(Sec. 6.)

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

Interpretation.

- 5 1. In this Schedule "appointed day" means the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2) of the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981.

Continuation of mining.

2. (1) Where an authorisation to mine was in force under the Principal Act immediately before the appointed day, the provisions of the Principal Act (sections 10 25 (7)-(12), 26 (2), (3), (5) and (11) and 103 (3) excepted) have effect in relation thereto as if this Act had not been enacted and as if the Principal Act had been amended by omitting section 26 (1) and by inserting instead the following subsection:—

- 15 (1) The Minister may, by instrument in writing served on the registered holder of an authorisation to mine, cancel the authorisation for any reason that to him seems sufficient.

(2) An authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1) continues in force on and after the appointed day until—

- (a) the authorisation is cancelled; or 20 (b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the authorisation relates,
whichever first occurs.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of the Principal Act or an authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1), the authorisation relates to the actual coal to which it would have related if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted.

- 25 (4) A person who, immediately before the appointed day, had a right to mine coal otherwise than pursuant to an authorisation to mine in force under the Principal Act or a coal lease so in force may, subject to the conditions imposed by the Minister, continue on and after that day to mine the coal to which, if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted, the right would have related and may so continue until—

- 30 (a) the Minister otherwise directs by instrument in writing served on that person; or
(b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the rights conferred by this subclause relate,
whichever first occurs.

(5) The provisions of sections 103 (1) and (2) and 104 of the Principal Act apply to and in respect of—

- 3 (a) an authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1); and
 (b) the right to mine coal conferred by subclause (4),

in the same way as they apply to and in respect of a concession, and they so apply in the case of the right referred to in paragraph (b) as if the reference in section 103 (2) of the Principal Act to the registered holder of a concession were a reference to the 10 person in whom the right so referred to is for the time being vested.

(6) For the purposes of subclause (4), the Minister—

- (a) shall be deemed to have imposed the conditions specified in Schedule 3;
 and
 15 (b) may, by order published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 3 by varying, adding to or revoking the conditions specified therein or any of them.

(7) The Minister may, by order in writing served on a person having a right to mine coal pursuant to subclause (4), impose conditions for the purposes of that subclause.

20 (8) Without prejudice to the generality of subclause (7), an order under that subclause may impose a condition by reference to a provision in any lease, agreement or other instrument pursuant to which the person required by subclause (4) to comply with the condition had a right to mine coal immediately before the appointed day, or by reference to all such provisions other than specified provisions.

25 (9) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for a contravention of section 130 (1) (b) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if it is proved that the mining for coal to which the prosecution relates was carried on pursuant to this clause.

Application of Principal Act, as amended.

30 3. The provisions of sections 70, 74A, 74B, 75 (subsections (4)–(7), (9) and (10) excepted), 76, 77 (1) (b), (7) and (9)–(12), 77B, 78, 81, 82, 120, 121, 123, 124, 132, 133, 134 and 134A of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, and of any other provisions of the Principal Act, as so amended, prescribed for the purposes of this clause apply to and in respect of mining carried on pursuant to clause 2, and to and in respect of the person so carrying on mining, in the same way as they apply to and in respect of mining carried on pursuant to a coal lease and to and in respect of the registered holder of the coal lease and they so apply as if—

Coal Mining (Amendment).

- (a) the conditions subject to which the mining is carried on were the terms and conditions of the coal lease; and
- (b) the coal being mined pursuant to clause 2 were the coal to which the coal lease relates.

10 Certain payments to cease.

4. (1) To the extent to which any lease, agreement or other instrument in force immediately before the appointed day provided for the payment of rent or royalty in respect of coal other than coal vested in or reserved to the Crown, the lease, agreement or other instrument ceases on and from that day to have any force or effect.

15 (2) Except to the extent provided by subclause (1), a lease, agreement or other instrument referred to in that subclause continues in force on and after the appointed day until—

- (a) the Minister, by instrument in writing served on the parties to the lease, agreement or other instrument otherwise directs; or
- 20 (b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the lease or other instrument would have related if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted,

whichever first occurs.

Certain moneys to be paid.

25 5. Notwithstanding the amendment by this Act of section 128 of the Principal Act, moneys that, immediately before the appointed day, were held in the account referred to in that section that, but for that amendment, would have been payable to a person other than the Crown remain so payable on and after the appointed day.

Regulations.

30 6. (1) The Governor may make regulations—

- (a) prescribing provisions of the Principal Act for the purposes of clause 3; or

Coal Mining (Amendment).

(b) containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, or this Act.

5 (2) To the extent to which a regulation made under subclause (1) so provides, the regulation has effect notwithstanding any other provision of this Schedule.

Interpretation Act, 1897.

7. Nothing in this Schedule affects any saving made by the Interpretation Act, 1897.

SCHEDULE 3.

(Sch. 2, cl. 2 (6).)

CONDITIONS FOR CONTINUATION OF MINING.

1. This Schedule applies to a person upon whom a right to mine coal has been conferred by clause 2 (4) of Schedule 2.

15 2. A person to whom this Schedule applies shall at all times keep and preserve from avoidable injury or damage any mine or seam to which the right applies.

