

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (REINSTATEMENT AWARDS)
AMENDMENT BILL, 1978 (No. 2)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to clarify the powers of industrial tribunals constituted under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, so as to ensure that they may make an award directing the reinstatement of a dismissed employee and reimbursement of the whole or any part of his lost wages or direct an employer not to dismiss an employee and, in any such award, include such provisions determining any dispute or question with respect to the promotion or regression of the employee, on such terms and conditions, as they think fit;
 - (b) to give an employee who has the means to redress his dismissal or proposed dismissal under another Act the choice of proceeding under that other Act or the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940; and
 - (c) to make other provisions of a minor or consequential nature.
