CRIMINAL PROCEDURE BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Director of Public Prosecutions Bill 1986.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to make a general statement that certain offences are punishable in the Supreme Court or the District Court on indictment in the name of the Attorney General or the Director of Public Prosecutions;
- (b) to institute a system for the listing of criminal proceedings before the Supreme Court and the District Court;
- (c) to authorise the giving of an indemnity from prosecution or an undertaking that an answer, statement or disclosure will not be used in evidence; and
- (d) to abolish the office of Clerk of the Peace.

PART I—PRELIMINARY

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act will, with minor exceptions, commence on a day to be appointed by the Governor-in-Council.

Clause 3 contains definitions for use in interpreting the proposed Act.

PART 2—INDICTABLE OFFENCES GENERALLY

Clause 4 provides that all offences (other than offences that may be heard summarily only) are punishable on indictment in the Supreme Court or the District Court, on behalf of the Crown, in the name of the Attorney General or the Director of Public Prosecutions. This provision replaces section 5 of The Australian Courts Act 1828 (9 Geo. IV, c.83); that section is proposed to be repealed by the Miscellaneous Acts (Public Prosecutions) Amendment Bill 1986.

Clause 5 provides that Supreme Court has jurisdiction in respect of all indictable offences, and that the District Court has similar jurisdiction except in relation to such offences as may be prescribed by regulation.

Clause 6 makes it clear that nothing in the proposed Act affects any existing law or practice relating to the laying of an information before a justice in respect of an indictable offence or relating to committal proceedings.

PART 3—LISTING

Clause 7 contains definitions for use in interpreting the Part:

“Criminal Listing Director” is defined as the public servant of that name, and any public servant authorised to exercise any functions of the Criminal Listing Director.

“Criminal proceedings” is defined as proceedings for the trial or sentencing of a person before the Supreme Court or the District Court and certain appeals to the District Court under the Justices Act 1902.

Clause 8 provides that the Criminal Listing Director is responsible for arranging for the listing of criminal proceedings before the Supreme Court and the District Court. Regulations may be made in connection with the listing of criminal proceedings.

Clause 9 requires the listing of a matter for mention after the elapsing of a period (to be specified by regulation) following committal for trial.

Clause 10 requires all persons involved in criminal proceedings to abide by arrangements made by the Criminal Listing Director.

Clause 11 authorises the Criminal Listing Director to liaise with all persons involved in criminal proceedings.

Clause 12 provides that the provisions of the Part do not authorise the Criminal Listing Director to fix or change venue or to determine when or where a court is to exercise jurisdiction. The clause also preserves the power of the Attorney General to fix or change venue and certain powers of the courts; proceedings before the Court of Criminal Appeal and certain other proceedings are not affected.

PART 4—INDEMNITIES AND UNDERTAKINGS

Clause 13 authorises the Attorney General to grant an indemnity from prosecution, whether on indictment or summarily, for certain offences or for certain acts.

Clause 14 authorises the Attorney General to give an undertaking that an answer, statement or disclosure by a person will not be used in evidence against the person.

PART 5—MISCELLANEOUS

Clause 15 regulates the signing of indictments, so that they may be signed by the Attorney General, Solicitor General or Director of Public Prosecutions or (on behalf of the Attorney General or Director) by a Crown Prosecutor or a person authorised by the Director.

Clause 16 provides that proceedings instituted by the Attorney General or the Director of Public Prosecutions may be instituted in their official or personal names.

Clause 17 abolishes the office of Clerk of the Peace, and generally provides for the registry functions of the Clerk of the Peace to be exercised by the registries of the courts.

Clause 18 is a regulation-making provision.
