

STOCK DISEASES (SWINE BRANDING) AMENDMENT BILL, 1981

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The Swine Compensation (Swine Branding) Amendment Bill, 1981, is cognate with this Bill.

The objects of this Bill are to amend the Stock Diseases Act, 1923 ("the Act"), so as to—

- (a) provide for the appointment under the Act of a registrar and deputy registrars who will be responsible for the allotment of particulars of identification required to be used on tags attached to cattle and brands impressed upon swine for the purposes of the Act (Schedule 1 (2));
- (b) require that, on and from a date to be proclaimed, a person who sells swine or sends or delivers swine to an abattoir for slaughter or to a saleyard or any other place for sale must ensure that the swine are identified by a brand comprised of particulars specified in a certificate of registration issued under the Act to the owner of the swine (Schedule 1 (3) and Schedule 2 (1) (a)–(c) and (2) (c));
- (c) except—
 - (i) owners of swine who hold and comply with the conditions of licenses to be granted under section 19B of the Act, as amended by the proposed Act; and
 - (ii) any persons exempted by the regulations made under the Act, from the requirement referred to in paragraph (b) (Schedule 2 (1) (f));
- (d) empower the issue of licenses referred to in paragraph (c) by an officer specified in regulations made under the Act (Schedule 1 (4));
- (e) create an offence if—
 - (i) swine are branded with particulars of identification allotted under the Act, as amended by the proposed Act, to be used as a brand on swine and those particulars have not been allotted to the owner of the swine; or

(ii) use of the branding iron or other device by which swine are branded with particulars so allotted results in the swine being branded with other particulars

(Schedule 2 (2) (e));

- (f) provide for the allotment and registration of particulars of identification to be used as a brand on swine (Schedule 1 (5) (c));
- (g) provide for the cancellation or amendment of particulars of identification to be used as a brand on swine (Schedule 1 (6));
- (h) require renewal, for successive periods, of the registration of particulars of identification allotted under the Act, if they are to continue to be used as a brand on swine (Schedule 1 (6) (b));
- (i) require any manufacturer of branding irons or other devices intended for use in identifying swine in pursuance of Division 6 of Part IV of the Act to be authorised by the Minister and that orders for any such branding irons or other devices be certified by prescribed officers (Schedule 1 (8));
- (j) ensure that records are kept of swine which are not identified in the manner required under the Act and which are slaughtered at abattoirs (Schedule 2 (3));
- (k) expand the power to make regulations under the Act for the purpose of facilitating the tracing of the movement of diseased swine by requiring the giving of certain notices under those regulations (Schedule 1 (10) (a) and (b));
- (l) state that compensation for certain stock or property that is destroyed and for stock certified to have died from a special disease, within the meaning of the Act, shall not be payable by the Crown, unless it is compensation payable under the Act (Schedule 3 (10)); and
- (m) increase the maximum monetary penalties that may be imposed for a breach or continuing breach of the regulations made under the Act to $1,000, and $100 per day, respectively (Schedule 3 (17)).

The proposed Act also contains provisions—

- (a) dividing the Stock Diseases Act, 1923, into Parts;
 - (b) for the repeal of the Swine Branding Act, 1940; and
 - (c) of a minor, consequential, saving or transitional nature.

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

Interpretation: Sch. 5.

1. In this Schedule, "the commencement" means the commencement of Schedule 1.

Saving of certain proclamations, licenses and applications.

2. (1) Any proclamation applying the provisions of section 19A of the Principal Act to a kind of stock that was—

- (a) published in the Gazette pursuant to section 19A (2) of that Act; and
- (b) in force immediately before the commencement, shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be a proclamation published under section 19A (2) of that Act, as amended by this Act, applying the provisions of section 19A of that Act, as so amended, to the class of stock specified in the proclamation.

(2) A license granted under section 19B (1) of the Principal Act, being a license in force immediately before the commencement, shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be a license granted under section 19B (1) of that Act, as amended by this Act.

(3) Any application made under section 19D (1) of the Principal Act which has not been finally disposed of before the commencement shall be deemed to be an application made under section 19D (1) of that Act, as amended by this Act.

Stock Diseases (Swine Branding) Amendment.

Savings of certain certificates, etc.

3. (1) Any—

- (a) certificate or new certificate issued under section 19D (2) or 19E (3) (b) of the Principal Act, being a certificate that was in force immediately before the commencement; or
- (b) particulars of identification or amended particulars of identification specified in any such certificate, shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be respectively a certificate specifying particulars of identification allotted for use on tags or particulars of identification for use on tags issued or allotted under section 19D of that Act, as amended by this Act.

