10 114T. (1) If an elector permitted to vote under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that his sight is so impaired that he is unable to vote without assistance, the returning officer shall permit a person appointed by the elector to assist the elector, and the person so appointed shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold and return the ballot-paper to the returning officer.

Assistance
to certain
electors.

20 (2) If any such elector fails to appoint a person as provided by subsection (1), the returning officer, in the presence of such scrutineers as are present, or, if there are no scrutineers present, in the presence of any person employed in his office, shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold the ballot-paper.

25 114U. (1) A candidate may, by writing under his hand, appoint one or more scrutineers in order to observe voting by electors under section 114Q.

Appoint-
scrutineers.

30 (2) Subject to subsection (3), a scrutineer so appointed is, during the ordinary business hours of the office of the returning officer between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day preceding polling day, entitled to be present in that part of the office of the returning officer in which voting under section 114Q takes place.

(3)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

5 (3) If a scrutineer so appointed leaves the office of the returning officer during the period that he is entitled to be present at that office, another scrutineer so appointed may act in his place, but only one scrutineer is entitled to be present at that office in respect of a candidate at any one time.

(4) A scrutineer appointed under subsection (1) shall not—

- 10 (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer;
- (b) interfere with or attempt to influence an elector who is making an application under section 114P (1) or who is voting under section 114Q;
- 15 (c) communicate with any such elector, except so far as it is necessary to do so in the discharge of his functions; or
- (d) misconduct himself at the office of the returning officer when present at that office pursuant to subsection (2) or (3).

20 Penalty : $25.

25 (5) A scrutineer shall, before acting as such at the office of the returning officer when open to enable electors to vote before polling day, make and sign before the returning officer a declaration in the same terms as are prescribed in section 91 (1).

30 (6) Where a declaration is made and signed in accordance with subsection (5), the returning officer shall transmit the declaration to the Electoral Commissioner, and Part IV of the Oaths Act, 1900, shall apply to the declaration as if it had been made under that Act.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

5 (2) The returning officer shall then compare the signature of the elector in the declaration on each of those envelopes with the signature in the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) and allow the scrutineers to examine both signatures; and if, after making that comparison, the returning officer is satisfied that the signature in the declaration is that of the elector who signed the application and if he is also satisfied that—

10 (a) the signature purports to have been witnessed by an authorised witness; and

(b) the elector is enrolled for the district for which the returning officer is appointed,

15 he shall remove the ballot-paper from the envelope and, without unfolding the ballot-paper or allowing any other person to do so, place the ballot-paper in a locked and sealed ballot-box for further scrutiny, together with any other ballot-papers accepted for further scrutiny under this subsection, but if he is not so satisfied he shall 20 disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope.

(3) After dealing with all envelopes, ballot-papers and applications in the manner prescribed by subsection (2), the returning officer—

(a) shall seal up in separate parcels—

25 (i) those envelopes from which ballot-papers have been removed for further scrutiny; and

(ii) those envelopes containing disallowed ballot-papers; and

(b)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(b) shall then proceed with the further scrutiny—

(i) by removing the ballot-papers from the ballot-box in which they were placed in accordance with subsection (2); and

5 (ii) by opening the ballot-papers so removed and allowing and counting those which are formal and disallowing and rejecting those which, by virtue of section 122, are informal.

10 114Y. If any elector voting under section 114Q Spoilt ballot-papers.
satisfies the returning officer that he has spoilt the ballot-paper handed to him under that section by reason of accident or mistake, and that ballot-paper has not been enclosed in an envelope in accordance with subsection 15 (5) of that section, the returning officer, on receipt of the spoilt ballot-paper, shall—

(a) hand to the elector a new ballot-paper; and

(b) cancel and preserve the spoilt ballot-paper.

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTORATES AND ELECTIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1975

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE Bill contains the following provisions:—

Clause 1. Short title.

Clause 2. Commencement provisions.

Clause 3 provides for the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act, 1912, to be referred to in the Bill as the Principal Act.

Clause 4 amends sections 26 and 41 by substituting references to "given name or names" for the references to "christian or other names". The clause also makes amendments of a minor, formal or consequential nature to sections 1, 3, 21A and 55, and revises sections 11 and 21.

