STATUTE LAW (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) BILL 1986

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to repeal certain Acts containing only—
  - (i) amendments to other Acts that have been incorporated in a reprint under the Reprints Act 1972;
  - (ii) repeals of other Acts;
  - (iii) spent or unnecessary provisions of a saving or transitional nature; or
  - (iv) validation or referential provisions,(Schedules 1 and 24);
- (b) to repeal the Demise of the Crown Act 1901 (Schedule 1);
- (c) to repeal the Wheat Marketing (Barring of Claims) Act 1929 (Schedule 1);
- (d) to make amendments to various other Acts (Schedules 2–22);
- (e) to amend certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision (Schedule 23); and
- (f) to make other provisions of a minor, consequential or ancillary nature.

The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1985 reduced the number of Acts previously in force by approximately 45 per cent. Schedule 1 repeals the Acts referred to in paragraph (a) above and thereby further reduces the number of Acts previously in force.

Schedule 1 also repeals—

- (a) the Demise of the Crown Act 1901 (the substantive provisions of the Act are transferred to the Constitution Act 1902 by Schedule 5); and
- (b) the Wheat Marketing (Barring of Claims) Act 1929 (the Act is obsolete).

The Bill also contains the following Schedules:

Schedule 2 amends the Apiaries Act 1985—

- (a) to enable the Director-General of Agriculture not only to prohibit the keeping of bees on premises but also to restrict the number of beehives kept on premises (Schedule 2 (1)); and
- (b) to enable more than one officer in each State, Territory or place to be prescribed to certify that bees, beehives, apiary products and appliances are free of prescribed diseases within the meaning of that Act (Schedule 2 (2)).

Schedule 3 amends the Associations Incorporation Act 1984 to empower the Corporate Affairs Commission to cancel the incorporation of an association under that Act where the association fails to comply with a requirement of that Act to effect and maintain insurance.

Schedule 4 amends section 34 (1) of the Biological Control Act 1985. The section was not intended to operate only to bar the institution or continuation of proceedings in any court to recover damages in respect of any loss incurred or any damage suffered by reason of the release of declared agent organisms in another State or Territory.

Schedule 5 amends the Constitution Act 1902 to incorporate in that Act the substantive provisions of the Demise of the Crown Act 1901 which is to be repealed by Schedule 1. The provisions provide for the continuity of the holding of any office under the Crown on the demise of the Crown (Schedule 5 (2)). Schedule 5 (1) contains an amendment by way of statute law revision.

Schedule 6 amends section 352AA of the Crimes Act 1900 to make it clear that only a person at large otherwise than by reason of having escaped from lawful custody is entitled, on commitment to prison under section 352AA (1) of that Act, to be kept in custody under the same authority and subject to the same conditions and with the benefit of the same privileges and entitlements as would have applied in respect of the person had the person not been at large.

Schedule 7 amends the Crimes (Confiscation of Profits) Act 1985—

- (a) to amend section 14 of that Act to make it clear that the officer of the Supreme Court before whom a person may be ordered to be examined concerning the nature and location of property in respect of which the Supreme Court has made a restraining order may be an officer prescribed by the regulations or by rules of court (Schedule 7 (1));

- (b) to correct an inappropriate cross reference in section 24 (which relates to notice of applications under Part IV) of that Act (Schedule 7 (2)); and
- (c) to amend section 38 of that Act to omit a superfluous provision relating to appeals against forfeiture orders and pecuniary penalty orders (Schedule 7 (3)).

Schedule 8 amends the Harness Racing Authority Act 1977—

- (a) to correct a typographical error in section 8 (2) (d) (x) of that Act (Schedule 8 (1)); and
- (b) to extend the circumstances in which a qualified person (within the meaning of section 17A of that Act) appointed to act as the Tribunal may act as the Tribunal and to provide for the appointment of an additional qualified person to act as the Tribunal during periods when the qualified person appointed to act as the Tribunal is ill or absent (Schedule 8 (2)).

At present only one person may be appointed to act as the Tribunal and may so act only during the illness or absence of the person appointed as the Tribunal or during a vacancy in the office of the Tribunal.

Schedule 9 amends section 3 (1) of the Listening Devices Act 1984 to include an offence punishable as provided by section 235 of the Customs Act 1901 of the Commonwealth within the definition of “serious narcotics offence”.

Schedule 10 amends the Miscellaneous Acts (Workers’ Compensation) Amendment Act 1984 to make it clear that decisions of the former Workers’ Compensation Commission in court session or in chambers are to be deemed to be decisions of the Compensation Court (which succeeded the Commission in regard to its judicial functions) thus ensuring that decisions of the Commission can be reviewed, rescinded and so forth by the Court. The amendment replaces transitional regulations gazetted on 14 March 1986.

Schedule 11 amends section 3 of the Motor Vehicles Taxation Management Act 1949 to include ex-servicemen in receipt of a disability allowance who have war caused disabilities which affect their powers of locomotion within the definition of “Pensioner” in that section. Pensioners’ motor vehicles are exempt from tax under section 7 of that Act. Clause 3 of Schedule 24 operates to validate administrative arrangements to exempt those persons from payment of tax levy and weight tax payable on or after 1 July 1985.

