10 attach such conditions to the permission as the Minister thinks fit.

(3) Where the registered holder of a lease
carries on a tourist activity in accordance with a permission granted under subsection (2), the carrying
on of that activity while the permission is in force
15 does not—

(a) constitute a failure to comply with any
condition of the holder's lease relating to the
exclusive purposes for which his area may be used; or

20 (b) give rise to a ground on which the lease may
be cancelled under section 75 (4).

25 (4) If any condition attached to a permission
under subsection (2) is breached, the Minister may revoke the permission by causing a written notice of
revocation of the permission to be served on the
registered holder of the lease in respect of which the
permission was granted and the revocation has effect

5 (2) Subject to subsection (5), the Minister may, by instrument in writing, grant the registered holder of a lease a permission to carry on a tourist activity in his mining area or mining purposes area,
as the case may be, and may, by the same instrument,
10 attach such conditions to the permission as the Minister thinks fit.

15 (3) Where the registered holder of a lease
carries on a tourist activity in accordance with a
permission granted under subsection (2), the carrying
on of that activity while the permission is in force
does not—

(a) constitute a failure to comply with any
condition of the holder's lease relating to the
exclusive purposes for which his area may
be used; or

20 (b) give rise to a ground on which the lease may
be cancelled under section 75 (4).

25 (4) If any condition attached to a permission
under subsection (2) is breached, the Minister may
revoke the permission by causing a written notice of
revocation of the permission to be served on the
registered holder of the lease in respect of which the
permission was granted and the revocation has effect
from and including the date on which the notice is so served.

MINING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1976

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide that where a copy of a notice published in a newspaper is to be lodged for the purposes of the Mining Act, 1973, so much of the newspaper as contains the name and date of the newspaper is also to be lodged (Schedule 1 (2) (a));
- (b) to establish that where a notice is published in a newspaper it is deemed to be published on the date of the newspaper (Schedule 1 (2) (b));
- (c) to provide that a document authorised or required to be served on a person that is served by post need not be served by certified mail if it is served by the Minister, the warden, a mining registrar or another officer referred to in section 14 (1) of the Mining Act, 1973 (Schedule 1 (3));
- (d) to remove the requirement that the Minister approve of the form of an application to a court (Schedule 1 (4) (c));
- (e) to enable two classes of fossicking licences, namely personal fossicking licences and family fossicking licences, to be issued and to make further provision in relation to fossicking licences (Schedule 2 (1));
- (f) to restrict the bringing of claims for damages in relation to the use of fossicking areas (Schedule 2 (2));
- (g) to declare that a claim purportedly registered in contravention of section 29 (1) (which imposes various restrictions on the registration of claims) is a nullity and to empower the mining registrar to require a person whose claim has been purportedly registered in contravention thereof to surrender the certificate that purports to be a certificate of registration of the claim (Schedule 3 (2));
- (h) to empower the mining registrar to cancel a claim on the application of the registered holder and to make further provision in relation to the cancellation of claims generally (Schedule 3 (3));
- (i) to remove the obligation to pay fees on lodging applications for, or for renewal of, exploration licences from the Act so that provision may be made therefor in the regulations (Schedule 4 (1) (a) and (12));
- (j) to make further provision in relation to the place at which a datum post is required to be erected (Schedule 4 (2));
- (k) to provide that part of an area included in an application for an authority may, by direction of the Minister, be deemed to have been excluded from the application (Schedule 4 (5));

- (l) to provide that land excluded from an exploration licence because the land is subject to an application under the Mining Act, 1973, for the registration of a claim, or for a prospecting licence, a mining lease or a mining purposes lease, or under the Coal Mining Act, 1973, for an authorisation or a concession, becomes subject to the licence if the applications are withdrawn or refused (Schedule 4 (6));
- (m) to enable more than one prospecting licence, mining lease or mining purposes lease to be granted in respect of one application and enable one prospecting licence, mining lease or mining purposes lease to be granted in respect of more than one application (Schedule 4 (7));
- (n) to permit the issue of a renewal of an exploration licence in respect of more than one area (Schedule 4 (13));
- (o) to provide for the renewal of an authority notwithstanding that the applicant therefor has not in every respect complied with regulations under the Mining Act, 1906, or the Mining Act, 1973, to which he is subject (Schedule 4 (14));
- (p) to provide for the continuation of an exploration licence held by a person applying for a prospecting licence under the exclusive right conferred on him by section 50 (2) of the Mining Act, 1973, for so long as his application for the prospecting licence is pending (Schedule 4 (16));
- (q) to empower the holder of a mining lease or a mining purposes lease to conduct tourist activities on his leased land subject to certain consents being obtained and to provide for the regulation of those activities (Schedules 4 (19) and 8 (2));
- (r) to provide that annual rents payable in respect of a prospecting licence, a mining lease or a mining purposes lease shall be calculated at the rate prescribed by the regulations when they fall due for payment and that the times for payment of rent shall be set forth in the authorities (Schedule 4 (20) and (21));
- (s) to provide for lodging fees (and additional fees for late lodgment calculated at the rate of 100 per centum of the lodging fee per month) in respect of applications for the Minister's approval to the transfer of an authority or an instrument by which a legal or equitable interest in, or affecting, an authority is created, assigned or dealt with, whether directly or indirectly (Schedule 4 (23));
- (t) to empower the warden to require a registered holder of a claim or authority to supply him with the names and addresses of owners and occupiers of land who may be entitled to compensation (Schedule 5);
- (u) to enable the warden in certain circumstances to hear and determine complaints summarily with the consent of one of the parties thereto and without formal proceedings in a warden's court (Schedule 6);
- (v) to prevent the bringing of claims for damages against mining registrars or other officers administering the Mining Act, 1973, where the officers act in good faith (Schedule 7 (1));

- (w) to provide that an inquiry may be conducted by the warden into whether section 29 (1) of the Mining Act, 1973, has been contravened by the purported registration of a claim (Schedule 7 (2));
