[16c]

BUSH FIRES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1976

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to change the name of the Eastern and Central Divisions Bush Fire Fighting Fund to the New South Wales Bush Fire Fighting Fund (Schedule 1 (1), (2), (6) and (7) and Schedule 3 (2));
- (b) to enable councils to serve notices requiring the establishment of fire breaks and certain other fire prevention works on either the occupier or the owner of land, instead of the present position where notices can be served on an occupier in all cases, but only on an owner if there is no occupier (Schedule 1 (3));
- (c) to give an owner of land a defence to court proceedings relating to the establishment of fire breaks or the carrying out of certain other fire prevention works on his land where he has no legal right to enter that land for those purposes (Schedule 1 (4));
- (d) to enable members of bush fire brigades and certain other authorised persons, with the permission of the occupier, to enter private land for the purpose of establishing fire breaks and for certain other fire prevention purposes (Schedule 1 (5) (d));
- (e) to permit estimates of expenditure from the Bush Fire Fighting Fund in respect of each year to be prepared as soon as practicable after the end of the preceding year, as well as before the end of that year (Schedule 1 (8));
