MISCELLANEOUS ACTS (WORKERS' COMPENSATION) AMENDMENT BILL, 1984 (No. 2)

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Compensation Court Bill, 1984.

The object of this Bill is to amend certain Acts consequent on the enactment of the Compensation Court Bill, 1984, and Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Bill, 1984.

The judicial functions of the Workers' Compensation Commission are to be vested in a Compensation Court and the Commission's administrative functions are to be vested in a State Compensation Board.

Schedule 1 to this Bill includes provisions converting references to the Commission (or to the Registrar of the Commission) to references to the Court or the Board, as the case may require, and making other amendments of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

Schedule 2 contains savings, transitional and other provisions consequent on and in connection with the enactment of the Compensation Court Bill, 1984, and the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Bill, 1984.

- 15 (a) to the extent that that act, matter or thing would have been an act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Court had Schedule 6 to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984, been in force at that time—be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Court; and

- 20 (b) to the extent that that act, matter or thing would have been an act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board had Schedule 6 to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984, been in force at that time—be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board.

- 25 (2) Subject to this Act, to the extent that any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done before the appointed day by, to or in respect of the Government Insurance Office as director, controller or manager of the Insurers' Contribution Fund would, but for the enactment of the amending Acts, have had, on or after that day, any force or effect or been in operation, that act, matter or thing shall be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board as director, controller or manager of that Fund.

Transfer of certain assets, debts and liabilities from the Board to the Crown.

- 30 5. (1) A reference in this clause to assets, debts and liabilities of the Board is a reference to assets, debts and liabilities of the Board which were, immediately before the appointed day, assets, debts or liabilities of the Commission.

- (2) For the purpose of determining what assets, debts and liabilities of the Board should be those of the Crown there shall, on and from the appointed day, be a 35 committee consisting of—

- (a) a chairman, being the Treasurer, or a person appointed by the Treasurer as the representative of the Treasurer on the committee;

- 5 (b) the Minister administering the Compensation Court Act, 1984, or a person appointed by that Minister as the representative of the Court on the committee; and
- (c) the Minister administering Part IV of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or a person appointed by that Minister as the representative of the Board on the committee.
- (3) The committee shall—
- 10 (a) determine what assets of the Board are to be assets of the Crown;
- (b) determine (by apportionment or otherwise) what debts and liabilities of the Board are to be debts and liabilities of the Crown;
- (c) determine what records (including books, documents and papers) of the Board are to be records of the Court; and
- 15 (d) determine how the expense of meeting payments on account of the leave entitlements or on the retirement or death or other termination of the employment of an officer or employee of the Commission transferred to the service of the Court should be apportioned between the Board and the Crown.
- (4) Where a determination has been made under this clause, a record thereof
- 20 shall be filed in the Court and the office of the Board, and a copy transmitted to the Treasury for record purposes.
- (5) A determination made under this clause shall be given effect to by the Board, the Court or, on behalf of the Crown, the Minister administering the Compensation Court Act, 1984, as the case may require.
- 25 (6) Questions arising at a meeting of the committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the committee.

Vesting of certain assets, etc., in the Court.

6. (1) Without affecting anything in clause 5, the Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare that any assets, debts or liabilities referred to in that

30 clause and specified or referred to in the proclamation belong to the Crown.

(2) A proclamation may be published under subclause (1) in respect only of assets, debts and liabilities that are determined under clause 5 to be those of the Crown.

Miscellaneous Acts (Workers' Compensation) Amendment.

5 (3) The provisions of clauses 2 and 4 (1) apply to and in respect of the assets, debts or liabilities to which a proclamation under subclause (1) relates in the same way as they apply to and in respect of the things therein referred to, and so apply as if references to—

(a) the appointed day were references to the date of publication in the Gazette of the proclamation or a later date specified in the proclamation;

(b) the Commission were references to the Board; and

10 (c) the Board were references to the Crown.

(4) For the purposes of subclause (1), any assets, debts or liabilities may be specified or referred to in a proclamation by reference to documents, lists or inventories kept in the Court or at the office of the Board, or both.

Savings as to members and staff of the Commission.

15 7. (1) A person appointed as a member of the Commission and holding office as such immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to have been duly appointed as a Judge of the Court.

20 (2) A person appointed to act temporarily as an additional member of the Commission under section 31 (4) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and whose appointment continues in force immediately before the appointed day, shall be deemed to have been duly appointed to act as a Judge of the Court under section 11 (4) of the Compensation Court Act, 1984, but the person shall not, by virtue of this subclause, hold office as such for a time longer than that for which the person was appointed.

