BILLS OF SALE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1984

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Conveyancing (Amendment) Bill, 1984.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Bills of Sale Act of 1898 so as to remove from section 16 a reference to bank holidays, thereby (subject to regulations) enabling the office of the Registrar-General to be open for business on bank holidays for the purpose of the lodging, filing or recording of bills of sale.

Section 5 of the Registration of Deeds Act, 1897, contains a similar reference. That Act is proposed to be repealed by the Conveyancing (Amendment) Bill, 1984, and that section is not proposed to be re-enacted.
