

STATUTE LAW (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) BILL
1985

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The Subordinate Legislation (Repeal) Bill 1985 is cognate with this Bill.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to repeal certain Acts containing only—
 - (i) amendments to other Acts that have been incorporated in a reprint under the Amendments Incorporation Act 1906 or the Reprints Act 1972;
 - (ii) repeals of other Acts;
 - (iii) spent or unnecessary provisions of a saving or transitional nature; or
 - (iv) validation or referential provisions (Schedules 1 and 32);
 - (b) to repeal the Ministers of the Crown Act 1959 (Schedule 1);
 - (c) to repeal the Argentine Ant Eradication Act 1962 (Schedules 1 and 32);
 - (d) to repeal the Naturalization and Denization Act of New South Wales 1898 and to transfer its substantive provisions to the Conveyancing Act 1919 (Schedules 1 and 3);
 - (e) to make amendments to various other Acts (Schedules 2–30);
 - (f) to amend certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 31); and
 - (g) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

The Bill contains the following Schedules:

Schedule 1 repeals the Acts referred to in paragraph (a) above and thereby reduces by approximately 45 per cent the number of Acts previously in force. The Schedule also repeals the following Acts:

The Argentine Ant Eradication Act 1962. The Act is unnecessary as the Argentine ant has been almost eradicated in New South Wales and so specific provision for its eradication need no longer be made. The Argentine ant has been declared a pest under the Plant Diseases Act 1924 and will in future be controlled under the provisions of that Act.

The Ministers of the Crown Act 1959. The Act has been superseded by the Administrative Changes Act 1976.

The Naturalization and Denization Act of New South Wales Act 1898. The substantive provisions of the Act are transferred to the Conveyancing Act 1919 by Schedule 3.

Schedule 2 amends section 7 (2) of the Art Gallery of New South Wales Act 1980 to require the Art Gallery of New South Wales Trust to give emphasis to the visual art of Asian and Pacific countries when acting in pursuance of its objects. At present the Trust is required to give emphasis to visual art of the southern hemisphere.

Schedule 3 amends the Conveyancing Act 1919 to incorporate in that Act section 4 of the Naturalization and Denization Act of New South Wales 1898 which is to be repealed by this Act. Section 4 empowers aliens to take and deal with property in New South Wales.

Schedule 4 amends the De Facto Relationships Act 1984—

- (a) to repeal an obsolete referential provision (Schedule 4 (1));
- (b) to correct inappropriate cross references (Schedule 4 (2));
- (c) to overcome any doubt as to the power of a court to make an ex parte order for lump sum and periodic maintenance under section 40 of the Act by specifically empowering a court to make ex parte orders generally (Schedule 4 (3));
- (d) to enable a court to grant an ex parte injunction for the personal protection of a de facto partner or a child residing or normally residing in the same household as de facto partners or for preventing a de facto partner from entering certain specified places (Schedule 4 (4)); and
- (e) to make it clear that the appeal provisions of the Local Court (Civil Claims) Act 1970 apply to an order for the payment of money made by a Local Court under the De Facto Relationships Act 1984 (Schedule 4 (5)).

Schedule 5 amends the Dormant Funds Act 1942 so as to enable the Commissioner of Dormant Funds to formulate a proposal and make an order under section 12 of that Act for the application of a dormant fund the value of which does not exceed $2000. At present the Commissioner is able to take action under section 12 of that Act in relation to a dormant fund up to a value of $200.

Schedule 6 amends section 20 of the Family Provision Act 1982 to allow notice of an application under that Act to be served on certain persons in accordance with rules of court. At present the Supreme Court is required to give directions as to the service of such notices.

Schedule 7 amends the definition of "minor" in section 3 (1) of the Film and Video Tape Classification Act 1984 to avoid any possible inconsistency between that Act and the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 of the Commonwealth that might arise by virtue of the exclusion of a married person from that definition.

Schedule 8 amends the Firearms and Dangerous Weapons Act 1973 so as to make provision with respect to the possession, purchase, sale and use of spare barrels for firearms other than pistols. At present provision is made in respect only of spare barrels for pistols.

Schedule 9 amends the Fisheries and Oyster Farms Act 1935 to change the title of the Amateur Fishermen's Advisory Council to the N.S.W. Recreational Fishing Advisory Council. The Schedule also contains provisions to alter the spelling of the noun "license" to "licence".

