FORESTRY (STATE FOREST REVOCATION) BILL, 1978

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) with respect to certain land forming part of the Richmond Range National Forest—
 - (i) to revoke the dedication as State forest of that land (clause 3); and
 - (ii) to vest that land in the Water Resources Commission (clause 4);
 - (b) with respect to certain land forming part of the Orara National Forest—
 - (i) to revoke the dedication as State forest of that land (clause 3);
 - (ii) to provide that that land shall, on the revocation of the dedication, be Crown lands (clause 5 (1)); and
 - (iii) to convert certain permits granted under the Forestry Act, 1916, in respect of that land into permissive occupancies under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913 (clause 5 (2)); and
 - (c) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary character.

(5) In any case where the Commission is satisfied that the applicant is a person of good character and that the proposed business is a bona fide business, the Commission may, in its discretion, grant a license to the applicant.

It is the policy of the Commission to issue licenses to persons who are of good character and who are engaged in a bona fide business. The Commission may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a license to any person who is not of good character or who is not engaged in a bona fide business.

The Commission may, in its discretion, suspend or revoke a license issued to any person who is found to be engaged in an illegal business or who is found to be a person of bad character.

The Commission may, in its discretion, impose such conditions as it may deem fit on any license issued to any person.

The Commission may, in its discretion, require any person holding a license to furnish such information as it may deem fit.

The Commission may, in its discretion, require any person holding a license to pay such fees as it may deem fit.

ENACTED AT THE SENATE CHAMBERS, WASHINGTON, D. C., THIS 15TH DAY OF MARCH, 1934.