25 (3) The person who was, immediately before the appointed day, the Chairman of the Commission shall be deemed to have been duly appointed as the Chief Judge of the Court.

30 (4) A person appointed as a member of the Commission and not holding office as such immediately before the appointed day, and a widow of any such person, shall have the same rights as to salary, pension or otherwise which he or she would have had if the amending Acts had not been enacted.

(5) A person appointed or employed as a casual employee of the Commission under section 33 (4) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and whose appointment
5 or employment continues in force immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed, where the Minister directs by instrument in writing that he or she be deemed to be a casual employee of the Board, to have been duly appointed or employed, as the case may be, as a casual employee of the Board under section 36 (5) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and his or her wages and conditions of employment, if fixed
10 by the Commission, shall be deemed to have been fixed by the Board.

Pending proceedings, etc., before the Commission in court session.

8. (1) Any sittings of the Commission arranged for dates on or after the appointed day shall, unless the Chief Judge of the Court otherwise directs, be deemed to be sittings of the Court.
- 15 (2) Subject to the rules of the Court, and unless the Court otherwise orders—
- (a) any proceedings pending before the Commission in court session immediately before the appointed day shall be continued before and disposed of by the Court, but otherwise those proceedings shall be continued and disposed of as if the amending Acts had not been enacted;
- 20 (b) any award of the Court in proceedings referred to in paragraph (a) shall be enforceable in the same way as an award of the Court in proceedings commenced after the appointed day is enforceable;
- (c) except as provided by paragraph (d), any award of the Commission in court session shall be enforceable by the Court in the same way as an 25 award of the Court is enforceable;
- (d) any award of the Commission in court session shall, as regards any step taken in the enforcement of the award before the appointed day, be enforceable by the Court, but otherwise shall be enforceable as if the amending Acts had not been enacted; and
- 30 (e) the entitlement of any party to costs in respect of proceedings commenced in the Commission before the appointed day and completed in the Court after that day shall be ascertained as if the amending Acts had not been enacted.
- (3) Unless the Supreme Court in a particular case otherwise orders—
- 35 (a) Part IV of the Compensation Court Act, 1984, applies to and in respect of proceedings in, or an award of, the Commission in court session as if they were proceedings in, or it were an award of, the Court; and

Miscellaneous Acts (Workers' Compensation) Amendment.

- 5 (b) any appeal made under Part IV of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and pending in the Supreme Court immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to have been made under Part IV of the Compensation Court Act, 1984.

Matters pending before the Commission, other than in court session.

9. Subject to the regulations, any matter pending before the Commission immediately before the appointed day (other than a proceeding pending before the Commission
10 in court session) shall be continued before and disposed of by the Board.

Construction of certain references.

10. (1) Subject to the regulations, a reference in an instrument enacted, made, proclaimed or published before the appointed day, being a reference to, or a reference to be read or construed as a reference to, or deemed or taken to refer to—
- 15 (a) the Commission, the Chairman of the Commission or a member of the Commission shall be read and construed as a reference to the Board, except to the extent that a reference is made in relation to a function that is by or under this or any other Act conferred or imposed (otherwise than by a delegation) on the Court;
- 20 (b) the Commission, the Chairman of the Commission or a member of the Commission, to the extent that the reference is made in relation to a function that is by or under this or any other Act conferred or imposed (otherwise than by a delegation) on the Court, shall be read and construed as a reference to the Court, the Chief Judge of the Court and a Judge of the Court,
25 respectively;
- (c) a medical board within the meaning of section 51 of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as in force before the appointed day, shall be read and construed as a reference to a medical panel appointed under section 50 of that Act, as in force on and after that day; and
- 30 (d) the Uninsured Liability Scheme constituted under section 18c of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as in force before the appointed day, shall be read and construed as a reference to the Uninsured Liability and Indemnity Scheme constituted under that section, as in force on and after that day.

5 (2) Subject to the regulations, a reference in an instrument enacted, made, proclaimed or published before the appointed day, being a reference to, or a reference to be read or construed as a reference to, or deemed or taken to refer to, the Government Insurance Office as manager of the Insurers' Contribution Fund shall be read and construed as a reference to the Board as manager of that Fund.

Regulations.

10 11. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the amending Acts.

(2) A provision made under subclause (1) may take effect—

- 15 (a) except as provided in paragraph (b)—as from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2) of the Compensation Court Act, 1984; or
- (b) where the provision is consequent on the enactment of Schedule 5 (Schedule 5 (3) (a) excepted) to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984—
—as from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4) of that Act.

(3) To the extent to which a provision referred to in subclause (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as—

- 20 (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or a public authority), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication therein; or
- 25 (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or a public authority) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication therein.