Schedule 10 amends the Forestry Act 1916 so as—

- (a) to enable the Forestry Commission to let on lease real property vested in it without first obtaining the approval of the Governor (Schedule 10 (1));
- (b) to extend the present power of the Commission under section 11 (1) (m) of the Act to enter into agreements in relation to the exercise or performance of the powers, authorities, duties or functions conferred or imposed on it under the Act to include agreements in relation to these matters conferred or imposed on it under some other Act (Schedule 10 (2) (a));
- (c) to make it clear that the Commission may form, acquire an interest in, or involve itself in, the control and management of a corporation or partnership formed for the purpose of carrying on the business of forestry (Schedule 10 (2) (b));
- (d) to enable the Commission to make determinations with respect to fees or charges for activities carried out by it under the Act or regulations generally not only, as at present, under section 11 (Schedule 10 (2) (c));
- (e) to modify the procedure whereby the Commission and the Consolidated Fund share certain royalties and other forest revenue by providing that an amount equivalent to 50 per cent of the royalties and other amounts recovered by or paid to the Commission shall be specially appropriated to the Forestry Commission Account at the Treasury instead of being transferred to a special deposits account after being paid into the Consolidated Fund (Schedule 10 (3));
- (f) to provide for the appropriation of 50 per cent of the amounts received by the Commission from the sale of timber, products or forest materials seized under section 43 of the Act in the same manner as the royalties and other amounts referred to in paragraph (e) (Schedule 10 (3));

- (g) to increase the maximum penalty for unlawfully taking timber products or forest materials on Crown-timber lands from $500 to $1000 (Schedule 10 (4) (a));
- (h) to increase the maximum period of imprisonment for unlawfully taking timber products or forest materials on Crown-timber lands from 3 months to 6 months (Schedule 10 (4) (b));
- (i) to increase the additional penalty for destruction or damage of any trees when unlawfully taking timber products or forest materials on Crown-timber lands from $5 to $10 per tree (Schedule 10 (4) (c));
- (j) to correct an inaccurate reference to a requirement to obtain a clearing licence to take or destroy certain timber or products so that reference is made to obtaining a timber licence or a products licence (Schedule 10 (4) (d));
- (k) to enable the Commission to recover the royalty value of any timber, products or forest materials damaged otherwise than in pursuance of a licence or other authority issued or granted by the Commission (Schedule 10 (5));
- (l) to make it clear that it is an offence to use land within a State forest, timber reserve or flora reserve whether or not the land is actually occupied (Schedule 10 (6));
- (m) to facilitate proof of offences in relation to hunting and use of firearms by requiring production of any bird or animal in the possession of a person suspected, on reasonable grounds, to be guilty of such an offence (Schedule 10 (7) and (8) (a) and (b));
- (n) to provide that section 32E (b) of the Act will apply in respect of the delivery up or seizure of certain articles or things irrespective of when a person is charged, not as at present only if the person is charged on or after the expiration of a 30 days' period after the delivery up or seizure, and to make similar provision in respect of seizure of property under section 43 (2D) of the Act (Schedule 10 (8) (c) and (10));
- (o) to enable a penalty not exceeding $500 to be imposed by the regulations for failure to comply with a provision or condition contained in a lease (Schedule 10 (9)); and
- (p) to consolidate Parts 1 and 2 of the Second Schedule to the Act (Schedule 10 (11)).

Schedule 11—

- (a) amends section 21A of the Interpretation Act 1897 so as to preserve, in respect of legislation, if any, that retains the expression "British subject" the meaning of that expression after amendments to the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 of the Commonwealth removing the British subject status from that Act come into force (Schedule 11 (1)); and
- (b) provides for a reference to the short title of an Act or citation of an instrument made under an Act that is changed to be read as a reference to the short title or citation as so changed (Schedule 11 (2)).

Schedule 12 amends the Jury Act 1977 to make it clear that a reference to an electoral district or subdivision includes a reference to part of an electoral division or subdivision. The amendment is necessary as a consequence of the recent re-distribution of the subdivisions of New South Wales electoral districts.

Schedule 13 amends the Landlord and Tenant (Rental Bonds) Act 1977 to extend the purposes for which the Rental Bond Board may make a grant or loan from the Rental Bond Interest Account to include activities approved by the Minister that are relevant to matters associated with the relationship of landlord and tenant.

Schedule 14 (1) amends section 50 of the Local Government Act 1919 so that the voting rights of certain British subjects (not being Australian citizens) are preserved in the same way as that proposed for electors for the Legislative Assembly or Legislative Council under the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 (Schedule 18). Schedule 14 (2) contains an amendment consequential to the proposed repeal of the Local Government (Traffic Regulation) Amendment Act 1980 by Schedule 1.

