15 (a) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “eligible person”—the period specified in the First Column of the Table to this section
during which her late pensioner husband
last became a pensioner;

20 (b) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of that person to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act
applied, he last retired before 1st April, 1973;

25 (c) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (c) of that definition—

30 (i) where her late husband had been retired under section 22 of the Principal Act once only—the period so specified during which he was so retired; or

(ii)

Superannuation (Amendment).

5 (ii) where her late husband had been so retired more than once—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of her late husband to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he had been last retired under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or

10 (d) in the case of any other eligible person—the period so specified during which that person last became a pensioner;

“eligible person” means—

15 (a) the widow of a pensioner, where that pensioner last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973, and died before 7th December, 1973;

(a) subject to paragraph (b), means—

(i) pension payable under the Principal Act; and

(ii) pension wholly paid or recouped from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the funds of an employer, whether or not payment of the pension, or any part thereof, has been suspended by the operation of a provision of the Principal Act or any other Act; and

(b) does not include—

(i) pension that has been commuted under section 21A or 21B of the Principal Act; or

(ii) pension payable in respect of a child or a student.

(2) For the purposes of this or any other Act—

(a) where a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) retires as referred to in that paragraph and pension thereupon becomes payable to him under section 29 of the Principal Act, payment of that pension shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(b) payment of a pension to a widow in consequence of a death referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(c)

Superannuation (Amendment).

5 (c) where, on or after 7th December, 1973, an increase in pension is paid to a pensioner under the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, the payment shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended part of his pension;

10 (d) where any part of an increase of pension is not paid because of the operation of section 2 (5) of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, or of section 7 of this Act, the unpaid part of the increase shall be deemed to be a suspended part of the pension; and

(e) where—
15 (i) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act by reason only of the marriage of the pensioner; or

20 (ii) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, by reason only of the operation of section 94 of the Principal Act,

the pension shall be deemed to be a suspended pension.

(3) Subject to section 7, a suspended pension or part of a pension shall, in calculating a pension payable under 25 section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act, be taken into account as if it had been payable.

6. Subject to this Part—

30 (a) the pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) payable to an eligible person on 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from that date;

(b)

Superannuation (Amendment).

(b) a pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) that first becomes payable to an eligible person after 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from the date on which it first becomes payable; and

(c) a suspended pension, or a suspended part of a pension that becomes payable on or after 7th December, 1973, to an eligible person (whether or not it is payable on and from an earlier date) is hereby increased on and from 7th December, 1973, or on and from the date on which it so becomes payable, whichever is the later,

by the percentage specified in the Second Column of the Table to this section opposite the eligibility period for that person specified in the First Column of the Table.

section 2 (4);

Certain
persons may elect
to become
contributors,

"prescribed period" means the period of six months that next succeeds the appointed day;

"prescribed person" means—

15 (a) an employee within the meaning of the Principal Act who, before the appointed day and either before or after he became an employee, was granted exemption from contributing to the State Superannuation Fund; or

20 (b) such an employee who, being eligible to make the election provided by section 11B of the Principal Act, failed to make the election;

25 "prescribed superannuation scheme" means a retirement scheme, fund or arrangement to or in respect of which an employer within the meaning of the Principal Act or a public or local authority constituted by an Act makes, or is liable to make, a payment in respect of a person who is an employee 30 within the meaning of the Principal Act.

Superannuation (Amendment).

(2) Where a prescribed person—

- 5 (a) applies in writing to the State Superannuation Board before the expiration of the prescribed period (or, where that Board allows an extended period, before the expiration of the extended period) for acceptance as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund; and
- 10 (b) as soon as practicable thereafter submits himself to medical examination by the Government Medical Officer as if he were an employee referred to in section 11A (1) of the Principal Act,

the Government Medical Officer shall report to the State Superannuation Board whether or not, in his opinion, that person is suffering from any physical or mental defect that 15 is likely to affect his health or longevity or his capacity to continue as an employee.

(3) After receipt of a report referred to in subsection (2) the State Superannuation Board shall notify the prescribed person to whom the report relates—

- 20 (a) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund;
- (b) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund for limited benefits;

INCREASE OF PENSIONS.

5. (1) In this Part, except to the extent that the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

Interpretation of Part.

