GOVERNMENT AND RELATED EMPLOYEES APPEAL
TRIBUNAL (AMENDMENT) BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to make miscellaneous amendments to the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal Act 1980.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that, with 2 exceptions, the amendments to be made by the proposed Act will commence on 1 January 1987. The exceptions relate to amendments to sections 20 and 31 of the Principal Act, which clause 2 (2) deems to have been effective from the commencement of the Principal Act.

Clause 3 provides that the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal Act 1980 is referred to in the proposed Act as the Principal Act.

Clause 4 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedules of amendments to the Principal Act.

Clause 5 amends the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 to alter the reference to a presiding member of the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal (from "Chairman" to "Chairperson").

Clause 6 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedule of savings and transitional provisions.

SCHEDULE 1—MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT

Schedule 1 (1) repeals and substitutes section 19 of the Principal Act. The section, as redrafted, requires an employer to notify the unsuccessful candidates for a position of the acceptance of the position by the successful candidate and (in consequence of the substitution of section 20) to extend the class of cases in which the employer is obliged to publish information concerning recommended appointments.

Schedule 1 (2) repeals and substitutes section 20 of the Principal Act. The section, as redrafted, makes it clear that an officer of the public service has (in appropriate circumstances) a right of appeal against a decision to appoint another such officer whether from the same or another Department of the Government.

Schedule 1 (3) amends section 21 of the Principal Act to raise the so-called "barrier level" on promotions appeals. An appeal against an appointment is currently precluded if the maximum salary applicable to the position exceeds the salary applicable to a grade 11 position in the Administrative and Clerical Division of the public service. The effect of the amendment is to increase the limit to that of the salary of a grade 12 officer.

Schedule 1 (4) repeals and substitutes section 29 of the Principal Act. The effect is—

- (a) to reduce, from 28 to 21 days, the time (following notification in respect of appointments) within which promotions appeals may be brought; and
- (b) to make it clear that the time for lodging an appeal generally starts to run from the date the notification is dispatched by the employer.

Schedule 1 (5) amends section 30 of the Principal Act in consequence of the amendments made by Schedule 1 (2) and (11).

Schedule 1 (6) amends section 31 of the Principal Act in order to permit the better dispatch of business before the Government and Related Employees Appeal Tribunal. In particular, the amended section enables preliminary points of law or procedure to be decided by a presiding member of the Tribunal before proceeding to the full hearing of an appeal.

Schedule 1 (7) amends section 32 of the Principal Act in consequence of the amendment made by Schedule 1 (6).

Schedule 1 (8) repeals and substitutes section 35 of the Principal Act. The new section provides that, except with the leave of the presiding member of the Tribunal granted in special circumstances, proceedings before the Tribunal on promotions appeals shall be informal.

Schedule 1 (9) amends section 37 of the Principal Act to provide that, in the hearing of a promotion appeal, submissions that may be made by the employer's representative are to be restricted to written submissions.

Schedule 1 (10) amends section 38 of the Principal Act to provide that a person is not entitled to legal representation before the Tribunal without leave of the presiding member.

Schedule 1 (11) amends section 41 of the Principal Act in consequence of the amendment made by Schedule 1 (6).

Schedule 1 (12) inserts a new section 47A into the Principal Act. The section enables the Registrar of the Tribunal to strike out matters pending before the Tribunal which have not been brought before it for hearing within a reasonable time. This power of the Registrar may not be exercised until the appellant has been afforded an opportunity to be heard as to why the matter should remain listed.

Schedule 1 (13) amends Schedule 2 to the Principal Act—

- (a) to increase, from 12 to 40, the number of nominations that may be made, by an employer or employee association, of persons as members of the Tribunal (Schedule 1 (13) (a)); and
- (b) to allow retired persons who, immediately before retirement, held qualifications currently sufficient to enable their nomination as members of the Tribunal, to be nominated for membership (Schedule 1 (13) (b)).

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO PRESIDING MEMBERS OF THE TRIBUNAL

This Schedule effects amendments to several provisions in which the expressions “Senior Chairman”, “Chairman” and the like occur. The purpose of the amendments is to alter the designation of presiding members to that of “Chairperson” and of the judicial member to that of “Senior Chairperson”.

SCHEDULE 3—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

This Schedule enacts appropriate savings and transitional provisions, in consequence of the amendments effected by the proposed Act, in relation to appointments already made, rights of appeal already accrued and appeals already lodged at its commencement and with respect to determinations of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal in force at its commencement.
