PUBLIC SERVICE (FURTHER AMENDMENT) BILL, 1974

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE object of this Bill is to remove certain restrictions from the Public Service Act, 1902, relating to maximum and minimum ages for the examination and appointment of officers of the Public Service.

The Bill-

- (a) removes the requirement that regulations made by the Public Service Board for the competitive examination of persons desiring to be admitted to the Public Service shall prescribe a maximum and a minimum age of candidates;
- (b) removes provisions which restrict, by minimum and maximum age qualifications, the eligibility of certain persons to be appointed to the Administrative and Clerical Division and the General Division of the Public Service;
- (c) removes from the Public Service Act, 1902, a provision that refers to a repealed enactment; and
- (d) makes other provisions of an ancillary nature.
