THE COMMERCIAL BANK OF AUSTRALIA LIMITED (MERGER) BILL, 1982

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The following Bills are cognate with this Bill:—

Bank of New South Wales (Change of Name) Bill, 1982;

The Commercial Banking Company of Sydney Limited (Merger) Bill, 1982.

The objects of this Bill are to make provisions for and with respect to—

- (a) the transfer to Bank of New South Wales ("the continuing bank") of the undertaking of The Commercial Bank of Australia Limited ("CBA"); and
- (b) the transfer to Bank of New South Wales Savings Bank ("the continuing savings bank") of the undertaking of The Commercial Savings Bank of Australia Limited ("CBA Savings Bank").

The Bill contains the following provisions:—

Clause 1. Short title.

Clause 2. Commencement.

Clause 3. Interpretation.

Clause 4 excludes from the operation of the proposed Act certain instruments specified in the Schedule to the proposed Act and certain property and matters related to those instruments.

Clause 5 declares that the proposed Act will bind the Crown.

Clause 6 is a general provision which vests the undertaking of CBA in the continuing bank and the undertaking of CBA Savings Bank in the continuing savings bank. This clause also makes provisions with respect to the future construction of certain references to CBA and CBA Savings Bank and to the holders of certain offices.

Clause 7 makes more specific provisions for matters affected by the merger of CBA with the continuing bank. The clause provides that certain legal rights and obligations which affected CBA before the merger shall affect the continuing bank after the merger and shall not be extinguished by the merger.

Clause 8 makes more specific provisions for matters affected by the merger of CBA Savings Bank with the continuing savings bank. The clause makes provisions with respect to those banks similar to those made by clause 7 with respect to CBA and the continuing bank.

Clause 9 entitles the continuing bank or the continuing savings bank to exercise the same rights with respect to the occupation or use of land subject to a lease or licence as CBA or CBA Savings Bank may exercise as the lessee or licensee of the land.

Clause 10 declares that legal proceedings to which CBA or CBA Savings Bank was a party before the merger may, after the merger, be continued by or against the continuing bank or continuing savings bank and that any judgment, order or award in favour of or obtained against CBA or CBA Savings Bank may, after the merger, be enforced by or against the continuing bank or the continuing savings bank.

Clause 11 declares that evidence which would have been admissible in relation to CBA or CBA Savings Bank before the merger shall, after the merger, be admissible in relation to the continuing bank or the continuing savings bank.

Clause 12 ensures that employees of CBA shall, after the merger, become employees of the continuing bank and makes provisions of a saving nature with respect to the terms and conditions of their employment by the continuing bank.

Clause 13 specifies a procedure whereby a subsidiary of CBA may be retired as trustee of trusts subsisting immediately before the merger takes effect and replaced as trustee of those trusts by a subsidiary of the continuing bank.

Clause 14 provides a simplified procedure for the transfer of certain securities which are vested in the continuing bank, the continuing savings bank or a subsidiary of the continuing bank by the operation of the proposed Act.

Clause 15 simplifies compliance with section 206 (1) of the Companies Act 1981 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth by the continuing bank and the continuing savings bank with respect to certain charges if that subsection applies as a law of New South Wales on the date on which the merger is effected.

Clause 16 authorises the making of recordings to give effect to the vesting, by or under the proposed Act, of certain property held subject to the Acts specified in that clause.

Clause 17 affords protection to the Registrar General, other persons registering or certifying title to land and certain other persons from having to ascertain whether any property which is the subject of a dealing or transaction is or is not an excluded asset, within the meaning of the proposed Act.

Clause 18 exempts from stamp duty certain written requests made pursuant to section 46C of the Real Property Act, 1900, and which relate to property vested by the proposed Act.