10 “eligibility period” in relation to an eligible person means—

15 (a) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “eligible person”—the period specified in the First Column of the Table to this section
during which her late pensioner husband
last became a pensioner;

20 (b) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition—the
period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of that person to which
section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act
applied, he last retired before 1st April, 1973;

25 (c) in the case of an eligible person referred to
in paragraph (c) of that definition—

30 (i) where her late husband had been retired under section 22 of the Principal Act once only—the period so
specified during which he was so
retired; or

(ii)

Superannuation (Amendment).

5 (ii) where her late husband had been so retired more than once—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of her late husband to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he had been last retired under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or

10 (d) in the case of any other eligible person—the period so specified during which that person last became a pensioner;

“eligible person” means—

15 (a) the widow of a pensioner, where that pensioner last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973, and died before 7th December, 1973;

20 (b) a person retired under section 22 of the Principal Act on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of having again become a contributor following a previous retirement under that section before 1st April, 1973;

25 (c) the widow of a contributor, being a contributor who died or dies on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of his having again become a contributor following a retirement under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or

30 (d) except as provided by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c)—a pensioner who last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973.

“pension”

Superannuation (Amendment).

“pension”—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), means—

(i) pension payable under the Principal Act; and

5 (ii) pension wholly paid or recouped from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the funds of an employer, whether or not payment of the pension, or any part thereof, has been suspended by 10 the operation of a provision of the Principal Act or any other Act; and

(b) does not include—

15 (i) pension that has been commuted under section 21A or 21B of the Principal Act; or

(ii) pension payable in respect of a child or a student.

(2) For the purposes of this or any other Act—

20 (a) where a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) retires as referred to in that paragraph and pension thereupon becomes payable to him under section 29 of the Principal Act, payment of that pension shall be deemed to be payment of a previously
25 suspended pension;

(b) payment of a pension to a widow in consequence of a death referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be payment of a previously
30 suspended pension;

(c)

Superannuation (Amendment).

5 (c) where, on or after 7th December, 1973, an increase in pension is paid to a pensioner under the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, the payment shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended part of his pension;

10 (d) where any part of an increase of pension is not paid because of the operation of section 2 (5) of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, or of section 7 of this Act, the unpaid part of the increase shall be deemed to be a suspended part of the pension; and

(e) where—
15 (i) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act by reason only of the marriage of the pensioner; or 20 (ii) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, by reason only of the operation of section 94 of the Principal Act,
the pension shall be deemed to be a suspended pension.

(3) Subject to section 7, a suspended pension or part of a pension shall, in calculating a pension payable under 25 section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act, be taken into account as if it had been payable.

6. Subject to this Part—

30 (a) the pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) payable to an eligible person on 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from that date;

(b)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (b) a pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) that first becomes payable to an eligible person after 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from the date on which it first becomes payable; and
- (c) a suspended pension, or a suspended part of a pension that becomes payable on or after 7th December, 1973, to an eligible person (whether or not it is payable on and from an earlier date) is hereby increased on and from 7th December, 1973, or on and from the date on which it so becomes payable, whichever is the later,

by the percentage specified in the Second Column of the Table to this section opposite the eligibility period for that person specified in the First Column of the Table.

ss. 10–12.

PART IV.—ELECTION BY CERTAIN PERSONS TO
BECOME CONTRIBUTORS—ss. 13–16.

PART V.—GENERAL—ss. 17–20.

PART II.

INCREASE OF PENSIONS.

5. (1) In this Part, except to the extent that the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

Interpretation of Part.

“eligibility period” in relation to an eligible person means—

- (a) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “eligible person”—the period specified in the First Column of the Table to this section during which her late pensioner husband last became a pensioner;
- (b) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of that person to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he last retired before 1st April, 1973;
- (c) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (c) of that definition—
 - (i) where her late husband had been retired under section 22 of the Principal Act once only—the period so specified during which he was so retired; or

(ii)

Superannuation (Amendment).

(ii) where her late husband had been so retired more than once—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of her late husband to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he had been last retired under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or

(d) in the case of any other eligible person—the period so specified during which that person last became a pensioner;

“eligible person” means—

(a) the widow of a pensioner, where that pensioner last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973, and died before 7th December, 1973;

(b) a person retired under section 22 of the Principal Act on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of having again become a contributor following a previous retirement under that section before 1st April, 1973;

(c) the widow of a contributor, being a contributor who died or dies on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of his having again become a contributor following a retirement under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or

(d) except as provided by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c)—a pensioner who last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973;

“pension”

Superannuation (Amendment).

