MENTAL HEALTH (AMENDMENT) BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The following Bills are cognate with this Bill:

Crimes (Mental Illness) Amendment Bill 1986;

Criminal Appeal (Mental Illness) Amendment Bill 1986;

Protected Estates (Amendment) Bill 1986.

The object of this Bill is to make miscellaneous amendments to the Mental Health Act 1983.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act will, with one exception, commence on the day on which it receives the Royal assent.

Clause 3 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedule of amendments.

Schedule 1 (1) (a) and (b) (ii) make minor amendments to the definitions of "continued treatment patient" and "forensic patient" as a consequence of the insertion into the Principal Act, by Schedule 1 (7), of proposed section 126A.

Schedule 1 (1) (b) (i), (8) and (11) (a) amend the Principal Act to make provision for the classification as a forensic patient of a person whose sentence is quashed on appeal on the ground of the person's mental illness.

Schedule 1 (2) enables the appointment of the medical superintendent or deputy medical superintendent of a hospital as an authorised officer for the purposes of the Principal Act but prohibits the exercise by any such appointee of the functions of an authorised officer at or in relation to the hospital of which the appointee is the medical superintendent or deputy medical superintendent.

Schedule 1 (3) extends the immunity for acts done in good faith by the members and staff of the Mental Health Review Tribunal to acts done in good faith under Acts other than the Principal Act.

Schedule 1 (4)–(7) prohibit the involuntary admission of a person to a hospital if the hospital is a private hospital licensed under the Principal Act.

Schedule 1 (9) clarifies the nature of the mental condition which, if suffered by a prisoner, enables the transfer of the prisoner from a prison to a hospital for the purpose of receiving treatment.

Schedule 1 (10) expressly empowers the Mental Health Review Tribunal to classify certain forensic patients as continued treatment patients.

Schedule 1 (11) (b) and (c) clarify the circumstances in which certain persons who the Attorney General has determined will not be proceeded against cease to be forensic patients.

Schedule 1 (11) (d) expressly empowers the Minister for Health to release certain persons who the Attorney General has determined will not be proceeded against.

Schedule 1 (12) removes the requirement that the Principal official visitor or an official visitor be under the age of 65 years.

Schedule 1 (13) (a) extends from 5 years to 7 years the term for which a member of the Mental Health Review Tribunal may be appointed.

Schedule 1 (13) (b) preserves superannuation and other rights of public servants and other persons of similar standing on their appointment as members of the Mental Health Review Tribunal.

(10) Section 126A—

After section 126, insert:

Classification as continued treatment patient

5 126A. (1) The Tribunal, after reviewing, under this Part, the case of a forensic patient who would, by virtue of the operation of this Act or any other law, cease to be a forensic patient within 6 months after the date of the review and who is—

10 (a) a person who has been detained in a hospital, prison or other place following a special hearing under section 428M (2) of the Crimes Act 1900;

(b) a person who, while serving a fixed sentence without a non-parole period, has been transferred to a hospital from a prison; or

15 (c) a person who, while serving a fixed sentence with a non-parole period, has been transferred to a hospital from a prison, may classify the person as a continued treatment patient.

20 (2) Where, after reviewing, under this Part, the case of a forensic patient to whom subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) applies, the Tribunal classifies the patient as a continued treatment patient, it shall not be necessary for the Tribunal to make any recommendation that would otherwise be required to be made as a consequence of the review.

(11) Section 127 (Termination of classification as forensic patient)—

25 (a) Section 127 (1) (a)—

After “1900”, insert “or section 7 (4) of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 (including that subsection as applied by section 5AA (5) of that Act)”.

(b) Section 127 (1) (d) (i), (ii)—

Omit the subparagraphs, insert instead:

(i) upon a finding at a further inquiry held under section 428s (2) of the Crimes Act 1900 that the person is fit to be tried for the offence; or

(ii) where the Attorney General determines that the person will not be further proceeded against by the Attorney General in respect of the offence—upon the person's release from detention pursuant to section 428s (3) of the Crimes Act 1900;

(c) Section 127 (1) (d)—

Omit “whichever first occurs;”.

(d) Section 127 (1) (h) (i)—

After “release”, insert “(which the Minister is hereby authorised to order or to otherwise ensure)”.

(12) Schedule 1 (Provisions relating to the Principal official visitor and official visitors)—

Omit the paragraph.

