

REGISTERED CLUBS (LIQUOR) AMENDMENT BILL, 1979

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Liquor (Amendment) Bill, 1979.

The object of this Bill is to enable the licensing magistrates, when reassessing a license fee which has previously been assessed on incorrect information which the secretary of the registered club furnishing the information knew or ought to have known to be incorrect or which he made with reckless indifference as to whether it was correct or incorrect, to impose a penalty not exceeding the difference between the original fee and the reassessed fee.
