PARLIAMENTARY ELECTORATES AND ELECTIONS
(AMENDMENT) BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Constitution (Amendment) Bill 1986.

The object of this Bill is to require the Electoral Districts Commissioners, in carrying out a distribution of electoral districts—

- (a) to have regard to demographic trends within the State and, as far as practicable, to endeavour to ensure on the basis of those trends that, 4 years from the day of the return of the writs for choosing the then current Legislative Assembly, the number of electors enrolled in each electoral district will be equal; and
- (b) subject to that requirement, to give due consideration, in relation to each electoral district, to—
 - (i) community of interests within the electoral district, including economic, social and regional interests;
 - (ii) means of communication and travel within the electoral district;
 - (iii) the physical features and area of the electoral district; and
 - (iv) the boundaries of the existing electoral districts.

The above requirements are subject to section 28 of the Constitution Act 1902, which also relates to the number of electors to be included in each electoral district.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 substitutes section 17A of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 (which currently sets out the criteria to be considered by the Electoral Districts Commissioners in distributing electoral districts). The proposed section contains the requirements specified above.
