NEW SOUTH WALES RETIREMENT BENEFITS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1982

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The following Bills are cognate with this Bill:—

Electricity Commission (Superannuation) Amendment Bill, 1982;

Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Amendment Bill, 1982.

The object of this Bill is to amend the New South Wales Retirement Benefits Act, 1972 ("the Act")—

- (a) to provide that, where persons who were participants in another statutory superannuation scheme become contributors to the Fund established under the Act, the period of their participation in the other scheme may be reckoned as a period of service within the meaning of the Act, notwithstanding that they were not employed during that period by employers to whom the Act applies (Schedule 1 (1));
 - (b) to provide that certain ancillary staff in the Department of Education, being persons employed in more than one classification or at more than one school and whose ordinary weekly working hours total less than 30, shall, for the purposes of the Act, be considered to be employed on a part-time basis (Schedule 1 (2)); and
 - (c) by way of statute law revision (Schedule 2).
