

INDUSTRIAL ARBITRATION (INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNALS)
AMENDMENT BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to enable the appointment of members of the Industrial Commission of New South Wales as regional members who shall have responsibility for determining matters which are of significance for their regions;
- (b) to enable the appointment of a Vice-President of the Commission and to abolish the position of senior conciliation commissioner;
- (c) to enable non-judicial members of the Commission to hear and determine appeals under the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940;
- (d) to enable non-judicial members of the Commission and conciliation commissioners to sit as members of a Full Bench of the Commission; and
- (e) to enable the appointment of more than one deputy chairman of the Retail Trade Industrial Tribunal and to provide for an appeal from a decision of the Tribunal to the Full Bench of the Commission.

---

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the provisions of the proposed Act.

Clause 3 enables the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 to be referred to as the Principal Act.

Clause 4 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedules of amendments to the Principal Act.

Clause 5 is a formal provision which gives effect to a Schedule of amendments to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975.

Clause 6 is a formal provision which gives effect to a Schedule of savings and transitional provisions.

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO REGIONALISATION

Schedule 1 (1) inserts definitions of "Regional matter" and "Regional member" into the Principal Act.

Schedule 1 (2) (a) enables the number of persons who may be appointed as members of the Commission to be increased, by the regulations under the Principal Act, beyond the present maximum of 12.

Schedule 1 (2) (b) enables the appointment of a person as a regional member of the Commission.

Schedule 1 (2) (c) and (d) provide that a regional member of the Commission shall have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of matters which, in the member's opinion, are of significance only for the region for which the member is appointed.

Schedule 1 (2) (e) requires the Industrial Registrar to establish an office of the registry for each region for which a regional member is appointed.

Schedule 1 (3) provides for a regional member, in regional matters, to allocate the work of conciliation commissioners.

Schedule 1 (4) enables notice of an industrial dispute to be given in a regional office.

SCHEDULE 2—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

Schedule 2 (1) enables the appointment of a legally qualified person as Vice-President of the Industrial Commission and, with Schedule 2 (4), specifies the seniority of the Vice-President.

Schedule 2 (2) and (3) abolish the position of senior conciliation commissioner and provide for the exercise by the Vice-President of the functions currently exercised by the senior conciliation commissioner.

SCHEDULE 3—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO THE HEARING OF CERTAIN APPEALS

Schedule 3 (1) and (2) enable a non-judicial member of the Commission to hear any appeal which may be made under the Principal Act to a single member of the Commission.

Schedule 3 (3) provides for the determination of a question of law which arises in an appeal to a non-judicial member by the President or a judicial member.

SCHEDULE 4—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMISSION IN COURT SESSION

Schedule 4 provides for the Commission in court session to be constituted—

- (a) for matters involving solely questions of law—by 2 or more judicial members and one non-judicial member; and
- (b) for matters not involving solely questions of law—by one or more judicial members, one non-judicial member and one conciliation commissioner.

SCHEDULE 5—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT RELATING TO THE RETAIL TRADE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL

Schedule 5 (1) enables the appointment of more than one deputy chairman of the Retail Trade Industrial Tribunal, provides for their functions and specifies their seniority.

Schedule 5 (2) enables an appeal to be made to the Commission in court session from a decision of the Retail Trade Industrial Tribunal.

SCHEDULE 6—AMENDMENTS TO THE STATUTORY AND OTHER OFFICES REMUNERATION ACT 1975

Schedule 6 amends the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 to enable the remuneration of the Vice-President of the Commission to be determined and to remove references to the senior conciliation commissioner.

SCHEDULE 7—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Schedule 7 enacts savings and transitional provisions consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.