Schedule 15 amends section 40 (3) of the Motor Dealers Act 1974 so that the matters for which the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs can certify a loss for payment out of the Motor Dealers Compensation Fund are limited to losses incurred after a specified date (1 May 1975). The limitation is at present expressed by reference to the commencement of section 9 of the Act. The amendment will avoid any confusion as to the meaning of the limitation that might result from the substitution of section 9 of the Act as from the commencement of Schedule 2 to the Motor Dealers (Amendment) Act 1985.

Schedule 16 amends the Necropolis Act 1901 so as—

- (a) to omit certain headings (Schedule 16 (1));
- (b) to increase the maximum penalty for committing a nuisance within the Necropolis from $100 to $500 (Schedule 16 (2));
- (c) to increase the maximum penalty for damaging a monument, vault, tombstone, building, erection, railing, shrubbery, tree or plant in the Necropolis from $200 to $1000 and to extend that offence to cover damage to a flower, token or tribute (Schedule 16 (3), (4) and (6));
- (d) to increase the maximum penalty for a person giving a false name or address when apprehended while committing an offence within the Necropolis from $40 to $200 (Schedule 16 (5)); and
- (e) to increase the maximum penalty for breach of a regulation from $200 to $1000 (Schedule 16 (7)).

Schedule 17 amends section 7 (2) of the Noxious Insects Act 1934 to enable persons authorised by a pastures protection board to order the occupier of land to adopt the methods specified in the order to suppress and destruct noxious insects on the land.

Schedule 18 amends section 20 of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 which preserves the voting rights of certain British subjects (not being Australian citizens) who were enrolled at the commencement of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections (Amendment) Act 1982 (which altered the qualifications with respect to nationality for electors for the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly). The amendment will be necessary to preserve the effect of section 20 following the removal of the British subject status from the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 of the Commonwealth. Similar provision is proposed to be made to section 93 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 of the Commonwealth to come into operation on the day fixed by proclamation for the purpose of section 2 (2) of the Australian Citizenship Amendment Act 1984 of the Commonwealth.

Schedule 19 amends the Pastures Protection Act 1934 to change the title of rabbit inspectors to noxious animal inspectors.

Schedule 20 (2)-(8) amend the Prisons Act 1952 to provide for the appointment of a Judge of the District Court as an additional member of the Release on Licence Board. The additional member is to be appointed as a Deputy Chairman of the Board. Schedule 20 (1) contains a minor amendment by way of statute law revision and an amendment consequential to the proposed repeal of the Prisons (Amendment) Act 1978 by Schedule 1.

Schedule 21 amends the Probation and Parole Act 1983 to provide for the appointment of a Judge of the District Court as an additional judicial member of the Parole Board. The additional member is to be appointed as a Deputy Chairman of the Board.

Schedule 22 amends the Public Health Act 1902 to extend the definition of "officer" for the purposes of Part VIIA of that Act to include an officer of the Department of Industrial Relations and to provide that references to the Secretary in that Part mean the Secretary of that Department. The amendment is required as a consequence of the proposed transfer of the administration of Part VIIA from the Minister of Health to the Minister for Industrial Relations.

Schedule 23 amends the Public Notaries Act 1985 to make it clear that the counsel chosen by a person to oppose an application to the Supreme Court to appoint a public notary may be a solicitor.

Schedule 24 amends Schedule 1 (5) (e) to the Second-hand Dealers and Collectors (Amendment) Act 1985. Formerly Schedule 1 (5) (e) amended the Second-hand Dealers and Collectors Act 1906 to extend from 5 to 14 days the period during which a second-hand dealer must keep second-hand goods purchased or received. Provision is now made for the exemption by prescription of certain goods from the requirement that they be held for the extended period.

Schedule 25 amends the Second Schedule to the Stamp Duties Act 1920 to describe more accurately the nature of an instrument to which the Second Schedule applies.

Schedule 26 amends the Stock Diseases Act 1923 so as to make it clear that an inspector may order the owner or a person in control or in charge of stock found or suspected to be infected to identify the stock in such manner as the inspector may order or as may be prescribed.

