METROPOLITAN WATER, SEWERAGE, AND DRAINAGE
(RATES AND CHARGES) AMENDMENT BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are to amend the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924—

- (a) to enable the limitation of certain increases in the aggregated amount of rates and certain charges payable under the Principal Act for the 1986–87 year in respect of residential land;
- (b) to enable the limitation of increases in the aggregated amount of rates payable under the Principal Act in any year in respect of residential land and vacant land;
- (c) to enable a restructuring of the basis on which rates and charges are determined under the Principal Act in respect of residential land and vacant land;
- (d) to enable vacant land to be rated on the basis of its land value; and
- (e) to make further provision with respect to the payment of rates by instalments.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that, for the purposes of the proposed Act, the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924 is referred to as the Principal Act and that the proposed Act shall be construed with, and as if it formed part of, the Principal Act.

Clause 3 is an interpretation provision.

Clause 4 provides that the proposed Act (proposed section 9 and Schedule 1 excepted) applies to and in respect of residential land which is subject to the payment of water, sewerage or stormwater drainage rates and charges for water supplied by measure for domestic purposes for the 1986-87 year.

Clause 5 enables the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board to determine a maximum percentage increase for the aggregated amount of rates and charges payable in respect of a parcel of residential land for the 1986-87 year where the quantity of water consumed in respect of the parcel in that year does not exceed by more than 10 kilolitres the quantity consumed in respect of the parcel in the 1985-86 year.

Clause 6 specifies the manner in which the aggregated amount of rates and charges is to be calculated.

Clause 7 specifies the manner in which the quantity of water consumed is to be calculated.

Clause 8 provides for the waiver of charges following a determination of the Board under clause 5.

Clause 9 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedule of amendments.

Schedule 1 (1), (3) (b), (4), (5) (a) and (6) enable rates payable in respect of vacant land to be assessed on the land value of that land.

Schedule 1 (2) enables a rate levied by the Board to include a fixed amount determined by the Board having regard to the type of rate as well as an amount levied pro rata having regard to the value of the land subject to the rate.

Schedule 1 (3) (a) and (5) (b) make amendments consequential on the amendment made by Schedule 1 (2).

Schedule 1 (5) (c) enables the Board to restrict the rate increase in respect of a parcel of residential land or vacant land to a percentage of the aggregated amount of the rates payable in respect of the parcel for the previous year.

Schedule 1 (7) clarifies the power of the Board to allow the payment of rates by instalments and enables the rendering of periodic and other accounts in respect of rates.

METROPOLITAN WATER, SEWERAGE, AND DRAINAGE
(RATES AND CHARGES) AMENDMENT BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

No. , 1986

A BILL FOR

An Act with respect to rates and certain charges for the 1986–87 year under the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924 and to amend that Act with respect to the making and payment of rates.

Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage (Rates and Charges) Amendment 1986

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

5 Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the "Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage (Rates and Charges) Amendment Act 1986".

Principal Act

2. (1) The Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924 is referred to in this Act as the Principal Act.

(2) This Act (section 9 and Schedule 1 excepted) shall be construed with, and as if it formed part of, the Principal Act.

Interpretation

3. In this Act—

15 "Board" means the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board;

"charge" means a charge for water supplied by measure for domestic purposes;

"rate" means a water, sewerage or stormwater drainage rate;

"1985-86 year" means the year commencing on 1 July 1985;

20 "1986-87 year" means the year commencing on 1 July 1986.

Application of Act

4. This Act (section 9 and Schedule 1 excepted) applies to and in respect of residential land which is subject to the payment of a rate and charge for the 1986-87 year.

Determination by Board to reduce rates and charges

5. Subject to section 96 (7) of the Principal Act, the Board may determine, where the quantity of water estimated by the Board to have been consumed in respect of a parcel of residential land separately rated under the Principal Act during the 1986-87 year does not exceed by more than 10 kilolitres the quantity of water estimated by the Board to have been consumed in respect of the same parcel during the 1985-86 year, that the aggregated amount of rates and charges payable in respect of the parcel for the 1986-87 year shall not exceed the sum of—

- 10 (a) the aggregated amount, calculated in accordance with section 6, of those rates and charges, in respect of that parcel, for the 1985-86 year; and
- (b) a specified percentage of that aggregated amount.

Calculation of aggregated amount of rates and charges

15 6. For the purposes of section 5 (a), the aggregated amount of rates and charges payable in respect of a parcel of land for the 1985-86 year is—

- (a) except as provided by paragraphs (b) and (c), the aggregated amount of the rates and charges payable for the whole of that year;
- 20 (b) where a rate was not levied or a charge was not made for the whole of that year, the aggregated amount of the rates and charges that would have been payable for the whole of that year if the parcel was—
- (i) in respect of the water, sewerage or stormwater drainage service, as the case may be, ratable for the whole of that year;
- 25 and
- (ii) in respect of the charges, subject to the charges for the whole of that year at the same rate as for the period for which the charges were made; or
- (c) where a valuation is made or adopted under section 97 (4) of the Principal Act in respect of the parcel during that year, the aggregated amount of—
- 30 (i) the rates that would have been levied for the whole of that year if that valuation was in force, and the circumstances that caused that valuation to be made or adopted had existed, for
- 35 the whole of that year; and

- (ii) the charges that, in the opinion of the Board, would have been payable for the whole of that year if the circumstances that caused that valuation to be made or adopted had existed for the whole of that year.

