The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to make amendments to various Acts (Schedules 1–46);
- (b) to amend certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 47);
- (c) to repeal certain Acts containing only—
  - (i) amendments to other Acts that have been incorporated in a reprint under the Reprints Act 1972;
  - (ii) repeals of other Acts;
  - (iii) spent or unnecessary provisions of a saving or transitional nature; or
  - (iv) validation or referential provisions,(Schedules 48 and 49);
- (d) to repeal the Reclamation Act 1930; and
- (e) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

The Bill contains the following Schedules:

Schedule 1 amends the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 to enable certain questions of law and procedure that arise in relation to inquiries held by the Equal Opportunity Tribunal to be determined by a judicial member of the Tribunal sitting alone.

Schedule 2 repeals section 12A of and Schedule 4 to the Bills of Sale Act 1898 to avoid any possible inconsistency between that Act and the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 of the Commonwealth that might arise by virtue of those provisions affecting financial transactions on the ground of marital status.

Schedule 3 amends section 83 of the Broken Hill Water and Sewerage Act 1938 to validate the levying of a rate in respect of ratable land for the year commencing 1 January 1986 using a rating base factor instead of the land value of that land.

Schedule 4 amends the Charitable Collections Act 1934 to enable the Minister to delegate to an officer of the Public Service the Minister's power in respect of approval of the proposed alteration of the constitution of a charity under section 5B of that Act.

Schedule 5 amends the Conveyancing Act 1919—

- (a) to allow positive covenants imposed on land under section 88D or 88E, and restrictions on the use of land imposed under section 88D, of the Act to be created upon registration or recording of a plan in the office of the Registrar-General (Schedule 5 (1)); and
- (b) to enable a fee to be collected before the issue of a certificate under section 88C of the Act as to the amount payable because of a failure to comply with such a positive covenant (Schedule 5 (2)).

Schedule 6 amends the Crimes Act 1900—

- (a) to change a reference in section 413C of that Act to the Central Fingerprint Bureau to the New South Wales Police Fingerprint Section (the title of the Bureau has been altered so that it may be integrated into the National Criminal Records Bureau) (Schedule 6 (1)); and
- (b) to make it clear that in proceedings before a magistrate in which it appears the defendant is a mentally ill person, the magistrate, in addition to exercising the powers under section 428x of that Act (namely, to order the defendant to be taken to a mental hospital for assessment or to discharge the defendant into the care of a responsible person) may make any other order, such as the granting of an adjournment or the granting of bail, as the magistrate considers appropriate (Schedule 6 (2)).

Schedule 7 amends the Darling Harbour Authority Act 1984 to authorise the Authority to open a new public road by notification published in the Gazette.

Schedule 8 amends the Dentists Act 1934 as a consequence of the enactment of the Area Health Services Act 1986 and of the transfer to public hospitals under the control of area health services and to other public hospitals of staff to provide dental treatment to school children.

Schedule 9 amends the Disorderly Houses Act 1943—

- (a) by way of statute law revision (Schedule 9 (1) and (2)); and

- (b) to make it clear that the Rule Committee of the Supreme Court may make rules for the purposes of that Act (the existing regulation-making power given by section 15 of that Act has been superseded by the operation of sections 6 and 124 (1) (a) of the Supreme Court Act 1970) (Schedule 9 (3)).

Schedule 10 amends the definition of "broiler breeder hen" in section 4 of the Egg Industry Act 1983 to provide that a broiler breeder hen is not a cross between an Australorp, a New Hampshire, a Rhode Island Red or a Langshan breed of hen. (At present, only a cross between a White Leghorn and any of those breeds is excluded from the definition).

Schedule 11 amends the Electricity Development Act 1945—

- (a) to provide that variation by an electricity supply authority of the form and basis of charging for electricity supplied by it, the method adopted in fixing charges for electricity supplied by it or the terms and conditions of supply of electricity supplied by it shall not take effect until 14 days after the electricity supply authority has notified the Energy Authority of New South Wales of the proposed variation (at present an electricity supply authority is simply required to notify the Energy Authority of such variations) (Schedule 11 (1)); and
- (b) to make it clear that electricity supply authorities are required to contribute towards the premium or additional premium payable by the Authority in relation to insurance policies effected by it on behalf of those authorities before the Authority pays that premium and to provide for that premium or additional premium to be paid out of money provided by Parliament (if any of those contributions are not paid on time) (Schedule 11 (2) and (3)).