(13) Schedule 2 (Provisions relating to the membership of the Tribunal)—

(a) Schedule 2, clause 3 (Term of office of member)—

Omit “5”, insert instead “7”.

(b) Schedule 2, clauses 8–10—

After clause 7, insert:

Preservation of rights of member previously public servant, etc.

8. (1) In this clause—

5 “statutory body” means any body declared under clause 10 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule;

10 “superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) and to the terms of appointment, where a member was, immediately before being appointed as a member—

15 (a) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service;

(b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;

(c) an officer employed by a statutory body; or

(d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act for the retention of any rights accrued or accruing to the person as an officer or employee,

20 he or she—

(e) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer, contributor or person;

25 (f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he or she was a contributor immediately before being appointed as a member; and

(g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,

as if he or she had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his or her service as a member and—

5 (h) his or her service as a member shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he or she continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred; and

10 (i) he or she shall be deemed to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this clause.

15 (3) If a member would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under the scheme, he or she shall not be so entitled upon becoming (whether upon appointment as a member or at any later time while holding office as a member) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subclause (2) (i) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

20 (4) Subclause (3) does not prevent the payment to a member upon his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the scheme.

25 (5) A member shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

Member entitled to re-appointment to former employment in certain cases

30 9. (1) In this clause, “statutory body” means any body declared under clause 10 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule.

(2) A person who—

(a) ceases to be a member by reason of the expiration of the period for which the person was appointed or by reason of resignation;

5 (b) was, immediately before being appointed as a member—

(i) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service; or

(ii) an officer or employee of a statutory body; and

10 (c) has not attained the age at which the person would have been entitled to retire had the person continued to be such an officer or employee,

15 shall be entitled to be appointed to some position in the Public Service, the Teaching Service or the service of that statutory body, as the case may be, not lower in classification and salary than that which the person held immediately before being appointed as a member.

(3) Where subclause (2) does not apply to a person who—

20 (a) was, immediately before being appointed to a full-time office constituted by an Act, an officer or employee referred to in subclause (2) (b); and

(b) is after that appointment appointed as a member,

25 the person shall have such rights (if any) to appointment as such an officer or employee, in the event of ceasing to be a member, as are specified in the instrument of appointment as a member or as are agreed upon by the person and by or on behalf of the Government.

(b) Schedule 2, clauses 8–10—

After clause 7, insert:

Preservation of rights of member previously public servant, etc.

8. (1) In this clause—

“statutory body” means any body declared under clause 10 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule;

“superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under any Act.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) and to the terms of appointment, where a member was, immediately before being appointed as a member—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service;
- (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;
- (c) an officer employed by a statutory body; or
- (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act for the retention of any rights accrued or accruing to the person as an officer or employee,

he or she—

- (e) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer, contributor or person;
- (f) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he or she was a contributor immediately before being appointed as a member; and
- (g) shall be entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,

as if he or she had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his or her service as a member and—

- (h) his or her service as a member shall be deemed to be service as an officer or employee for the purpose of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he or she continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred; and
- (i) he or she shall be deemed to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this clause.

(3) If a member would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under the scheme, he or she shall not be so entitled upon becoming (whether upon appointment as a member or at any later time while holding office as a member) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme, and the provisions of subclause (2) (i) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

(4) Subclause (3) does not prevent the payment to a member upon his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme of such amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the scheme.

(5) A member shall not, in respect of the same period of service, be entitled to claim a benefit under this Act and another Act.

Member entitled to re-appointment to former employment in certain cases

9. (1) In this clause, “statutory body” means any body declared under clause 10 to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule.

- (a) ceases to be a member by reason of the expiration of the period for which the person was appointed or by reason of resignation;
- (b) was, immediately before being appointed as a member—
  - (i) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service; or
  - (ii) an officer or employee of a statutory body; and
- (c) has not attained the age at which the person would have been entitled to retire had the person continued to be such an officer or employee,

shall be entitled to be appointed to some position in the Public Service, the Teaching Service or the service of that statutory body, as the case may be, not lower in classification and salary than that which the person held immediately before being appointed as a member.

(3) Where subclause (2) does not apply to a person who—

- (a) was, immediately before being appointed to a full-time office constituted by an Act, an officer or employee referred to in subclause (2) (b); and
- (b) is after that appointment appointed as a member,

the person shall have such rights (if any) to appointment as such an officer or employee, in the event of ceasing to be a member, as are specified in the instrument of appointment as a member or as are agreed upon by the person and by or on behalf of the Government.
