(5) A determination shall not be challenged, reviewed, quashed or called into question before any court or in any legal proceedings, or restrained, removed or otherwise affected by proceedings in the nature of prohibition, mandamus, certiorari or otherwise.

Restrictions on reduction of remun-

certain office holders.

21. (1) Notwithstanding any other section of this Act, a determination does not operate so as to reduce the rate at which remuneration is payable to the holder of an office specified in Schedule 1.

(2) Where an Act contains a provision to the effect that subsection (1) does not apply to a determination made before the date of assent to that Act, then, subject to that Act, the reduction effected by virtue of that Act does not, in relation to any period before that date, apply to a person who is not an office holder at that date.

(3) A determination does not operate so as to reduce, contrary to a written contract or agreement entered into by a person and by or on behalf of the State or the Government of the State, the rate at which remuneration is payable to him as an office holder, unless he agrees in writing.

- (a) was an office holder at or at any time after the effective date; and
- (b) was not an office holder at the date of publication, is not, in relation to any period before the date of publication, affected by the determination, unless—
- (c) the determination would, if he had continued in office, operate to increase the remuneration payable to him in relation to that period; and
- (d) he ceased to hold the office otherwise than by reason of his resigning his office (except by way of retirement) or by reason of his removal from office by the Governor or by resolution of either or both of the Houses of Parliament.

23. (1) Where, but for this subsection, no remuneration would be payable to an office holder in respect of any period during which he is an office holder, the Minister may, from time to time, fix the remuneration payable to the office holder in respect of that period. Remuneration of office holders not dealt with.

(2) The remuneration payable to an office holder under subsection (1) is payable until a determination applicable to him comes into force.