(4) A provision made under subclause (1) shall, if the regulations expressly so provide, have effect notwithstanding the foregoing clauses of this Schedule.

- (h) all liquidated and unliquidated claims for which the Office would, but for the enactment of the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984, have been liable shall be liquidated and unliquidated claims for which the Board shall be liable.

Effect of certain acts, etc., of the Commission and the Government Insurance Office.

4. (1) Subject to this Act, to the extent that any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done before the appointed day by, to or in respect of the Commission would, but for the enactment of the amending Acts, have had, on or after that day, any force or effect or been in operation, that act, matter or thing shall—

- (a) to the extent that that act, matter or thing would have been an act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Court had Schedule 6 to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984, been in force at that time—be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Court; and
- (b) to the extent that that act, matter or thing would have been an act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board had Schedule 6 to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984, been in force at that time—be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board.

(2) Subject to this Act, to the extent that any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done before the appointed day by, to or in respect of the Government Insurance Office as director, controller or manager of the Insurers' Contribution Fund would, but for the enactment of the amending Acts, have had, on or after that day, any force or effect or been in operation, that act, matter or thing shall be deemed to have been done or omitted to be done by, to or in respect of the Board as director, controller or manager of that Fund.

Transfer of certain assets, debts and liabilities from the Board to the Crown.

5. (1) A reference in this clause to assets, debts and liabilities of the Board is a reference to assets, debts and liabilities of the Board which were, immediately before the appointed day, assets, debts or liabilities of the Commission.

(2) For the purpose of determining what assets, debts and liabilities of the Board should be those of the Crown there shall, on and from the appointed day, be a committee consisting of—

- (a) a chairman, being the Treasurer, or a person appointed by the Treasurer as the representative of the Treasurer on the committee;

Miscellaneous Acts (Workers' Compensation) Amendment.

---

- (b) the Minister administering the Compensation Court Act, 1984, or a person appointed by that Minister as the representative of the Court on the committee; and
- (c) the Minister administering Part IV of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, or a person appointed by that Minister as the representative of the Board on the committee.

(3) The committee shall—

- (a) determine what assets of the Board are to be assets of the Crown;
- (b) determine (by apportionment or otherwise) what debts and liabilities of the Board are to be debts and liabilities of the Crown;
- (c) determine what records (including books, documents and papers) of the Board are to be records of the Court; and
- (d) determine how the expense of meeting payments on account of the leave entitlements or on the retirement or death or other termination of the employment of an officer or employee of the Commission transferred to the service of the Court should be apportioned between the Board and the Crown.

(4) Where a determination has been made under this clause, a record thereof shall be filed in the Court and the office of the Board, and a copy transmitted to the Treasury for record purposes.

(5) A determination made under this clause shall be given effect to by the Board, the Court or, on behalf of the Crown, the Minister administering the Compensation Court Act, 1984, as the case may require.

(6) Questions arising at a meeting of the committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the committee.

Vesting of certain assets, etc., in the Court.

6. (1) Without affecting anything in clause 5, the Governor may, by proclamation published in the Gazette, declare that any assets, debts or liabilities referred to in that clause and specified or referred to in the proclamation belong to the Crown.

(2) A proclamation may be published under subclause (1) in respect only of assets, debts and liabilities that are determined under clause 5 to be those of the Crown.

Miscellaneous Acts (Workers' Compensation) Amendment.

(3) The provisions of clauses 2 and 4 (1) apply to and in respect of the assets, debts or liabilities to which a proclamation under subclause (1) relates in the same way as they apply to and in respect of the things therein referred to, and so apply as if references to—

- (a) the appointed day were references to the date of publication in the Gazette of the proclamation or a later date specified in the proclamation;
- (b) the Commission were references to the Board; and
- (c) the Board were references to the Crown.

(4) For the purposes of subclause (1), any assets, debts or liabilities may be specified or referred to in a proclamation by reference to documents, lists or inventories kept in the Court or at the office of the Board, or both.

Savings as to members and staff of the Commission.

7. (1) A person appointed as a member of the Commission and holding office as such immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to have been duly appointed as a Judge of the Court.

(2) A person appointed to act temporarily as an additional member of the Commission under section 31 (4) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and whose appointment continues in force immediately before the appointed day, shall be deemed to have been duly appointed to act as a Judge of the Court under section 11 (4) of the Compensation Court Act, 1984, but the person shall not, by virtue of this subclause, hold office as such for a time longer than that for which the person was appointed.

(3) The person who was, immediately before the appointed day, the Chairman of the Commission shall be deemed to have been duly appointed as the Chief Judge of the Court.

