

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of New South Wales.

R. E. WARD,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 13 March, 1975.

New South Wales

ANNO VICESIMO QUARTO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 23, 1975.

An Act relating to the making of applications under the Mining Act, 1973, the constitution of the prospecting board established under that Act and the payment of rent under prospecting licences, mining leases and mining purposes leases; to provide for the appointment of honorary rangers and the removal of gold from fossicking areas; for these and other purposes to amend the Mining Act, 1973; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 14th April, 1975.]

BE

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

H. G. COATES,
Acting Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Mining (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Mining (Amendment) Act, 1975".

Commencement. 2. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), this Act shall commence on the date of assent to this Act.

(2) Sections 7 (b), 8 (a) (i) and (iii), 8 (b), 8 (c) (ii) and (iii), 8 (d) (i), (iii), (v) and (vii), 8 (l), 8 (r), 8 (t) (i) and 14 (a) (iii) shall commence on such day or days as may be appointed by the Governor in respect thereof and as may be notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(3) Sections 8 (k), 8 (u) and 15 shall be deemed to have commenced on 29th March, 1974.

Amendment
of Act No.
42, 1973.
Long title. 3. The Mining Act, 1973, is amended by omitting from the long title the words "to amend the Mining Act, 1906, and other Acts;"

Further
amendment
of Act No.
42, 1973.
(Part I.—
Preliminary and Interpretation.) 4. Part I of the Mining Act, 1973, is amended—

Sec. 2.
(Division of Act.) (a) by omitting from the matter relating to Division 3 of Part V in section 2 the matter "76" and by inserting instead the matter "76A";

(b)

Mining (Amendment).

- (b) by inserting after the definition of "group of minerals" in section 6 the following definition :— (Interpretation.)

"honorary ranger" means a person appointed as such under section 17A;

- (c) (i) by omitting from section 7 the word "required" wherever occurring and by inserting instead the words "authorised or required"; (Sec. 7. (Service of documents.))

- (ii) by omitting from section 7 (1) (b) the word "person" where firstly occurring and by inserting instead the words "a person".

5. Part II of the Mining Act, 1973, is amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 42, 1973. (Part II.—Administration.)

- (a) by inserting after section 15 (3) the following subsection :— (Sec. 15. (Prospecting board.))

(4) A person may be appointed under subsection (3) to be an alternate member for a member of the board notwithstanding that, as a result of the appointment, there will be, for the time being, more than one alternate member for that member of the board.

- (b) by inserting after section 17 (2) the following subsection :— (Sec. 17. (Proceedings of the board.))

(2A) If there are two or more alternates for a member of the board, the alternate entitled to attend a meeting of the board by reason of the member's absence or inability to attend the meeting shall be determined in accordance with the directions of the member.

(c)

Mining (Amendment).

Sec. 17A.

(c) by inserting after section 17 the following section :—

Honorary
rangers.

17A. (1) The Minister may, by instrument in writing, appoint a person to be an honorary ranger for the purpose of assisting in the administration or execution of this Act in relation to fossicking areas.

(2) The Minister may furnish to an honorary ranger a certificate stating that he is an honorary ranger under this Act.

(3) Where the appointment of a person under this section is revoked, that person shall forthwith surrender the certificate furnished to him under this section to the Minister, or if the Minister, by instrument in writing served on that person, specifies another person to whom the certificate is to be surrendered, to that other person.

Penalty: $100.

(4) Nothing in this section affects the functions that any person would have been able to exercise or perform in relation to a fossicking area had this section not been enacted.

Further
amendment
of Act No.
42, 1973.
(Part III.—
Mining Districts, Reserves
and Fossicking
Areas.)

6. Part III of the Mining Act, 1973, is amended—

Sec. 24.
(Reserves.)

(a) (i) by omitting section 24 (2) and by inserting instead the following subsection :—

(2) In an order constituting lands as a reserve or in any subsequent order published in

Mining (Amendment).

in the Gazette, the Governor may, on the recommendation of the Minister, give any one or more of the following directions :—

- (a) that no claim shall be registered over land in the reserve;
- (b) that no authority shall be granted over land in the reserve;
- (c) that no authorisation shall be granted over land in the reserve;
- (d) that no concession shall be granted over land in the reserve.

(ii) by inserting after section 24 (4) the following subsection :—

(5) Where an application for—

- (a) an authority is made or pending in respect of land that is the subject of a direction under subsection (2) (b);
- (b) an authorisation is made or pending in respect of land that is the subject of a direction under subsection (2) (c); or
- (c) a concession is made or pending in respect of land that is the subject of a direction under subsection (2) (d), the application is a nullity to the extent to which it is made in respect of the land that is the subject of the direction, but, if the application is also made in respect of other land, the application shall be deemed to have been made in respect of that other land only.

(b) (i) by inserting in section 26 (1) after the words "from that area," the word "gold,";

Sec. 26.
(Rights in fossicking
areas.)

(ii)

Mining (Amendment).

(ii) by inserting in section 26 (2) after the words "from that area," the word "gold,";

(iii) by omitting section 26 (6) and by inserting instead the following subsections :—

(6) On payment of the prescribed fee to—

(a) a mining registrar;

(b) an honorary ranger; or

(c) a person authorised under subsection (6A), the mining registrar, honorary ranger or person so authorised, as the case may be, shall issue a fossicking licence to any person applying therefor.