“pension”—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), means—

- (i) pension payable under the Principal Act; and
- (ii) pension wholly paid or recouped from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the funds of an employer, whether or not payment of the pension, or any part thereof, has been suspended by the operation of a provision of the Principal Act or any other Act; and

(b) does not include—

- (i) pension that has been commuted under section 21A or 21B of the Principal Act; or
- (ii) pension payable in respect of a child or a student.

(2) For the purposes of this or any other Act—

- (a) where a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) retires as referred to in that paragraph and pension thereupon becomes payable to him under section 29 of the Principal Act, payment of that pension shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;
- (b) payment of a pension to a widow in consequence of a death referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(c)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (c) where, on or after 7th December, 1973, an increase in pension is paid to a pensioner under the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, the payment shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended part of his pension;
- (d) where any part of an increase of pension is not paid because of the operation of section 2 (5) of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, or of section 7 of this Act, the unpaid part of the increase shall be deemed to be a suspended part of the pension; and
- (e) where—
 - (i) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act by reason only of the marriage of the pensioner; or
 - (ii) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, by reason only of the operation of section 94 of the Principal Act,

the pension shall be deemed to be a suspended pension.

(3) Subject to section 7, a suspended pension or part of a pension shall, in calculating a pension payable under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act, be taken into account as if it had been payable.

6. Subject to this Part—

- (a) the pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) payable to an eligible person on 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from that date;

(b)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (b) a pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) that first becomes payable to an eligible person after 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from the date on which it first becomes payable; and
- (c) a suspended pension, or a suspended part of a pension that becomes payable on or after 7th December, 1973, to an eligible person (whether or not it is payable on and from an earlier date) is hereby increased on and from 7th December, 1973, or on and from the date on which it so becomes payable, whichever is the later,

by the percentage specified in the Second Column of the Table to this section opposite the eligibility period for that person specified in the First Column of the Table.

5. (1) In this Part, except to the extent that the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

Interpretation of Part.

“eligible person” in relation to an eligible person means—

- (a) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “eligible person”—the period specified in the First Column of the Table to this section during which her late pensioner husband last became a pensioner;
- (b) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of that person to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he last retired before 1st April, 1973;
- (c) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (c) of that definition—
 - (i) where her late husband had been retired under section 22 of the Principal Act once only—the period so specified during which he was so retired; or

(ii)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (ii) where her late husband had been so retired more than once—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of her late husband to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he had been last retired under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or
- (d) in the case of any other eligible person—the period so specified during which that person last became a pensioner;

“eligible person” means—

- (a) the widow of a pensioner, where that pensioner last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973, and died before 7th December, 1973;
- (b) a person retired under section 22 of the Principal Act on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of having again become a contributor following a previous retirement under that section before 1st April, 1973;
- (c) the widow of a contributor, being a contributor who died or dies on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of his having again become a contributor following a retirement under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or
- (d) except as provided by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c)—a pensioner who last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973;

“pension”

Superannuation (Amendment).

“pension”—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), means—

(i) pension payable under the Principal Act; and

(ii) pension wholly paid or recouped from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the funds of an employer, whether or not payment of the pension, or any part thereof, has been suspended by the operation of a provision of the Principal Act or any other Act; and

(b) does not include—

(i) pension that has been commuted under section 21A or 21B of the Principal Act; or

(ii) pension payable in respect of a child or a student.

(2) For the purposes of this or any other Act—

(a) where a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) retires as referred to in that paragraph and pension thereupon becomes payable to him under section 29 of the Principal Act, payment of that pension shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(b) payment of a pension to a widow in consequence of a death referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(c)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (c) where, on or after 7th December, 1973, an increase in pension is paid to a pensioner under the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, the payment shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended part of his pension;
- (d) where any part of an increase of pension is not paid because of the operation of section 2 (5) of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, or of section 7 of this Act, the unpaid part of the increase shall be deemed to be a suspended part of the pension; and
- (e) where—
- (i) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act by reason only of the marriage of the pensioner; or
 - (ii) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, by reason only of the operation of section 94 of the Principal Act,

the pension shall be deemed to be a suspended pension.

