

STAMP DUTIES (FURTHER AMENDMENT) BILL, 1980

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The Companies (Death Duties) Amendment Bill, 1980, is cognate with this Bill.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide for the abolition of death duty payable or chargeable under the Stamp Duties Act, 1920 ("the Act") (Schedule 1);
- (b) to abolish Sixth Schedule rates of duty under the Act (Schedule 2 (1), (2) (a), (b), (d)-(f) and (3));
- (c) to enable certain instruments to which certain societies or institutions of a charitable or benevolent nature are parties to be exempt from payment of duty under the Act (Schedule 2 (2) (c) and (g));
- (d) to prevent a scheme for the avoidance of duty on conveyances of property by—
  - (a) removing the exemption from payment of duty under the Act granted to a transfer or conveyance by way of mortgage of land under the Real Property Act, 1900 (Schedule 3 (3));
  - (b) providing that such a transfer or conveyance is not a mortgage (and consequentially not a loan security) for the purposes of the Act (Schedule 3 (2)); and
  - (c) providing that such a transfer or conveyance is liable to duty as a conveyance of land on a sale but that, where the mortgagee reconveys the land to the mortgagor, the transfer or conveyance is liable to duty as a loan security and a refund of duty shall be made (Schedule 3 (1)); and
- (e) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

SCHEDULE 3.

Sec. 4.

AMENDMENTS TO THE STAMP DUTIES ACT, 1920, RELATING TO CONVEYANCES BY WAY OF MORTGAGE.

(1) Section 66D—

After section 66C, insert :—

66D. (1) A transfer or conveyance by way of mortgage of land, or an estate or interest in land, under the Real Property Act, 1900, is to be charged with ad valorem duty on the unencumbered value of the land, or the estate or interest, as the case may require, ascertained in accordance with section 68.

Transfer or conveyance
of certain land by way of mortgage.

(2) The rate of ad valorem duty to be charged in respect of a transfer or conveyance referred to in subsection (1) of this section is the rate provided in the Second Schedule to this Act for a conveyance of land on a sale for a consideration in money or money's worth of not less than the unencumbered value of the land as if the unencumbered value of the land, or the estate or interest, as the case may require, ascertained in accordance with section 68 were the amount of the consideration.

(3) The duty payable in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section is payable by the parties to the transfer or conveyance or any one of them.

(4) Where the Commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) that there has been a transfer or conveyance by way of mortgage of land, or an estate or interest in land, under the Real Property Act, 1900, from a mortgagor to a mortgagee;

SCHEDULE 3—*continued.*AMENDMENTS TO THE STAMP DUTIES ACT, 1920, RELATING TO

- (b) that duty has been paid in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section on the transfer or conveyance; and

- (c) that the land, or the estate or interest, as the case may require, has been retransferred or reconveyed to the mortgagor or to a person to whom the land, estate or interest has been transmitted by death or bankruptcy and the mortgagor or person, as the case may require, is the registered proprietor, within the meaning of the Real Property Act, 1900, of the land, estate or interest, the Commissioner shall refund the ad valorem duty paid on the transfer or conveyance by way of mortgage less the amount of duty that would have been payable on that transfer or conveyance if it were a loan security.

(2) Section 83 (1), definition of "Mortgage"—

Omit "debentures.", insert instead :—

debentures,

but, notwithstanding the meaning of that expression in section 3 (1) of this Act, does not include a transfer or conveyance by way of mortgage of land, or an estate or interest in land, under the Real Property Act, 1900.