Schedule 12 amends the Energy Authority Act 1976—

- (a) to provide that a proclamation declaring a state of emergency in relation to a form of energy does not take effect until the proclamation is published in the Gazette (Schedule 12 (1));
- (b) to enable regulations relating to a proclaimed state of emergency to be made before the proclamation is published in the Gazette so long as the regulations do not take effect until the proclamation takes effect (Schedule 12 (2));
- (c) to provide that the Minister instead of the Governor may appoint a person to act as General Manager of the Authority during the illness or absence of the General Manager (Schedule 12 (3)); and
- (d) to extend the protection against liability given to a member or person acting under the direction of the Authority under clause 14 of Schedule 1 to that Act to include a member of a committee (established under section 11 of that Act) or other person authorised, under section 27 of that Act, to examine and report to the Authority on any matter in connection with an inquiry (Schedule 12 (4)).

Schedule 13 amends the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979—

- (a) to make amendments to various sections of that Act consequential to the repeal of section 84 (4) of that Act by the Environmental Planning and Assessment (Amendment) Act 1985 (Schedule 13 (1)–(5) and (6));

- (b) to make it clear that section 104A of that Act operates to impose a limitation of the period within which a person may challenge the validity of a development consent only if public notice of the consent has been given and does not operate to prevent such a challenge in the absence of public notice (Schedule 13 (7)); and
- (c) to expand the power to make regulations under section 108 of that Act to enable the making of regulations for or with respect to the enlargement, expansion or intensification of an existing use (Schedule 13 (8)).

Schedule 14 repeals those provisions of the Factories, Shops and Industries Act 1962 relating to the registration and regulation of the use of automatic vending devices and makes amendments consequential on the repeal.

Schedules 15 (1) and 16 amend the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act 1935 and the Fisheries and Oyster Farms (Amendment) Act 1979, respectively. Section 27 of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act 1935 and amendments to that section and related sections contained in the Fisheries and Oyster Farms (Amendment) Act 1979 are repealed. The section (as so amended) authorises the making of regulations that prescribe the nets and other fishing gear that may lawfully be used and creates an offence for the use or possession of unlawful nets (maximum penalty $500). At present the general regulation-making power in that Act (section 120 (2) (f) and (g)) contains power to make the necessary regulations and authorises the imposition of a maximum penalty of $1,000 for an offence against those regulations. As a result of the repeal of section 27 it will be possible to prescribe a self-contained set of provisions relating to nets and other fishing gear with a uniform maximum penalty of $1,000.

Schedule 15 (2) amends section 91A (6) of the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act 1935 to remove the requirement that the amount payable under a penalty notice served on a person who has committed an offence against prescribed provisions of that Act or the regulations should not exceed $50. The amendment will make the provision consistent with similar provisions in other Acts.

Schedule 17 amends the Forestry Act 1916—

- (a) to enable the commission to deal with activities on land under its control and silvicultural management by virtue of an agreement under section 11 (1C) of that Act in the same way as it deals with activities in state forests (Schedule 17 (1));
- (b) to increase from $150,000 to $200,000 the amount that the commission may expend on any work without having to obtain the particular approval of the Minister (Schedule 17 (2));
- (c) to enable the commission to remove structures (such as buildings, tents or beehives) and the contents, if any, of those structures, erected with lawful authority in a state forest, timber reserve or flora reserve when that authority expires or is terminated for any reason (Schedule 17 (3) (a));
- (d) to omit a provision relating to proceedings for offences under a section that is unnecessary because no offence is created by that section (Schedule 17 (3) (b));
- (e) to enable a member of the police force, or person authorised by the commission in writing, to seize any article or thing the member or person has reason to believe has been used to cut, remove or otherwise deal with timber, products or forest materials contrary to that Act or the regulations (Schedule 17 (4) (a));

