

STAMP DUTIES (FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS DUTY) AMENDMENT BILL, 1983

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to amend the Stamp Duties Act, 1920 (“the Act”), to require, subject to certain exceptions, the payment of stamp duty as on a receipts return in respect of a receipt of a person which is not lodged or deposited, within 14 days after the receipt by the person of the receipt, with another person who is required to pay stamp duty as on a receipts return in respect of the receipt by him of the receipt (Schedule 1);
  - (b) to amend, as a consequence of the amendments to the Act referred to in paragraph (a), the grouping provisions in Division 29 of Part III of the Act to provide for the constitution of groups whether or not a member of the group is engaged in the business of the provision of finance (Schedule 2); and
  - (c) to increase the amount of a fine which may be imposed in respect of an offence relating to the passing on of certain duty, to make miscellaneous amendments to certain definitions and interpretative provisions contained in section 98 of the Act and to extend certain regulation making powers under the Act (Schedule 3).

5 (c) in the case of a person to whom paragraph (a) applies—the person; or

(d) in the case of a person to whom paragraph (b) applies—the person or any one or more of the members of the group of which the person is a member,

lodge or deposit the receipt—

10 (e) with a registered person who, in relation to that lodgement or deposit, is liable to pay stamp duty under this Division and who will include that lodgement or deposit in a receipts return required to be made out by the registered person;

15 (f) with a designated person who is not registered and who is not required to apply to the Commissioner for registration under this Division and who will lodge or deposit the receipt with a registered person who is liable to pay stamp duty under this Division and who will include that lodgement or deposit in 20 a receipts return required to be made out by the registered
person; or

(g) except in so far as the regulations may otherwise provide, to the credit of an exempt account in his name, the dutiable person shall, within 21 days after the end of—

- 5 (b) shall, in addition to such other matters as may be required to be specified in the form, specify—
- (i) the total amount of dutiable receipts, not being receipts referred to in subparagraph (ii); and
  - 10 (ii) the number of dutiable receipts, the amount of which was a single amount of not less than $1,000,000 (or, where some other amount is prescribed, the prescribed amount), received during the month or the longer period, as the case may be, to which the return relates, by the dutiable person;
- 15 (c) shall be duly stamped with duty of an amount equivalent to the amount of duty that would have been payable by a registered person as duty on a receipts return had the dutiable receipts been received by the registered person (and for that purpose, notwithstanding section 26, be deemed to be first executed at the time the return is made out); and
- 20 (d) shall be retained by the dutiable person for a period of 3 years after the return is made out.
- (3) This section does not apply to—
- 25 (a) a receipt of a person to the extent that it is for the sale of goods by the person, otherwise than under a credit contract, a hiring arrangement within the meaning of section 74D or a lease within the meaning of section 76;
  - (b) except in so far as the regulations may otherwise provide, a receipt of—
    - 30 (i) a religious or public benevolent institution, or a public hospital;
    - (ii) a hospital that is carried on by a society or association otherwise than for the purpose of profit or gain to the individual members of the society or association;

5 applies did not occur solely or substantially for the purpose of reducing or avoiding payment of stamp duty by any person under this Division;

(d) in the case of a dutiable person, being a member of a group, 10 who is not resident or domiciled in New South Wales or who is not carrying on business wholly or partly in New South Wales, a receipt received by any other member of the group, unless the dutiable person was involved directly or indirectly in any of the circumstances giving rise to the receipt of the receipt by the other member;

(e) a receipt prescribed for the purposes of this subsection; or 15 (f) a receipt prescribed for the purposes of this subsection in relation to a person prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

(4) A receipt shall be deemed to have been lodged or 20 deposited by a dutiable person with a registered person or designated person or to the credit of an exempt account as referred to in subsection (1) if it is lodged or deposited as so referred to within the period of 14 days so referred to by a member of the group of which the dutiable person is a member.

(5) A person who pays duty under section 98K or 98L in 25 respect of a dutiable receipt is not liable to pay duty under this section in respect of that receipt.

(6) Where a person who is a member of a group pays duty under this section in respect of a dutiable receipt, the liability of any 30 other person who is a member of the group to pay duty under this section in respect of that dutiable receipt shall be reduced to the extent to which that duty has been paid by the firstmentioned person.

(7) A person who fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding $5,000 together with 35 twice the amount of duty of which Her Majesty has been deprived by any such failure.

SCHEDULE 1—*continued.*AMENDMENT TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO THE PAYMENT OF

5 (8) It is a defence to a prosecution under this section if the defendant proves that he used all due diligence to determine, but was unable to determine, from information which he could reasonably be expected to acquire, whether a person with whom he lodged or deposited a receipt was or was not—

10 (a) a registered person to whom subsection (1) (e) applies and who was liable to pay stamp duty under this Division and would include the lodgement or deposit in a receipts return required to be made out by the registered person; or 15 (b) a designated person to whom subsection (1) (f) applies and who proposed to lodge or deposit the receipt with a registered person who was liable to pay stamp duty under this Division and would include the deposit in a receipts return required to be made out by the registered person.

20 (9) Without affecting the construction of any other provision of this Division, a reference in this section to a person who is a dutiable person and who is a member of a group is a reference to a person who is resident or domiciled in New South Wales, who carries on business wholly or partly in New South Wales, who enters into a transaction as a consequence of which he receives a receipt, a designated receipt or a dutiable receipt, who receives a receipt, a designated receipt or a dutiable receipt in New South Wales, who receives a receipt, a designated receipt or a dutiable receipt outside 25 New South Wales as a consequence of any act, matter or thing done by the person in New South Wales or who is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

30 (10) A reference in subsection (3) (b) to a statutory body does not include a reference to a company within the meaning of the Companies (New South Wales) Code.