(4) A person appointed as a member of the Commission and not holding office as such immediately before the appointed day, and a widow of any such person, shall have the same rights as to salary, pension or otherwise which he or she would have had if the amending Acts had not been enacted.

(5) A person appointed or employed as a casual employee of the Commission under section 33 (4) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and whose appointment or employment continues in force immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed, where the Minister directs by instrument in writing that he or she be deemed to be a casual employee of the Board, to have been duly appointed or employed, as the case may be, as a casual employee of the Board under section 36 (5) of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and his or her wages and conditions of employment, if fixed by the Commission, shall be deemed to have been fixed by the Board.

Pending proceedings, etc., before the Commission in court session.

8. (1) Any sittings of the Commission arranged for dates on or after the appointed day shall, unless the Chief Judge of the Court otherwise directs, be deemed to be sittings of the Court.

(2) Subject to the rules of the Court, and unless the Court otherwise orders—

- (a) any proceedings pending before the Commission in court session immediately before the appointed day shall be continued before and disposed of by the Court, but otherwise those proceedings shall be continued and disposed of as if the amending Acts had not been enacted;
- (b) any award of the Court in proceedings referred to in paragraph (a) shall be enforceable in the same way as an award of the Court in proceedings commenced after the appointed day is enforceable;
- (c) except as provided by paragraph (d), any award of the Commission in court session shall be enforceable by the Court in the same way as an award of the Court is enforceable;
- (d) any award of the Commission in court session shall, as regards any step taken in the enforcement of the award before the appointed day, be enforceable by the Court, but otherwise shall be enforceable as if the amending Acts had not been enacted; and
- (e) the entitlement of any party to costs in respect of proceedings commenced in the Commission before the appointed day and completed in the Court after that day shall be ascertained as if the amending Acts had not been enacted.

(3) Unless the Supreme Court in a particular case otherwise orders—

- (a) Part IV of the Compensation Court Act, 1984, applies to and in respect of proceedings in, or an award of, the Commission in court session as if they were proceedings in, or it were an award of, the Court; and

Miscellaneous Acts (Workers' Compensation) Amendment.

- (b) any appeal made under Part IV of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, and pending in the Supreme Court immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to have been made under Part IV of the Compensation Court Act, 1984.

Matters pending before the Commission, other than in court session.

9. Subject to the regulations, any matter pending before the Commission immediately before the appointed day (other than a proceeding pending before the Commission in court session) shall be continued before and disposed of by the Board.

Construction of certain references.

10. (1) Subject to the regulations, a reference in an instrument enacted, made, proclaimed or published before the appointed day, being a reference to, or a reference to be read or construed as a reference to, or deemed or taken to refer to—

- (a) the Commission, the Chairman of the Commission or a member of the Commission shall be read and construed as a reference to the Board, except to the extent that a reference is made in relation to a function that is by or under this or any other Act conferred or imposed (otherwise than by a delegation) on the Court;
- (b) the Commission, the Chairman of the Commission or a member of the Commission, to the extent that the reference is made in relation to a function that is by or under this or any other Act conferred or imposed (otherwise than by a delegation) on the Court, shall be read and construed as a reference to the Court, the Chief Judge of the Court and a Judge of the Court, respectively;
- (c) a medical board within the meaning of section 51 of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as in force before the appointed day, shall be read and construed as a reference to a medical panel appointed under section 50 of that Act, as in force on and after that day; and
- (d) the Uninsured Liability Scheme constituted under section 18c of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as in force before the appointed day, shall be read and construed as a reference to the Uninsured Liability and Indemnity Scheme constituted under that section, as in force on and after that day.

(2) Subject to the regulations, a reference in an instrument enacted, made, proclaimed or published before the appointed day, being a reference to, or a reference to be read or construed as a reference to, or deemed or taken to refer to, the Government Insurance Office as manager of the Insurers' Contribution Fund shall be read and construed as a reference to the Board as manager of that Fund.

Regulations.

11. (1) The Governor may make regulations containing other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the amending Acts.

(2) A provision made under subclause (1) may take effect—

- (a) except as provided in paragraph (b)—as from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (2) of the Compensation Court Act, 1984; or
- (b) where the provision is consequent on the enactment of Schedule 5 (Schedule 5 (3) (a) excepted) to the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act, 1984—
—as from the day appointed and notified under section 2 (4) of that Act.

(3) To the extent to which a provision referred to in subclause (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as—

- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or a public authority), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication therein; or
- (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or a public authority) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication therein.

(4) A provision made under subclause (1) shall, if the regulations expressly so provide, have effect notwithstanding the foregoing clauses of this Schedule.