- (f) to facilitate the seizure of timber, products or forest materials believed to have been cut, removed or otherwise dealt with contrary to the provisions of that Act or the regulations by enabling a member of the police force, or person authorised by the commission in writing, to direct that the timber, products or forest materials be delivered to a specified place for seizure (proposed section 43 (1) (c)—Schedule 17 (4) (b) and (d));
- (g) to create an offence of failing to comply with a reasonable direction to deliver timber, products or forest materials given under proposed section 43 (1) (c) (proposed section 43 (1A)—Schedule 17 (4) (c));
- (h) to increase the maximum penalty for making or causing to be made false entries in, or for omitting to make or keep, any book, return, declaration or statement directed by the Act or regulations to be made or kept, from $400 to $500 (Schedule 17 (5)); and
- (i) to remove the requirement that the amount payable under a penalty notice served on a person who has committed a prescribed offence involving the taking or destruction of any timber, products or forest materials should not exceed a prescribed amount (certified by the commission to be the amount that would have been payable by way of royalty if the timber, products or forest materials had been taken in pursuance of a timber licence, products licence or forest materials licence) (Schedule 17 (6)).

Schedule 18(5) amends section 23A of the Growth Centres (Development Corporations) Act 1974 to change the name of the corporation constituted under that section from "Director, Macarthur Growth Area" to "Macarthur Development Corporation" and the other items of Schedule 18 make consequential amendments to numerous other provisions of that Act.

Schedule 19 amends the Health Insurance Levies Act 1982 to enable a prescribed rate (adjusted under clause 4 of Schedule 2 to that Act) which includes a fraction of a cent to be rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Schedule 20 amends section 88B of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 to omit the requirement that the approval of the Industrial Commission of New South Wales or the hairdressing industry conciliation committee be obtained before certain contracts are entered into relating to the lease, or grant of a licence or permit for the occupation or use, of premises for the purposes of hairdressing.

Schedule 21 amends the Justices Act 1902 to facilitate the administration of the scheme set up under Part IVB of that Act by enabling orders to enforce penalty notices to be annulled by the Clerk of a Local Court in chambers instead of by a Magistrate after a hearing (proposed sections 100Q–100S and 100V). Provision is made to enable an appeal to be made to a Magistrate where the Clerk of a Local Court refuses to annul such an order (proposed section 100T).

Schedule 22 amends the Law Foundation Act 1979 to enable the Attorney General to appoint alternate members, nominated in the same manner and having the same qualifications as the members for whom they are alternate members, to act during the absence or illness of certain members of the Board of Governors of the Law Foundation. (The members concerned are 2 solicitors nominated by the Council of the Law Society of New South Wales, a barrister nominated by the New South Wales Bar Association and a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly nominated by the leader of the opposition in the Legislative Assembly).

Schedule 23 amends the Marketing of Primary Products Act 1983—

- (a) to omit the requirement that the Minister for Consumer Affairs be consulted before nomination of members to boards and committees constituted under that Act (Schedule 23 (1) and (5));
- (b) to provide that a board may deal with a primary product other than the commodity for which the board concerned is constituted only with the consent of any other board or committee constituted for that commodity (Schedule 23 (2));
- (c) to enable a board to join in the formation of, and purchase, hold, dispose of or deal with shares in, or subscribe to the issue of shares by, a company whether or not the company is to be or is incorporated in New South Wales (Schedule 23 (3));
- (d) to make it clear that, under section 62 of that Act, only that part of any commodity rejected or exempted from vesting by a board reverts in the owner, not the whole of the commodity (Schedule 23 (4));
- (e) to enable a marketing board or committee to use assets other than commodities delivered or expected to be delivered to the board or committee as security for financial accommodation made to the board or committee (Schedule 23 (6));
- (f) to omit a superfluous reference and make an amendment by way of statute law revision (Schedule 23 (7) (a) and (8)); and
- (g) to enable the time after each financial accounting period within which an authority must hold its annual meeting to be altered by the Minister to a time later than 6 months after that period (Schedule 23 (7) (b)).

Schedule 24 amends the Meat Industry Act 1978 to change the financial year of the Homebush Abattoir Corporation from the year ending 30 June to the year ending 31 March.

Schedule 25 amends the Motor Dealers Act 1974 to extend the requirement under section 49 of that Act that a holder of a dealer's licence or a vehicle-wrecker's licence make certain disclosures in advertisements relating to the sale of motor vehicles to cases of the sale of parts of motor vehicles.

Schedule 26 amends the definition of "inspector" in section 4 (1) of the Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 so that it includes a person of whose services the Motor Vehicle Repair Industry Council makes use under section 12 (2) (a) of that Act or any other Act.