Clause 5 makes the following amendments to Part V of the Principal Act :—

- (a) Section 79, which relates to nominations of candidates, is amended by increasing the amount of deposit required to be lodged by a candidate for election from $50 to $100.
- (b) A new section, 82A, is inserted so as to provide for a ballot to be held to determine the order in which the names of candidates are to be entered on ballot-papers.
- (c) Section 95, which relates to hours of polling, is being substituted. Under the substituted section polling-places will close at 6 p.m. instead of 8 p.m. as is the case at present.

The clause also makes minor, formal or consequential amendments to sections 83, 89, 90, 97, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104 and 108A and revises sections 99, 111, 113 and 114.

Clause 6 makes miscellaneous amendments to the provisions of the Principal Act relating to postal voting (sections 114A–114N). As a consequence of the amendments to sections 114A and 114E and the substitution of section 114D an application for a postal vote will have to be received by the returning officer concerned before 6 p.m. on the fifth day before polling day if it is sent from outside Australia or before 6 p.m. on the third day before polling day if it is sent from within Australia. The clause also amends section 114B, which relates to authorised witnesses, so as to render a returning officer, an assistant returning officer, a deputy returning officer, a substitute returning officer, a poll clerk or a clerical assistant ineligible to be an authorised witness for the purposes of the Principal Act. An amendment to section 114L is intended to ensure that only those postal votes which were made before the close of the poll will be accepted as valid.

Clause 7 inserts sections 114p to 114z which will enable an elector to vote in person at the office of the returning officer for the electoral district for which he is enrolled at any time during the ordinary business hours of that office between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day before polling day if the elector—

- (a) will not throughout the hours of polling on polling day be within New South Wales;
- (b) will not throughout the hours of polling on polling day be within 8 kilometres of a polling-booth;
- (c) will throughout the hours of polling on polling day be travelling under conditions which will preclude him from voting at a polling-booth; or
- (d) will, by reason of his membership of a religious order or his religious beliefs, be precluded from attending a polling-booth or precluded from voting throughout the hours of polling on polling day or throughout the greater part of those hours.

Clause 8 amends section 120c which requires the Electoral Commissioner to send to an elector who has failed to vote a notice asking him to explain that failure to vote. As a result of the amendment the Electoral Commissioner will no longer be required to send such a notice if he is satisfied that the elector has a valid and sufficient reason for not voting. The clause also makes amendments of a minor, formal or consequential nature to sections 115, 118, 122, 122A and 126 and revises sections 119 and 120.

Clause 9 amends section 151B which relates to the posting and exhibiting of posters containing electoral matter. The clause inserts in that section a new subsection (2A) which will prohibit a person from posting up such a poster—

- (a) on any premises occupied or used, or under the control or management of, the Crown, any instrumentality of, or statutory body representing, the Crown, or any local authority; or
- (b) on or in any unoccupied premises without the consent in writing of the owner.

The section is also being amended to provide that the posting up or exhibiting of a poster within a hall or room being used for a meeting held in connection with an election is not prohibited. Section 151D is being amended so as to enable an officer appointed by a returning officer to remove posters containing electoral matter that have been posted or exhibited in contravention of the section and makes amendments of a formal or consequential nature to section 176 and to Schedules 11 and 20.

Clause 10 makes miscellaneous amendments of a formal nature by way of statute law revision.

10 (b) fold the ballot-paper so that the marks made by him cannot be seen; and

 (c) at once return the ballot-paper so folded to the returning officer.

15 (4) Before handing the ballot-paper to the elector under subsection (3), the returning officer shall—

 (a) if the particulars of the candidates are not already printed on it, enter on the ballot-paper—

20 (i) the name of the electoral district for which the elector has declared that he is enrolled; and

25 (ii) the names of the candidates for that district in the order in which those names were drawn by ballot held pursuant to section 82A; and

 (b) sign the back of the ballot-paper in his own handwriting in such a position as to be readily seen when the elector has folded the ballot-paper in accordance with subsection (3) (b).

