EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The following Bills are cognate with this Bill:—

Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Amendment Bill, 1983;

Building and Construction Industry Long Service Payments (Amendment) Bill, 1983;

New South Wales Retirement Benefits (Amendment) Bill, 1983.

The objects of this Bill are—

(a) to amend the Superannuation Act, 1916, so as—

- (i) to clarify the powers of the State Superannuation Board ("the Board") in certain respects, including its powers of investment;
- (ii) to reduce the employers' present liability under that Act to finance automatic and certain other increases in pensions by providing that part of that liability shall be paid out of accumulated earnings in the State Superannuation Fund ("the Fund") (Schedule 2—proposed section 9E);
- (iii) to allow the regulations made under that Act to require members of the Board to disclose pecuniary interests and certain other matters (Schedule 3—proposed section 74A);
- (iv) to require the Board's annual report and statement of accounts to be submitted to Parliament within a specified period after each financial year and to require the triennial actuarial review of the Fund to be reported to the Minister within a specified period after the date as at which the review was made (Schedule 4);
- (v) to permit the Board to directly employ (outside the terms of the Public Service Act, 1979) certain persons as caretakers, etc., for office buildings and other similar property in which the Fund is invested (Schedule 5—proposed section 82A);

- (vi) to overcome the problem of persons wilfully refusing a medical examination and thereby obtaining exemption from contributing to the Fund by providing that those persons will remain as contributors but be entitled only to limited benefits before retirement (Schedule 6);
  - (vii) to make special provisions relating to the salary and employer, for the purposes of that Act, of certain persons who are on secondment (Schedule 7);
  - (viii) to alter the contribution period from 4 weeks to 2 weeks (Schedule 9);
  - (ix) to enable the Board to grant breakdown pensions for periods of up to 5 years at a time until retirement age and for life thereafter instead of only 1 year at a time (Schedule 10 (6));
  - (x) to repeal, or terminate the operation of, certain provisions which are now obsolete (Schedule 10 (3), (7), (8) (c), (9), (12));
  - (xi) to make it clear that the Board may consider any information (not necessarily evidence according to the strict rules of law) in making a determination under that Act and to allow a judge of the Supreme Court whose opinion on any such determination has been sought by the Minister to also consider such evidence (Schedule 10 (10)); and
  - (xii) to empower the Board to maintain its accounts and other records on microfilm or any other suitable medium (Schedule 10 (11)—proposed section 85A);
- (b) to limit the operation of the provisions of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1970, relating to the increase of certain pensions to a minimum level in respect of persons to whom those provisions do not now apply (Schedule 11);
- (c) to make minor and consequential amendments to the Superannuation Act, 1916, the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1971, and the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1974; and