(2) Any—

- (a) certificate of registration of a brand issued; or
- (b) brand allotted,

under section 7 of the Swine Branding Act, 1940, after 27th February, 1980, and before the commencement shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be respectively a certificate specifying particulars of identification allotted for use as a brand on swine or particulars of identification for use as a brand on swine issued or allotted under section 19D of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, but only if the brand was registered under the Swine Branding Act, 1940, immediately before the commencement.

(3) Any particulars of identification allotted under section 19EA (1) of the Principal Act before the commencement shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be allotted under section 19EA (1) of that Act, as amended by this Act.

Saving of certain authorisations.

4. Any written authorisation issued before the commencement by the Registrar within the meaning of the Swine Branding Act, 1940, being an authorisation—

- (a) that had not been revoked by him before the commencement; and
- (b) that purported to authorise its holder to manufacture—
 - (i) branding irons or other devices intended for impressing brands allotted under section 7 of that Act; and
 - (ii) spare numbers designed to be fitted thereto,

Stock Diseases (Swine Branding) Amendment.

shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be an authority issued by the Minister under section 19F (1) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, to manufacture branding irons or other devices intended for use in identifying swine with particulars of identification allotted under section 19D of that Act, as so amended, and spare numbers designed to be fitted thereto.

Saving of certain orders.

5. Any order—

- (a) that was, after 27th February, 1980, and before the commencement, signed by a person who had, during that period, been allotted a brand under section 7 of the Swine Branding Act, 1940;
- (b) that requested the manufacture, by the holder of an authorisation referred to in clause 4 issued by the Registrar for the purposes of that Act, of—
 - (i) a branding iron or other device intended for use in identifying swine with the brand so allotted; or
 - (ii) any spare numbers designed to be fitted thereto; and
- (c) that had not been complied with before the commencement, shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be an order that complies with the requirements prescribed with respect to orders by section 19F (1) (a) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

Saving of certain approvals.

6. Any person who was, immediately before the commencement, approved under section 19F (1) (a) of the Principal Act by the Chief, Division of Animal Health, Department of Agriculture, shall, on the commencement, be deemed to be approved by a prescribed officer under section 19F (1) (a) of that Act, as amended by this Act.

Transitional provisions.

7. (1) Where, on or after the commencement and before the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4), a person is the holder of a certificate issued to him under section 19D of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, being a certificate that specifies particulars of identification allotted for use as a brand on swine and that is in force—

- (a) the particulars of identification specified in the certificate shall be deemed to be a brand allotted and registered under section 7 of the Swine Branding Act, 1940; and

- (b) the person shall be deemed to be the proprietor, within the meaning of that Act, of that brand.

(2) Nothing in subclause (1) prevents a certificate referred to in that subclause from being treated as a certificate issued under section 19D of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, for the purposes of that Act, as so amended, during the period referred to in that subclause.

Further transitional provision and saving.

8. (1) On and from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4)—

- (a) any certificate of registration of a brand issued; or
 (b) any brand allotted,

under section 7 of the Swine Branding Act, 1940, on or before 27th February, 1980, shall (if the brand was registered under that Act immediately before the day so appointed and notified) be deemed to be respectively a certificate specifying particulars of identification allotted for use as a brand on swine or particulars of identification for use as a brand on swine issued or allotted under section 19D of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, until—

- (c) the expiration of 6 months after the day so appointed and notified;
 or
 (d) the certificate or the certificate specifying those particulars, as the case may require, is cancelled under section 19E of the Principal Act, as so amended, whichever first occurs.

(2) Any license issued under section 6 of the Swine Branding Act, 1940, before the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4) shall, on and from that day but subject to section 19B (2) (b) and (c) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, be deemed to be a license granted under section 19B (1) of that Act, as so amended.

Saving relating to certain penalties.

9. Notwithstanding section 23 of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, a person who, on or after the date of assent to this Act, is found guilty of a breach of the regulations made under the Principal Act which occurred before that date shall not be liable to any greater penalty than that to which he would have been liable if he had been found guilty of the breach immediately after he committed it.

Stock Diseases (Swine Branding) Amendment.

Saving relating to certain references.

10. Where the Swine Branding Act, 1940, an instrument made under that Act or any provision of that Act or of any such instrument is referred to in any other Act or any instrument made under any other Act, the reference shall, on and from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4), extend to the Principal Act, as in force for the time being, to any corresponding instrument made under that Act, as so in force, or to any corresponding provision of that Act or of an instrument made under that Act, as so in force.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

J. A. ROWLAND,
Governor.
