

FORESTRY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1984

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Forestry Act, 1916 ("the Act"), so as—

- (a) to replace the scheme which entitles the holders of certain lands to a share of the royalties payable in respect of the taking of timber and other materials on or from those lands with a scheme which compensates the holders of those lands for disturbance to those lands occasioned by those operations (Schedule 1 (6) and Schedule 1 (9) (proposed Division 5 of Part III));
- (b) to repeal the provisions of the Act which require consent to be obtained from the holders of certain lands before certain licences can be issued in respect of those lands (Schedule 1 (3)); and
- (c) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

The Bill also contains savings and transitional provisions (Schedule 2).

- (b) in the case of purchase-tenure land—the owner of the land; or
- 15 (c) in the case of land under the control of a Pastures Protection Board, being land that consists of a travelling stock reserve, a camping reserve or a public watering-place—the Pastures Protection Board having control of the land;

20 “lessee” means the holder or owner of a lease, but does not include a mortgagee of land the subject of a lease;

“owner”, in relation to purchase-tenure land, has the meaning ascribed thereto in section 25c;

“prescribed land” means—

- 25 (a) land held by a lessee under a lease specified or described in the Second Schedule;
- (b) purchase-tenure land; or
- (c) land under the control of a Pastures Protection Board, being land that consists of a travelling stock reserve, a camping reserve or a public watering-place;

30 “prescribed lease from the Crown” has the meaning ascribed thereto in section 25c;

“purchase-tenure land” has the meaning ascribed thereto in section 25c.

5 Commission to make assessments.

30κ. (1) Where a timber licence, products licence or forest materials licence is in force in respect of prescribed land, the commission shall—

10 (a) in the case of a licence which is in force for a period of 12 months or less—at the end of the period during which the licence is in force; or

(b) in any other case—at the end of each period of 12 months during which the licence is in force,

15 make an assessment of the amount of compensation (if any) payable in respect of disturbance to the land occasioned by the taking of timber, products or forest materials on or from the land in pursuance of the licence during that period.

20 (2) Where the commission carries out operations on prescribed land for the purpose of taking timber or products on or from the land, the commission shall—

(a) in the case of operations that continue for a period of 12 months or less—at the end of the period during which the operations are carried out; or

25 (b) in any other case—at the end of each period of 12 months during which the operations are carried out,

make an assessment of the amount of compensation (if any) payable in respect of disturbance to the land occasioned by the taking of timber or products on or from the land during that period.

5 (3) In making an assessment pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) in respect of prescribed land, the commission shall take into consideration the effects (both beneficial and detrimental) on the land, and on any roads, fences, gates, buildings or works situated on the land, of—

10 (a) the operations carried out on the land for the purpose of taking timber, products or forest materials, as the case may be, on or from the land;

(b) the construction (whether or not on the land) of roads, bridges, gates and ramps, and any incidental works, associated with those operations; and

(c) such other matters as may be prescribed,

15 in relation to the use of the land—

(d) in the case of land held under a lease specified or described in the Second Schedule—for the purpose for which the lease was granted;

20 (e) in the case of purchase-tenure land—for the purpose for which the relevant prescribed lease from the Crown was granted; or

25 (f) in the case of land under the control of a Pastures Protection Board, being land that consists of a travelling stock reserve, a camping reserve or a public watering-place—for the purpose of such a reserve or watering-place, as the case may be.

(4) In subsection (3), a reference to a purpose for which a lease was granted is, in relation to a lease which has not been granted for any other purpose, a reference to the purpose of the grazing of stock.

5 (5) As soon as practicable after it has made an assessment pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) in respect of prescribed land, the commission shall cause written notice of the assessment to be given to the holder of the land.

(6) Where the holder of prescribed land—

10 (a) has given written notice to the commission that the holder of the land accepts an assessment made by the commission in respect of the land; or

(b) has not made an objection under section 30L (1) against such an assessment within 28 days after notice of the assessment was given under subsection (5),

15 the holder of the land is entitled to the amount of compensation specified in the assessment.

Review of assessments.

20 30L. (1) A holder of prescribed land who is dissatisfied with an assessment made by the commission pursuant to section 30K (1) or (2) may, except where the holder of the land has given notice under section 30K (6) (a) in respect of the assessment, make an objection against the assessment.