(5)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(5) On the ballot-paper being returned to him in accordance with subsection (3) (c), the returning officer shall—

- 5 (a) in the presence of the elector, enclose it in the envelope bearing the elector's declaration and securely fasten the envelope; and
- (b) retain the envelope and ballot-paper until the close of the poll.

10 (6) When an elector has voted under this section, the returning officer shall endorse on the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) the fact that the elector has voted and the date of the vote.

15 (7) An authorised witness shall not, in any way, influence or attempt to influence the vote of an elector voting under this section.

Penalty : $250 or imprisonment for three months.

20 114R. The returning officer shall retain every application made to him under section 114P (1) until the election can no longer be questioned and shall, on being requested to do so by any person attending his office at any time during the ordinary business hours of that office from and including the third day after polling day until the election can no longer be questioned, make any such application available for inspection by that person.

30 114s. When an elector has voted in accordance with section 114Q, the returning officer shall, if certified copies of the roll have been furnished to the deputy returning officers responsible for the subdivision for which the elector is enrolled, immediately notify those deputy returning officers to notify the deputy returning officer that elector has voted before polling day.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

5 returning officers that the elector has voted and, on being so notified, each such deputy returning officer shall enter a note of that fact on the certified copies of the roll furnished to him, but if certified copies of the roll have not been so furnished, the returning officer shall enter such a note on the certified copies of the roll in his possession.

10 114T. (1) If an elector permitted to vote under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that his sight is so impaired that he is unable to vote without assistance, the returning officer shall permit a person appointed by the elector to assist the elector, and the person so appointed shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold and return the ballot-paper to the returning officer.

Assistance
to certain
electors.

20 (2) If any such elector fails to appoint a person as provided by subsection (1), the returning officer, in the presence of such scrutineers as are present, or, if there are no scrutineers present, in the presence of any person employed in his office, shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold the ballot-paper.

25 114U. (1) A candidate may, by writing under his hand, appoint one or more scrutineers in order to observe voting by electors under section 114Q.

Appointment of
scrutineers.

30 (2) Subject to subsection (3), a scrutineer so appointed is, during the ordinary business hours of the office of the returning officer between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day preceding polling day, entitled to be present in that part of the office of the returning officer in which voting under section 114Q takes place.

(3)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(3) If a scrutineer so appointed leaves the office of the returning officer during the period that he is entitled to be present at that office, another scrutineer so appointed may act in his place, but only one scrutineer is entitled to be present at that office in respect of a candidate at any one time.

(4) A scrutineer appointed under subsection (1) shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer;
- (b) interfere with or attempt to influence an elector who is making an application under section 114P (1) or who is voting under section 114Q;

Short heading after sec. 114N.

7. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting before the short heading preceding section 115 the following sections and short heading :—

Further amendment of Act No. 41, 1912. Secs. 114P–114Z.

Pre-poll voting.

114P. (1) An elector who—

Application for permission to vote before polling day.

(a) will not throughout the hours of polling on polling day be within New South Wales;

(b) will not throughout the hours of polling on polling day be within eight kilometres by the nearest practicable route of any polling-booth open for the purposes of the election;

(c) will throughout the hours of polling on polling day be travelling under conditions which will preclude him from voting at any polling-booth; or

(d) by reason of his membership of a religious order or his religious beliefs—

(i) is precluded from attending at a polling-booth; or

(ii) will be precluded from voting throughout the hours of polling on polling day or throughout the greater part of those hours, may make an application to the returning officer for the district for which he is enrolled for permission to vote before polling day.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall—

- (a) be in or to the effect of the prescribed form and specify the ground on which the elector is making the application;
- (b) be signed by the elector in his own handwriting;
- (c) be witnessed by an authorised witness; and
- (d) be delivered by the elector in person to the office of the returning officer during the ordinary business hours of that office between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day preceding polling day.

(3) An elector shall not in an application under subsection (1) make any statement which is, to his knowledge, false or misleading as to a material particular.

Penalty : $100 or imprisonment for one month.

(4) A person shall not persuade or induce an elector to make any statement in an application under subsection (1) which is, to the knowledge of that person, false or misleading as to a material particular.