Schedule 12 amends section 7 of the Racing Appeals Tribunal Act 1983 to extend the circumstances in which a qualified person (i.e. a judge of any court or a person qualified to be a Judge of the District Court) appointed to act as the Tribunal may act as the Tribunal and to provide for the appointment of an additional qualified person to act as the Tribunal during periods when the qualified person appointed to act as the Tribunal is ill or absent. At present only one person may be appointed to act as the Tribunal and may so act only during the illness or absence of the person appointed as the Tribunal or during a vacancy in the office of the Tribunal.

Schedule 13 amends the Seeds Act 1982 to enable inspectors to issue a notice ordering the owner or person in charge of a parcel of seeds or a plant who the inspector believes is guilty of an offence against section 5 of that Act by reason of selling the parcel of seeds or plant—

- (a) to retain possession or control of the seeds or plant for a period not exceeding 21 days specified in the notice; or
- (b) to treat the seeds or plant in the manner specified in the notice.

At present inspectors may issue such an order only in respect of a person who the inspector believes has committed an offence under section 8 of that Act.

Schedule 14 amends the Sheriff Act 1900 to create the offence of impersonating the sheriff or an officer of the sheriff and provides for proceedings for such an offence to be dealt with summarily before a Local Court constituted by a Magistrate sitting alone (Schedule 14 (5)). Schedule 14 also contains amendments by way of statute law revision (Schedule 14 (1)–(4)).

Schedule 15 amends the Soccer Football Pools Act 1975—

- (a) to repeal an obsolete provision of that Act relating to section 3 of the Unclaimed Moneys Act 1917 (which has been repealed) (Schedule 15 (1)); and
- (b) to modify the procedure whereby money paid as duty or additional duty to the Minister under the Soccer Football Pools Act 1975 is paid to the Sport and Recreation Fund so that the money may be paid to the Consolidated Fund and specially appropriated to the Sport and Recreation Fund (Schedule 15 (2), (3) and (4)).

Schedule 16 amends the State Drug Crime Commission Act 1985 to provide that a person of or above the age of 70 years is not eligible to be appointed as, or to act in the office of, a part-time member of the Commission. At present the limitation applies in respect of a person of or above the age of 65 years.

Schedule 17 amends the State Sports Centre Trust Act 1984—

- (a) to increase the number of trustees of the State Sports Centre Trust that may be appointed under section 5 of that Act from 7 to 9 trustees (Schedule 17 (1));
- (b) to repeal section 19 of that Act which has been superseded by the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984 (Schedule 17 (2)); and
- (c) to increase the number of trustees required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Trust from 4 to 5 trustees (Schedule 17 (3)).

Schedule 18 amends section 6 of the Stock Diseases Act 1923 (which relates to the appointment of inspectors and other officers and the authorisation of persons to act as inspectors)—

- (a) to make it clear that the Director-General of Agriculture may revoke appointments made under that section; and

- (b) to provide for the automatic revocation of appointments and authorities made or given under that section on the person appointed or authorised ceasing to be an officer or a temporary employee of the Public Service employed in the Department of Agriculture.

Schedule 19 amends the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Act 1978—

- (a) to increase the number of members of the Trust appointed by the Governor under section 6 (1) (a) of that Act from 10 to 12 members (Schedule 19 (2) (a));

- (c) to increase the number of members required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Trust from 7 to 8 members (Schedule 19 (4)).

Provision is made for the amounts to be credited to the Consolidated Fund and specially appropriated to the Funds instead of those amounts first being transferred to a special deposits account.

Schedule 21 amends the Transport Act 1930 to discontinue the requirement that motor vans be licensed under that Act. All motor vehicles which carry goods in the course of trade or business are required to be licensed under the State Transport (Co-ordination) Act 1931.

Schedule 22 amends the Workers' Compensation (Amendment) Act 1985 to make it clear that decisions of the former Workers' Compensation Commission in court session or in chambers are to be deemed to be decisions of the Compensation Court (which succeeded the Commission in regard to its judicial functions), constituted by a Judge of that Court, thus ensuring that decisions of the Commission can be reviewed, rescinded and so forth by the Court. The amendment replaces transitional regulations gazetted on 14 March 1986.

Schedule 23 amends certain other Acts for the purpose of effecting statute law revision. A number of amendments are made relating to formal drafting matters such as the form of references to subsections and paragraphs of sections, spelling mistakes, the omission of outmoded headings and the inclusion of certain consequential amendments.

Schedule 23 also contains amendments for the following purposes:

To amend a number of references to the Companies Act 1961.

To amend section 163E (5) (a) (i) of the Conveyancing Act 1919 to make it clear that the subparagraph relates to unsoundness of mind that affected the principal under the power of attorney at the time when the power of attorney was given and not, as at present, when the power was exercised.

To amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act 1913 so that an inappropriate reference to the making of regulations by the Minister refers instead to the making of regulations by the Governor.

To amend section 8 (3) of the Gas and Electricity Act 1935 to correct an inappropriate reference.

To amend Schedule 1 to the Miscellaneous Acts (Drug Misuse and Trafficking) Amendment Act 1985 to omit matter amending the Listening Devices Act 1984. The amendment is consequential to the amendment contained in Schedule 9.

- (b) to correct typographical errors.