(3) Subject to section 7, a suspended pension or part of a pension shall, in calculating a pension payable under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act, be taken into account as if it had been payable.

6. Subject to this Part—

- (a) the pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) payable to an eligible person on 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from that date;

(b)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (b) a pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) that first becomes payable to an eligible person after 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from the date on which it first becomes payable; and
- (c) a suspended pension, or a suspended part of a pension that becomes payable on or after 7th December, 1973, to an eligible person (whether or not it is payable on and from an earlier date) is hereby increased on and from 7th December, 1973, or on and from the date on which it so becomes payable, whichever is the later.

Certain
persons
may elect
to become
contributors.

14. (1) In this section—

"appointed day" means the day appointed pursuant to section 2 (4);

"prescribed period" means the period of six months that next succeeds the appointed day;

"prescribed person" means—

(b) such an employee who, being eligible to make the election provided by section 11B of the Principal Act, failed to make the election;

"prescribed superannuation scheme" means a retirement scheme, fund or arrangement to or in respect of which an employer within the meaning of the Principal Act or a public or local authority constituted by an Act makes, or is liable to make, a payment in respect of a person who is an employee within the meaning of the Principal Act.

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (2) Where a prescribed person—
- (a) applies in writing to the State Superannuation Board before the expiration of the prescribed period (or, where that Board allows an extended period, before the expiration of the extended period) for acceptance as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund; and
 - (b) as soon as practicable thereafter submits himself to medical examination by the Government Medical Officer as if he were an employee referred to in section 11A (1) of the Principal Act,

the Government Medical Officer shall report to the State Superannuation Board whether or not, in his opinion, that person is suffering from any physical or mental defect that is likely to affect his health or longevity or his capacity to continue as an employee.

(3) After receipt of a report referred to in subsection (2) the State Superannuation Board shall notify the prescribed person to whom the report relates—

- (a) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund;
- (b) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund for limited benefits;
- (c) that it has postponed, until a time that the Board having regard to the report specifies in the notification, consideration of the acceptance of that person as a contributor, or as a contributor for limited benefits, to the State Superannuation Fund; or
- (d) that it will not accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund.

PART IV.

ELECTION BY CERTAIN PERSONS TO BECOME CONTRIBUTORS.

Further amendment of Act
No. 28, 1916.
Sec. 11.
(Commencement of contributions.)

13. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting in section 11 (1) after the word "Act" where firstly occurring the words ", or in Part IV of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1974,".

Certain
persons
may elect
to become
contributors.

14. (1) In this section—

"appointed day" means the day appointed pursuant to section 2 (4);

"prescribed period" means the period of six months that next succeeds the appointed day;

"prescribed person" means—

(b) such an employee who, being eligible to make the election provided by section 11B of the Principal Act, failed to make the election;

"prescribed superannuation scheme" means a retirement scheme, fund or arrangement to or in respect of which an employer within the meaning of the Principal Act or a public or local authority constituted by an Act makes, or is liable to make, a payment in respect of a person who is an employee within the meaning of the Principal Act.

Superannuation (Amendment).

(2) Where a prescribed person—

- (a) applies in writing to the State Superannuation Board before the expiration of the prescribed period (or, where that Board allows an extended period, before the expiration of the extended period) for acceptance as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund; and
- (b) as soon as practicable thereafter submits himself to medical examination by the Government Medical Officer as if he were an employee referred to in section 11A (1) of the Principal Act,

the Government Medical Officer shall report to the State Superannuation Board whether or not, in his opinion, that person is suffering from any physical or mental defect that is likely to affect his health or longevity or his capacity to continue as an employee.

(3) After receipt of a report referred to in subsection (2) the State Superannuation Board shall notify the prescribed person to whom the report relates—

- (a) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund;
- (b) that it will accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund for limited benefits;
- (c) that it has postponed, until a time that the Board having regard to the report specifies in the notification, consideration of the acceptance of that person as a contributor, or as a contributor for limited benefits, to the State Superannuation Fund; or
- (d) that it will not accept that person as a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund.

(4) Where—

- (a) the State Superannuation Board notifies a prescribed person as provided by subsection (3) (b) and that person fails within one month thereafter, or within such

Superannuation (Amendment).

such further period as that Board may allow, to notify the State Superannuation Board in writing that he confirms his application to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund; or

(5) Section 17 shall be deemed to have commenced on 28th November, 1972.