Penalty : $100 or imprisonment for one month.

(5) A person shall not—

- (a) persuade or induce; or
- (b) associate himself with any other person in persuading or inducing, an elector to make an application under subsection (1).

Penalty : $100 or imprisonment for one month.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(6) An authorised witness shall not witness the signature of an elector to an application under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) he has satisfied himself as to the identity of the elector;
- (b) he has seen the elector sign the application in the elector's own handwriting; and
- (c) he knows that the statements contained in the application are true, or has satisfied himself by inquiring from the elector or otherwise that the statements contained in the application are true.

Penalty : $100 or imprisonment for one month.

(7) An authorised witness witnessing the signature of an elector making an application under subsection (1) shall sign his name in his own handwriting on the application in the space provided for that purpose, and shall add his address and the date.

114Q. (1) Where a returning officer receives an application made in accordance with section 114P, he may, and, if requested to do so by any scrutineer, shall, put to the elector who made the application any of the questions prescribed by section 100 (1) which are applicable to the case, and, if the elector answers the questions satisfactorily or if no questions are put to the elector, the elector shall, after making a declaration in the prescribed form, be permitted to vote.

Procedure for voting before polling day.

(2) The form of declaration shall be either printed or written on an envelope and shall, after being filled in, be signed by the elector in his own handwriting in the presence of the returning officer who shall then witness the elector's signature.

(3)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the returning officer shall then hand to the elector a ballot-paper that is in or to the effect of the form prescribed in Schedule 4, and on receiving that ballot-paper, the elector shall—

- (a) mark his vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions thereon in the view of the returning officer but so that the returning officer is unable to see what marks he makes on the ballot-paper;
- (b) fold the ballot-paper so that the marks made by him cannot be seen; and
- (c) at once return the ballot-paper so folded to the returning officer.

(4) Before handing the ballot-paper to the elector under subsection (3), the returning officer shall—

- (a) if the particulars of the candidates are not already printed on it, enter on the ballot-paper—
 - (i) the name of the electoral district for which the elector has declared that he is enrolled; and
 - (ii) the names of the candidates for that district in the order in which those names were drawn by ballot held pursuant to section 82A; and
- (b) sign the back of the ballot-paper in his own handwriting in such a position as to be readily seen when the elector has folded the ballot-paper in accordance with subsection (3) (b).

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(5) On the ballot-paper being returned to him in accordance with subsection (3) (c), the returning officer shall—

- (a) in the presence of the elector, enclose it in the envelope bearing the elector's declaration and securely fasten the envelope; and
- (b) retain the envelope and ballot-paper until the close of the poll.

(6) When an elector has voted under this section, the returning officer shall endorse on the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) the fact that the elector has voted and the date of the vote.

(7) An authorised witness shall not, in any way, influence or attempt to influence the vote of an elector voting under this section.

Penalty : $250 or imprisonment for three months.

114R. The returning officer shall retain every application made to him under section 114P (1) until the election can no longer be questioned and shall, on being requested to do so by any person attending his office at any time during the ordinary business hours of that office from and including the third day after polling day until the election can no longer be questioned, make any such application available for inspection by that person.

Applications to be available for public inspection.

114S. When an elector has voted in accordance with section 114Q, the returning officer shall, if certified copies of the roll have been furnished to the deputy returning officers responsible for the subdivision for which the elector is enrolled, immediately notify those deputy returning officers that the elector has voted and, on being so notified, each such deputy returning officer shall enter a note of that fact on the certified copies of the roll furnished to him, but if certified copies of the roll have not been so furnished, the returning officer shall enter such a note on the certified copies of the roll in his possession.

Assistance
to certain
electors.

114T. (1) If an elector permitted to vote under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that his sight is so impaired that he is unable to vote without assistance, the returning officer shall permit a person appointed by the elector to assist the elector, and the person so appointed shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold and return the ballot-paper to the returning officer.

(2) If any such elector fails to appoint a person as provided by subsection (1), the returning officer, in the presence of such scrutineers as are present, or, if there are no scrutineers present, in the presence of any person employed in his office, shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold the ballot-paper.

