ACT, 1906 —continued.

(2) Section 4AA—

After section 4, insert :—

4AA. (1) In this section, “market” means—

Market
indorsements.

(a) any market provided, maintained, controlled or managed by the Sydney Farm Produce Market Authority or by a council within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1919, but only on such days or dates and during such hours as that Authority or the council permits second-hand goods to be bought and sold thereat; or

(b) any other place declared to be a market by order under subsection (2), but only on such days or dates and during such hours as are specified in the order in relation to the place.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare any place described in the order to be a market on such days or dates and during such hours as are specified in the order in relation to the place.

(3) An application for a market indorsement may be made only—

(a) by a person—

(i) making application for a second-hand dealer's license; or

ACT, 1906—continued.

- (ii) holding a second-hand dealer's license issued to him and in force at the time the application is made;
- (b) in the prescribed manner; and
- (c) if accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(4) An application under this section may be made in respect of one market only, but more than one market indorsement may be made on a second-hand dealer's license.

(5) As soon as practicable after an application under this section has been made, the clerk of the court at which it was made shall refer a copy of the application to the senior officer of police for the police district in which is situated the market in respect of which the application was made, for the purpose of enabling that officer to make a report on the application.

(6) An application under this section may be granted—

- (a) where a report referred to in subsection (5) contains no objection to the making of the market indorsement or one month has elapsed since the copy of the application was referred to the senior officer of police in accordance with subsection (5) and no report has been made to the clerk by that officer—by the clerk of the court at which the application was made; or
- (b) in any other case—by the court at which the application was made,

and may be granted subject to conditions.
