ANATOMY (HUMAN TISSUE) AMENDMENT BILL, 1983

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Human Tissue Bill, 1983.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Anatomy Act, 1977, so as—

- (a) to make the provisions of that Act relating to the authorisation of anatomical examinations of the bodies of deceased persons similar to those of the proposed Human Tissue Act, 1983, relating to the authorisation of post-mortem examinations of those bodies; and
 - (b) to provide that the penalties imposed by that Act are equivalent to those imposed by the proposed Human Tissue Act, 1983.

(g) Section 4 (2)—

At the end of section 4, insert:—

- 5 (2) In this Act—
- (a) a reference to a parent of a person includes a reference to a step-parent or adoptive parent of the person;
- 10 (b) a reference to a son or daughter of a person includes a reference to any person of whom the person is a parent;
- (c) a reference to a brother or sister of a person includes a reference to any person who is a son or daughter of a parent of the person; and
- 15 (d) a reference to a spouse of a person is a reference to a person to whom the person is married.

(2) Section 5 (b)—

Omit the paragraph, insert instead:—

- (b) made or to be made pursuant to an authority under Part V of the Human Tissue Act, 1983.

20 (3) Sections 8–8c—

Omit section 8, insert instead:—

Authority for anatomical examination where body of deceased at a hospital.

- 25 8. (1) Where it appears to a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances in relation to a person who has died in the hospital or whose body has been brought into the hospital, that the person—
- 30 (a) had, during that person's lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, the anatomical examination of that person's body after that person's death; and

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

5 (b) had not withdrawn the wish or revoked the consent, the designated officer may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of that person's body.

(2) Where it appears to a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances in relation to a person who has died in the hospital or whose body has been brought into the hospital, that—

10 (a) the designated officer is not authorised by subsection (1) to give an authority in respect of the person;

(b) the person had not, during the person's lifetime, expressed an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body; and

15 (c) a senior available next of kin of the person has not objected to the anatomical examination of the person's body,

the designated officer may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

20 (3) Where a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances (which shall include inquiries addressed to the Commissioner of Police), is unable to ascertain the existence or whereabouts of a next of kin of a deceased person, subsection (2) applies as if paragraph (c) of that subsection were omitted.

25 (4) Where, in relation to a deceased person—

(a) a next of kin of the person indicated to a designated officer for a hospital, when the person was unconscious before death, that the next of kin had no objection to the anatomical examination, after the person's death, of the person's body;

30 (b) the person did not subsequently recover consciousness before dying; and

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

5 (c) the next of kin has not subsequently indicated to the designated officer that the next of kin objects to the anatomical examination of the person's body, the designated officer may, for the purposes of any inquiry the designated officer is required to make by subsection (2), rely on that indication without further inquiry of that next of kin.

10 (5) Where there are 2 or more persons having a description referred to in a subparagraph of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "senior available next of kin" in section 4 (1), an objection by any one of those persons has effect for the purposes of subsection (2) (c) notwithstanding any indication to the contrary by the other or any other of those persons.

15 Authority for anatomical examination where body of deceased not at a hospital.

8A. (1) Where—

- 20 (a) the body of a deceased person (other than a deceased child) is at a place other than a hospital;
- (b) the deceased person had, during the person's lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, the anatomical examination, after the person's death, of that person's body; and

25 (c) the wish had not been withdrawn or the consent revoked, the anatomical examination of that person's body is hereby authorised.

30 (2) Where the body of a deceased person is at a place other than a hospital, a senior available next of kin of the person may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

5 (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where it appears to a senior available next of kin of a deceased person, after making such inquiries (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances, that—

(a) the person had, during the person's lifetime, expressed an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body and had not withdrawn that objection; or

10 (b) another next of kin of the same or a higher order of the classes in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "senior available next of kin" in section 4 (1) has an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body, the senior available next of kin shall not authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

15 Penalty for an offence against this subsection: $1,000.

Consent by coroner.

8B. (1) This section applies to a person in respect of whose death a coroner has jurisdiction to hold an inquest under the Coroners Act, 1980.

20 (2) A designated officer for a hospital or a senior available next of kin shall not authorise the anatomical examination of the body of a person to whom this section applies unless a coroner has given consent to the examination.

Penalty: $4,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

25 (3) Section 8A (1) does not apply in relation to a person to whom this section applies unless a coroner has given consent to the anatomical examination of the person's body.

30 (4) A consent by a coroner under this section may be expressed to be subject to such conditions as are specified in the consent.

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

(5) A consent by a coroner under this section may be given orally and, if so given, shall be confirmed in the prescribed manner.

- 5 (6) A coroner shall, in determining the conditions (if any) to which a consent shall be subject, have regard only to the effect which the conduct of an anatomical examination of the body of the person to whom the consent relates may have in relation to the 10 conduct of any inquest which a coroner has jurisdiction to hold in respect of that person's death.

Effect of authority.

8C. (1) An authority under section 8 or 8A is sufficient authority for a person who has lawful possession of a body to permit the body to be used for anatomical examination by the holder of a licence.

- 15 (2) For the purposes of this section, a person does not have lawful possession of a body if that person is a funeral director or other person entrusted with the body for the purposes only of its disposal.

(4) (a) Section 9 (a)—

- 20 Omit "has been permitted to do so in accordance with section 8", insert instead "is permitted to use the body for anatomical examination pursuant to section 8C (1)".