Appoint-
scrutineers.

114U. (1) A candidate may, by writing under his hand, appoint one or more scrutineers in order to observe voting by electors under section 114Q.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a scrutineer so appointed is, during the ordinary business hours of the office of the returning officer between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day preceding polling day, entitled to be present in that part of the office of the returning officer in which voting under section 114Q takes place.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(3) If a scrutineer so appointed leaves the office of the returning officer during the period that he is entitled to be present at that office, another scrutineer so appointed may act in his place, but only one scrutineer is entitled to be present at that office in respect of a candidate at any one time.

(4) A scrutineer appointed under subsection (1) shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer;
- (b) interfere with or attempt to influence an elector who is making an application under section 114P (1) or who is voting under section 114Q;
- (c) communicate with any such elector, except so far as it is necessary to do so in the discharge of his functions; or
- (d) misconduct himself at the office of the returning officer when present at that office pursuant to subsection (2) or (3).

Penalty : $25.

(5) A scrutineer shall, before acting as such at the office of the returning officer when open to enable electors to vote before polling day, make and sign before the returning officer a declaration in the same terms as are prescribed in section 91 (1).

(6) Where a declaration is made and signed in accordance with subsection (5), the returning officer shall transmit the declaration to the Electoral Commissioner, and Part IV of the Oaths Act, 1900, shall apply to the declaration as if it had been made under that Act.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

Penalty for unlawfully marking ballot-
paper.

114v. A person shall not mark or attempt or purport to mark a vote on a ballot-paper handed to an elector under section 114Q unless he—

- (a) is that elector; or
- (b) is a person appointed by that elector under section 114T (1) or is the returning officer acting in accordance with section 114T (2).

Penalty : $500 or imprisonment for six months.

Duty of persons present
when elector votes under section 114Q.

114w. A person who is present when an elector is attending the office of the returning officer for the purpose of voting under section 114Q shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer; or
- (b) except as provided in section 114T—
 - (i) communicate with the elector in relation to the marking of that elector's vote;
 - (ii) assist the elector or in any manner interfere with the elector in relation to the marking of that elector's vote; or
 - (iii) look at the elector's vote or do anything which may result in his obtaining knowledge of the elector's vote.

Penalty : $250 or imprisonment for three months.

Preliminary
scrutiny
of ballotpapers of electors
under section
114Q.

114x. (1) At the scrutiny the returning officer shall produce unopened all envelopes containing ballot-papers marked by electors who have voted under section 114Q and shall also produce all applications made to him under section 114P (1).

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(2) The returning officer shall then compare the signature of the elector in the declaration on each of those envelopes with the signature in the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) and allow the scrutineers to examine both signatures; and if, after making that comparison, the returning officer is satisfied that the signature in the declaration is that of the elector who signed the application and if he is also satisfied that—

- (a) the signature purports to have been witnessed by an authorised witness; and
- (b) the elector is enrolled for the district for which the returning officer is appointed,

he shall remove the ballot-paper from the envelope and, without unfolding the ballot-paper or allowing any other person to do so, place the ballot-paper in a locked and sealed ballot-box for further scrutiny, together with any other ballot-papers accepted for further scrutiny under this subsection, but if he is not so satisfied he shall disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope.

(3) After dealing with all envelopes, ballot-papers and applications in the manner prescribed by subsection (2), the returning officer—

- (a) shall seal up in separate parcels—
 - (i) those envelopes from which ballot-papers have been removed for further scrutiny; and
 - (ii) those envelopes containing disallowed ballot-papers; and

(b)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(b) shall then proceed with the further scrutiny—

- (i) by removing the ballot-papers from the ballot-box in which they were placed in accordance with subsection (2); and
- (ii) by opening the ballot-papers so removed and allowing and counting those which are formal and disallowing and rejecting those which, by virtue of section 122, are informal.

Spoilt
ballot-
papers.

114y. If any elector voting under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that he has spoilt the ballot-paper handed to him under that section by reason of accident or mistake, and that ballot-paper has not been enclosed in an envelope in accordance with subsection (5) of that section, the returning officer, on receipt of the spoilt ballot-paper, shall—

- (a) hand to the elector a new ballot-paper; and
- (b) cancel and preserve the spoilt ballot-paper.