Schedule 27 amends the Motor Vehicles (Third Party Insurance) Act 1942—

- (a) as a consequence of the enactment of the Interstate Road Transport Act 1985 of the Commonwealth and the registration in New South Wales of motor vehicles under the provisions of that Act (Schedule 27 (1) and (3)); and
- (b) to provide that the period in which a third-party policy issued by the Government Insurance Office remains in force under section 10 (5) (c) of that Act shall be 15 days after the date on which the policy is expressed to terminate or the last day of the month in which that date occurs, whichever is later (Schedule 27 (2)).

Schedule 28 amends the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 to remove the nominal distinction made between regulations and by-laws by that Act.

Schedule 29 amends the definition of “public authority” in section 5 (1) of the Ombudsman Act 1974 to make it clear that the Ombudsman has the power to investigate the conduct of any member or employee of a local government authority (Schedule 29 (1)). The Schedule also contains an amendment consequential to the proposed amendment of the Privacy Committee Act 1975 by Schedule 33 (Schedule 29 (2)).

Schedule 30 amends the Parole Orders (Transfer) Act 1983 to expedite the procedure by which a parole order is registered under the law of another State or Territory by modifying the requirement specified in section 6 of that Act as to the documents to accompany a request for such registration so that documents that are more accessible than the judgment or order presently required may be sent with the request.

Schedule 31 amends section 7A of the Police Board Act 1983 to extend the definition of “merit” in that section to include integrity (the Board is required by that section to consider the merit of each applicant in deciding to recommend to the Minister the appointment of a person to the rank of inspector of any grade, superintendent and higher rank).

Schedule 34 amends the Probation and Parole Act 1983 to confirm a recent decision of the New South Wales Court of Appeal that if a parole order is revoked the balance of the period of imprisonment after release on parole is to be reduced by “clean street time”. Generally speaking, “clean street time” is the period between the prisoner’s release on parole and the act that results in parole being revoked.

Schedule 35 amends the Public Authorities Superannuation Act 1985—

- (a) to alter ranging of section 32 of that Act that would prevent interest being payable in respect of the contributor-financed component of the preservation benefit payable under that section (the equivalent provision of the State Public Service Superannuation Act 1985 provides for interest to be payable in respect of both employer-financed and contributor-financed components of a preservation benefit) (Schedule 35 (1));
- (b) to omit an unnecessary reference to an employer from Schedule 3 of that Act (Schedule 35 (2)); and

- (c) to clarify the method of calculation of the adjustment percentage for CPI increases of children's and orphans' pensions under Schedule 6 to that Act (Schedule 35 (3)).

Schedule 36 amends the Reprints Act 1972 so that the words "license" and "licenses" where used as nouns in certain Acts and statutory instruments may be reprinted with the spelling "licence" and "licences", respectively (proposed section 9C).

Schedule 37 amends the Search Warrants Act 1985 so that New South Wales may participate in a scheme enabling States and Territories of the Commonwealth to issue search warrants for the investigation of offences against the laws of other States and Territories. The amendment authorises the Minister to enter into arrangements with other States and Territories for the mutual exchange of things seized as evidence in respect of offences against the laws of other States and Territories.

Schedule 38 amends the State Development and Industries Assistance Act 1966—

(a) by way of statute law revision—

- (iv) to omit a provision that will be superfluous after the commencement of Schedule 5 (2) of the State Development and Industries Assistance (Amendment) Act 1986,

(Schedule 38, Part 1 (1)–(5), (9) and (11) and Part 2);

- (d) to enable the Ministerial Corporation to erect, alter or extend buildings erected on such land (Schedule 38, Part 1 (8)—proposed section 34F);
- (e) to change the name of the corporation constituted under section 34H of that Act from "Ministerial Corporation for Industry and Decentralisation, Small Business and Technology" to "Ministerial Corporation for Industry" (Schedule 38, Part 1 (10) and (13)); and
- (f) to enable the corporation to delegate its functions to members of the staff of the Department of Industrial Development and Decentralisation (Schedule 38, Part 1 (12)—proposed section 34O).

