MISCELLANEOUS ACTS (TRANSPORT ACCIDENTS COMPENSATION) AMENDMENT BILL 1987

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Transport Accidents Compensation Bill 1987.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to amend certain Acts as a consequence of and in connection with the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987;
- (b) to specify the amounts of contributions payable in respect of motor vehicles under that Act as from 1 July 1987 (in place of premiums for third-party policies which were paid under the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1942); and
- (c) to enact savings and transitional provisions consequent upon the enactment of the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act. Most of its provisions will commence on 1 July 1987.

Clause 3 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedule of amendments.

Clause 4 specifies that contributions payable in respect of motor vehicles under the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987 shall be determined in accordance with Schedule 2.

Miscellaneous Acts (Transport Accidents Compensation) Amendment 1987

Clause 5 is a formal provision which gives effect to the Schedule of savings and transitional provisions.

Schedule 1 contains amendments to certain Acts.

The amendment to the Damages (Infants and Persons of Unsound Mind) Act 1929 excludes the application of that Act to claims made and compensation awarded under the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987.

The amendment to the Motor Traffic Act 1909 enables penalty notices to be issued for such offences under the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987 as may be prescribed.

The amendment to the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1942 limits the application of that Act to events occurring before 1 July 1987. It also facilitates the closure of the Third-party Fund and the transfer of its assets and liabilities to the Transport Accidents Compensation Fund.

The other amendments to the District Court Act 1973, the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940, the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1944, the Recreation Vehicles Act 1983 and the Stamp Duties Act 1920 are minor and consequential in nature.

Schedule 2 contains provisions specifying the manner of calculation of amounts payable by way of contributions under the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987 in respect of motor vehicles as from 1 July 1987. The provisions are based on the provisions currently found in Schedule 1 to the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1942.

Schedule 3 contains savings and transitional provisions consequent upon the enactment of the proposed Transport Accidents Compensation Act 1987.

10 Minister in accordance with that Act.

Maximum amounts of contributions

3. The maximum amount of contribution for a motor vehicle is—
- 15 (a) if the contribution is payable in respect of a period of 1 year—the amount specified in the Table to this Schedule having regard to the classification of the motor vehicle and the place at which the vehicle is usually garaged at the time the contribution is payable; or 30 change, the maximum amount of contribution to be charged in respect of the motor vehicle is, on and from the date of the change, increased by an amount calculated in accordance with subclause (2).

(2) The amount of the increase is the sum ascertained by adding together the proportionate amount for each month or part of a month in that portion of the period during which the change is effective, that proportionate amount to be calculated by taking the difference between the maximum amount of contribution to be charged in respect of the motor vehicle at the time the contribution was payable and the maximum amount of contribution which would have been payable had that change been made prior to that time, and by dividing that difference by a number equivalent to the number of months (including any part of a month) of the period for which the contribution was payable.

Motor vehicle in 2 or more classifications

6. If a motor vehicle is within 2 or more classifications in the Table to this Schedule, the maximum contribution payable in respect of the motor vehicle is the highest maximum contribution prescribed by this Schedule for any of those classifications.

9. (1) If—

(a) the maximum amount of contribution determined in accordance with this Schedule, after the addition of any stamp duty payable in respect of the registration or renewal of registration of the motor vehicle to which the contribution relates; or comprises an amount which is not a whole number of dollars, the amount so comprised shall, subject to subclause (2), be adjusted upwards or downwards, as the case requires, to the nearer amount which produces a whole number of dollars.