5 Estimation of quantity of water consumed

7. The Board, in estimating, for the purposes of section 5, the quantity of water to have been consumed in respect of a parcel of residential land, shall assume that the quantity of water consumed between the dates at which a meter has been read has been consumed uniformly from day to day.

10 Effect of Board's determination under s. 5

8. Where the Board makes a determination under section 5, the Board shall waive payment of that portion of the charges payable in respect of a parcel of residential land separately rated under the Principal Act during the 1986-87 year in so far as those charges would, but for this section, exceed the sum referred to in section 5.

Amendment of Act No. 50, 1924

9. The Principal Act is amended in the manner set forth in Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 1

(Sec. 9)

20 AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT

METROPOLITAN WATER, SEWERAGE, AND DRAINAGE
(RATES AND CHARGES) AMENDMENT ACT 1986 No. 69

NEW SOUTH WALES

Act No. 69, 1986

An Act with respect to rates and certain charges for the 1986–87 year under the Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924 and to amend that Act with respect to the making and payment of rates.
[Assented to, 21 May 1986]

Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage (Rates and Charges) Amendment 1986

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the "Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage (Rates and Charges) Amendment Act 1986".

Principal Act

2. (1) The Metropolitan Water, Sewerage, and Drainage Act 1924 is referred to in this Act as the Principal Act.

(2) This Act (section 9 and Schedule 1 excepted) shall be construed with, and as if it formed part of, the Principal Act.

Interpretation

3. In this Act—

"Board" means the Metropolitan Water Sewerage and Drainage Board;

"charge" means a charge for water supplied by measure for domestic purposes;

"rate" means a water, sewerage or stormwater drainage rate;

"1985-86 year" means the year commencing on 1 July 1985;

"1986-87 year" means the year commencing on 1 July 1986.

Application of Act

4. This Act (section 9 and Schedule 1 excepted) applies to and in respect of residential land which is subject to the payment of a rate and charge for the 1986-87 year.

Determination by Board to reduce rates and charges

5. Subject to section 96 (7) of the Principal Act, the Board may determine, where the quantity of water estimated by the Board to have been consumed in respect of a parcel of residential land separately rated under the Principal Act during the 1986–87 year does not exceed by more than 10 kilolitres the quantity of water estimated by the Board to have been consumed in respect of the same parcel during the 1985–86 year, that the aggregated amount of rates and charges payable in respect of the parcel for the 1986–87 year shall not exceed the sum of—

- (a) the aggregated amount, calculated in accordance with section 6, of those rates and charges, in respect of that parcel, for the 1985–86 year; and
- (b) a specified percentage of that aggregated amount.

Calculation of aggregated amount of rates and charges

6. For the purposes of section 5 (a), the aggregated amount of rates and charges payable in respect of a parcel of land for the 1985–86 year is—

- (a) except as provided by paragraphs (b) and (c), the aggregated amount of the rates and charges payable for the whole of that year;
- (b) where a rate was not levied or a charge was not made for the whole of that year, the aggregated amount of the rates and charges that would have been payable for the whole of that year if the parcel was—
 - (i) in respect of the water, sewerage or stormwater drainage service, as the case may be, ratable for the whole of that year; and
 - (ii) in respect of the charges, subject to the charges for the whole of that year at the same rate as for the period for which the charges were made; or
- (c) where a valuation is made or adopted under section 97 (4) of the Principal Act in respect of the parcel during that year, the aggregated amount of—
 - (i) the rates that would have been levied for the whole of that year if that valuation was in force, and the circumstances that caused that valuation to be made or adopted had existed, for the whole of that year; and

- (ii) the charges that, in the opinion of the Board, would have been payable for the whole of that year if the circumstances that caused that valuation to be made or adopted had existed for the whole of that year.

Estimation of quantity of water consumed

7. The Board, in estimating, for the purposes of section 5, the quantity of water to have been consumed in respect of a parcel of residential land, shall assume that the quantity of water consumed between the dates at which a meter has been read has been consumed uniformly from day to day.

Effect of Board's determination under s. 5

8. Where the Board makes a determination under section 5, the Board shall waive payment of that portion of the charges payable in respect of a parcel of residential land separately rated under the Principal Act during the 1986-87 year in so far as those charges would, but for this section, exceed the sum referred to in section 5.

Amendment of Act No. 50, 1924
