ENERGY AUTHORITY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1982

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Gas and Electricity (Amendment) Bill, 1982.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to enable the Energy Authority of New South Wales to acquire and hold shares in companies having objects relating to the development and provision of energy or energy resources (Schedule 1);
 - (b) to provide for the appointment of and to confer certain powers on inspectors during a proclaimed or declared state of emergency in the supply of a form of energy or energy resources (Schedule 2 (1) and (3));
 - (c) to extend the period during which the Governor may declare a state of emergency in relation to a form of energy or energy resources (other than gas or electricity) from 7 days to 28 days (Schedule 2 (2)); and
 - (d) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

Section 13A—

After section 13, insert:—

Purchase, etc., of certain shares.

10 13A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority may, on behalf of the Crown, negotiate and enter into agreements for the purposes of, or in connection with, the acquisition, holding, dealing with and disposal of shares in any company having (whether expressly or otherwise) among its objects the carrying out of investigations or research into or the locating, development, extraction, provision, transportation, distribution, conserva-

15 tion, utilisation, acquisition or disposal of energy or energy resources.

(2) An agreement may be entered into by the Authority under subsection (1) only with the approval of the Governor given on the recommendation of the Minister with the concurrence of the Treasurer, and may be executed, on behalf of the Authority, only by 2 or more

20 persons authorised for the purpose by the Governor on that recommendation and with that concurrence.

(3) The Authority may do all things authorised or required by an agreement entered into by it under subsection (1) to be done and all things incidental thereto, and may also do such things as are necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of carrying into effect and imple-

25 menting the terms of any such agreement.

(4) Without affecting the generality of subsection (3), the Authority may acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of shares in a company to which an agreement entered into by it under subsection (1)

30 relates, and may do all such things as are appropriate by reason of its being a holder of any such shares, including the appointment of any director or directors of any such company.

(5) Any appointment of a director as referred to in subsection (4) shall not be made except with the approval of the Minister and the 35 Treasurer.

Energy Authority (Amendment).

- 5 storage, transportation, distribution or utilisation of a form of energy or energy resource on, in or from the land or place;
and
- 10 (h) require the owner or occupier of any such land or place to provide him with such assistance and facilities as are reasonably necessary to enable him to exercise or perform his functions under this section.
- (3) The functions conferred or imposed under this section are in aid of and not in derogation from any other functions exercisable apart from this section.

Obstruction, etc., of inspectors.

- 15 36C. (1) A person shall not—
- (a) prevent an inspector from exercising or performing any function conferred or imposed on him under section 36B;
- (b) hinder or obstruct an inspector in the exercise or performance of any such function;
- 20 (c) refuse or fail to comply with any requirement or answer any question of an inspector under section 36B;
- (d) furnish an inspector with information knowing that it is false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (e) impersonate an inspector.
- 25 Penalty: $1,000.

- (2) It is a sufficient defence to a prosecution for an offence under subsection (1) (c) by reason of the failure of the defendant to answer a question of an inspector under section 36B if he proves that he did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence ascertain, 30 the answer to the question.

(Energy Authority (Amendment)).

AMENDMENTS TO THE EMERGENCY PROVISIONS OF THE

5 (3) A person is not excused from answering any question of an inspector under section 36B on the ground that the answer might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to a penalty but the information furnished by him shall not be admissible against him in any proceedings, civil or criminal, except in proceedings for an offence under subsection (1).

10 (4) Where an answer to a question of an inspector under section 36B or any information whatsoever is given to an inspector by an officer of a corporation within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1961, the answer and information are, for the purposes of any
15 proceedings against the corporation under any of the provisions of this Act, binding upon and admissible in evidence against the corporation unless it is proved that the answer or information was given in relation to a matter in respect of which the officer had no authority to bind the corporation.