Schedule 39 amends the Strata Titles Act 1973—

- (a) as a consequence of amendments made by Schedule 5 to this Act to the Conveyancing Act 1919 relating to positive covenants and restrictions on the use of land (Schedule 39 (1)); and
- (b) to require that, when the amendment to section 28A of that Act commences, development consent shall not be given for the registration of a strata plan and the subsequent subdivision of a proposed development lot in the plan if that lot is superimposed on another lot in the plan, instead of the current requirement that development consent is necessary for the registration and subsequent subdivision only if that proposed lot is not so superimposed (Schedule 39 (5)), and makes numerous amendments by way of statute law revision.

Schedule 40 amends Schedule 1 to the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Act 1978—

- (a) to provide for the appointment by the Governor of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Trust (at present the Chairman and Deputy Chairman are elected by the members of the Trust at the first meeting of the Trust in each year) (proposed clause 8); and
- (b) to enable the person holding the office of Chairman of the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Trust immediately prior to 31 December 1987 to remain in office for a period of 3 months after that person attains the age of 70 years (proposed clause 8A).

Schedule 41 amends section 49 of the Sydney Harbour Trust Act 1900 to alter the requirement under that section that the Maritime Services Board shall not enter into any contract where the amount involved exceeds $4,000 except after public tender so that public tender will be required only before the Board enters any contract relating to the supply of goods where the amount involved exceeds $10,000.

Schedule 42 amends section 132A of the Transport Act 1930 to enable allowances payable in the period of 12 months prior to the retirement or death of officers (who have had not less than 10 years' service and throughout such service have not been contributors to any superannuation fund or account) to be taken into account in calculating gratuities payable to those officers under that section.

Schedule 43 amends section 22 of the Venereal Diseases Act 1918 to avoid any inconsistency between that section and the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 of the Commonwealth.

- (a) to enable the Western Lands Commissioner to delegate to an officer of the Department of Lands the exercise or performance of the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred on the Commissioner under that Act (at present the Commissioner may make such a delegation only to an Assistant Western Lands Commissioner) (Schedule 44 (1)—proposed section 8A); and
- (b) to enable the period in which a clearing licence remains in force under section 18DB of that Act to be extended by the Commissioner (Schedule 44 (2)).

Schedule 45 amends section 30AD of the Workers' Compensation Act 1926 to make it clear that a person is not guilty of an offence against that Act by reason of an amount in the nature of a premium for a policy being calculated by reference to the claims experience of the employer to which the policy relates if the premium is for a policy to which an order under section 30AB applies and is calculated in the manner fixed by that order.

Schedule 46 amends the Fish River Water Supply Administration Act 1945, the Government Railways Act 1912, the New South Wales Government Engineering and Shipbuilding Undertaking Act 1943, the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Administration Act 1941 and the State Brickworks Act 1946 to rationalise the procedure for calculation of interest on certain Special Deposits Accounts by enabling the Treasurer to determine the rate and method of calculation of that interest.

Schedule 47 amends certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of amendments are made relating to formal drafting matters such as the appropriate form of headings to Parts of Acts, the citation of Acts and cross-references within Acts and minor corrections.

Schedule 47 also contains amendments for the following purposes:

To amend section 54 of the Animal Research Act 1985 to provide a penalty of $2,000 for a contravention of that section (the penalty was omitted due to a printing error).

To amend the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act 1941 to revise outmoded references to the names of certain organisations.

To amend the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 as a consequence of the enactment of the Trotting Authority (Change of Names) Amendment Act 1985.

To amend the Higher Education Act 1975 to remove a superfluous reference to the Governor's role in fixing remuneration of full-time members of the Higher Education Board (the reference is a duplication as the offices of the members are included in Part 2 of Schedule 3 to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975).

To amend the Housing Act 1912 to omit an obsolete reference to the levying of the amount of costs by distress.

To amend the Housing Act 1912 and the Public Servant Housing Authority Act 1975 to clarify certain references required to be construed as references to the Director of Housing.

To amend the Mental Health Act 1983—

- (a) so that provisions of Schedule 2 to that Act relating to membership of the Mental Health Review Tribunal are consistent with the provisions of section 38 of that Act relating to appointment of full-time and part-time members; and
- (b) so that that part of Note 1 to Schedule 3 to that Act (containing the form of medical certificate as to examination or observation of a person) which sets out section 5 of that Act is consistent with that section.

To amend the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 as a consequence of the amendments to the Mental Health Act 1983.

The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1985 reduced the number of Acts previously in force by approximately 45 per cent. Schedule 48 repeals certain Acts and further reduces the number of Acts previously in force.
