LOTTERIES AND ART UNIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1984 (No. 2)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to reduce from 50 per cent to 40 per cent the standard proportion of the gross takings of a lottery conducted by a non-profit organisation or a charity, or of a game of chance conducted by a charity, that is required to be paid into the funds of the organisation or charity (Schedule 1 (1), (2) (d));
- (b) to confirm that the permit issued for the conduct of a game of chance by a charity, or of a lottery or game of chance in connection with a competition for the promotion of trade, may be subject to a condition relating to the site at which the game or lottery may be conducted (Schedule 1 (2) (c), (3) (a));
- (c) to enable the permit issued for the conduct of a game of chance by a charity, or of a lottery or game of chance in connection with a competition for the promotion of trade, or of a game of chance by a registered club, to apply to a specified number of games of chance, or lotteries and games of chance, or to all games of chance, or lotteries and games of chance, conducted during a specified period (Schedule 1 (2) (e), (3) (b), (4));
- (d) to require the type of voluntary association known as an art union to submit, instead of a balance-sheet, a statement of all money received, and payments made, by it (Schedule 1 (5));
- (e) to enable the type of voluntary association known as an art union to operate pursuant to a permit issued by the Minister instead of being required to obtain a charter from the Governor (Schedule 1 (6));
- (f) to amplify the powers of the Minister to require production of records relating to a lottery, game of chance or art union (Schedule 1 (8));
- (g) to authorise recovery of the cost of an examination and audit of records relating to a lottery, game of chance or art union (Schedule 1 (9) (c));
- (h) to increase certain penalties (Schedule 2); and
- (i) to make provision for other matters consequential upon or ancillary to the foregoing.

LOTTERIES AND ART UNIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1984