Reference
to returning officer deemed to include clerical
assistant in certain cases.

114z. Every reference in sections 114Q, 114R, 114T, 114U, 114V, 114W (a) and 114Y to a returning officer shall be deemed to include a reference to a clerical assistant appointed to assist the returning officer in the performance of his duties.

(2) The form of declaration shall be either printed or written on an envelope and shall, after being filled in, be signed by the elector in his own handwriting in the presence of the returning officer who shall then witness the elector's signature.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the returning officer shall then hand to the elector a ballot-paper that is in or to the effect of the form prescribed in Schedule 4, and on receiving that ballot-paper, the elector shall—

- (a) mark his vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions thereon in the view of the returning officer but so that the returning officer is unable to see what marks he makes on the ballot-paper;
- (b) fold the ballot-paper so that the marks made by him cannot be seen; and
- (c) at once return the ballot-paper so folded to the returning officer.

(4) Before handing the ballot-paper to the elector under subsection (3), the returning officer shall—

- (a) if the particulars of the candidates are not already printed on it, enter on the ballot-paper—
 - (i) the name of the electoral district for which the elector has declared that he is enrolled; and
 - (ii) the names of the candidates for that district in the order in which those names were drawn by ballot held pursuant to section 82A; and
- (b) sign the back of the ballot-paper in his own handwriting in such a position as to be readily seen when the elector has folded the ballot-paper in accordance with subsection (3) (b).

(5)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(5) On the ballot-paper being returned to him in accordance with subsection (3) (c), the returning officer shall—

- (a) in the presence of the elector, enclose it in the envelope bearing the elector's declaration and securely fasten the envelope; and
- (b) retain the envelope and ballot-paper until the close of the poll.

(6) When an elector has voted under this section, the returning officer shall endorse on the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) the fact that the elector has voted and the date of the vote.

(7) An authorised witness shall not, in any way, influence or attempt to influence the vote of an elector voting under this section.

Penalty : $250 or imprisonment for three months.

114R. The returning officer shall retain every application made to him under section 114P (1) until the election can no longer be questioned and shall, on being requested to do so by any person attending his office at any time during the ordinary business hours of that office from and including the third day after polling day until the election can no longer be questioned, make any such application available for inspection by that person.

Applications to be available for public inspection.

114S. When an elector has voted in accordance with section 114Q, the returning officer shall, if certified copies of the roll have been furnished to the deputy returning officers responsible for the subdivision for which the elector is enrolled, immediately notify those deputy returning officers that the elector has voted and, on being so notified, each such deputy returning officer shall enter a note of that fact on the certified copies of the roll furnished to him, but if certified copies of the roll have not been so furnished, the returning officer shall enter such a note on the certified copies of the roll in his possession.

Assistance
to certain
electors.

114T. (1) If an elector permitted to vote under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that his sight is so impaired that he is unable to vote without assistance, the returning officer shall permit a person appointed by the elector to assist the elector, and the person so appointed shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold and return the ballot-paper to the returning officer.

(2) If any such elector fails to appoint a person as provided by subsection (1), the returning officer, in the presence of such scrutineers as are present, or, if there are no scrutineers present, in the presence of any person employed in his office, shall, in the same manner as would be required if he were the elector, mark a vote on the ballot-paper according to the instructions of the elector and then fold the ballot-paper.

Appointment of
scrutineers.

114U. (1) A candidate may, by writing under his hand, appoint one or more scrutineers in order to observe voting by electors under section 114Q.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a scrutineer so appointed is, during the ordinary business hours of the office of the returning officer between noon on the day of nomination and 7 p.m. on the second day preceding polling day, entitled to be present in that part of the office of the returning officer in which voting under section 114Q takes place.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(3) If a scrutineer so appointed leaves the office of the returning officer during the period that he is entitled to be present at that office, another scrutineer so appointed may act in his place, but only one scrutineer is entitled to be present at that office in respect of a candidate at any one time.