(6) Section 19 shall be deemed to have commenced on 13th May, 1971.

Principal Act. 3. This Act shall be read and construed with, and as if it formed part of, the Superannuation Act, 1916, which is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Division of Act. 4. This Act is divided, as follows:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY—ss. 1–4.

PART II.—INCREASE OF PENSIONS—ss. 5–9.

PART

Superannuation (Amendment).

PART III.—GOVERNMENT MEDICAL OFFICER—
ss. 10–12.

PART IV.—ELECTION BY CERTAIN PERSONS TO
BECOME CONTRIBUTORS—ss. 13–16.

PART V.—GENERAL—ss. 17–20.

PART II.

INCREASE OF PENSIONS.

5. (1) In this Part, except to the extent that the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

Interpretation of Part.

“eligible person” in relation to an eligible person means—

- (a) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “eligible person”—the period specified in the First Column of the Table to this section during which her late pensioner husband last became a pensioner;
- (b) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of that person to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he last retired before 1st April, 1973;
- (c) in the case of an eligible person referred to in paragraph (c) of that definition—
 - (i) where her late husband had been retired under section 22 of the Principal Act once only—the period so specified during which he was so retired; or

(ii)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (ii) where her late husband had been so retired more than once—the period so specified during which, disregarding any retirement of her late husband to which section 51 (2) (b) of the Principal Act applied, he had been last retired under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or
- (d) in the case of any other eligible person—the period so specified during which that person last became a pensioner;

“eligible person” means—

- (a) the widow of a pensioner, where that pensioner last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973, and died before 7th December, 1973;
- (b) a person retired under section 22 of the Principal Act on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of having again become a contributor following a previous retirement under that section before 1st April, 1973;
- (c) the widow of a contributor, being a contributor who died or dies on or after 1st April, 1973, within five years of his having again become a contributor following a retirement under section 22 of the Principal Act before 1st April, 1973; or
- (d) except as provided by paragraphs (a), (b) and (c)—a pensioner who last became a pensioner before 1st April, 1973;

“pension”

Superannuation (Amendment).

“pension”—

(a) subject to paragraph (b), means—

(i) pension payable under the Principal Act; and

(ii) pension wholly paid or recouped from the Consolidated Revenue Fund or the funds of an employer,

whether or not payment of the pension, or any part thereof, has been suspended by the operation of a provision of the Principal Act or any other Act; and

(b) does not include—

(i) pension that has been commuted under section 21A or 21B of the Principal Act; or

(ii) pension payable in respect of a child or a student.

(2) For the purposes of this or any other Act—

(a) where a person referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) retires as referred to in that paragraph and pension thereupon becomes payable to him under section 29 of the Principal Act, payment of that pension shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(b) payment of a pension to a widow in consequence of a death referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of “eligible person” in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended pension;

(c)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (c) where, on or after 7th December, 1973, an increase in pension is paid to a pensioner under the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, the payment shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to be payment of a previously suspended part of his pension;
- (d) where any part of an increase of pension is not paid because of the operation of section 2 (5) of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, or of section 7 of this Act, the unpaid part of the increase shall be deemed to be a suspended part of the pension; and
- (e) where—
- (i) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act by reason only of the marriage of the pensioner; or
 - (ii) a pension was not payable at 7th December, 1973, by reason only of the operation of section 94 of the Principal Act,
- the pension shall be deemed to be a suspended pension.

(3) Subject to section 7, a suspended pension or part of a pension shall, in calculating a pension payable under section 30 or 31 of the Principal Act, be taken into account as if it had been payable.

6. Subject to this Part—

- (a) the pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) payable to an eligible person on 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from that date;

(b)

Superannuation (Amendment).

- (b) a pension (other than a suspended pension or a suspended part of a pension) that first becomes payable to an eligible person after 7th December, 1973, is hereby increased on and from the date on which it first becomes payable; and
- (c) a suspended pension, or a suspended part of a pension that becomes payable on or after 7th December, 1973, to an eligible person (whether or not it is payable on and from an earlier date) is hereby increased on and from 7th December, 1973, or on and from the date on which it so becomes payable, whichever is the later.

by the percentage specified in the Second Column of the Table to this section opposite the eligibility period for that person specified in the First Column of the Table.
