(2) The Chief Executive or person so authorised shall attest by his or her signature to the fact of the affixing of the seal.

(3) Every document requiring authentication by the Corporation may be sufficiently authenticated without the seal of the Corporation if it is signed by the Chief Executive or by a person authorised to do so by the Chief Executive.

(12) Schedules 1 and 2—

At the end of the Act, insert:

SCHEDULE 1—THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE

(Sec. 4B (2))

Age

1. A person of or above the age of 65 years is not eligible to be appointed as Chief Executive or to act in the office of Chief Executive.

Acting Chief Executive

2. (1) The Governor may, from time to time and on the recommendation of the Treasurer, appoint a person to act in the office of Chief Executive during the illness or absence of the Chief Executive, and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of the Chief Executive and shall be deemed to be the Chief Executive.

(2) The Governor may, at any time, remove a person so appointed from office.

(3) For the purposes of this clause, a vacancy in the office of the Chief Executive shall be regarded as an absence from office of the Chief Executive.

Term of office

3. Subject to this Schedule, a person appointed as Chief Executive shall hold office for such a period (not exceeding 7 years) as may be specified in the person's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

Chief Executive to be full-time officer

4. The Chief Executive shall devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of the office of Chief Executive, except to the extent permitted by this Act or by the Chairperson of the Corporation.

Treasury Corporation (Amendment) 1987

Remuneration

5. The Chief Executive is entitled to be paid—
- (a) remuneration in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975; and
 - (b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Treasurer may from time to time determine in respect of the Chief Executive.

Vacancy in office

6. (1) The office of a person appointed as Chief Executive becomes vacant if the person—

- (a) dies;
- (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed;
- (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Chairperson of the Corporation;
- (d) is removed or retired from office by the Governor under this clause;
- (e) reaches the age of 65 years;
- (f) is absent from duty for 14 days (whether or not wholly or partly consecutive) in any period of 12 months, except on leave granted by the Chairperson of the Corporation or unless the absence is occasioned by illness or other unavoidable cause;
- (g) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
- (h) becomes a temporary patient or a continued treatment patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1958, a forensic patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 or a protected person within the meaning of the Protected Estates Act 1983;
- (i) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable; or
- (j) engages in any paid employment outside the duties of the office of Chief Executive, except with the consent of the Chairperson of the Corporation.

(2) The Governor may remove the Chief Executive from office for incapacity, incompetence or misbehaviour.

(3) The Chief Executive may, after reaching the age of 60 years and before reaching the age of 65 years, be retired from office by the Governor and, if so retired, is entitled to such compensation (if any) as the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal determines.

Filling of vacancy in office

7. If the office of the Chief Executive becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

Treasury Corporation (Amendment) 1987

Public Service Act 1979 not to apply

8. The Public Service Act 1979 does not apply to the appointment of a person as the Chief Executive and a person is not, as Chief Executive, subject to that Act.

SCHEDULE 2—PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE RIGHTS OF CERTAIN STAFF OF THE CORPORATION

(Sec. 4C (7))

Definitions

1. In this Schedule—

“member of staff” means a member of the staff of the Corporation employed under section 4C (1) (other than a person employed on a temporary or casual basis), and includes the Chief Executive;

“proclaimed statutory body” means any body constituted by or under an Act that is declared by the Governor, by proclamation, to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule;

“superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under an Act.

Application

2. This Schedule applies to a member of staff only if the terms of employment of the member so provide and applies to such a member subject to those terms of employment.

Preservation of rights of staff previously public servant etc.

3. (1) This clause applies where a member of staff was, immediately before being employed as a member of staff—

- (a) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service;
- (b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;
- (c) an officer employed by a proclaimed statutory body; or
- (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act for the retention of any rights accrued or accruing to the person as an officer or employee.

(2) A member of staff—

- (a) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer, contributor or person;
- (b) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he or she was a contributor immediately before being employed as a member of staff; and
- (c) is entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,

as if he or she had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his or her service as a member of staff.

(3) Service as a member of staff shall be regarded as service as an officer or employee for the purposes of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he or she continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred.

(4) A member of staff shall be regarded as an officer or employee, and the Corporation shall be regarded as the employer, for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this clause.

(5) If a member of staff would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under the scheme—

- (a) he or she is not so entitled on becoming (whether on being employed as a member of staff or at any later time while a member of staff) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme; and
- (b) the provisions of subclause (4) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her and the Corporation in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

(6) Subclause (5) does not prevent the payment to a member of staff (on his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme) of such amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, because of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the scheme.

(7) A member of staff is not, in respect of the same period of service, entitled to dual benefits of the same kind through the operation of this clause.

Staff entitled to re-appointment to former employment in certain cases

4. A person who—

- (a) being a member of staff, ceases to be a member of staff because of the expiration of the period for which the person was employed or because of resignation;
- (b) was, immediately before being employed as a member of staff—
 - (i) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service; or
 - (ii) an officer or employee of a proclaimed statutory body; and
- (c) has not reached the age at which the person would have been entitled to retire had the person continued to be such an officer or employee, is entitled to be appointed to some position in the Public Service, the Teaching Service or the service of that proclaimed statutory body, as the case may be, not lower in classification and salary than that which the person held immediately before being employed as a member of staff.

TREASURY CORPORATION (AMENDMENT) BILL 1987

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The Public Authorities (Financial Arrangements) Amendment Bill 1987 is cognate with this Bill.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Treasury Corporation Act 1983—

- (a) to provide that the Treasury Corporation may, at the request of a local government council and during the period specified in the request, obtain financial accommodation for the purposes of the council's approved borrowing programme;
- (b) to provide that the affairs of the Treasury Corporation shall be managed by a Chief Executive instead of the Secretary of the Treasury, but subject to the policy and other directions of the Secretary of the Treasury;
- (c) to enable the Treasury Corporation to engage its own staff; and
- (d) for other purposes.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Clause 3 is a formal provision that gives effect to the Schedule of amendments to the Principal Act.

