved value of that part.

- (3) The amount of rates payable in respect of residential land, other than residential land referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of "residential land" in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act, shall be the aggregate of—
  - (a) the amount of rates that would result from charging the rate levied by the board on so much of the unimproved value of the land as does not exceed $20,000;
  - (b) the amount of rates that would result from charging one-half of the rate so levied on so much (if any) of the unimproved value of the land as exceeds $20,000 but does not exceed $40,000; and
  - (c) the amount of rates that would result from charging one-quarter of the rate so levied on so much (if any) of the unimproved value of the land as exceeds $40,000.
- (4) Where the rate is levied on the unimproved value of—
  - (a) residential land, being residential land referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of "residential land" in section 86A (1) of the Principal Act; or
  - (b) such part of mixed development land as is residential land, the amount of rates so levied that is payable in respect of the land shall be the aggregate of the rates that would be payable in respect of all of the flats comprised in the building on the land if each such flat were—

(c) ratable as a separate parcel of land which had an unimproved value equal to an amount ascertained by dividing the unimproved value of the residential land referred to in paragraph (a) or of the part referred to in paragraph (b) by the number of flats comprised in the building on the land; and

- (d) residential land to which subsection (3) relates.
- (5) If the one-half or one-quarter of the rate referred to in subsection (3) (b) or (c) is an amount that contains more than four decimal places, one-half or one-quarter of that rate shall, for the purposes of subsection (3) (b) or (c), as the case may be, be that amount disregarding the decimal places in excess of four.
- The Principal Act is amended by omitting from para- Amendment graph (b) of the definition of "residential land" in section of Act No. 50, 1924. 86A (1) the words "six acres" and by inserting instead the Sec. 86A. matter "2.5 hectares".