(6A) The Minister may, by order in writing, authorise any person specified in the order to issue fossicking licences.

(iv) by inserting after section 26 (7) the following subsection :—

(7A) A reference in this section to the holder of a licence includes a reference to a person who is a member of a family group, any one of whom is the holder of a fossicking licence.

(v) by inserting before the definition of "gemstones" in section 26 (8) the following definition :—

"family group" means a group of persons consisting of—

(a) a man and his wife and his, her or their children (if any);

(b) a man and his children; or

(c) a woman and her children,

but

Mining (Amendment).

but a reference in this definition to children does not include a reference to children who have attained the age of sixteen years.

(Part IV.— Claims.)

- (a) (i) by omitting section 36 (1) (b) and by inserting instead the following paragraph :—

Sec. 36.
(Cancellation of the registration of a claim.)

- (b) cancel the registration of a claim on the ground that the registered holder of the claim—

(i) has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the claim;

(ii) has failed to comply with any of the requirements of this Act with which he is obliged to comply (whether before or after the registration of the claim); or

(iii) has done any act, matter or thing in the claim area not authorised by or under this Act.

- (ii) by omitting from section 36 (2) the words “served on the registered holder of the claim”;

- (iii) by omitting from section 36 (2) the words “from the date specified in that instrument”;

(iv)

Mining (Amendment).

- (iv) by inserting after section 36 (2) the following subsection :—

(2A) If the Minister cancels the registration of a claim under subsection (2) he shall cause to be served on the registered holder of the claim a notice informing him of the cancellation, and the cancellation of the registration has effect from and including the date on which that notice is served or another date specified in the instrument under subsection (2), whichever is the later.

- (v) by omitting from section 36 (4) the words “specified in an instrument served on him pursuant to subsection (2)” and by inserting instead the words “on which the cancellation, if effected under subsection (2A), has effect”;

Sec. 36A.

- (b) by inserting after section 36 the following section :—

Permit to enter certain Crown
lands.

36A. (1) A person who wishes to enter upon any Crown lands held under a Crown lease for pastoral purposes or a special lease for pastoral purposes for the purpose of marking out any land under section 27 (1), or removing any post or other object as required by section 28 (8) or 36 (4), may apply to the mining registrar for a division for a permit to enter upon any such lands in that division.

(2) Upon payment of the prescribed fee by any person making application under subsection (1) the mining registrar may grant a permit in writing for such term (not exceeding fourteen days from the date thereof) as he thinks fit and specifies in the permit, and subject to such conditions as he thinks fit and so specifies.

Mining (Amendment).

(3) A permit issued under subsection (2) entitles the holder thereof either personally or by his agent, subject to the conditions of the permit, to enter the lands to which the permit relates for the purpose of marking out the area of land, whether on those lands or on any other Crown lands, over which he wishes a claim to be registered, or removing any post or other object as required by section 28 (8) or 36 (4).

(4) A person shall not, without lawful excuse, hinder or obstruct a person to whom a permit is granted under this section in the exercise of his powers under subsection (3).

Penalty: $500.

(5) A permit issued under this section shall be exhibited on demand to the occupier of any lands to which the permit relates.

Penalty: $500.

(6) This section shall not operate so as to prevent a person or his agent from entering any lands held under a Crown lease for pastoral purposes or a special lease for pastoral purposes with the consent of the occupier thereof, for the purpose of marking out those or any other lands under section 27 (1), or removing any post or other object from those or any other lands as required by section 28 (8) or 36 (4).

- (c) (i) by omitting from section 37 (1) (b) the word "and" where secondly occurring and by inserting instead the words "for purposes connected with the prospecting for or mining of minerals in the claim area and the right to"; Sec. 37. (Rights of registered holder of claim.)
- (ii) by inserting in section 37 (1) (d) after the word "purposes" the words ", being purposes connected with the prospecting for or mining of minerals in the claim area".

Sec. 66.
(Lodging of application for renewal of authority with Under Secretary.)

5 (7) Subject to subsection (8), where the registered holder of an authority (other than an exploration licence) applies, or intends to apply, for the renewal of the authority over any private lands or Crown lands held under a Crown lease for pastoral purposes or a special lease for pastoral 10 purposes, he shall, either before, or within twenty-one days after, lodging the application, serve on every owner and occupier of private lands and on every occupier of the Crown lands, a notice—

15 (a) stating that an application for the renewal of an authority has been, or will be, lodged, as the case may be; and 20 (b) containing particulars sufficient to lead to the ready identification of the area of land to which the application relates, consisting of a plan and a description of that area and a statement indicating the approximate direction and approximate distance of the town nearest to that area.

25 (8) Where the application made, or intended to be made, for the renewal of an authority (other than an exploration licence) does not or will not relate to the surface of any private lands or to the surface of any Crown lands held under a Crown lease for pastoral purposes or a special lease for pastoral purposes, the applicant, or the person 30 intending to apply, may, instead of serving any notice required by subsection (7) to be served,