3. Where coal is not immediately saleable, a person to whom this Schedule applies shall not—

20 (a) without the consent of the Minister, store or dispose of the coal in a manner, or at a location, prohibited by order made by the Minister for the purposes of this clause and published in the Gazette; or

(b) store or dispose of the coal in a manner, or at a location, prohibited by order in writing made by the Minister and served on that person.

BY AUTHORITY

D. WEST, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, NEW SOUTH WALES—1981

(a) The Commission shall have the honor to inform you that the Commission has received your letter of the 12th day of July, 1951, regarding the matter mentioned in the subject line of the letter. (Sec. 6.)

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

Interpretation.

1. In this Schedule "appointed day" means the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2) of the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981.

Continuation of mining.

2. (1) Where an authorisation to mine was in force under the Principal Act immediately before the appointed day, the provisions of the Principal Act (sections 25 (7)-(12), 26 (2), (3), (5) and (11) and 103 (3) excepted) have effect in relation thereto as if this Act had not been enacted and as if the Principal Act had been amended by omitting section 26 (1) and by inserting instead the following subsection:—

(1) The Minister may, by instrument in writing served on the registered holder of an authorisation to mine, cancel the authorisation for any reason that to him seems sufficient.

(2) An authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1) continues in force on and after the appointed day until—

(a) the authorisation is cancelled; or

(b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the authorisation relates,

whichever first occurs.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of the Principal Act or an authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1), the authorisation relates to the actual coal to which it would have related if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted.

(4) A person who, immediately before the appointed day, had a right to mine coal otherwise than pursuant to an authorisation to mine in force under the Principal Act or a coal lease so in force may, subject to the conditions imposed by the Minister, continue on and after that day to mine the coal to which, if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted, the right would have related and may so continue until—

(a) the Minister otherwise directs by instrument in writing served on that person; or

(b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the rights conferred by this subclause relate,

whichever first occurs.

Coal Mining (Amendment).

(5) The provisions of sections 103 (1) and (2) and 104 of the Principal Act apply to and in respect of—

- (a) an authorisation to mine firstly referred to in subclause (1); and
- (b) the right to mine coal conferred by subclause (4),

in the same way as they apply to and in respect of a concession, and they so apply in the case of the right referred to in paragraph (b) as if the reference in section 103 (2) of the Principal Act to the registered holder of a concession were a reference to the person in whom the right so referred to is for the time being vested.

(6) For the purposes of subclause (4), the Minister—

- (a) shall be deemed to have imposed the conditions specified in Schedule 3; and
- (b) may, by order published in the Gazette, amend Schedule 3 by varying, adding to or revoking the conditions specified therein or any of them.

(7) The Minister may, by order in writing served on a person having a right to mine coal pursuant to subclause (4), impose conditions for the purposes of that subclause.

(8) Without prejudice to the generality of subclause (7), an order under that subclause may impose a condition by reference to a provision in any lease, agreement or other instrument pursuant to which the person required by subclause (4) to comply with the condition had a right to mine coal immediately before the appointed day, or by reference to all such provisions other than specified provisions.

(9) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for a contravention of section 130 (1) (b) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if it is proved that the mining for coal to which the prosecution relates was carried on pursuant to this clause.

Application of Principal Act, as amended.

3. The provisions of sections 70, 74A, 74B, 75 (subsections (4)–(7), (9) and (10) excepted), 76, 77 (1) (b), (7) and (9)–(12), 77B, 78, 81, 82, 120, 121, 123, 124, 132, 133, 134 and 134A of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, and of any other provisions of the Principal Act, as so amended, prescribed for the purposes of this clause apply to and in respect of mining carried on pursuant to clause 2, and to and in respect of the person so carrying on mining, in the same way as they apply to and in respect of mining carried on pursuant to a coal lease and to and in respect of the registered holder of the coal lease and they so apply as if—

Coal Mining (Amendment).

- (a) the conditions subject to which the mining is carried on were the terms and conditions of the coal lease; and
- (b) the coal being mined pursuant to clause 2 were the coal to which the coal lease relates.

Certain payments to cease.

4. (1) To the extent to which any lease, agreement or other instrument in force immediately before the appointed day provided for the payment of rent or royalty in respect of coal other than coal vested in or reserved to the Crown, the lease, agreement or other instrument ceases on and from that day to have any force or effect.

(2) Except to the extent provided by subclause (1), a lease, agreement or other instrument referred to in that subclause continues in force on and after the appointed day until—

- (a) the Minister, by instrument in writing served on the parties to the lease, agreement or other instrument otherwise directs; or
- (b) a coal lease is granted in respect of the coal to which the lease or other instrument would have related if the Coal Acquisition Act, 1981, had not been enacted,

whichever first occurs.

Certain moneys to be paid.

5. Notwithstanding the amendment by this Act of section 128 of the Principal Act, moneys that, immediately before the appointed day, were held in the account referred to in that section that, but for that amendment, would have been payable to a person other than the Crown remain so payable on and after the appointed day.

Regulations.