(2) An objection under subsection (1) shall be—

(a) in writing; and

25 (b) lodged with the commission not less than 28 days after notice of the assessment to which the objection relates was given under section 30K (5).

30 (3) Upon receiving an objection under subsection (1), the commission shall endeavour to reach agreement with the holder of the prescribed land to which the objection relates as to the appropriate amount of compensation payable in respect of that land.

5 (4) Where agreement (as referred to in subsection (3)) is not reached within 28 days after an objection under subsection (1) has been lodged with the commission, or within such further period as the commission and the objector may agree, the commission shall refer the objection to the Valuer-General for assessment of compensation by the Valuer-General.

10 (5) Upon the referral of an objection under subsection (4), the Valuer-General shall review the assessment the subject of the objection and make a new assessment.

(6) The provisions of section 30K (3) and (4) apply to an assessment made by the Valuer-General in the same way as they apply to an assessment made by the commission.

15 (7) An assessment made by the Valuer-General is final and binds the commission and the holder of the prescribed land to which the assessment relates.

20 (8) A holder of prescribed land who has made an objection under subsection (1) against an assessment made by the commission is entitled—

(a) where agreement (as referred to in subsection (3)) is reached between the holder of the land and the commission as to the appropriate amount of compensation payable in respect of the land—to the amount of compensation so agreed; or

25 (b) where the objection is referred to the Valuer-General under subsection (4)—to the amount of compensation specified in the assessment made by the Valuer-General in respect of the land.

5 30M. (1) The commission shall pay to the holder of prescribed land the amount of compensation (if any) to which the holder of the land is entitled under this Division.

10 (2) Nothing in this Division entitles a holder of prescribed land to compensation in respect of disturbance to the land occasioned by the taking of timber, products or forest materials on or from the land in pursuance of a timber licence, products licence or forest materials licence held by the holder of the land.

(10) (a) Section 39 (1)—

15 Omit “, other than any amount payable to a lessee, an owner of purchase-tenure land or a Pastures Protection Board, pursuant to a direction under section 30F (2) (a),”.

(b) Section 39 (2)—

Omit the subsection.

(11) Section 41 (1) (e1)—

After section 41 (1) (e), insert:—

20 (e1) regulating matters incidental to the assessment and payment of compensation under Division 5 of Part III;

(12) Section 46A (8), (9)—

Omit the subsections.

(13) Section 48 (5), (6)—

Omit the subsections.

(Sec. 6.)

SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

Royalties payable under licences in force as at 1st January, 1985.

1. Where, immediately before 1st January, 1985, a timber licence, products licence
10 or forest materials licence was in force in respect of any land—

(a) the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any royalty payable under Division 3 of Part III of that Act in respect of timber, products or forest materials taken on or from any such land in pursuance of the licence in the same way as that Act would have applied to and in respect 15 of any such royalty had this Act not been enacted; and

(b) Division 5 of Part III of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall not, while the licence remains in force, apply to or in respect of any such land in relation to compensation for disturbance to the land occasioned by the taking of timber, products or forest materials on or from the land in pursuance of the 20 licence.

Authorisations under section 30r of the Principal Act.

2. An authorisation in force immediately before 1st January, 1985, under section 30r of the Principal Act shall, on and from that date, be deemed to be an authorisation in force under section 30r (1) of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

Forestry (Amendment) 1984

SCHEDULE 2—*continued.*SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS—*continued.Regulations.

- 5 3. A provision of a regulation in force immediately before 1st January, 1985, under the Principal Act for the purposes of section 30I (a) or (b) of that Act shall, on and from that date, be deemed to be a provision of a regulation in force under the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, for the purposes of section 30I (1) (a) or (b), as the case may require, of that Act, as so amended.

3. A provision of a regulation in force immediately before 1st January, 1985, under the Principal Act for the purposes of section 30i (a) or (b) of that Act shall, on and from that date, be deemed to be a provision of a regulation in force under the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, for the purposes of section 30i (1) (a) or (b), as the case may require, of that Act, as so amended.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

J. A. ROWLAND,
Governor.

*Government House,
Sydney, 4th December, 1984.*