Clause 4 amends the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 to provide for the remuneration of the proposed Chief Executive of the Treasury Corporation.

Clause 5 enacts savings and transitional provisions.

Schedule 1 (1) amends the general definition section of the Principal Act. In particular the definition of "public authority" is extended to include councils and thereby extends the Principal Act to councils.

Schedule 1 (2) provides that the affairs of the Treasury Corporation are to be managed by a Chief Executive instead of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Treasury Corporation (Amendment) 1987

Schedule 1 (3) inserts proposed sections 4A-4C into the Principal Act.

Proposed section 4A authorises the Secretary of the Treasury to give policy and other directions to the Chief Executive in connection with the management of the affairs of the Treasury Corporation.

Proposed section 4B provides for the appointment by the Governor of a Chief Executive.

Proposed section 4C makes provision with respect to the staff of the Treasury Corporation. At present the Corporation utilises the staff of the Treasury. Under the new provisions the Corporation may employ its own staff, utilise the staff of the Treasury or other departments or engage consultants or agents.

Schedule 1 (4) contains consequential and statute law revision amendments.

Schedule 1 (5) is a consequential amendment.

Schedule 1 (6) and (7) provide that a council is not required to obtain financial accommodation through the Treasury Corporation unless it has requested the Corporation to obtain that financial accommodation. Any such request must specify the period during which the Treasury Corporation is to obtain the financial accommodation.

Schedule 1 (8) replaces the existing provision relating to the power of the Treasury Corporation to delegate its functions. Under the new provision a delegation is not restricted to Treasury or other departmental staff.

Schedule 1 (9) repeals accounts and audit provisions relating to the Treasury Corporation because that matter is now dealt with under the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983.

Schedule 1 (10) repeals annual report provisions relating to the Treasury Corporation because that matter is now dealt with under the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984.

Schedule 1 (11) makes provision with respect to the seal of the Treasury Corporation.

Schedule 1 (12) enacts ancillary provisions relating to the position of Chief Executive of the Treasury Corporation and preserves the rights of certain public servants etc. who are employed by the Treasury Corporation (including a public servant etc. appointed as Chief Executive).

Filling of vacancy in office

40 7. If the office of the Chief Executive becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

*Treasury Corporation (Amendment) 1987SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS—*continuedPublic Service Act 1979 not to apply

8. The Public Service Act 1979 does not apply to the appointment of a person as the Chief Executive and a person is not, as Chief Executive, subject to that Act.

5 SCHEDULE 2—PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE RIGHTS OF CERTAIN STAFF OF THE CORPORATION

(Sec. 4C (7))

Definitions

1. In this Schedule—

10 “member of staff” means a member of the staff of the Corporation employed under section 4C (1) (other than a person employed on a temporary or casual basis), and includes the Chief Executive;

15 “proclaimed statutory body” means any body constituted by or under an Act that is declared by the Governor, by proclamation, to be a statutory body for the purposes of this Schedule;

“superannuation scheme” means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under an Act.

Application

20 2. This Schedule applies to a member of staff only if the terms of employment of the member so provide and applies to such a member subject to those terms of employment.

Preservation of rights of staff previously public servant etc.

25 3. (1) This clause applies where a member of staff was, immediately before being employed as a member of staff—

(a) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service;

(b) a contributor to a superannuation scheme;

(c) an officer employed by a proclaimed statutory body; or

30 (d) a person in respect of whom provision was made by any Act for the retention of any rights accrued or accruing to the person as an officer or employee.

(2) A member of staff—

(a) shall retain any rights accrued or accruing to him or her as such an officer, contributor or person;

35 (b) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which he or she was a contributor immediately before being employed as a member of staff; and

(c) is entitled to receive any deferred or extended leave and any payment, pension or gratuity,

40 as if he or she had continued to be such an officer, contributor or person during his or her service as a member of staff.

(3) Service as a member of staff shall be regarded as service as an officer or employee for the purposes of any law under which those rights accrued or were accruing, under which he or she continues to contribute or by which that entitlement is conferred.

45

*Treasury Corporation (Amendment) 1987SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS—*continued

(4) A member of staff shall be regarded as an officer or employee, and the Corporation shall be regarded as the employer, for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this clause.

5 (5) If a member of staff would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (2) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under the scheme—

10 (a) he or she is not so entitled on becoming (whether on being employed as a member of staff or at any later time while a member of staff) a contributor to any other superannuation scheme; and

(b) the provisions of subclause (4) cease to apply to or in respect of him or her and the Corporation in any case where he or she becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

15 (6) Subclause (5) does not prevent the payment to a member of staff (on his or her ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme) of such amount as would have been payable to him or her if he or she had ceased, because of resignation, to be an officer or employee for the purposes of the scheme.

(7) A member of staff is not, in respect of the same period of service, entitled to dual benefits of the same kind through the operation of this clause.

20 Staff entitled to re-appointment to former employment in certain cases

4. A person who—

(a) being a member of staff, ceases to be a member of staff because of the expiration of the period for which the person was employed or because of resignation;

25 (b) was, immediately before being employed as a member of staff—

(i) an officer of the Public Service or a Teaching Service; or

(ii) an officer or employee of a proclaimed statutory body; and

(c) has not reached the age at which the person would have been entitled to retire had the person continued to be such an officer or employee,

30 is entitled to be appointed to some position in the Public Service, the Teaching Service or the service of that proclaimed statutory body, as the case may be, not lower in classification and salary than that which the person held immediately before being employed as a member of staff.