(4) A scrutineer appointed under subsection (1) shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer;
- (b) interfere with or attempt to influence an elector who is making an application under section 114P (1) or who is voting under section 114Q;
- (c) communicate with any such elector, except so far as it is necessary to do so in the discharge of his functions; or
- (d) misconduct himself at the office of the returning officer when present at that office pursuant to subsection (2) or (3).

Penalty : $25.

(5) A scrutineer shall, before acting as such at the office of the returning officer when open to enable electors to vote before polling day, make and sign before the returning officer a declaration in the same terms as are prescribed in section 91 (1).

(6) Where a declaration is made and signed in accordance with subsection (5), the returning officer shall transmit the declaration to the Electoral Commissioner, and Part IV of the Oaths Act, 1900, shall apply to the declaration as if it had been made under that Act.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

Penalty for unlawfully
marking ballot-
paper.

114v. A person shall not mark or attempt or purport to mark a vote on a ballot-paper handed to an elector under section 114Q unless he—

- (a) is that elector; or
- (b) is a person appointed by that elector under section 114T (1) or is the returning officer acting in accordance with section 114T (2).

Penalty : $500 or imprisonment for six months.

Duty of persons
present
when elector votes under section 114Q.

114w. A person who is present when an elector is attending the office of the returning officer for the purpose of voting under section 114Q shall not—

- (a) fail or refuse to comply with any lawful direction given to him by the returning officer; or
- (b) except as provided in section 114T—
 - (i) communicate with the elector in relation to the marking of that elector's vote;
 - (ii) assist the elector or in any manner interfere with the elector in relation to the marking of that elector's vote; or
 - (iii) look at the elector's vote or do anything which may result in his obtaining knowledge of the elector's vote.

Penalty : $250 or imprisonment for three months.

Preliminary
scrutiny
of ballotpapers of electors
under section
114Q.

114x. (1) At the scrutiny the returning officer shall produce unopened all envelopes containing ballot-papers marked by electors who have voted under section 114Q and shall also produce all applications made to him under section 114P (1).

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(2) The returning officer shall then compare the signature of the elector in the declaration on each of those envelopes with the signature in the application made by that elector under section 114P (1) and allow the scrutineers to examine both signatures; and if, after making that comparison, the returning officer is satisfied that the signature in the declaration is that of the elector who signed the application and if he is also satisfied that—

- (a) the signature purports to have been witnessed by an authorised witness; and
- (b) the elector is enrolled for the district for which the returning officer is appointed,

he shall remove the ballot-paper from the envelope and, without unfolding the ballot-paper or allowing any other person to do so, place the ballot-paper in a locked and sealed ballot-box for further scrutiny, together with any other ballot-papers accepted for further scrutiny under this subsection, but if he is not so satisfied he shall disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope.

(3) After dealing with all envelopes, ballot-papers and applications in the manner prescribed by subsection (2), the returning officer—

- (a) shall seal up in separate parcels—
 - (i) those envelopes from which ballot-papers have been removed for further scrutiny; and
 - (ii) those envelopes containing disallowed ballot-papers; and

(b)

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment).

(b) shall then proceed with the further scrutiny—

- (i) by removing the ballot-papers from the ballot-box in which they were placed in accordance with subsection (2); and
- (ii) by opening the ballot-papers so removed and allowing and counting those which are formal and disallowing and rejecting those which, by virtue of section 122, are informal.

Spoilt
ballot-
papers.

114y. If any elector voting under section 114Q satisfies the returning officer that he has spoilt the ballot-paper handed to him under that section by reason of accident or mistake, and that ballot-paper has not been enclosed in an envelope in accordance with subsection (5) of that section, the returning officer, on receipt of the spoilt ballot-paper, shall—

- (a) hand to the elector a new ballot-paper; and
- (b) cancel and preserve the spoilt ballot-paper.

Reference
to returning officer deemed to include
clerical
assistant in certain
cases.

114z. Every reference in sections 114Q, 114R, 114T, 114U, 114V, 114W (a) and 114Y to a returning officer shall be deemed to include a reference to a clerical assistant appointed to assist the returning officer in the performance of his duties.