Schedule 27 amends the Surveyors Act 1929 so as—

- (a) to omit obsolete references to articles (Schedule 27 (1), (8) (b) and (14) (a));
- (b) to provide for nominations to the Board of Surveyors to be made by the Institution rather than the council of that Institution (Schedule 27 (2) and (3));
- (c) to require the Board to cause a copy of the register of surveyors to be published in April rather than January of each year (Schedule 27 (4));
- (d) to require each surveyor to pay the prescribed roll fee before February in each year rather than before July (Schedule 27 (7) (b) and (c));
- (e) to increase the maximum penalty for failing to notify the board of a change of an address as appearing in the register from $10 to $50 (Schedule 27 (7) (d));
- (f) to increase the maximum penalty for making a survey when not registered as a surveyor, or taking or using any title, initials, addition or description implying a person is so registered when the person is not registered, from $300 to $2000 (Schedule 27 (8) (a));
- (g) to increase the maximum penalty for interfering with a survey mark or obstructing a surveyor exercising powers conferred by the Act from $100 to $500 (Schedule 27 (9));
- (h) to increase the maximum fine that the board may impose against a surveyor it has found guilty of an offence relating to the professional conduct of surveyors referred to in section 14 of the Act from $300 to $2000 (Schedule 27 (10) (a));
- (i) to increase the maximum penalty against a person for making a survey while the person's name is removed from the register or the person is suspended from practice as a surveyor from $300 to $2000 and to omit a continuing penalty for such an offence (Schedule 27 (10) (b));
- (j) to provide for the Institution of Surveyors rather than the council of that Institution to carry out certain functions relating to the laying of charges (Schedule 27 (11));
- (k) to increase the maximum penalty for failure to appear as a witness before the board after receiving a summons from $100 to $500 (Schedule 27 (12));
- (l) to increase the maximum penalty for breach of a regulation from $100 to $500 (Schedule 27 (14) (b)); and
- (m) to provide that a surveyor may commence an action for the recovery of a fee, charge or disbursement if a bill has been delivered by post not, as at present, by registered post (Schedule 27 (15)), and to make other minor or consequential amendments.

Schedule 28 amends section 31 (5) of the Trustee Companies Act 1964 so as to alter the requirement under that subsection that 3 directors of a trustee company be residents of New South Wales to a requirement that the directors be residents of Australia. Accordingly, as the managing director, if any, of a trustee company must be such a director, the managing directors of trustee companies will be required to be residents of Australia not of New South Wales.

Schedule 29 amends the Valuers Registration Act 1975 so as to provide that an amendment to the Valuers Registration Regulation (increasing the fee to accompany certain applications for registration made under section 13 of the Act) which was mistakenly gazetted so as to take effect on 1 May 1985 instead of 1 July 1985 shall be deemed to take effect from 1 July 1985. The provision operates to validate the payment of fees between 1 May 1985 and 1 July 1985 notwithstanding that these were paid at the lower rate.

Schedule 30 amends the Wellington Showground Act 1929 to increase the maximum penalty for breach of a by-law from $20 to $500.

Schedule 31 amends certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of amendments are made related to formal drafting matters such as the form of references to subsections and paragraphs of sections, spelling mistakes, the omission of outmoded headings, the inclusion of certain consequential amendments and the inclusion of standard provisions relating to the application of the Interpretation Act 1897. The Schedule also contains amendments for the following purposes:

To amend the Administration of Justice Act 1924 and the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act 1973 to make it clear that those Acts apply to arbitral awards that are not enforceable under Part VII of the Commercial Arbitration Act 1984.

To amend references to acts, matters, persons or things that cannot be amended solely by an order under the Reprints Act 1972 or that may more conveniently be amended at this time.

To amend the short titles of various Acts by omitting the word "of" where appearing before the date in the short title (Benevolent Society of New South Wales Act of 1902; Bills of Sale Act of 1898; Compensation to Relatives Act of 1897; Contractors' Debts Act of 1897; Juvenile Smoking Suppression Act of 1903; Liens on Crops and Wool and Stock Mortgages Act of 1898; Public Instruction Act of 1880; The Synod of Eastern Australian Property Act of 1918; Truck Act of 1900).

To amend references to the Minister in unincorporable provisions of amending Acts so as to specify which Minister has been allocated the administration of the provision (Electricity Commission (Amendment) Act 1982; Miscellaneous Acts (Coal Mines Regulation) Repeal and Amendment Act 1982; Miscellaneous Acts (Community Welfare) Repeal and Amendment Act 1982; Miscellaneous Acts (Planning) Repeal and Amendment Act 1979).

To amend the Sporting Injuries Insurance Act 1978 to correct an error that arose in relation to a typographical error.

To amend Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 to omit the reference to the office of Secretary of the Department of Health (the reference is a duplication as the office is included in the Schedule by virtue of section 16 (7) of the Act).

To amend section 58C (1) of the Valuation of Land Act 1916 for the purposes of metric conversion.

Schedule 32 contains savings, transitional and other provisions.