(b) Section 9—

At the end of the section, insert:—

- 25 Penalty: $4,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

(5) (a) Section 10 (1)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

Penalty: $1,000.

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

SCHEDULE 1—continued.

(b) Section 10 (2)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

5 Penalty: $1,000.

(6) (a) Section 11 (1)—

Omit “surviving spouse of the deceased or, if there is no surviving spouse, the nearest surviving relative”, insert instead “senior available next of kin”.

10 (b) Section 11 (2)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

Penalty: $1,000.

(c) Section 11 (3)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

15 Penalty for an offence against this subsection: $1,000.

(7) (a) Section 12 (1)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

Penalty: $1,000.

(2) Section 5 (b)—

Omit the paragraph, insert instead:—

- (b) made or to be made pursuant to an authority under Part V of the Human Tissue Act, 1983.

(3) Sections 8–8C—

Omit section 8, insert instead:—

Authority for anatomical examination where body of deceased at a hospital.

8. (1) Where it appears to a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances in relation to a person who has died in the hospital or whose body has been brought into the hospital, that the person—

- (a) had, during that person's lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, the anatomical examination of that person's body after that person's death; and

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

(b) had not withdrawn the wish or revoked the consent, the designated officer may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of that person's body.

(2) Where it appears to a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances in relation to a person who has died in the hospital or whose body has been brought into the hospital, that—

- (a) the designated officer is not authorised by subsection (1) to give an authority in respect of the person;
- (b) the person had not, during the person's lifetime, expressed an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body; and
- (c) a senior available next of kin of the person has not objected to the anatomical examination of the person's body, the designated officer may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

(3) Where a designated officer for a hospital, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances (which shall include inquiries addressed to the Commissioner of Police), is unable to ascertain the existence or whereabouts of a next of kin of a deceased person, subsection (2) applies as if paragraph (c) of that subsection were omitted.

(4) Where, in relation to a deceased person—

- (a) a next of kin of the person indicated to a designated officer for a hospital, when the person was unconscious before death, that the next of kin had no objection to the anatomical examination, after the person's death, of the person's body;
- (b) the person did not subsequently recover consciousness before dying; and

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

- (c) the next of kin has not subsequently indicated to the designated officer that the next of kin objects to the anatomical examination of the person's body, the designated officer may, for the purposes of any inquiry the designated officer is required to make by subsection (2), rely on that indication without further inquiry of that next of kin.

(5) Where there are 2 or more persons having a description referred to in a subparagraph of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "senior available next of kin" in section 4 (1), an objection by any one of those persons has effect for the purposes of subsection (2) (c) notwithstanding any indication to the contrary by the other or any other of those persons.

Authority for anatomical examination where body of deceased not at a hospital.

8A. (1) Where—

- (a) the body of a deceased person (other than a deceased child) is at a place other than a hospital;
- (b) the deceased person had, during the person's lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, the anatomical examination, after the person's death, of that person's body; and

(c) the wish had not been withdrawn or the consent revoked, the anatomical examination of that person's body is hereby authorised.

(2) Where the body of a deceased person is at a place other than a hospital, a senior available next of kin of the person may, by instrument in writing, authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where it appears to a senior available next of kin of a deceased person, after making such inquiries (if any) as are reasonable in the circumstances, that—

- (a) the person had, during the person's lifetime, expressed an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body and had not withdrawn that objection; or
- (b) another next of kin of the same or a higher order of the classes in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "senior available next of kin" in section 4 (1) has an objection to the anatomical examination of the person's body,

the senior available next of kin shall not authorise the anatomical examination of the person's body.

Penalty for an offence against this subsection: $1,000.

Consent by coroner.

8B. (1) This section applies to a person in respect of whose death a coroner has jurisdiction to hold an inquest under the Coroners Act, 1980.

(2) A designated officer for a hospital or a senior available next of kin shall not authorise the anatomical examination of the body of a person to whom this section applies unless a coroner has given consent to the examination.

Penalty: $4,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

(3) Section 8A (1) does not apply in relation to a person to whom this section applies unless a coroner has given consent to the anatomical examination of the person's body.

(4) A consent by a coroner under this section may be expressed to be subject to such conditions as are specified in the consent.

Anatomy (Human Tissue) Amendment.

(5) A consent by a coroner under this section may be given orally and, if so given, shall be confirmed in the prescribed manner.

(6) A coroner shall, in determining the conditions (if any) to which a consent shall be subject, have regard only to the effect which the conduct of an anatomical examination of the body of the person to whom the consent relates may have in relation to the conduct of any inquest which a coroner has jurisdiction to hold in respect of that person's death.

Effect of authority.

8c. (1) An authority under section 8 or 8A is sufficient authority for a person who has lawful possession of a body to permit the body to be used for anatomical examination by the holder of a licence.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person does not have lawful possession of a body if that person is a funeral director or other person entrusted with the body for the purposes only of its disposal.

(4) (a) Section 9 (a)—

Omit "has been permitted to do so in accordance with section 8", insert instead "is permitted to use the body for anatomical examination pursuant to section 8c (1)".

(b) Section 9—

At the end of the section, insert:—

Penalty: $4,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

(5) (a) Section 10 (1)—

At the end of the subsection, insert:—

Penalty: $1,000.
